ACT (assertive community treatment) model, 338 action (stage of change), 338 ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act, 1990), 285 adolescence: and blindness, 283–284; and LGB identity, 215, 219–220; and pregnancy, 184–185 adoption: and birth parents, 78, 133, 164, 174; by gay parents, 235; of institutionalized children, 404–408, 412–414 Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA, 1997), 78, 133 affective numbing, 359
African Americans: addicted mothers, 111, 125; and countertransference, 25–29; in criminal justice system, 47, 77–78, 420; homophobia among, 219. See also racism aftercare services, 322–326 age-related developmental issues: coming out, 220–221; LGB identity, 219–220 agoraphobia, 385
alien, use of term, 372, 376 ambient homophobia, 218–219 ambiguous loss, 368
ambivalence, client, 181, 199, 225–226, 337, 391–392 ambivalent (resistant) attachment, 19, 163 ambulatoria, 9, 80
American Sign Language. See ASL (American Sign Language) Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA, 1990), 285 amygdala, 34
anomie, 407
anticipatory grief, 352 anxious attachment, 162 “Ashbah,” 370
ASL (American Sign Language), 298; and countertransference, 317; expression in, 306, 314–315; as opposed to signed English, 300–302
Asperger syndrome, 246, 252 assertive community treatment (ACT) model, 338 attachment theory, 18–20, 160–166, 404–408; and child protective system, 160, 163–166; and mother’s addiction, 123; and trauma, 98–101; vision and, 269–273 attunement, 19–21, 102
audism, 314
autism spectrum disorders, 246–249 avoidant attachment, 19, 162 baby and beast metaphors, 144–151 battle fatigue, 354
Benedict, Ruth, 143
bestial impulses, 10
Bible, 266–267
bilingualism. See immigrant bilingual clients biological sex vs. gender, 207 Bion, W. R., 43–44
biopsychosocial perspective, 1, 33–36 bisexuality, defined, 208 black incarceration rates, 47, 77–78, 420 borderline personality disorder, 330 Bourdieu, Pierre, 49
Bowlby, John, 157, 160–163, 227, 404–405 brain scans of institutionalized infants, 405–406 Breaking the Cycle, 119, 132
Bulgarian child care under socialism, 397–404
Burlingham, Dorothy, 405
Burns, Ken, 349
California Proposition 8, 210
CAPTA (Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act, 1974), 159 caregivers: and attunement, 19–21, 102, 160–163; in Bulgarian orphanages, 404–407; case managers as, 340–342; demands on, 110, 340; infants recognizing as separate being, 66–69; team approach involving, 339–340 caring practice models, 131 Caring/Relational Framework (CRF), 131–132 case management. See clinical case management Catholicism and homophobia, 219
CCP (Community Crisis Program), 113 Center Cannot Hold, The (Saks), 34–35 Center for Deployment Psychology, 357 challenge, use of term, 263 Chestnut Lodge, 323, 324 child abuse: dynamics of, 186–187; leading to fighting, hoarding, 171–172; leading to sexualized behavior, 167–168, 171; scope and impact of maltreatment, 158–159
Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA, 1974), 159
Child Care and the Growth of Love (Bowlby), 405
child protective system, 157–158; attachment theory and, 163–166, 176–178; court investigation unit, 168–170; intake unit for referral and assessment, 166–168; legal mandate, 159–160; permanent placement units, 174–178; scope and impact of child maltreatment, 158–159; short- and medium-term units, 166–174 children: of addicted mothers, Christian tradition and homophobia, 219 civil unions, 235 class: and availability of psychotherapy, 80; middle-class social workers and lower-class patients, 86–98 classical autism, 246 clinical case management: assessment in, 334–338; components of, 328–330; engaging significant others in, 338–340; professional qualifications needed for, 329; providing an “environment-mother,” 331; psychodynamic factors in, 330–333; psychotherapeutic perspectives in, 340–343; transitional participant role in, 333–334. See also social worker cochlear implant surgery, 299–300 coming out, 220–221, 228 commitment decisions, 332 communicating cure, 116 Community Crisis Program (CCP), 113 community function, 335 community intervention, 320 Community Mental Health Act (1963), 322 comorbidity, 320–321, 366–367 compartmentalization, 122 compassion fatigue, 368–369 competent others, 338 confidentiality issues, 82–83, 252, 316, 338 connectedness, importance of, 283 connection, role of, 114–115, 126 containers, 43–45
contemplation (stage of change), 338 countertransference, 5–6; of case managers, 81, 332–333, 339; cultural, 390–391; and deaf/hard-of-hearing clients, 316–317; discussing with client, 223–225; immigrant bilingual clients, 390–392; and language, 98; in prison work, 59–60; and race, 26–27; and relational theory, 223–227, 229; and special-needs clients, 254–255; in trauma therapy, 362–365
CRF (Caring/Relational Framework), 131–132

