

Page numbers in italics refer to figures and tables.

- Abbott, Andrew, 145
- absences, strategic, 160
- activism: M. Berry on, 153; of black professional associations, 178; definition of, 87; outside of social movement organizations, 70; in professions, 174, 175; of UCC, 114
- activists: IOSM, 158; and NCSW, 154; organizing within institutions, 167; recruiting, 166
- activists, black, organizational structure for, 151
- Adams, James, 110
- Addams, Jane, 69, 72, 73, 75, 77, 153; and African American uplift, 154; role in civil rights movement of, 83
- adoption, transracial, 4, 147–48; alternatives to, 137; and best interest of children, 138; and black expertise, 145; discourse on, 169; pressure for, 136–37
- adoption agencies, 136, 137
- adoptions, international, 137
- advocacy work, of NFS, 77–78
- affirmative action, 51
- affirmative action standard, of CSWE, 129
- African American, use of term, 191n1
- African Americans: CSWE task force for, 129–30; degree-holding, 121; education data for, 49–50; employment rates for, 50; excluded from professional associations, 52; impact of Black Power movement on, 25; intelligence testing for, 57; mainstream, ix; and NCSW 1968 conference, 123; racial loyalty of, 138; in social work profession, 16, 67; strategic absences of, 160; and unequal power relations, 157; in white collar jobs, 146. See also social workers, black
- African American teachers organization, 40
- Afro-American Patrolmen's League, xiii
- Alexander, Sandra Carlton, 17
- Alinsky, Saul, 101, 102
- Alinsky organizations, 80
- Allen, Loma, 82, 94
- American Anthropological Association (AAA), 60
- American Association of State Social Work Boards, 134–35
- American Indians, CSWE task force for, 129
- American Library Association (ALA): Black Caucus of, 58–59; Statement of Concern presented to, 59
- American Psychological Association (APA), ABPsi demands presented to, 55–57

- American Sociological Association (ASA): CBS caucus of, 58; criteria for acceptance of papers of, 58; resolutions of black sociologists submitted to, 57–58
- Aminzade, Ronald, 108, 166
- Andrews, Kenneth, 192–93n14
- anger: focus on black, 164; white, 173. See also emotions
- anthropologists, black professional associations for, 60–61
- antipoverty programs, of Great Society, 17–18, 22
- anti-riot bill, 40
- archival sources, 186–87
- Asian Americans, CSWE task force for, 129
- Association of Black Anthropologists (ABA), 60, 65
- Association of Black Catalysts, 119; in Chicago, 125; Code of Ethics of, 120, 121; standards of, 120–21. See also National Association of Black Social Workers
- Association of Black Psychologists (ABPsi), 55; logos of, 64
- Association of Black Sociologists (ABS), on Trayvon Martin case, 177–78. See also Caucus of Black Sociologists
- Atlanta School of Social Work, 17
- Austin, John, 95, 96, 108–9, 110
- Baker, Ella, 33
- Baraka, Imamu Amiri, 42
- Barnes, Sandra, 178
- Barrett, Janie Porter, 16–17
- Bates, Louis, 122–23, 125
- Batiste-Roberts, Gloria, 177, 178
- Beck, Bertram, 111
- beloved community, 32–33, 162
- Benson, J. Kenneth, 68
- Berkeley School of Social Welfare (BSSW), charges of discrimination at, 126
- Berry, Edwin C., 105
- Berry, Margaret, 82, 86, 96, 97, 163, 195n17; and black associate director, 99–101; and Cincinnati conference, 108; commitment to integration of, 111; on community control, 105; and H. Gans's article, 102; on NFS Black Caucus, 107; on NFS leadership, 110; at 1968 NFS conference, 109; on 1969 NCSW annual forum, 117–18; resignation of, 100; on Techni-Culture Conference, 95; work in Pittsburgh's Hill district, 153
- Berry, Phillip, 134
- Bethune, Mary McLeod, 17
- Better, Shirley, 2, 119, 122, 126, 136, 148, 185, 187
- Big Five, x
- “Bill of Rights, Black,” 62
- Biondi, Martha, 26
- black, use of term, xi, 144, 191n1
- black activists, and NFS, 107
- black capitalism initiative, 43
- Black Caucus Journal*, 125, 138, 139
- Black Caucus of American Library Association (BCALA), 58–59
- Black Caucus of NFS: demands and proposals of, 90, 91–93; position paper of, 92–93
- Black Caucus of Settlement Workers, 20–21, 23. See also Techni-Culture Movement
- black community, and NABSW, 141
- black dissent, internal, 88
- “black faces in higher places,” 37–39, 41, 97
- black freedom movement, x, 191n2
- black liberation movement: defined, 138; institutionalization of, 21, 192–93n14; makeup of, 27; periodization of, 27, 28; and redefinition of race, 9; studies of, 4; time period for, 7
- black liberation movement and social welfare, 76–78; civil rights actions, 78–84; Mississippi Project, 85–87; with rapid social change, 84–85
- Black Manifesto* (Forman), 40–41
- Black Metropolis* (Drake and Clayton), 84
- “Black Muslims,” xi
- Black Panther Party, 22, 35–36, 58, 61, 63, 174; community self-help programs of, 36; health related social programs of, 26; manifesto of, 53–54

