

- accountability demands, 18. See also performance monitoring
- actions. See activities, toward change
- activities, revenue-generating, 130–31
- activities, toward change, 34–35, 36f, 37–40. See also behavioral logic; business of change; idea generation; politics of change
- adversarial intermediaries, 68, 101. See also corporate officials
- advocacy, 251–52
- Afghanistan, fair trade in, 210
- Africa, 109, 139–40
- aging population, 14
- agricultural technology, 181, 182, 183, 185
- AIDS, 25, 26, 140. See also Khosa, Victoria Akshaya Project, 171–72
- alternative distribution, 199, 208, 212, 220
- alternative trade. See fair trade
- alternative trade organizations (ATOs), 199, 208
- Annapurna iodized salt brand, 170–71
- Ashoka, 125
- Association for Social Advancement (ASA), 177
- Aurolab, 143, 144
- authority, 8, 160. See also governments
- Avarind eye hospitals, 143–44
- Baggio, Rodrigo, 245
- Bandhan Financial Services, 177
- Bangladesh, 138–39
- barriers to entry, 76
- basic functioning improvements, 54–56
- behavioral change, 43–45. See also change
- behavioral dynamics: of bottom of the pyramid (BOP) development, 167–69; of corporate social responsibility (CSR), 82–89; of fair trade, 204–6; of social entrepreneurship (SE), 128
- behavioral expectations, 47–48. See also cultural sensitivity
- behavioral logic, 36f, 38–39, 40; of indigenous technology creation (ITC), 181–83; of microenterprise development, 174–75; of social entrepreneurship (SE), 137
- behavioral models, 36f, 38–39, 40, 288–89n9
- behavioral theory of change, 30, 31, 32
- Ben and Jerry's ice cream, 97
- beneficiaries, 10, 34, 225t, 229–30; capabilities, 48; of corporate social responsibility (CSR), 85t; decision-making agency and, 42, 164–66, 200; determination of, 45–48; financial contributions of, 47–48, 253; idea generation and, 38; merit considerations and, 47; roles in political development approaches, 62–69; of social entrepreneurship (SE), 149. See also empowerment, client benefit delivery, 52, 261–62. See also specific market-based approaches
- benefits, 226t; bottom of the pyramid (BOP) development, 169f; community, 173; corporate social responsibility (CSR), 91f, 96f, 102f; cost versus, 117–18; defined, 33–34; delivered, 226t, 234–35; fair trade, 207f; indigenous technology creation (ITC), 184f; participatory, 44; profits versus, 252; social entrepreneurship (SE), 136f; timing of, 49–51; types of, 53–59, 55t; for women, 175

- Bono, 23
- bottom of the pyramid (BOP) development, 160, 162–67, 169f; behavioral dynamics of, 167–69; beneficiaries, 225t, 229, 287n4; benefits, 226t, 235; case examples, 170–72; change agents, 225t, 231; corporations and, 233, 256–57; empowerment and, 250; innovation and, 227t, 238; intermediaries, 226t, 232; management and, 228t; participant involvement and, 237; political development and, 169–70; political interactions, 228t; scaling, 227t, 241; sustainability, 227t, 240; technology and, 292n3
- bottoms-up approach, 148–49
- Bowen, H. R., 80
- boycotts, 104–5, 108, 113–14
- branding, 99; fair trade, 209, 217
- Brazil, 245
- Brin, Sergey, 22
- Buffett, Warren, 22
- bureaucratic constraints, movement away from, 146
- business logic, 31
- business of change, 36f, 39–40, 71–75, 270–71
- business plans, 173–74
- business principles, 147–49, 151
- business skills, 145, 148, 191, 212–13, 246–47
- Cafédirect, 211–12
- Calvert group, 108
- capital development, 55t, 56–59
- case examples: bottom of the pyramid development (BOP), 170–72; fair trade, 209–12; indigenous technology creation (ITC), 184–86; pressure-based approaches, 110–11; social entrepreneurship (SE), 137–44
- celebrities, 23
- cell phones, 19
- certified fair trade labeling process, 199–201, 204
- Chaney, G., 110–11