Crisis intervention, 330
Critical race theory, 29–31
Cross leveling, 357
Cultural countertransference, 390–391
Cultural knowledge, 300
Culturally deaf population, 298, 300–301, 306–307, 315–317
Culturally sensitive practice, 124–126, 131–132

Day care, 401
Deaf/hard-of-hearing populations, 298–301; crises of misunderstanding and communication, 303–308; cross-cultural therapy approach, 308–309; culturally deaf population, 298, 300–301, 306–307, 315–317; educative therapy approach, 310; with hearing parents, 303–305; integrative therapy approach, 308–312; misdiagnosis/institutionalization of, 302; oppression and cultural insensitivity, 301–303; “passing” as hearing, 301; psychodynamic intervention, 312–314; relay services/videophone communication, 309; systems-ecological therapy approach, 309; therapy approaches for children, 311–312; use of interpreters in therapy, 307–309, 316; visual expression in, 306–307. See also ASL (American Sign Language)

Death-by-cop suicides, 360
Defense Task Force on Sexual Assault in the Military Services, 365
Deinstitutionalization: in Bulgaria, 408–412; in United States, 242, 244, 258, 322, 328 Department of Development Services (California), 242, 244 depersonalization of inmates, 54 depressive position, 54–57, 358–359 detailed inquiry, 335 developmental crisis, pregnancy as, 181 developmental disorders, 243–246, 336 developmental lines, 335 developmental wounds, 222–223 Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM), 214, 328 dialectical-behavioral therapy, 330 differentiation, 233 disability pride, 294
Disabled Fables, 256
Discharge plans, 332
dissociation, 354, 359–361, 369 domination, 151–153
Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell mandate, 209
doulas, 203
Down syndrome, 249–251
dreams, 103
drive theory, 10–11, 145
DSM (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders), 214, 328 dual identities, 219
Duke University Medical Center, 180, 187, 195–196 dynamic unconscious and racism, 143–148 educative therapy approach, 310 eo, 11–12, 145
eo diffusion, 359
embeddedness, 304 emotional expression: in ASL (American Sign Language), 306; in bilingual clients, 378–379, 381–388; in severe mental illness, 341–342 empathic curiosity, 144, 146, 194, 197–199, 316 empowerment model, 308–310 enactments. See reenactment enmeshment, 233
environment-mother, 331 essentialism, 30 evenly hovering attention, 2, 146 excessive closeness, 233 evergy function, 360
eye contact, 257
Eyes Apart, 289
Faces and Voices, 132
facial expression in culturally deaf, 306–307, 314 Fairbairn, W. R. D., 148 false self, 102, 216, 255, 275–276 families: institutionalization in Romania, 412–413; reunification concept, 159; same-sex, 231–236; of soldiers and veterans, 352–354, 367–368; Soviet view of, 401; with special-needs children, 245–255; therapy centered on, 125, 310. See also children; mothers; parents Family Maintenance and Family Reunification (FMFR) unit, 170–174
Fanon, Frantz, 147–148
FEARS symptoms of complex trauma, 359 felt sexual stigma, 211 femininity, 207
feminist relational theorists, 114–115 Few Good Men, A (movie), 363–364
Fir Square Model of Practice, 132 Flanagan, 55
flashbacks, 360
foster care, 84–85, 88–89, 158, 164
Foucault, Michel, 48
Fountain House, 322
Fraiberg, Selma, 98–99, 194 frame, therapeutic, 82–84, 92–95
Freud, Anna, 335, 405
Freud, Sigmund: countertransference, 223; evenly hovering attention, 2; and free clinics, 9–10, 79–80; id and superego, 146; on importance of love, work, 7, 283, 285, 289; libido, 145–146; nachtraglichkeit, 358–359; views of homosexuality, 212–213 Fromm-Reichmann, Frieda, 323
fugue state, 359
Gallaudet University, 299, 306 gangs in prison, 52
Gaull decision, 159
gay male couples, 233–234 gender, 207–209, 231–236 generative schema, 50 genetic predispositions, 33–34
“Ghosts in the Nursery” (Fraiberg et al.), 98–99, 117, 194
Glickman, Neil, 310–311
Index

