acquaintance rape: arrests for, 36; as bulk of rape, 9; as misdemeanor, 87–88; presumptive nonagreement and, 121–22, 166; rape reform and, 47, 99, 213, 231, 265; real rape vs., 38, 79, 87, 122; victim blaming for, 61. See also date rape; nonaggravated rape; simple rape

Adler, Zsuzsanna, 151; on defense of mistaken consent, 70–71; Rape on Trial (1987), 70, 259–60; on rape reform in England, 22, 44, 46–47 affirmative consent reform, 3, 4, 5, 63, 75, 95, 246, 309n15; affirmative defense vs., 297n2, 305n2; critical appraisal of, 78–82; defense and, 176, 178, 230; models of, 71, 75–95; in New Jersey, 76–78; Pineau’s model of communicative sexuality and, 84; popular ridicule of, 4, 79–80; Schulhofer’s model of sexual autonomy as, 88, 90; silence under, 80, 176; victim consent in, 296n1. See also Antioch College Sexual Assault Code: affirmative verbal consent of aggravating conditions of rape, 13, 15, 68–69, 119–20, 206, 214, 250–51, 300n1, 300n3, 300–301n4, 302n11, 308n5; criminal culpability and, 225–26; graduated degrees of rape and, 250–51; as negation of consent, 120–21, 298n1; presumptive nonagreement and, 123–24, 208, 215; silence and, 79, 129–32