- change agents, 34, 225t, 230–31; bottom of the pyramid (BOP) development and, 169f; characteristics of, 145; corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 91f, 96f, 100, 101–3, 102f, 105–6, 119–20; defined, 33; fair trade and, 207f, 212–13; government collaboration and, 9; government tension and, 262–64; ideological exposure, 6–7; indigenous technology creation (ITC) and, 184f; interdisciplinary links between, 279; lessons for, 267–77; private sustainable development (PSD) and, 184f, 190–92; roles in political development approaches, 62–69; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 136f; technology and, 19; skills needed, 119–20, 212–13, 257–59. See also idea generation; philanthropists
- change efforts, 33. See also specific market-based approaches
- change: behavioral, 43; beneficiaries of, 45–51; benefits delivered from, 53–60; business of, 36f, 39–40, 71–75; conditions receptive to, 75–76; location of delivery and, 51–53; logic models and theories, 44–76; politics of, 60. See also politics of change; political development approaches and, 60–70; venues for, 70. See also political development approaches; specific market-based approaches
- child benefits, 175
- child labor, prevention of, 211
- classification schemes, 53–54
- cleanwashing, 114–15, 156, 194, 217–18, 221
- client-centered microfinance, 174
- coffee, fair trade, 211–12
- Coleman Foundation, 125
- collaborations, cross-professional, 125, 246
- commercial financing, 131
- Committee for Democracy in Information Technology (CDI), 245
- Committee on Community Engagement of the Centers for Disease Control Prevention, 290n13
- communication, 52

- communication skills, 119–20
- community benefits, 173. See also benefits
- community context, 52–53
- community development, 204–5
- community engagement model, 64–66, 68–69, 290n13
- community members, corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 85t, 87
- community participation, 42, 155, 250, 281; indigenous technology creation (ITC) and, 181; poor consumers and, 164–66; private sustainable development (PSD) and, 181, 188. See also empowerment; indigenous participation
- comparative analysis, 6, 29, 31–32
- computers. See personal computers
- conceptual framework, 4
- conditions of success, 75–76; fair trade and, 213–14; private sustainable development (PSD) and, 192–93
- conflict models, 66–68
- consensual orientation, 237
- consumer needs, 164–66
- consumer-driven fair trade approach, 195–97. See also fair trade
- consumers: behavior of, 113; corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 85t, 86–87, 101, 103–4, 232; ethical motivation of, 205–6, 208, 221; institutional, 104; poor, 164–66; role of, 10–11
- consumption patterns, responsible, 195, 274–77
- consumption-based products, 160
- control groups, 178
- corporate ethical training, 92–93, 291n1
- corporate ethics, 92, 93, 280
- corporate excess, 189–90
- corporate lobbyists, 106
- corporate officials, 101, 103, 105, 106–7. See also adversarial intermediaries
- corporate practice change, 82–89
- corporate responsibility classifications, 84–86
- corporate social responsibility (CSR), 34, 79–80, 121–22; behavioral dimensions, 82–89; beneficiaries and, 225t, 229; benefits and, 226t, 235–36; business skills and, 247; change agents and, 225t, 231; consumers and, 232, 275; corporations and, 233, 256–57; externally driven, 100–111; fair trade versus, 196, 201; historical perspective, 80–82; innovation and, 227t, 239; intermediaries and, 226t; internally driven, 89–100; internal leadership development process, 91f; internet as a tool for, 120–21; investors and, 232–33; limits of approach, 111–17; management and, 228t; measuring and monitoring, 117–19; participant involvement, 238; performance monitoring of, 256; political interactions and, 228t; scaling, 227t, 242; skills needed for, 119–20; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 126–27; sustainability, 277t, 240, 248
- corporate target selection, 115–16
- corporations: fair trade and, 201, 209, 217–19; as intermediaries, 233; power of, 78–79, 122; social responsibility and, 16. See also globalization; multinational corporations
- cost of entry, 146
- cost of fair trade production, 214
- cost, short-term developmental, 166
- cost-benefit analysis, 117–18, 119