- Black Power: black faces in higher places variety of, 41; and black professional associations, xii; challenges to NFS of, 102; and civil rights movement, ix, 26, 30; defined, 38, 43–44, 44; emergence of, 34–37, 37; in federal politics, 63; historiography of, 22; as ideological phenomenon, ix, xii–xiii; ideology of, 144–45; impact of, 25; in institutional spaces, 2–3; language of, 49; in mainstream organizations, 44; revisiting, 174–76; and SNCC radicalism, 34; sociological literature on, 26; white resistance to, 174
- Black Power: The Politics of Liberation* (Carmichael and Hamilton), 37–38, 119, 199n3
- Black Power activists, work of, 35
- Black Power Conference, first national (1967), 39–41
- Black Power conferences, 41
- Black Power discourse, around social action, 76
- Black Power era: American organizations during, 158; black professional associations during, 46, 174–75; black professional mobilization during, 18; black professional organizing in, 148; black rage and white guilt during, 163; gender dynamic of, 143; professional norms during, 139
- Black Power movement, xiii, 3; in academic research, 25; and black middle class, 146–47; black organizing in, 168; and black professionalism, 121–22; and black professionals, 148, 149; and black social workers, 3, 15, 146; civil rights movement compared with, 37, 62–63; compared with IOSMS, 150–51, 150; effect on social work of, 22; focus on institutional racism of, 159; history of, 30–37; impacts of, 171–72; institutionalization of, 4; in international political environment, 36; long-term impacts of, 21; makeup of, 27; marginalization of, 171; “nation building” strain of, 43; and Nation of Islam, xi–xii; and NFS, 89; and NFS Black Caucus, 92–93; in organizational spaces, 2; political context shaped by, 38; popular conceptions of, 24; scholars of, 26; and settlements, 111–12; shift in focus of, 159; social work during, 66–69; state repression of, 36, 193n4; suppression of, 27–28; tactics of, 36, 37, 53; and Techni-Culture Movement, 113
- Black Power studies, 25–26; subfields of, 193n1
- The Black Sociologist*, 58
- black studies departments, 22, 26, 45; Afrocentric curricula in, 38–39
- black studies movement, 29
- black studies programs, demands for, 36–37
- Black Task Force, CSWE, 130, 131
- Body and Soul* (Nelson), 26
- Bonilla-Silva, Eduardo, 10
- Brabson, Vic, 1
- Bradley, Stefan, 26
- Brown, Andy, 94
- Brown, Charlotte Hawkins, 17
- Brown, Rap, 43
- Brown v. Board of Education*, 6, 31, 75
- Brunson, Herbert, 85–86
- Burns, Andrea A., 26
- Carlton-LaNey, Iris, 16, 17
- Carmichael, Stokely (later Kwame Ture), 37–38, 40, 44, 93, 100, 145, 175, 194n2, 199n3; Black Power speech of, 34–35; on white responses to Black Power, 161
- casework, 71; money management of, 73; role of, 74
- caseworkers, 71
- Catalysts, 115; Code of Ethics of, 135. See also Association of Black Catalysts
- Caucus of Black Anthropologists, at AAA meeting, 60. See also Association of Black Anthropologists
- Caucus of Black Sociologists (CBS), 58, 65. See also Association of Black Sociologists

- charity agencies, 71
- Chicanos, CSWE task force for, 129
- Child Development Group of Mississippi (CDGM), 85
- child rearing practices, 72
- Child Welfare League, adoption standards of, 137
- child welfare system, racism in, 179
- Chisholm, Shirley, 62
- Christian values, and civil rights movement, 32–33
- Chunn, Jay, 119, 130, 135, 187
- church, black, and civil rights movement, 32–33
- Cincinnati Enquirer*, 110
- cities, inner, 74, 111. See also urban riots
- civil disobedience, in Black Power movement, 36
- civil institutionalization, 11, 14–15; of black liberation movement, 30; defined, 157
- Civil Rights Act (1964), 33, 50
- Civil Rights Act (1968), 33
- civil rights activists, and public opinion, xi
- civil rights era, 5; and racial structure of U.S., 7
- civil rights leaders, and Black Power, ix
- civil rights movement, xiii, 171; assimilationist approach of, 31–32; and black church, 32–33; and Black Power, xii, 30; and black professionals, 149; compared with Black Power movement, 37, 62–63; compared with IOSMS, 150–51, 150; direct action phase of, 31, 193n2; effect of Black Power on, 26; heroic period of, 31–34; integrationist goals of, 31; legal gains of, 13; and Nation of Islam, xi; and NFS, 89; outcomes of, 12; social work during, 66–69; and social work organizations, 22–23; Southern vs. Northern, 87; timeline of, 32
- civil society: Black Power movement in, 28; race in, 5; racialized norms and practices in, 11; and ruling class, 8; use of term, 192n13
- civil sphere, institutionalization of movements into, 158
- Clarke, Cheryl, 143
- Clay, Rep. William Lacy, 61
- Cloward, Richard, 114, 199n3
- Code of Ethics*, of Catalysts, 135
- code of ethics, of NABSW, 140–41
- COINTELPRO, 37, 193n5
- Colburn, Fern, 77
- colonialism, internal, 61
- Committee on Status of Racial and Ethnic Minorities in Profession, of ASA, 58
- community, black, as “research colony,” 57
- Community Action Programs (CAPs), 45, 46, 51, 67; conflict around, 68; control over, 68; maximum feasible participation of, 67–68, 83; relative success of, 68; War on Poverty, 67
- community chests: formation of, 72; reliance on, 73
- community control: and settlement movement, 105; in settlements, 108
- community programs, in Mississippi, 85
- “Confab in Black,” 119, 121
- Congressional Black Caucus (CBC), 61; Nixon’s State of Union address boycotted by, 160
- Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), x
- Connelly, Will, 143
- Cothran, Tilmon, 58
- Council on Social Work Education (CSWE): and curricular transformation, 128; and institutionalized racism, 127; new diversity curriculum standard of, 132; nondiscrimination standard of, 129
- counter-centers, within organizations, 158
- Crenshaw, Kimberlé Williams, 5
- crime, 74
- cultural development, Black Power Conference mandate for, 40
- cultural institutionalization, and social movements, 12
- curricula, social work: demand for change in, 159; guidelines for, 132; human behavior content in, 130; impact of