Alabama, victim resistance requirements in, 14

Alaska, repeal of rape victim resistance requirements in, 15

Allison, Julie A., 59

Allred, Gloria, 11
Alston, State v. (North Carolina), 106, 148, 235–39
American Law Institute, and Model Penal Code, 204, 292n1
Anderson, Terry M., 218, 296n4
Anderson Garron, New Jersey v., 32–33 anonymity, of rape victims, 18
Antioch College Sexual Assault Code: affirmative verbal consent of, 3, 4, 75, 305n2, 311n10; backlash to, 79; as education, 77; gender neutrality of, 296n1, 297n5; group sex in, 296n1; Pineau’s model of communicative sex vs., 83; popular ridicule of, 4, 79–80, 248; same-sex relations in, 296n1, 297n8
antirape movement, 2, 26, 38
Ascolillo, Commonwealth v. (Massachusetts), 158, 246
Australia, rape reforms in, 21–22, 44, 46
Bachman, Ronet, 34, 36, 38 backlash: against rape reform movement, 10–11, 261, 280; conservative, 164, 252–54, 285–86; criticism, 10
Bailey, F. Lee, 14
Baker, Brenda M., 126
BenDor, Jan, 28
Berkowitz, Commonwealth v. (Pennsylvania), 107
Black’s Law Dictionary: on adhesion contracts, 298n5; on blackmail, 306–715; on consent, 129, 188, 195; on criminal culpability, 70; on duress, 187, 188, 200; on force and coercion, 105, 235; on fraud, 131; on general intent, 295; on informed consent, 195; on jury instructions, 205; on negligence, 149; on preponderance of evidence, 172
Blakely v. Washington (Washington), 284, 313n8
Bohmer, Carol, 23, 51, 296n4
Bowman, Patricia, 40
Boyle, Christine, 177
Britain: Director of Public Prosecutions v. Morgan in, 70–71, 73, 140, 151, 152, 244, 257; Olugjoba case in, 104; Regina v. Cogan in, 71–72, 73. See also England; Wales, rape reform in Brooks, Rachelle, 281
Brownmiller, Susan, 11, 64
Bryant, Kobe, 10, 11. See also Kobe Bryant rape case
Bryden, David P., and Lengnick, 221, 267, 275, 276, 282, 307nn2, 3
Brzonkala, Christy, rape of, 53
Brzonkala v. Virginia Polytechnic and State University (U.S. Supreme Court), 53
Buchner, Deborah, and Clark, 30, 38
Bundy, Ted, case of, 147 burden of production, and consent defense, 170, 183, 211, 228, 230
Burgess-Jackson, Kenneth, 3, 190; on drug-induced rape, 306n8; on rape definitions, 186; on victim choice and coercion, 104–5 California: attrition rates for rape in, 37; clearance rates in, 35; judges and instructions in, 33; reasonable belief defense, 159; South Hills serial rapist in, 147 Canada: Ewanchuk case in, 109, 113, 194, 257; rape reforms in, 21, 45, 47–49; responsibility of victim in, 293n5; victim agreement in, 177
Caplan, Nathan, 32, 34–37, 57
carnal knowledge: forcible rape and, 17, 20; laws, 12, 15, 20, 62, 64–65, 292n1; semantics of, 102
Carrington, Frank, 23
Chancer, Lynn, Reconcilable Differences, 7
Chappell, Duncan, 35
character evidence: presumptive irrelevance of, 219–23; of rape victims, 15–16, 31–33, 204; shield laws and, 46
civil rights: movement, 1, 10; VAWA and, 24–25, 52–53, 294n3; victims’ claims and, 23
Clark, Toni F., 30, 38
Clery Act (Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Statistics Act), 261–62, 269, 313n9 coeviction: consent and, 101–5; definition of, 186, 207; duress vs., 189; as element of rape, 98, 214; force vs., 105–9; male definition of, 77, 81, 105; as negation of consent, 120–21, 232–34; negligence/recklessness and, 160–63; nonconsent and, 74, 119–20, 125–26, 208, 215; psychological, 91, 105; in Schulhofer’s model of sexual autonomy, 89. See also duress; force Cogan, Regina v. (Britain), 71–72, 73 colleges and universities, rape policies at, 3, 252, 261–62. See also under names of individual colleges and universities Colorado: consent in, 177; irrelevance of past sexual history in, 219–20, 308n13; Kobe Bryant case in, 177, 253, 308n13; shield laws in, 31, 253. See also University of Colorado common law: affirmative defense of, 171; consent under, 112; negligent culpability under, 141, 145; rape and, 22, 47, 98, 110
Commonwealth v. Ascolillo (Massachusetts), 158, 246
Commonwealth v. Berkowitz (Pennsylvania), 107 Commonwealth v. Sherry (Massachusetts), 72, 73 complaints, rape, 44, 51, 98, 115, 261, 270, 299n12; prompt, 16–17, 21, 34, 48, 196, 204, 262, 292n1, 308n12; recent, 21; unfounding of, 34–35, 45–46, 262; of victims, 14, 23, 30 consent: conditions negating, 104, 120–21, 131; as continuum, 99–101; defense, and burden of proof, 4, 171–73; definition of, 69, 76, 79, 100–101, 104, 112, 176, 195, 211; derivation of, from woman’s point of view, 82, 85, 90, 164; duress and, 187–88, 190; expression of, 126, 132; force and, 68, 108; implicit coercion and, 102–5; as implied, 109, 110, 112–13, 125, 238; interpretation of, 81, 127; lack of meaningful, in statutory rape, 19; male interpretation of, 77; mens rea and, 141; in Michigan model rape reform law, in, 68–69, 72, 111, 112, 114, 121, 135, 144, 164, 169, 232, 292n3, 297n3, 299n7, 300n3, 300–301n4, 304–51n1, 308n16, 10; problems surrounding, 70–73, 82, 85, 144, 150, 224, 