- coverage, unevenness of, 8
- creaming, 154, 188–89, 252–54
- creative destruction, 129
- creativity, 145, 244. See also innovation
- crisis remediation, 54–55, 55t
- cultural considerations, developmental success and, 192
- cultural difference, 24, 249. See also cultural sensitivity
- cultural sensitivity, 357–59, 271–74
- curriculum content, corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 92–93, 94
- customer loyalty, 96–97, 113
- Dees, J. Gregory, 124
- deflection of attention, 156, 221. See also cleanwashing; greenwashing

- democratic character, 155
- democratic participation, 200
- demographic need considerations, 45–46
- demographic patterns, as a challenge to program sustainability, 14–15
- developing world: fair trade in, 197; poverty in, 24–28; social problems of, 3. See also specific market-oriented approaches
- development extent, fair trade, 196–97. See also reach; scaling
- development process: bottom of the pyramid (BOP) development, 169f; corporate social responsibility (CSR), 91f, 96f, 101–7, 102f; fair trade, 202–4, 206, 207f; free market capitalism, 161; indigenous technology creation (ITC), 180–86, 184f; scaling and, 249; social entrepreneurship (SE), 136f
- developmental failures, 148
- differential focusing, 29
- digital divide, 20
- direct models, 62–64
- direct practice social work, 33
- distorted development, 12, 162
- Doherty, B., 218–19
- donors, 72–73, 142
- double bottom line corporate social responsibility, 81, 95–99
- Drayton, Bill, 131
- Dulany, Peggy, 282
- earned income ventures, 73
- Echoing Green, 125
- economic development, 2–3, 128. See also specific market-based models
- economic downturn, 13–14
- economic globalization. See globalization
- education indicators, 27
- education, as a benefit, 57
- education, entrepreneurial, 125–26
- Edwards, Michael, 282, 283
- effectiveness monitoring, 50
- efficiency considerations, 270–71
- employee concerns, corporate, 85t, 85–86
- employee loyalty, 96–97
- employment, 27. See also job creation
- empowerment, client, 175, 178–79, 250–51, 271–74
- enhanced security, 54, 55t
- entrepreneurial education, 125–26
- environmental degradation, 87–88
- environmental factors, change model effectiveness and, 76
- environmental sustainability, 59, 99, 206, 236; customer decision making and, 277
- ethical leader approach, 92, 94–95, 112
- ethical trade. See fair trade
- ethical training, corporate, 92–93, 291n1
- ethics, corporate, 92, 93
- Europe, fair trade in, 196
- evaluation, process and outcome, 73–74
- examples. See case examples
- existing organizations, as social entrepreneurship (SE), 134–35
- expansion, program. See scaling
- expansion decisions, 51
- expertise, specialized, 246
- exploitation, 162, 190
- external advocates, 82
- external corporate social responsibility (CSR), 100–111
- external funding, 17–18. See also financing
- external talent: financial, 73; technological, 75
- externalities, 293n2
- fair trade, 33, 68–69, 195, 202–4, 221–22; behavioral dynamics of, 204–6; beneficiaries, 225t, 229; benefits, 226t, 234; business skills and, 247; case examples, 209–12; change agents, 225t, 231; conditions of success, 213–14; consumer-driven approach, 195–97; corporations and, 233; historical development, 197–202; innovation and, 227t, 239; intermediaries, 226t, 233; management and, 228t; markets, 275–76; participant involvement, 237–38; performance monitoring of, 255; political development, 206–9; political interactions, 228t, 237; possibilities and limitations, 215–22; scaling, 227t, 242; skills needed

- for, 212–13; sustainability, 227t, 240, 248. See also free trade certification; socially responsible consumption
- fair trade certification, 199–201, 204, 219
- fair trade movement, 195, 197, 198, 201, 208, 218, 219–20
- fair trade towns, 202
- Fair Trade USA, 219
- Fairtrade Labeling Organizations International (FLO), 200, 202
- feedback loops, 36f, 40
- field partners, 142
- financial capital, 55t, 56
- financial need considerations, 45