- black pressure on, 132; practicum and methods area of, 132; social welfare policy and services sequence in, 131; task forces for, 129–30; white-centered, 128.
See also education, social work
- “Declaration of Independence, Black,” 62
- Delaney, Lenore, 1
- De Mau Mau, 164
- Democratic Select Committee, 61
- Detroit, Association of Black Social Workers in, 114, 123
- Detroit Revolutionary Union Movement (DRUM), 94, 196n8
- Dialogue with Black Power* (informational packet), 103
- “dirty workers,” 93
- dissent, black, in NFS, 89–93
- diversity, contemporary forms of, 175
- diversity industry, 172
- diversity politics, 173
- Drake, St. Clair, 84
- Drake Report*. See Race Relations in Time of Rapid Social Change
- Dryden, Denis, 81
- Du Bois, W. E. B., 16
- Dutschke, Rudi, 29–30
- Ebony* (magazine), 41, 100
- economic development, black, 40
- Economic Opportunity Act (1964), 50, 51, 67
- education: African-American access to, 49–50. See also higher education
- education, public, segregation outlawed in, 31
- education, social work, 131; curricular change in, 128–29; focus on diversity of, 169
- educators, black social work, 130
- Ehrenreich, John H., 69, 72
- Eisenhower administration, 74
- electoral power: African American, 41
- elites: Black, 176; and casework model, 73; within NFS, 108; responses to dissent of, 175
- emergent mobilization framework, in social movements, 149–51
- emotional displays, appropriate, 204n6
- emotional labor, 19, 24, 161–67, 204n6
- emotions: equated with irrationality, 166; power and, 167; in race relations, 164; within social movements, 107–108, 110–11, 166; sociology of, 166–67
- employment, African-American access to, 49–50
- equal access, and black dissent, 90
- Equal Employment Opportunity Act (1972), 50, 51
- Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), 50
- “equality of results,” 62
- Evers, Charles, 86
- Executive Order 1124, 33
- exit and voice, 19; emergent mobilization framework, 149–51, 150; emotional labor, 161–67; implications and outcomes, 167–70; IOSMs, 157–61; leadership and strategic decisions, 154–57
- experience, black American, 130
- expertise, racial definition of, 145
- faculty: black, 45; and curricula changes, 168
- families, African American/Black, 47; in Moynihan Report, 46–47; and transracial adoption, 136, 137
- Feagin, Joseph, 7, 9
- fear, white, 163; and “Mau-Mauing,” 164
- Federal Work Study, 475
- feminism, and men in NABSW, 143
- FileMaker Pro record template, 183, 184
- Fisk University, social work study at, 17
- Five Towns Community House, New York, 78–79
- flank effects, 26
- Forberg, Janice, 94
- Forman, James, 40
- Foucault, Michel, 8
- frame analysis, role of leadership in, 155
- Freedom Centers, in Mississippi, 86, 87

- Freedom Movement, in Mississippi, 86
 Freedom Neighborhood Centers, 85
 Freeman, Harry, 103
 “friendly visitors,” practice of, 71
- Gannon, Mrs. G. F., 94
 Gans, Herbert, 80, 102
 Gary, Larry, 1
 “gatekeepers,” vs. advocates for change, 122 gender: in NABSW dynamic, 143; in social movement process, 185–86
 German student movement, 29
 ghettos: black, 74; racial, 48 ghetto living, restructuring, 131
 Gilkes, Cheryl Townsend, 52
 Glasgow, Douglas, 115, 123, 126–27, 187
 Glick, Lester, 95
 Glide Memorial Church, 2, 115, 116, 144
 Goddard Riverside Community Center, 80
 Goldman, Peter, 27
 graduate programs: black students in, 56; minorities in, 66–67
 Gramsci, Antonio, 29, 55
 Great Society programs, 17–18, 22, 45, 48, 49, 50; indigenous nonprofessionals hired for, 67–68
 Green, Robert, 57, 64–65
 Greene, William, 121
 guilt, white, 172
 Gurr, Ted, 165
 Gwynn, Tom, 104–5
- Haines, Herbert, 26
 Hamilton, Charles V., 37–38, 44, 93, 100, 114, 119, 125, 145, 175, 199n3
 Hamilton-Madison House, New York, 79–80
 Hardy, Eleanor, 103
 Harrison, Michael I., 19
 Hartford Community Centers, 106
 Hatcher, Mayor Richard G., 41
 Haynes, Elizabeth Ross, 16
 Head Start, 51; in Mississippi, 85
 hegemony, 8
 helping professionals, black, 18
 Henry Street Settlement, New York, 111
 Herstslet, Gordon, 109
 Higginbotham, Evelyn Brooks, 17 higher education: African American/black access to, 17, 49–50. See also graduate programs hip-hop culture, 3
 Hirschman, Albert O., 19
 histories, oral, 185–86, 187
 Hochschild, Arlie, 204n6
 Hope, Lugenia Burns, 16
 Houston Community Center, Philadelphia, 103
- identity: black, 171, 182; organizational, 13, 151–54
 identity, professional: for black social workers, 145; developing, 138–40; developing black, 139–40 identity politics, 173
 identity work, 64–65; of black professional associations, 141–42; in NABSW movement, 144 immigrants, European, 82
 individual change model, 71 inequality: racial, 8; resistance to, 9; and social institutions, 157 inner cities, and settlement house movement, 111. See also urban riots Inner City Violence, NFS Conference on, 91
 institutional change, 182
 institutionalization: of black liberation movement, 21; of Black Power politics, 5; civil, 11, 14–15, 30, 157; cultural, 12; movement, 181–82, 182; organizational, 12, 19–21; political, 11–12; of social movements, 12–14, 159; of social work, 15–18 institutional settings: race relations in, 6; for racial politics, 7–8 institution building, 44, 51 institutions: access to, 171; racial hierarchy of, 8 integration: and black dissent, 90; and Black Power, 84–85; as goal of