276; rape reform and, 244; requirement of, 14–15, 81, 138, 145; semantics of, 93, 109–11, 249; silence interpreted as, 78, 80, 129–33, 137, 297n7, 302nn11, 12; standards of, 63, 65, 127; strict liability and, 67–68, 88, 246; submission vs., 104, 108, 112–13, 124, 128, 207, 231, 301n14, 308n9; unreasonable mistakes of, by defendants, 3, 72, 73, 74, 82, 83, 142, 145, 151, 153, 155–56, 158–60, 166–67, 168, 182, 257, 305n3; unwanted sex and, 102; victim behavior and, 117; victim incapacitation and, 100; as volun-ness, agreement, 109–11, 118; withdrawal of, 177–78, 183. See also affirmative consent reform; consent, defense of; consent, mistake of, defense; voluntariness, agreement consent, defense of: as affirmative defense, 174, 183, 211, 228–29; in assault law, 295–96n3; burden of proof and, 4, 183, 230, 234; force/coercion and, 232–34; in Michigan, 304–5n1; presumptive nonagreement and, 121, 216–17; rape reform and, 68–70, 80, 244, 245–46, 251–52; rape trauma syndrome and, 302n12; removal of, 88; restricting of, 135, 150, 155, 160, 162–63, 169–70, 178–82, 210–12, 227–31; semantics of, 109–110, 111–12, 118, 174–75; as “she’s a liar” defense, 174–75, 183, 210, 226–27, 269; strict liability conditions of, 180–82, 221, 305n1. See also consent, mistake of, defense consent, implied: assumption of, 129, 244; doctrine of, 109, 110, 112–13, 122, 133, 286; elimination of, 113–14, 118, 121, 155, 166, 215, 249, 251; Ewanchuk decision and, 257; past sexual history and, 299n10 consent, mistake of, defense, 4, 69, 133; in Ewanchuk, 109; as “I’m a blunderer” defense, 174–75, 183, 210, 226–27, 269; as loophole, 242; mens rea and, 66–67; negligence and, 70–73, 142–43, 144–46; past victim behavior and, 219; presumptive nonagreement and, 216–17; rape reform and, 251–52; reasonability of, 174, 303n2; restriction of, 150, 155, 158–60, 169–70, 178–82, 210–12; semantics of, 118, 174–75; strict liability conditions of, 180–82, 221. See also consent, defense of constitutional amendments. See U.S. Constitution corroboration of rape victim’s testimony: criminal justice officials and, 57; de facto, 14, 47, 48; de jure, 14, 66; as discriminatory requirement, 29–30, 65, 133, 204–5; at Harvard University, 252, 261–62; persistence of, 307n2; repeal of requirements for, 5, 14, 21–22, 99, 117, 206, 214
Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act (1990), 261
Crimes (Sexual Assault) Amendment Act of 1981 (Australia), 22 criminal intent: as element of rape, 84; nonagreement and, 157; premeditation and, 147, 237; recklessness and, 148, 225; sexual assault and, 162–63. See also mens rea criminal justice officials: accountability of, 8, 9, 257–58, 261, 262–65, 273; attitudes of, on rape reforms, 57–58, 243; education of, 203–4, 265, 282, 284; new model of rape reform laws and, 8; rape punishment and, 20; training of, 60, 252, 268–69, 273 criminal justice system: alternatives to, 51; discrimination against rape cases in, 29, 122; fairness in, 6; necessary changes to, 120; regulation of rape by, 285; sexism of, 222
Criminal Law Revision Committee, 104, 177 criminal negligence: culpability and, 251, 303n2, 304n7; force/coercion and, 162–63; mens rea in, 163; negligent liability and, 4, 140–43; presumptive nonagreement and, 154–60, 225, 311–12n1; victim agreement and, 177 criminal procedure, 7; federal government and, 9, 204, 263, 269, 306n5 criminal prosecution, and rape prosecution, 5, 165 criminal recklessness: culpability and, 251, 304n7; negligent liability and, 4, 148–50, 154, 238, 249; nonagreement and, 157, 162–63, 225, 311–12n1 criminal responsibility (culpability), 142, 143, 152, 201, 224–26, 296n3; for date rape, 83; definitions of, 136, 162; in instructions for jurors, 224–25; negligence and, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 145, 155, 162, 164; nonagreement and, 154–56, 160, 161, 163, 168, 225, 238, 251; for rape, 3, 72, 73, 75, 163, 183, 196, 220, 227, 234; statutory rape and, 68; strict liability and, 67–68; as substantive law, 6 criminal sexual conduct (CSC): graduated degrees of, 13, 42, 68, 93, 149–50; plea bargaining and, 37; rates of, 35 criminal violence: rape as, 17; rape offenses vs., 12 culpability. See criminal responsibility date rape: as bulk of rape, 9; Drug-Induced Rape Prevention and Punishment Act (1996), 306n8; drugs for, 167, 180–81, 211, 227, 230, 306n8; as misdemeanor, 84, 87; as noncommunicative sex, 82–86; presumptive nonagreement and, 121–22, 166; rape reform and, 99, 213; real rape vs., 3, 87. See also simple rape defendants, rape: civil suits and, 51; criminal responsibility of, 3; difficulties of, 16; focus on, 70, 145, 158, 163, 244; overlooking of nonagreement by, 152; in positions of power/authority/trust over victims, 94, 167, 192–95, 197, 199, 202, 206, 211, 307n4; protection of, 174, 265, 310n4; rights of, 6, 10, 116, 136, 158, 181, 215, 227, 231, 250; special privileges of, 10