Goodwin, Jean, 359
Gorbachev, Mikhail, 399
grandiosity, 102
Greenberg, Joanne, 323
Greene, Beverly, 23
group homes, 172, 175–176 guardianship, 175

habitus, 49–51
hard-of-hearing. See deaf/hard-of-hearing populations hardwiring of early patterns, 115 health insurance, 187–188 Healthy Family programs, 187 healthy narcissism, 217 heterosexism, 211
heterosexualism, defined, 208 high-risk pregnancies, 184–194, 197–199
Hinckley, John, 331–332
Hitoyasu (Prince), 266
HIV/AIDS, 229
Hogarty, Gerard E., 330, 338–339 holding environment: and bio-psychology, 116; consequence of its absence, 17–18; in early childhood, 14, 183, 216; in PTSD therapy, 361–362; social work interventions providing, 189–191; in therapy, 104, 314 Holocaust victims, 349
homeless, 75–79, 328
Homer, 266
Homes for Children Deprived of Parental Care, 402–404
homophobia, 211; effects of, 218–219, 228; issues for therapist, 225, 230; in military, 351
homosexuality: defined, 208; Freudian views of, 212–213; pathologizing and depathologizing of, 214–215; psychoanalytical views of, 212. See also sexual minorities hooks, bell, 23
Hope in the Unseen (Suskind), 13–14
Horus, 267
Hurt Locker, The, 347
hypervigilance, 354, 359

id, 11
idealization, 389
idealized selfobjects, 217 identity: and deafness, 300–301, 317; in different languages, 373; among immigrants, 376–377; and physical defects, 273–274

immigrant bilingual clients, 372–374; ambivalence among, 377; bilingualism defined, 96–98, 374; clinical recommendations regarding, 392– 393; countertransference, 390–392; experience of loss in, 375–376; factors affecting adjustment of,
375–376; identity and language, 373, 380–381; immigration trends and statistics, 374; and language independence phenomenon, 378– 379; refugees, 375–376; in therapy, 380–392; transference, 388–390;
underutilization of mental health services, 377–378
implicit relational knowing, 227
I Never Promised You a Rose Garden (Greenberg), 323
infants: attachment issues with blind, 269–273; impact of relationships on brain development of, 115–116; institutionalized, 402–406; mutual adaptation/interdependency with mother, 101–103, 112, 133–134; recognizing caregiver as separate being, 66–69; social environment, 34. See also children in-home services for high-risk mothers, 187 insecure attachment, 19, 161–163, 272–273 insistent caregiving, 162 Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis, 243 institutionalization: and aftercare services, 322–326, 412–416; of children in Bulgaria, 400–404, 407; of deaf/hard-of-hearing, 302–305; prisons and, 51–60
integrative approach for severe mentally ill, 328–330 intellectually challenged client, 242–243 internalization of boundaries, 403 internalized homophobia, 211, 224, 229 internalized object relations, 14–15 internalized sexual stigma, 211 internal parent, 149–150 International Federation of Social Workers, 132 interpersonal/intersubjective theorists, 115 intersectionality, 29–30 intersexed, defined, 207 intersubjectivity, 115, 222, 289–290 intrapsychic conflict, 147