- settlement movement, 84; NFS's commitment to, 102; transition to, 172
- integration, school: and ALA, 59; efficacy of, x; resistance to, 31
- integrationism, NFS's commitment to, 95
- integrationist philosophy, 95
- intelligence testing, for African Americans, 57
- International Association of Black
Professional Fire Fighters, logos of, 64
- interracial relationships, in Black Power era, 110
- interracial staff, principle of maintaining, 84
- interviews, oral history, 185–86
- intra-organizational social movements (IOSMs), 13; analyses of, 161;
conceptual model of, 157–61; creation of, 14; emergent mobilization framework for, 149–51, 150; functions of, 158–61, 159; to institutionalize movement goals, 158; tactics for seeking change of, 14; work of, 162. See also
National Association of Black Social Workers
- IQ testing, racism in, 57, 179
- irrelevance, defined, 153
- issue maintenance, 160
- Jackson, Rev. Jesse, 43, 199n3
- Jackson, Judith D., 176
- Jagers, Garland, 118, 122–23, 125, 144, 187
- Jani, Jayshree S., 129
- Jasper, James M., 107
- Jeff, Morris, 99
- Jet* (magazine), 100
- Job Corps, 51
- Johnson, Audreye, 115, 119, 122, 123, 125, 136, 141, 142, 143, 144, 176
- Johnson, Frederick, 80
- Johnson, Lathan, 124–25. See also Karanja, Sokoni
- Johnson, Pres. Lyndon B., 45, 47, 48;
Executive Order 11375 of, 51
- Johnson administration, 49; antipoverty policies of, 17–18, 22, 45, 48, 50, 67–68
- Jones, Eugene K., 17
- Joseph, Peniel, 43
- Karanja, Sokoni, 124–25, 142–43, 186, 187
- Katzenstein, Mary Fainsod, 192n12
- Kelley, Robin D. G., 15
- Kennedy, Pres. John F., Executive Order
10925 of, 51
- Kerner, Otto, 47
- Kerner Commission, 47–48, 59;
Kerner Report. See Report of the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders
- Kidneigh, John C., 117
- Killian, Lewis, 19, 31
- King, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther, Jr., x–xi, 1, 32, 49; assassination of, 150; on goal of civil rights movement, 162
- Ladner, Joyce, 53
- Lasch-Quinn, Elizabeth, 172–73
- leadership: black ascendancy to, 108;
NABSW, 168; NFS, 110; role of settlement, 111; for social movements,
154–55; TCM, 168
- leadership, black, white reaction to, 163
- leadership, black male: need for, 93; in settlements, 108; in social service agencies, 101
- leadership, white, 173; in settlements, 109
- legislation, civil rights: impact of, 5; limits of, 6; and SNCC, 33. See also specific law
- legislation, Great Society, 51
- legitimacy, organizational, 152, 167
- Leonard, Benjamin, 78
- Lewis, Ron, 126
- liberation movement, black professionals
in, 119
- librarians, black professional association
of, 58–59
- licensure: and black expertise, 145;
introduction of, 133; opponents of,
134–35; proponents of, 161
- Logan, Arthur, 97–98
- Mahoney, James, 155
- Malcolm X, xi, 34, 134, 1942