- financing, 72–73; commercial, 131; community engagement model, 64, 66; direct model, 64; external, 17–18; governmental, 17–18, 146–47; innovative strategies for, 143–44, 149–50; limited, 146; market-oriented, 149–50; micro-, 139, 142; operational, 19–20; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 143–44
- fiscal sustainability, 240, 252
- Fisher, Martin, 186
- Flannery, Jessica, 141
- Flannery, Matt, 141
- Follesdal, A., 11
- Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations, 27
- for-profit social service agencies, 254–55
- Fortune at the Bottom of the Pyramid* (Prahalad, 2005), 162
- Foxconn Technology, 121
- free market capitalism, 161–62
- Fridell, G., 195, 197, 200, 215, 217, 219–20
- Friedman, Milton, 83
- functioning, higher levels of, 56–57
- funding. See financing
- funding agents, 66
- fundraising, 72, 143. See also financing
- Gates, Bill, 22
- gender conflict, 179
- general framework for social change approaches, 35–40, 36f. See also social change approaches
- geographic delivery area, 51
- geographic linking, 19–20
- Gill, R., 110–11
- Global Philanthropists Circle, 282
- globalization, 14, 81. See also corporate social responsibility (CSR)
- GoodWeave International, 205, 210
- government contracts, 9, 263
- government funding, 17–18
- government ineffectiveness, market-oriented response to, 5
- government officials, corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 105, 106
- government regulations, 8, 266–67; of corporations, 106; economic, 161
- government spending, welfare and, 12–13
- governments: alternatives to provision by, 16–24. See also market-based change approaches; economic development and, 161; fair trade and, 201–2; innovation and, 264–66; private sustainable development (PSD) and, 171; relations with market-oriented approaches, 8–9, 228t, 260–62; relations with the non-profit sector, 17; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 146–47; struggles of, 11–16; tension with social programs, 262–64. See also government contracting; government ineffectiveness; government provision; government regulations
- Grameen Bank, 138–39, 160, 177
- Grameen Phone, 245
- grants, 73, 263
- grassroots efforts, fair trade and, 199
- Green, David, 143, 144, 246
- greenwashing, 114–15, 156, 194
- health expenditures, 14
- health indicators, 26
- Hindustan Level Ltd. (HLL), 170
- human capital, 55t, 56–57
- human capital theory, 30, 32
- idea generation, 31, 36f, 37–38, 40, 41, 42–43
- imaging. See branding

- implementation process, 30–32, 36f, 37–40;
social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 127,
128–32, 148. See also idea generation
- income improvement, 234–36
- income inequality, 21–22
- India: fair trade in, 210–11; microloans in, 143, 170, 178, 179
- indigenous community development, 18, 250
- indigenous participation. See community participation; empowerment, client
- indigenous producers, 200, 204
- indigenous technology creation (ITC), 160–61, 180–81; behavioral logic of,
181–83; beneficiaries, 226t, 229; benefits,
225t, 235; case examples, 184–86; change agents, 225t, 230; conditions of success, 193; empowerment and, 250; innovation and, 227t, 238; intermediaries, 226t, 232; management and, 228t; participant involvement and, 237; political development, 183–84; political interactions and, 228t; scaling, 227t; strengths, 187; sustainability, 227t, 240; technology and, 292n3
- individual interests, 152
- individual level change, 38–39
- ineffective intervention, 50–51
- information outlets, 268–69
- information technology, 18–21; distribution, 171; as human capital, 57; wealth generation and, 22. See also technology, new
- infrastructural development, 55t, 59
- infrastructure, public health, 26
- infrastructure, service delivery and, 15–16
- initial engagement, corporate social responsibility (CSR), 103
- innovating for social purposes, 129, 131
- innovation, 227t, 238–39, 244, 268–69;
in financing, 143–44, 149–50; governments and, 264–66; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 133t, 133–34, 135.