Jennings, Cedric, 13–15
Jones, Ernest, 213
Jung, Carl, 182

Kardiner, Abram, 355–356
Keller, Helen, 266
Klein, Melanie, 53–55, 72, 358
knapsack of white privilege, 27–28
Kohut, Heinz, 217
Korean language, 386

L.A. GOAL, 241, 245, 247, 256–257 language: choice of in therapy, 381–388; early life, 378; and expression of trauma, 381–385; and power dynamics, 97–98; and superego anxiety, 385–388. See also ASL (American Sign Language) language independence phenomenon, 378–379 Lanterman Act (1977, California), 242 Latino population: homophobia among, 219; incarcerated women, 77; undocumented pregnant women, 184. See immigrant bilingual clients Lazy Eyes, 289
Learning and Teaching in the Practice of Social Work (Reynolds), 421
Leary, Kimberly, 98
Leber’s Congenital Amaurosis e-group, 289 legislation, anti-LGBT, 209–210 lesbian couples, 232–233 LGB (lesbian, gay male, and bisexual), 207. See also sexual minorities libido, 145–146
Lorde, Audre, 134
low vision. See blind population mainstreaming, 242

maintenance (stage of change), 338 marginalization, 304
Marx, Karl, 420
masculinity, 207
Masi, Terry, 247–248
Maternal Care and Mental Health
(Bowlby), 404–405
maturational arrest, 320
McIntosh, Peggy, 27–28
Medicaid, 187
medical model of deafness, 298, 300 medication and case management, 324–326, 339, 341
mental retardation, use of term, 242–243
microaggression, 25
military: Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell policy, 351; as a giant ego, 349; implications of all-volunteer force, 348, 350; National Guard, 348, 353, 367; racial equality in, 351; repeated deployments, 348; sexual trauma, 365–366; stigma of mental health help in, 357; understanding culture and structure, 357
Military Code of Conduct, 351
Milton, John, 266
mind-blindness, 44 minority sexual orientations. See sexual minorities
mirroring, 16, 227
mirroring selfobjects, 217–218 mirror neurons, 246
modeling, 342
monogamy, 233
mothers: addicted, 110–111, 123, 125; “good enough,” 183; identifying baby with father, 200; with infantici dal wishes, 199; of institutionalized children, 409–412; internal mother concept, 149–150, 361; postpartum support for, 187; prevalence of unmarried, 188; with special-needs children, 245–246; triple sense of identity, 181–182, 198–199; “welfare,” 188
motivational interviewing model, 337–338
Mullen, Mike, 351
multiple differences, 218–219 multiple identities, 29–30 multiple marginalized groups, 125 nachträglichkeit, 358–359
NAMI (National Alliance for the Mentally Ill), 326 narcissistic deficits, 218, 229 narrative communication form, 30–31
NAS (neonatal abstinence syndrome), 110
National Alliance for the Mentally Ill
(NAMI), 326
National Federation for the Blind
(NFB), 268
National Guard, 348, 353, 367
National Institute for Mental Health, 322 negative identities, 147 neglect, child, 158
neonatal abstinence syndrome (NAS), 110
neuroscience and brain development, 115–116
neutrality of therapist, 225 NFB (National Federation for the Blind), 268
nonactivated attachment system, 406–407
nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 399–400
nonmonogamy, 233
nonverbal modalities, 311–312