Denmark, victims’ attorneys in, 276–77

Denno, Deborah, 40, 293n2, 295n2

Dershowitz, Alan, 40

Director of Public Prosecutions v. Morgan (Britain), 70–71, 73, 140, 151, 152, 244, 257 discrimination, 10, 173, 179, 258; in legal codes, 3, 5; against minorities, 1; against rape victims, 8, 29, 97, 122, 216, 222, 223, 250, 257, 280, 304n3; in plea bargaining, 263; of resistance standards, 8, 9; sex, 25, 52; against women, 1, 3, 52, 284, 289

District of Columbia: marital rape in, 20; victim resistance requirements in, 14

divorce, and marital rape, 20, 43

DNA Analysis Backlog Elimination Act, 56

DNA evidence, 242, 314n2

Doe v. United States, 219

domestic violence: antirape movement and, 2, 88; sexual violence agency funding and, 273–74; VAWA and, 24, 52–54 drugs, date rape. See date rape: drugs for Du Mont, Janet, 21–22, 47–48

Duke University alleged gang rape case, 60, 61, 280, 295n7 duress, 90, 103, 104, 108, 131, 133, 152, 155, 166, 167, 168; absence of, 101; blackmail as, 192–93, 199, 200, 306–7n5; coercion vs., 189; definitions of, 111, 186–90, 200; economic, 81; fraud vs., 195; nonagreement and, 208, 215; as nonviolent coercion, 185; persuasion vs., 102; sexual assault and, 9, 114, 115, 175, 184–86, 198–202, 214; threats to property as, 191–92, 199, 200. See also coercion; force; threats

Dusky, Lorraine, 41

Dworkin, Andrea, 38, 247

education: rape reform laws as, 2; by rape reform movement, 12, 26, 60, 280, 282–84, 287, 289

England: intent and rape in, 66; rape reform in, 22, 44–47

Estrich, Susan, 2; on aggravated rape, 291n4; on coercion, 189, 301n4, 308n6; critical appraisal of, 73–74, 296n6; on defense of consent, 69, 304–5n1; on definition of rape, 66–67; on force/coercion, 77, 106, 233, 237, 300n2, 306n2; on fraud, 196, 198; on interpretation of consent, 127, 151; on jury instructions, 16; landmark approach of, 4; on mens rea, 138–40; negligent liability model of, 70–73, 83, 140–43, 144–46, 148, 154–55, 174, 224; on People v. Jansson, 232; on prompt complaint requirements, 34; on rape punishment, 20; on rape reform, 244–45; on rape vs. property offenses, 184–87, 193, 200; Real Rape, 3–4, 29; Schulhofer vs., 93, 94, 199; on silence as nonagreement, 132; on simple rape, 227, 282; on State v. Alston, 235–36; theoretical treatment and, 248; on use of woman’s point of view, 90, 145, 164

Evans, People v. (New York), 106–7, 148, 162

evidence, character. See character evidence evidence, rules of. See rules of evidence

Ewanchuk case (Canada), 109, 113, 194, 257

Fairstein, Linda A., 184, 196–98

Falk, Patricia J., 243

FBI (Federal Bureau of Investigation): “Take a bite out of crime,” 280; on underreporting of rape, 10, 275, 313n10 federal government: rape law and, 204; state law and, 9, 269–70, 313n10; VAWA and, 23–25, 52–53

Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure for Federal Courts, 9, 204, 263, 269

Feminist Majority, 281

feminist rape reform, 10–11, 38, 63, 97, 136, 200, 280, 288; backlash against, 241; punishments for rape and, 19–20, 250; rules of evidence and, 221; scholarship of, 2–3 feminists, feminism, 2, 11, 58, 62–63, 272, 302n10, 315n4, 316n8; anti-, 45, 79; backlash against, 10–11, 241, 252, 253, 280, 285–86; binary extremes and, 7; left realism and, 5–6, 63, 292n5; legislative lobbying of, 28, 221, 280; perspective of, 136, 248; radical, 7, 38; rape education by, 26, 280. See also feminist rape reform

Field, Hubert S., 219–20

Fink, Virginia S., 288

Finkelhor, David, 43, 253

Florida: consent in, 112, 308n9; past sex evidence in rape proceedings in, 32; rape as nonconsent in, 126; shield provisions in, 218 force: coercion vs., 105–9; consent and, 101, 103–4; definition of, 89, 105, 207; demonstration of, in rape cases, 68–69, 107, 139; as element of rape, 66, 98, 108, 161, 214; implicit, 105; male definitions of, 77, 81, 133, 214–15, 235–37, 313n1; as negation of consent, 120–21, 232–34; negligence/recklessness and, 160–63; nonconsent and, 74, 104, 119–20, 125–26, 145, 208, 215; rape defined by, 132; requirement of, over nonagreement, 107; resistance and, 65, 145; in Schulhofer’s model of sexual autonomy, 89; silence in response to, 77, 129–32, 135, 207, 215; as strict liability condition, 180–81; woman’s point of view used to define, 132–36, 151, 166, 168, 225, 232–33, 237. See also coercion; duress force requirement: problems with, 162; redundancy of, 139–40, 145, 152–53, 235; removal of, 76 forcible rape, 17, 20, 108, 292n1