See also specific market-based change approaches
- innovative new service efforts, 138–40
- innovative skill-sets, 23
- institutional consumers, 104
- institutional investment employees, 109
- intended outcomes. See outcome goals
- interests, individual, 152
- intermediaries, 34, 35, 226t, 231–33; adversarial, 68; corporate social responsibility
(CSR) and, 101; organizational skills of, 120; roles in political development
approaches, 62–69
- intermediary models, 79
- internally driven corporate social responsibility (CSR) approaches, 89–100, 112
- International Development Enterprises
(IDE), 185
- international influence, 15
- Internet: corporate social responsibility
(CSR) and, 120–21; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 141–42
- intervention, ineffective late-stage, 50–51
- intervention points, 49–51
- investigators, 38
- investment-oriented approaches, 108–9
- investor philanthropists, 23–24
- investors: corporate social responsibility (CSR), 108–9; individual, 232–33. See also investor philanthropists
- irrigation pumps, 185, 186
- job creation, 167, 168–69, 189, 235
- job training, 265
- Karnani, A., 190
- Ka-shing, Li, 22
- Kauffman Foundation, 125
- Kendall, B. E., 110–11
- Khosa, Victoria, 139–40, 264–65
- KickStart, 183, 185–86
- Kinder, Lydenberg, Domini Research and Analytics (KLD), 108–9
- Kiva, 141–42
- Kuriyan, R., 171
- Leclair, M. S., 217
- limitations: of fair trade, 215–221; of market-based approaches, 251–60; of private sustainable development (PSD),
168–90; of social entrepreneurship
(SE), 150–57

- linkages across disciplines, 246
- literacy, 27, 57
- lobbyists, 106
- logic models, 30, 44, 45–60, 70–76, 288n9.
See also political development approaches
- lowest income markets, 164
- lung cancer, 49
- macro level change approaches, 59
- macroeconomic policy, fair trade network versus, 220
- mainstreaming, 201, 218, 220
- management, 228t, 242–43. See also specific market-based approaches
- market penetration, 215–16
- market signals, 155–56
- market-based change approaches: benefits delivered, 234t, 234–36. See also benefits; broader perspective of, 277–84; change agents, 230–31. See also change agents; comparisons, 224–29, 225–28t; government relations with, 8–9; innovation and, 238–39. See also innovation; intermediaries, 231–33. See also intermediaries; management and, 242–43; political intervention and, 236–38; rationale for, 5–7; scaling and, 241–42. See also scaling; sustainability and, 239–40. See also sustainability. See also corporate social responsibility (CSR); fair trade; private sustainable development (PSD); social change approaches; social entrepreneurship (SE)
- marketing, 72; corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 99; fair trade and, 203–4, 214
- market-oriented financing, 149–50
- markets, 164, 274–78. See also consumers
- Martin, R. L., 127
- masters of business administration (MBA), 270
- Max Havelaar Foundation, 200
- media attention: corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 120–21; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 147
- media representatives, corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 105–6
- Menonite Church, 198, 209–10
- merit, benefits based on, 46–47
- Micheletti, M., 11
- micro level change approaches, 59
- microenterprise development, 56, 138–39, 160, 172–74, 176f; behavioral logic of, 171–75; beneficiaries, 225t, 229; benefits, 226t, 234–35; case examples, 179–80; change agents, 191, 225t; conditions of success, 192; effectiveness, 176–79; innovation and, 227t; intermediaries, 226t, 232; management and, 228t; participant involvement, 237; political development of, 175–76; political interactions and, 228t; research findings on, 176–79; scaling, 227t; strengths, 187; sustainability, 227t; weakness of, 189. See also microfinancing