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu Obama, Barack, 154–155, 351 objectification, 66
object-mother, 331
object relations theory, 14–15, 17–18, 324
Oedipal issues, 353
Oedipus Rex, 266
online sex, 234
online social media, 288–289 Operation Homecoming, 370 orphanages, Bulgarian, 400–404, 408–412 Orzolek-Kronner, Catherine, 261 overcompensation, 289
overidentification, 173, 391 Panel on Mental Retardation (1960), 24 paranoid-schizoid position, 53–54, 359 parental rights, termination of, 78 parents: of deaf/hard-of-hearing children, 303–305, 310, 312, 315; in prison, 48; socialist state fulfilling role of, 401; of special-needs adults, 253. See also mothers; pregnancy pathogenic trauma, 355–356 peer relationships, 219–220 perestroika, 399
Pérez Foster, RoseMarie, 24–25 personal therapy, 330, 338 phantasy, 53
Phipps Clinic, 323
postmodernism, 222
postpartum envy, 186–187 post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 348; and comorbidity, 366–367; diagnosis and treatment of, 356–362; historical background on, 348–356; among refugees, 375 precontemplation (stage of change), 337–338 premature intervention, 338 preparation (stage of change), 338 Presidential Task Force on Evidence-Based Practice, 116 prisons: depersonalization in, 54; effect of constant threat of violence, 52–53; extrapenological function of, 47, 49; inmate culture, 60–63; inmates as both victim and perpetrator, 64; as institutions, 51–60; motivation of social workers in, 72–73; nested nature of, 45–47; normality in some populations, 47–48; possibility of exploitation of social workers, 58–59; post-traumatic stress disorder in, 63–66; substance abuse in, 64–65; therapy groups in, 61–62; United States, 47–51 privacy concerns, 82–83, 252, 316, 338 projection, 72, 100, 145 projective identification, 26, 92, 151–154, 248, 315–316, 324, 392 protective factors, 289 protest (attachment theory), 161 psychic determinism, 114 psychodynamic approach, 5–7, 421–422; consequence of lack in practitioners, 2–4; listening, 10; for special-needs clients and families, 249–258 psychological birth, 150 psychological reductionism, 141 psychopharmacology, 324–326, 339, 341 psychosexual development, 11 race: defining, 142; in prisons, 52; as social category, 142–143; as social construct, 30, 142–143; white social workers and nonwhite patients, 86–98, 192–193 Race and Racism (Benedict), 143 racism: black body symbolizing threat, 147–148; critical race theory, 29–31; as form of social dominance, 147; and incarceration rates, 47; leading to microaggression, 25; physiological stress caused by, 33; psychodynamic theories of, 21–22; and relational perspective, 148–150; toward immigrants, 376 reactive attachment disorder (RAD), 407 recovery advocacy movements, 132–133 reenactment, 6; countertransferential, 59, 98, 225, 392; and language of therapy, 314, 388; parent-child interaction, 81, 104, 117–119; privilege and power, 24–27; PTSD flashbacks, 360, 363 refueling opportunities, 375 refugees, 375–376