- Maniha, John K., 19
- Marable, Manning, 42
- March on Washington, 23; NFS participation in, 77, 78–79, 80, 81; Poor
People's, 114, 116
- Market Street Neighborhood House,
Louisville, 81
- Marshall, Justice Marshall, 41
- Martin, Trayvon, 177–78
- “massive resistance,” 31, 193n2
- Mau Mau: and Black Power, 161–62; origin of term, 204–5n7
- Mau-Mauing, use of phrase, 164
- Maximum Feasible Misunderstanding*, 67
- maximum feasible participation, 18, 67
- Mayes, Keith, 26
- mayoral politics, black, 22
- mayors, black: Charles Evers, 86; Richard
G. Hatcher, 41; Carl B. Stokes, 41;
Harold Washington, 43
- McAdam, Doug, 26–27, 108, 149, 150, 166
- McCarthyism, of 1950s, 75
- media, and Black Panther Party, 35
- “melting pot,” myth of, 104
- men, black: dominance in NABSW of, 142,
143; projecting strong image of, 142
- mental hygiene movement, 72
- Meredith, James, 34
- methodology, 181–83, 184; archival sources,
186–87; descriptive database system,
183; oral histories, 185–86, 187
- middle class, black: Black Power influence on, 25, 176; characteristics of, 146–47;
and employment, 50; in mainstream institutions, 44
- militant politics, 103
- Miller, Coleman, 86
- Minority Business Enterprise, Office of, 43
- minority communities, reorganization of settlements in, 96
- Minority Fellowship Program, of ASA, 58
- “minority rights revolution,” 75. See also
rights revolution
- Minority Specialist position, of ASA, 58
- minority staffing, in social work education, 130
- Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party
(MFDP), 85–86
- Mississippi Freedom Movement, 85
- Mississippi Project, 85–87, 88
- Mississippi Sovereignty Commission, 86, 196n35
- mobilization framework, in social movements, 149–51
- Model Cities administrations, 46
- monitors, black professional associations as, 141–42
- The Monitor* (San Francisco), 143
- Montgomery bus boycott, 32
- Moore, Wendy, 161
- Morris, Aldon, 154–55
- Mount Pleasant Community Center,
Cleveland, 79
- movement institutionalization, 182
- Moynihan, Daniel Patrick, 46–47,
48, 67
- Moynihan Report*. *See The Negro Family:
The Case for National Action*
- MSW students, diversity among, 133
- Muhammad Ali, xi
- Muhammad Speaks*, xi
- multicultural frame, for TCM, 156–57
- multiculturalism, 157, 173; contemporary forms of, 175
- mutual aid, 16
- narratives, in TGPT, 181
- National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), x, 17, 59; and Jane Addams, 83; and Plessy decision, 31
- National Association of Black
Accountants, logos of, 64
- National Association of Black Catalysts,
115. See also Association of Black
Catalysts
- National Association of Black Journalists (NABJ), xiii
- National Association of Black Social Workers (NABSW), xii, xiii, 1, 21,
44, 66, 69, 116; accountability to Black community of, 122–24; activist

- orientation encouraged in, 140;
and black behavior, 144; and black marginality in profession, 124–26;
Black Power influence in, 176; code of ethics of, 140–41; compared with Techni-Culture Movement, 113; and curricular transformation, 128–33;
demands submitted to NCSW by, 118,
128, 156; dialogue with NCSW sought by, 118–19; emergent mobilization framework for, 149–51, 150; gender dynamic of, 143; and institutionalized racism, 126–28; issue maintenance of,
160–61; leadership of, 155, 168; legacy of, 177; and licensure, 133–35; logos
of, 64; at 1969 NCSW annual forum, 117–18; New York State chapter of, 136;
origins of, 2, 4, 23–24, 119–20, 121, 142,
176; policies and norms advocated by,
159; position statement of, 126; and professional identity, 112, 138–40; and racism in social work practice, 135–38; separation from NCSW of, 20; social action of, 152; tactical repertoires of,
159–60; ultimatum made to NCSW,
155, 156
- National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses, 52
- National Association of Colored Women
(NACW), 17
- National Association of Social Workers
(NASW), 20; black caucus at, 114; and civil rights movement, 75; and institutionalized racism, 127; and licensure requirements, 133; National Social Action Workshop on Urban Crisis of, 114, 19912
- National Bar Association, 52
- National Black Economic Development
Conference (1969), 40
- National Black Political Convention
(1972), 41–42
- National Center for Education Statistics, 49
- National Conference of Black Lawyers, 53
- National Conference on Charities and Casework (NCCC), 72
- National Conference on Social Welfare (NCSW), 4, 20, 23, 70; black dissent in, 19; and civil rights movement, 75;
1969 forum, 156; and institutionalized racism, 127; NABSWS's demands submitted to, 127, 154, 156; 1968 and 1969 conferences, 1, 70, 90, 114–16, 117,
123; organizational identity of, 152–54;
organizational legitimacy of, 152; racial tradition of, 154; settings for meetings of, 76; unresponsiveness and resistance of, 115; walkout of black social workers from, 114–16; as white institution, 128
- National Democratic Convention (1972), 42
- National Federation of Settlements (NFS), 4, 19, 20; black associate director for, 99–101; black dissent in, 89–93; black social workers in, 23; civil rights activism of, 81–87; and civil rights movement, 75; on community control, 104; Conference on Inner City Violence of, 91; and crisis of relevance,
101–12; Drake Report, 84; elites within,
108; 43rd National Conference of,
82; 45th Annual Conference of, 90;
goal of, 107; leadership at, 95, 107;
and 1964 March on Washington,
23; and Mississippi Project, 85; New Directions Committee of, 92, 106,
110; organizational identity of, 152–54;
organizational legitimacy of, 152; 1974
public relations campaign of, 100–101;
racial tradition of, 154; reorienting of, 76–77; restructuring of, 111; SEA committee of, 82; social action practice and policy of, 76–77; and social change, 87–88; and Southern civil rights movement, 86–87; “stance taking” of,
77; subcommittee on civil rights of,
80–81; Techni-Culture Committee of,
113; Techni-Culture constituency of,
112; and Techni-Culture Movement, 153
- National Federation of Settlements (NFS)
Black Caucus: demands of, 106;
reactions to, 107