- microfinance organizations, 138–39, 141–42. See also microfinancing
- microfinancing, 139, 142, 172; case examples, 179–80; client-centered, 174. See also microenterprise development
- microloans. See microfinance organizations; microfinancing
- Millennium Development Goals, 25
- mistreatment, as a meritorious criterion, 46–47
- mixed approach models, 68–69
- models. See market-based change approaches
- monitoring, corporate social responsibility (CSR), 113–14, 117–19. See also effectiveness monitoring
- monitoring performance, 255–57
- Moon, Nick, 186
- multinational corporations, 16
- mutual funds, 109
- need prioritization, 154–55, 252. See also creaming
- needs assessment, 43, 184, 273
- need visibility, 20–21, 45–46
- negotiation skills, 120
- neoliberalism, 219–20, 261
- Nepal, fair trade in, 210–11
- Nestle Corporation, 218

- New Heroes, The*, 143
 Newman, Penny, 218
 Nike Corporation, 82
 non-governmental organizations (NGOs), international, rise of, 16–18
 nonprofit manufacturing facility, 143 nonprofit organizations: fair trade and, 206–7; as field partners, 142; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 124–25, 142; view of, 280
 nonprofit revenue streams, 131
 nonprofit sector, 16–18
 North America, fair trade in, 196 nutritional availability, 27
- online donations, 142
 operational funding, 19–20. See also financing organizational skills, intermediary, 120
 organizational venues, 70
 Osberg, S., 127 outcome goals, 43–44, 55t; bottom of the pyramid (BOP) development and, 169f;
   corporate social responsibility (CSR)
   and, 91f, 96f, 102f; fair trade and, 207f;
   indigenous technology creation (ITC) and, 184f; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 136f
 outcome-oriented evaluations, 73–74
 Oxfam shops, 198
- Page, Larry, 22
 participant investment, 10 participant involvement, 42, 64–66, 155, 237–38, 250, 281; indigenous technology creation (ITC) and, 181; poor consumers and, 164–66; private sustainable development (PSD) and, 181, 188 participation, 41–42
 participatory benefits, 44. See also benefits participatory change, 286n2. See also indigenous participation; community involvement paternalism, 156
 pattern setting, 88, 133t “paying for performance,” 266 personal computers, 18, 245
 philanthrocapitalism, 156, 285n1
Philanthrocapitalism: how Giving Can Save the World (Bishop & Green, 2009), 281 philanthropic initiatives, 63 philanthropic networks, 283–84
 philanthropists, 22–24
 Philip Morris, 115
 philosophical orientation, 35 platforms for social issue awareness, 20–21, 23
 Polak, P., 181, 183–84, 185, 273 political capital, 55t, 58 political consumerism, 10–11 political development, 60–62; of bottom of the pyramid (BOP) initiatives, 169–70; community engagement and,
   64–66; conflict models, 66–68; of corporate social responsibility (CSR) approaches, 89–100; direct models, 62–64; fair trade and, 206–9; of indigenous technology creation (ITC) and, 183–84; of microenterprise initiatives and, 175–76; mixed approaches to, 68–69; strategy evolution of, 69–70 political instincts, 120 political interactions, market-based change models and, 228t, 236–38
 political logic, 31
 political rights, 27 political strategy evolution, 69–70 politics of change, 36f, 39, 40, 60–70. See also change poor consumers, 164–66. See also private sustainable development (PSD) poor farmers, 181 positive reinforcement corporate social responsibility (CSR), 107–8 positive reinforcement in pressure-based initiatives, 107–8
 poverty rates, 3
 poverty: developed world, 285–286n3;
   developing world, 24–28
 Prahalad, C. K., 162–65
 pressure-based approaches, advanced, 109–10
 pressure-driven corporate social responsibility (CSR). See external corporate

- social responsibility (CSR); pressure-driven development process