regression, 325–327, 336, 376–377 regressive dependency, 324, 333 relational disconnection, 111 relational perspective, 148–150 relational practice, 35, 81; with addicted mothers, 107–136; and addiction, 113–115, 131–136; and cultural awareness, 124–126; and culturally deaf clients, 312–317; effectiveness of, 115–116; infant/mother relationship as the patient, 110; and LGB clients, 221–227; longer-term approach, 128; reenactment, 117–118; and same-sex couples, 231–236; transference and countertransference in, 222–223 Relational Psychotherapy Mothers’ Group (RPMG), 119 relay services/videophone communication, 309 repressed memory, 99–100, 360 repression, 145
rescue approach, 407
resilience, 34, 281–283, 289, 375 resistance to change, 5 resistant attachment, 19, 163
Reynolds, Bertha, 421
Richmond, Mary, 8, 422
right-hemisphere theory, 116, 127 role models, 288, 313
role-play therapy, 312
Roma families in Bulgaria, 408
Romania, 404, 407
Saks, Elyn, 34–35
same-sex marriage, 209, 231–236
Samson Agonistes, 266
schizophrenia, 326–330, 336
Searles, Harold, 323
secondary trauma, 368–369
secure attachment, 19, 160–161
secure base, 19, 227
Searles, Harold, 323
Saks, Elyn, 34–35
same-sex marriage, 209, 231–236
Samson Agonistes, 266
schizophrenia, 326–330, 336
Searles, Harold, 323
secondary trauma, 368–369
secure attachment, 19, 160–161
secure base, 19, 227
self-awareness, 311
self-esteem, 273–281
self-harming behavior, 359–360 selfobjects, 217
self psychology, 15–18, 217–218, 391 self-stigma, 211
self-victimization, 44 separation anxiety, 272–273 separation-individuation process, 269–270, 283, 377 severe mental health disorders: defined, 320; historical context of care, 322–328 sexual discrimination, 209–211 sexual drive (libido), 145–146 sexual identity formation, 220 sexual minorities: and adoption, 235; coming out, 220, 228; defined, 206–207; developmental issues of, 215–221, 229; guidelines for work with, 227–231; same-sex couples, 231–236; and shame, 229–230; and therapist self-disclosure, 224–227; treatment considerations with, 221–222 sexual object choice, 206, 208 sexual orientation/sexuality, 208 shame, 229–230, 273–281, 386–387 shell shock, 354
Shepard, Matthew, 210–211
Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Hospital, 323 sight impaired, use of term, 263 sight loss, 268–269, 273–277 slavery, legacy of, 23 social care approach: clinical case management, 328–340; historically, 322–328; objectives, 321–322, 342–343; psychotherapeutic perspectives, 340–342 social contexts, 31–32
Social Diagnosis (Richmond), 422 social dominance, 147 social-emotional reeducation, 310 social functioning, 335 socialism and institutionalization in Bulgaria, 397–399 social justice advocacy, 132 social marginality, 304 social oppression, 22–24 social recovery, 327
social splitting, 23
Soldier’s Creed, 350
special-needs adults: clinical issues specific to, 251–254; developmental disorders, 243–246, 336; historical shifts in diagnosis, 242–243; overview, 241–242; psychodynamic therapy for, 249–251 splitting, 23, 53–54, 151, 377 staff patients, 187–189 stance toward clients, 144 stepping stone approach, 337 stigma, forms of, 211
strange-situation procedure, 405–406 stress, effects of, 33
subjective experience, 222 subjectivity, 66
Suchet, Melanie, 95
suicidality, 215, 288, 335, 357, 359–360, 381
Sullivan, Annie, 266
Sullivan, Harry Stack, 36, 71, 323, 327
superego, 146, 162
Suskind, Ron, 13–14
symbolic communications, 46 tatoos, 197
team approach to social care, 338 Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), 113 therapeutic alliance, 146, 227–228, 311, 361 therapeutic frame, 82–84, 92–95 therapeutic regression, 324 therapists: and deaf/hard-of-hearing clients, 306–317; and formerly institutionalized clients, 412–416; and institutionalized clients, 368–369; as multicultural brokers for deaf clients, 309–310; and PTSD clients, 360–365; and secondary trauma, 368–369; self-disclosure issues, 224–225; and special-needs clients, 254–257; and visually impaired clients, 289–294 transference, 5; in case management, 330; dealing with, 118, 415–416; discussing with clients, 223–224; with intensive case managers, 5, 81; and prejudice, 26; relational approach and, 222; and special-needs clients, 254–255; in trauma therapy, 362–365 transgendered, defined, 207 transition, countries in, 397, 417 transitional objects, 170, 333 transitional space, 83, 417 trauma dynamics, 25–26, 45, 98–101, 253 traumatic brain injury, 348 trisomy 21, 249–251
true self, 216
Turner, Brian, 370
unemployment, 12, 288–289

Vermont State Hospital, 322
vicarious trauma, 361
Vietnam War veterans, 348–349 visitation rights, 235 visually challenged, use of term, 263 Wacquant, Loïc, 47
war neurosis, 355
war trauma. See post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) Washington School of Psychiatry, 323 weathering, 33
Welcome Baby programs, 187 welfare mothers, use of term, 188 white privilege, 27–30
Williams, Tennessee, 141
Winnicott, Clare, 331, 333–334
Winnicott, Donald, 66–67, 101–105, 216–217, 331 Wolff, Peter, 9
women: incarcerated, 77–79; and military sexual trauma, 365–366. See also mothers work, importance of, 285 working class and racism, 30 World War II veterans, 349
zabavachka, 398
Zeanah, Charles, 405–406
Zisca, 265–266