- National Federation of Settlements (NFS)
Board: and black dissent, 90; lack of representation on, 106–7; restructuring of, 93; and TCC demands, 97; TCC representation on, 98, 99
- nationalism, black: racial integration merged with, xii; territorial separatism of, xii
- National Medical Association, 52
- National Society of Black Engineers, logos of, 64
- National Urban League (NUL), x, 17, 82, 83
- National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), at 1969 NCSW annual forum, 117–18
- Nation of Islam, xi, 34; and Black Power movement, xi–xii; and civil rights movement, xi
- Negro, use of term, xi
- The Negro Family: The Case for National Action (Moynihan Report)*, 46–47, 49, 142
- neighborhood resources, community control over, 68
- Nelson, Alondra, 26
- Newark Rebellion (1967), 39, 41
- New Deal, 73
- “New Directions for Settlements,” of NFS
Black Caucus, 92, 106, 110
- News From the Natives*, 60–61
- New York Review of Books*, 161
- New York State Association of Black Social Workers, 134
- Nixon, Pres. Richard M., 43, 160; and CBC, 61–62; Executive Order 11478 of, 51
- Nixon administration, 61
- “nonprofessionals,” black, 68
- norms: of interracial interaction, 171; new professional, 175; professional, 142; racial, 5
- Obama, Pres. Barack, 43
- Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO), 85, 163
- Ogbar, Jeffrey, ix–xiii, 66
- Okada, Shig, 81
- Omi, Michael, 8, 9
- Operation PUSH (People United to Serve Humanity), 199n3
- oral histories, 185–186; guiding questions for, 187; respondents, 187
- organizational change, records of, 186
- organizational culture, 13
- organizational identity, 13, 151–54
- organizational institutionalization, 12, 19–21
- organizational processes, 182
- organizations: access to, 171; counter-centers within, 158; institutionalization of, 19–21; movement-like processes in, 193n16; movements within, 13–14; and social movements, 19
- Page, Mrs. Anderson, 109
- Palmer Memorial Institute, 17
- “paper activism,” 70
- Parks, Rosa, 32
- Peters, Richard, 106
- Philadelphia Friends Neighborhood Guild, 103–4
- Pitkin, Hanna, 202n74
- Pittman, Betti, 100
- Piven, Frances Fox, 199n3
- Plessy v. Ferguson*, 31
- police brutality, 35, 54, 86
- political institutionalization, and social movements, 11–12
- political opportunity models, 165–66
- politics: diversity, 173; identity, 173; impact of Black Power movement on, 42–43; mayoral, 22; militant, 103; race, 7–8, 174; of respectability, 17
- politics, black, 39–43; assimilationist Black political culture in, 30; context for, 38
- politics, Black Power, 27;
institutionalization of, 5; in social work profession, 14; and TCM, 23
- poor, black: “otherness” of, 49; rightful guardian of, 147; white patronization of, 175
- Poor People’s March on Washington, 114, 116. See also March on Washington
- Portelli, Alessandro, 185

- post-civil rights era, 6
- Poussaint, Alvin, 114, 199n3
- poverty, 59; in American core cities, 74; black, 47; restructuring, 131
- Powell, Rep. Adam Clayton, 39
- power: and emotion, 167; of establishment, 107
- power-holders, emotional responses of, 108. See also elites
- power relations: embedded in society, 8; maintenance of, 173; and social movements, 7; and wars of position, 8
- practice, social work: Afrocentric visions of, 147; history of, 71; racism in, 135–38
- profession, social work: gender dynamic in, 143–44; service/activism tension in, 70–76; and social change, 169
- professional associations: Black Power-era, 148; functions of, 176–79; national social work, 13
- professional associations, black, xii–xiii, 3, 22, 46, 49, 146; for anthropologists, 60; during Black Power era, 53, 174–75; creation of, 51, 158; development of, 5; emergence of, 51–54; founding of, 29, 29, 188–89; identity work of, 64–65; influence of black power on, 63–64; for librarians, 58–59; logos of, 63, 64; monitoring function of, 65–66; origins of, 52; position statements of, 54; and professional equality, 65; protest wing of, 65; of psychologists, 55–57; racial norms in, 5; and racial solidarity, 170; sociologists, 57–58
- professional associations, social work: response to Black Power of, 173
- professionalism: black, 146; of social workers, 72
- professionalization: expertise as central to, 145; and social action, 18; of social work, 153
- professional organizing, black, 175
- professionals, black, xiii, 148; and Black Power ideology, 172; and Black Power movement, 4; and black revolution, 119–20; impact of Black Power on, 52; self-determination for, 53; social workers, 121; standards for, 120–21
- professionals, Black Power: in post-civil rights racial order, 169; rise of, 45–49
- professional style, for black social workers, 140
- professions: activism in, 174, 175; black mobilization in, 13; black organizing within, 174–75; impact of Black Power movement on, 3, 21; increased African American presence in, 45; institutional changes within, 172; institutional forms of racism in, 66
- Progressive Era, 16, 17
- promotion, and black social workers, 125
- protests: of black professional associations, 65, 141–42; student, 103
- Prunty, Howard, 118, 155
- psychoanalytic theory, 72
- psychological instruments, misuse of, 56, 66
- psychologists: black professional association of, 55–57; and racism in IQ testing, 179
- publications, social work, 125
- public opinion, and civil rights activists, xi
- Puerto Ricans, CSWE task force for, 129
- race: academic work on, 169; origins of, 10; redefinitions of, 9; social construction of, 9
- Race Experts* (Lasch-Quinn), 172–73
- race politics, 7–8, 174
- race relations: in institutional life, 6; in transition, 172–74; white reactions to black movements in, 164
- Race Relations in Time of Rapid Social Change* (Drake Report), 84–85, 88
- race riots, effect on social work of, 22. See also urban riots
- race work, of African American social workers, 16
- racial formation theory: classic theory of, 8; concepts of, 10
- racial hierarchy, 5
- racial ideology, development of, 10