- pressure-driven development process, 101–7, 102f; challenges of, 113–16; examples of, 110–11. See also external corporate social responsibility (CSR)
- prevention, disease, 289n11
- price points, 182–83
- price premiums, 213–14
- pricing, benefit, 252
- pricing strategies, 170
- private consumers, 104
- private global development, 161–62
- private sustainable development (PSD), 42, 159–61, 193–94; beneficiaries, 225t; benefits, 226t, 234–35; bottom of the pyramid development as, 162–72, 169f; change agents, 226t, 230–31; conditions for success, 192–93; creaming, 254; indigenous technology creation, 180, 183f; innovation, 227t, 238–39; intermediaries, 226t; limitations of, 168–90; management and, 228t; microenterprise development as, 172–80, 176f; performance monitoring of, 256; political interactions and, 228t; privatization of social services, 15; profit making, 161–62; scaling, 227t, 241; skills needed for, 190–92; strengths of, 186–88; sustainability, 227t. See also bottom of the pyramid (BOP) development; indigenous technology creation (ITC)
- problem analysis, 43
- product development: functionality and, 187; indigenous technology creation (ITC) and, 184; poor consumers and, 164, 165–66
- product distribution, 191, 208
- production: cost, 214; bottom of the pyramid development and, 169–70; fair trade standards and, 200–201, 202; sustainable, 203–4
- productive capacity, 160–61. See also indigenous technology creation (ITC)
- profit making, 130–31, 159–62. See also private sustainable development (PSD); profit maximizing strategies
- profit maximizing strategies, 95. See also strategic corporate social responsibility (CSR)
- profits, service provision versus, 252–55
- program developers, tension between government and, 262–64
- program performance. See monitoring performance
- progress indicators, 25
- protests, 19–20
- psychic benefits of consumerism, 86–87, 275
- public concessions, 115
- public health infrastructure, 26
- public image, corporate, 82
- purchasing, 183
- quality of life, 87, 168
- radical mainstreaming, 219
- rating systems, 256
- raw materials, 98
- Ray, I., 171
- reach, 8, 152–53; of fair trade, 196–97; geographic, 260
- related professional programs, 186n4
- remote benefit delivery systems, 52
- repayment rates, 177
- resources: government control of, 9, 260; political development approaches and, 61; pressure-driven corporate social responsibility (CSR) and, 113, 114, 118
- retailers, fair trade, 201
- revenue-generation, 130–31. See also financing
- risk taking, 145
- Rockefeller, David, 282
- Royal Dutch Shell, 82
- “rules of the game,” 266–67
- scalability. See scaling
- scaling, 227t, 241–42, 248–50, 259–60; fair trade and, 215–16; governments and, 264–65 microenterprises and, 173; private sustainable development (PSD) and, 183; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 131, 134, 141–42, 153–54

- Schwab Foundation Social Entrepreneurship, 125, 263
- screening criteria, microenterprise, 173–74
- self-help initiatives, 63
- self-promotion, 256–57. See also cleanwashing; greenwashing
- self-sustainability, 42. See also sustainability
- service provision, profits versus, 252
- Sierra Club, 130–31
- skill development, 56–57
- Skoll, Jeff, 125
- SKS Microfinance, 179–80
- social businesses, 132
- social capital, 55t, 57–58
- social change agents, 33. See also change agents
- social change approaches: change dynamics, 44–60, 70–75. See also change; conditions receptive to success, 75–76; construction and assessment issues, 30–33, 41–43, 76–77; general framework for, 35–40; outcome goals, 43–44; political development approaches and strategies, 60–70; social entrepreneurship (SE) as a, 144–57; terminology, 33–35
- social change processes, 33
- social development, 2–3