France, victim rights in, 277

Francis, Leslie, 83–84

fraud: definition of, 131; duress vs., 195; nonconsent and, 208, 215; sexual assault by, 195–99, 214

Gardner, Thomas J., 218, 296n4

Garron, Anderson case (New Jersey), 32–33

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
INDEX

Geist, Alison, 32, 34–37, 57
gender: inequality of, 6, 165, 247, 283–84, 285–89; neutrality of, in rape reform laws, 18, 19; relations of, 6; roles of, 286
Georgia, past victim sexual conduct in, 219–20
Germany, victim rights in, 277
Giannelli, Paul, 33
Glen Ridge gang rape case (New Jersey), 38, 60, 80–82, 176, 297n7; silence in, 80–81
Goldberg v. State (Maryland), force in, 107
Goldberg-Ambrose, Carole: on attitudes on rape, 58; on Estrich, 93; on mistake of consent defense, 144; on rape reform, 248, 267; on RTS evidence, 303n12
Gregory, Jeanne, 22, 44–46
Hale, Matthew, Lord, Chief Justice, 16; cautionary jury instructions and, 33, 206, 216, 251; on marital rape, 20
Harvard University: Press, 3; rape policies at, 252, 261–62
Harris, Angela, 85, 87, 302n6
Hawaii, nonconsent in, 126
Hearn, People v. (Michigan), 121, 244
Henderson, Lynne: on Estrich, 73, 139, 141, 144; on morality of heterosexuality, 134
Herman, Susan, 287, 310n2
‘he said, she said’ rape, 3; affirmative consent and, 95; defense of consent in, 159–60, 169, 228, 229, 230; nonagreement in, 123, 208, 215; problem of, 81, 97, 213. See also date rape; nonaggravated rape; simple rape heterosexuality, 134, 165
Hinch, Ronald, 45, 48–49
Hopkins, Price Waterhouse v., 173, 179
Horney, Julia: on discriminatory evidence requirements, 33; Spohn and, 34–36, 38, 57–58, 313n7
Idaho, victim resistance requirements in, 14
Illinois: burden of proof in, 171; consent in, 112, 253, 309n15; Michigan law’s influence on, 292n1; sexual history of victim in, 32, 58; victim’s dress in, 223–24
involuntariness, nonagreement: indication of, 214; as presumptive, 4, 252, 301n4; replacement of nonconsent by, 109–11, 118
Ireland, victims’ rights in, 277
Jansson, People v. (Michigan), 232–34 judges: accountability of, 272; belief in victim agreement by, 173; consent of rape victims and, 69, 81; education of, 284; rape reform and, 267, 268, 270; rape sentences and, 20; resistance of rape victims and, 14; rules of evidence and, 4 juries: belief in victim agreement by, 173; consent of rape victims and, 69, 81; harsh penalties and, 19; misconceptions of, about rape, 58–59; rape reform and, 266–68, 270; resistance of rape victims and, 14; role of, 284, 313n8; victim silence and, 80
jury instructions: on agreement, 127, 129; cautionary, 16, 21, 33, 65, 214, 216, 292n1, 307n3; changes to, 4, 5, 117–18, 152–53, 167–68, 183, 202, 203–12, 213–14, 217, 223, 226; on defense of mistaken consent, 158; educative value of, 264, 267, 284; influential nature of, 313n6; paradigm of rape reform and, 9, 243, 248–49, 269, 309n1; prejudice and, 307n1; as procedural law, 6; unfairness of, 16, 251; on victim sexual history, 308n13
Kadish, Sanford H., and Schulhofer: on Alston case, 235; on burden of production, 170, 171; on coercion, 193; on consent, 71–72, 178, 190; on corroboration requirement, 307n2; on evidence, 221; on jury instructions, 307n1; on nonconsent, 176; on strict liability on mistakes, 158, 303n2
Kanin, Eugene J., 116
Keith, Ann, 47, 48
Kennedy Smith rape case, 40, 59, 280
Kentucky: corroboration of victim testimony in, 14; Olden case in, 218; victim resistance requirements in, 14