- racial integration, black nationalism merged with, xii. See also integration
- racialized social systems, 10
- racial understandings. in Black Power era, 110
- racial uplift ideology, 16
- racism: in child welfare system, 179;
 colorblind, 6; defined, 37, 93; forms of, 37; hidden structures of, 48; institutional, 159, 199n3; in IQ testing, 179; and meaning, 8–9; NABSW's challenge to, 123; in post-civil rights era, 6; resistance to; of social organizations, 7–8; in social work practice, 135–38; systemic, 9
- racism, American: gender dynamic in, 144; S. Carmichael on, 162
- racism, institutionalized, 37, 59, 66, 93; in licensure battle, 135; and NABSW, 126–28; and social work curricula, 131, 132
- racism, white, 55; Black Power challenge to, 53; calling out, 138; confronting, 95–96, 171; focus on, 57; S. Carmichael on, 162; and white social workers, 92. See also Kerner Commission
- Radical Alliance of Social Service Workers (RASSW), 134
- Radical Chic and Mau Mauing the Flak-Catchers* (Wolfe), 163
- radical flank effect, 26; in social activism, 89
- radicalism, black: white liberal fetishization of, 163
- Rainwater, Lee, 93
- Rank and File movement, 73–74
- rational choice theory, 168
- recruitment standards, CSWE, 128–29
- Reed, Adolph, 175–76
- Reid, Henry, 97, 99
- “relative deprivation,” 165
- relevance, racial justice definition of, 153
- reparations, call for, 40–41
- “repertoires of contention,” 14
- Report of the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders (Kerner Report)*, 49, 54, 55, 63, 114, 116, 150
- representation, types of, 202–3n74
- Republic of New Afrika, 36, 86
- research: of APA, 56; archival, 181; oral history, 185–86
- “re-segregation,” ix
- resentment, white, 173
- resource mobilization theory, 165–66
- respectability, politics of, 17
- “revolutionary shame,” 163
- Rhodes, Al, 86
- Ricks, Willie, 34–35
- rights revolution, 182; institutionalization of, 192–93n14
- riots: of late 1960s, 48. See also urban riots
- Robinson, Cedric, 30
- Rogers, Ibram, 26
- Rojas, Fabio, 26, 158
- Roosevelt, Pres. Franklin D., 73
- Ross, Charles, 119, 144
- Rustin, Bayard, 146
- Rutgers Housing site, 80
- Sanders, Charles, 130, 138–39
- Scott, Will, 1
- self-defense: as Black Power Conference mandate, 39–40; and Black Power movement, 36
- self-definition, and Black Power movement, 36. See also identity
- self-determination: as Black Power Conference mandate, 39–40; and Black Power movement, 36; for black professionals, 53; in Mississippi Project, 85
- self-help, 16; Black Panther Party survival programs, 36; and Black Power movement, 36; in Mississippi, 85
- self-reflection, and professional style, 139
- self-respect, as Black Power Conference mandate, 39–40
- self-sufficiency, as Black Power Conference mandate, 39–40
- Sells, Halloway “Chuck,” 96, 98, 99–100, 111, 155–56; integrationist vision of, 156
- settlement house movement, 75, 107; and community control, 105; and inner cities, 111
- settlements: S. Alinsky's critique of, 101–2; black male leadership in, 108; critiques

- of, 101–2; role of, 104; white leadership in, 109
- settlement work, origins of, 83. See also National Federation of Settlements
- settlement workers, 71; and issue of community control, 104–5
- settlement workers, black: in Black Power era, 89; separate conference for, 94–95; and white racism, 92
- settlement workers, minority, 96
- settlement workers, white, and New Directions process, 92
- Silcott, T. George, 1, 2, 70, 135
- sit-in strategy, 33
- Skocpol, Theda, 182
- Smart, Walter, 99, 100, 101, 186
- Smith, Robert, 112
- Smith, Zelma, 176
- Snow, David A., 155
- social action: institutionalized forms of, 70; NFS practice of, 77
- Social Action Methods* (Colburn), 77
- social activism, and radical flank effect, 89. See also activism
- social change: for black social workers, 18; process of, 182; and race relations, 84–85; social movements as agents of, 165
- Social Education and Action (SEA) committee, of NFS, 82
- social movements, 7; early theories of, 164–65; emergent mobilization framework for, 149–51, 150; environment for, 19; expressions of anger in, 164; function of emotion in, 107–8, 110–11; gendered processes in, 185–186; institutionalization of, 11–14, 159; institutionalized politics and, 166; intra-organizational (IOSMs), 13; leadership of, 154–55; and organizational identity, 151–54, 168; in organizations, 13–14, 19; outcomes of, 169; and power relations, 7; race-based, 10–11; rationality of participation in, 165; rational vs. irrational social behavior in, 165; state-centered studies of, 21; study of, 148; study of emotions in, 166. See also intra-organizational social movements (IOSMs)
- social pathology, popular protest as, 165
- social psychology, 166
- social service agencies, black male leadership in, 101
- social services, and social change, 87
- social welfare and black liberation movement, 76–78; civil rights actions, 78–84; Mississippi Project, 85–87; with rapid social change, 84–85
- social welfare policy, and power, profit and privilege, 131
- social work: in black experience, 16; black insurgency in, 71; during civil rights and Black Power movements, 66–69; functions of, 71; institutionalization of, 15–18; position of black social workers in, 145; professionalization of, 153; psychiatric, 72; racism of, 124; Rank and File movement in, 73–74; service/activism tension in, 71–76; “white,” 135
- social work, schools of, during Black Power era, 68–69. See also curricula; education
- social workers: dissenting, 71; in ghetto, 16; identity of, 75; reform-oriented, 73; role of, 70
- social workers, African American/black, 45, 134; activism of, 142; and Black Power movement, 3, 22, 30–31, 76, 146; and CAPs, 51; challenges for, 168; C. Hamilton’s influence on, 44; collective actions of, 12–14; emotional labor of, 161; and emotional reactions of whites, 167; employment of, 126; grievances of, 123; issue maintenance of, 160; licensure and, 133, 134; and National Conference on Social Work (1968), 70; at 1968 NCSW annual forum, 116; at NFS conference (45th), 90; opposed to NABSW movement, 147; as “outsiders within,” 14, 145; positionality of, 145; post-civil rights demands of, 112; and power sharing, 15; private documents of, 182; as professionals, 121, 138–40; during Progressive Era, 17; and social change, 18; tactics of, 124; at Urban Crisis Conference, 115; white social workers’ reactions to, 18