- social development approaches. See corporate social responsibility (CSR); fair trade; market-based change models; private sustainable development (PSD); social entrepreneurship
- social entrepreneurship (SE), 32, 123–24, 157–58; beneficiaries, 225t, 229–30; benefits, 226t, 234; change agents, 225t, 230; case examples, 137–44; creaming and, 254; cultural sensitivity and, 258; definition difficulty, 127–36, 133t; factors of success, 144–47; historical development of, 124–27; indigenous technology creation (ITC) versus, 180; innovation in, 41, 43, 227t, 238; intermediaries, 226t; limitations of, 150–57; management and, 228t, 243; participant involvement, 238; performance monitoring of, 256; political interactions and, 136f, 136–37, 228t; strengths of, 147–50; scaling, 227t, 241; sustainability, 227t; technology and, 245
- social environments, and benefit delivery, 52–53
- social image, social entrepreneur, 156
- social interaction skills, 257–59
- social intervention, 63
- social justice, 250–51
- social mission, 132, 133t, 135
- social problems, 20–21, 38–39
- social provision, demand for, 15
- social rights, 27
- social sciences, 286n4
- Social Security system, 46
- social values, 129–30, 154
- socially conscious investing, 108–9
- socially responsible consumption, 195, 274–77
- societal involvement. See community participation
- South Africa, 109
- spatial decision making, 51–52
- staff, 72
- stakeholders, 39, 137
- start-up ventures, social entrepreneurial, 134–35, 136, 145–46
- Stolle, D., 11
- strategic corporate social responsibility (CSR), 95–100, 96f, 112–13
- strengths: of market-based models, 243–51; of private sustainable development (PSD), 186–88; of social entrepreneurship (SE), 147–50
- structural development features, 34
- student training, 244
- subsidization, 162, 171
- substance of change, 53–59
- sustainability, 227t, 239–40, 247–48, 276; fiscal, 240; private sustainable development (PSD) and, 182, 188
- sustainable economic development, 128
- sustainable production, 203–4
- Tallontire, A., 199
- target groups, 34, 45–48, 287n4; corporations as, 115–16. See also beneficiaries

- targeting effectiveness, 50, 152, 154, 260.
See also effectiveness monitoring
- technical assistance, 174, 205
- technology specialists, 75
- technology, 269–71; access to, 20; agricultural, 181, 182, 183, 185; business of change and, 74–75; incorporation, 245; service provision and, 18–21; social entrepreneurship (SE) and, 125, 141–42, 145–46. See also information technology; Internet
- Ten Thousand Villages project, 198, 209–10
- terminology, 33–35
- theories of the dynamics of change, 44–60, 70–76. See also political development approaches
- timing of benefits, 49–51
- top of the pyramid production, 163
- top-down charity, 282–83
- Toyama, K., 171
- Tranchell, S., 218–19
- transaction costs, 72
- TransFair USA, 201
- transnational corporations, 78. See also corporations
- transportation, 59
- triple bottom line corporate social responsibility, 81, 95–99
- Turner, Ted, 22
- underlying philosophy, 35
- “understand your market,” 147–49
- unevenness of coverage, 8
- United Kingdom, fair trade in, 201–2
- United Nations, 25
- United States, fair trade in, 196, 202
- UnLtd, 125
- United States Aid for International Development Agency (USAID), 17–18
- unpredictable substantive content, 152
- UPS, 94–95
- Venkataswamy, Govindappa, 143–44, 246
- venues of change, 51–53
- virtual benefit delivery systems, 52
- voluntary provision, disadvantages of, 8, 154–55
- voting rights, 58
- voting with purchases, 11
- Walmart, 87, 164, 201
- watchdog organizations, 118
- Wealth and Giving Forum, 282
- wealthy individuals, social issues and, 125
- welfare state, 12–13, 13–16, 261, 266
- women, empowerment of, 175, 178–79
- world challenges, 25–26
- Yunus, Muhammad, 123, 138–39, 160