- social workers, white, 2; in black communities, 72; and civil rights movement, 150; and community control, 105; emotional responses of, 167; and inner-city violence, 91–92
- Social Work* (journal), 80, 102, 111
- social work organizations, and civil rights movement, 22–23. See also specific organizations
- social work profession, African American workforce of, 46. See also social workers
- society, racial structure of, 10
- sociologists, black professional association of, 57–58. See also Caucus of Black Sociologists
- solidarity, racial, 169–70
- Sons of Watts, 123
- Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), x
- Southfield Neighborhood Center, in Stamford, CT, 106
- Staggenborg, Suzanne, 154
- “stance taking,” of NFS, 77
- Standard 1234, 129
- Standard 1234A, 129, 132
- “Stand Your Ground” legislation, 178
- Stern Family Fund, 85
- Stokes, Mayor Carl B., 41
- Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), x; as Black Power advocate, 27; formation of, 33; radicalism of, 33–34
- student protests, police repression of, 103
- students, and curricula changes, 168. See also curricula
- Stuyvesant Community Center, Brooklyn, 81
- suburbanization, white, 74
- Supreme Court, U.S., first black justice on, 41
- systemic racism, 9
- Taylor, Lea, 94
- Taylor, Murtis, 79
- TCM: criticism of, 157; leadership of, 155, 168; policies and norms advocated by, 159; social action of, 152; tactical repertoires of, 159–60
- Techni-Culture Committee (TCC) of NFS, 113; demands presented by, 97; disbanded, 100; goals of, 98–99; and youth representation, 97
- Techni-Culture Conference (TCC): multicultural organizing model for, 96; planning for, 95; rationale for, 95; reactions to, 109; successes of, 96–97
- Techni-Culture Movement (TCM), 20–21, 23, 148, 163; black organizing in, 168; and Black Power movement, 113; emergent mobilization framework for, 149–51, 150; NFS response to, 153
- theory guided process tracing (TGPT), 181
- Tinajero, Antonio, 96
- training programs, of APA, 56
- Trolander, Judith, 108, 110, 163
- Ture, Kwame. See Carmichael, Stokely
- Turner, Ralph, 19
- Tuttle School, 17
- Twenty-fourth Amendment (1965), 33
- undergraduate programs, black students in, 56
- unemployment: for African Americans, 50; restructuring, 131
- unions, social worker, 74
- United Auto Workers (UAW), 94
- United Freedom Movement, 79
- United Neighborhood Houses of New York, 97
- United States: black power’s impact in, 3; racialized social structure of, 8–9; and school segregation, 6; systemic racism of, 9
- United Way, 72
- Universal Negro Improvement Association, xii
- Upward Bound, 51
- Urban Crisis Conference (UCC), 105, 136, 142; participation in, 114–15
- Urban League, 43
- urban rebellions, 37, 186
- urban riots, 41, 47, 49, 76; Kerner Commission on, 116; and settlement agencies, 102; in Watts neighborhood, 122

- Vietnam War, black soldiers returning from, 164
- visibility, black, 38
- voice. see exit and voice
- Voting Rights Act (1965), 33, 61, 194n1
- wars of position, 8
- Washington, Harold, 43
- Watts neighborhood of Los Angeles, 122
- Watts Rebellion of 1965, 35
- welfare. See also National Conference on Social Welfare
- welfare, associated with blackness, 75
- Wells-Barnett, Ida Bell, 16, 17
- West, Michal O., 44
- West Side Community House, Cleveland, 81
- white flight, 6, 41, 59, 74
- white liberals, 162
- white supremacy, explicit forms of,
x
- Wiley, George, 117
- Wilkins, Roy, ix
- Williams, Cenie, 139–40
- Winant, Howard, 8, 9
- Wolfe, Tom, 163, 172
- women, and NABSW, 142, 143
- women, black: race work of, 16–17; in social welfare, 16
- working class, American, 72
- World War II, racial dynamics of, 74
- Young, Whitney, 43, 82