Kinports, Kit: on coercive sexuality as norm, 134; on Commonwealth v. Berkowitz, 107; on force, 107–8, 119, 124, 233; on mens rea, 139–41; on redundancy in rape law, 119, 123–24, 160–62; on standard of woman's point of view, 134–35, 136
Kobe Bryant rape case, 11, 33, 80, 264, 280; charges withdrawn in, 10; defense in, 163, 177, 311n8; shield laws and, 31, 253; victim identity in, 61, 182, 296n5, 308n13; victim submission in, 108
Krumholz, Susan, 114, 166
Larson, Jane E., 185, 196 law: goal of, 87, 98; good and bad and, 8; as imposition of male point of view, 122, 135; inequality of, 285; limitations of, 200–201, 241; use of, for reform, 255 laws, rape. See rape reform laws
League of Women Voters, 281
Lederer, State v. (Wisconsin), 112
Lees, Sue, 22, 44–46
left realists, realism, 5, 6, 63 legal changes, of rape reform movement, 12–27 legal codes, discriminatory standards in, 1, 3 legal system, 8, 99, 133, 172, 255; criminal, 6, 48, 50, 79, 97, 115, 231, 258, 275–76, 278; fairness of, 6; handling of rape by, 13, 16, 250, 254, 266, 276, 285; male domination of, 134; unfair treatment of women by, 3, 283 legislators, 7, 8, 253, 281
LeGrand, Camille E., 14
Leive, Cindi, 35
Lengnick, Sonja, 221, 267, 275, 276, 282, 307nn2, 3
Levine, Judith, 175, 275
Lewin, Miriam: on acquiescence, 298n3; on unwanted sex/intercourse, 101–2, 190, 315n5 liberals, liberalism, 2, 5; backlash against, 252; rape reform, 7, 63, 92
Loh, Wallace D.: on rape prosecution, 35; on “Truth in Criminal Labeling,” 36, 266, 313n5
MacKinnon, Catherine: on interpretation of nonconsent, 164–65, 299n13; on law, 122, 133–34; on mens rea, 139, 144; on nonconsent, 300n2; on preponderance of evidence standard, 173, 179; on rape, 307n7; on sex discrimination, 52, 247; theoretical treatment and, 248
Maine: corroboration of rape victim testimony in, 14; mistake of consent defense in, 178; spousal rape in, 253 males: aggressiveness of, 91, 134; definition of rape by, 128–29, 133–34, 144, 165; entitlement of, 62–65, 116, 125, 245, 253, 286, 298n3; as husbands, 20, 292n3; overprotection of, by rape law, 63, 72, 140, 166; as rape victims, 2, 18; responsibility of, 90, 283; sexuality of, 82; supremacy of, 285, 315n5; understanding of force by, 77–78; vilification of, 11; violence against women by, 6 marital rape, 20–21, 42–44, 182; in Arizona, 293n3; husbands and, 292n3; in Maine, 253; reforms of, 201, 223 marriage, and marital rape, 20–21, 43
Marsh, Jeanne C., 32, 34–37, 57
Maryland: Goldberg case in, 107; rape conviction in, 232; Rusk case in, 106, 162, 191
Massachusetts: Ascolillo case in, 158, 246; defense of mistaken consent in, 72–73, 138–39, 158, 178; intent requirement for rape in, 66; New Bedford gang rape in, 280; Sherry case in, 72, 73 media: influence of, on attitudes on rape, 59–60, 61, 254, 279–81, 283, 294n6; sanctions and, 272; victim identity and, 40, 47, 293n2, 314n12

Megan’s Law, 261; as quick-fix, 55

Meloy, Michelle, 275, 281

mens rea: absence of, in rape law, 66, 73; in criminal law, 147; extension of, from homicide to rape, 9, 224, 311n7; force/coercion and, 153, 160–62; negligence and, 144, 147–49; objective vs. subjective, 304n5; in Pineau’s model of communicative sexuality, 83; in rape, 138–42, 304n8; role of, 138–40; as substantive law, 6

Michigan: courts in, 121, 164, 232, 304n1, 308n6; CSC Code in, 13, 14, 15–16, 18, 19, 21, 34, 57, 68–69, 111, 112, 117, 207, 292n2, 292n3, 295n3, 297n3, 300–301n4, 304n4, 306n2, 308n10; State v. Thompson in, 193, 305n1

Michigan model rape reform law (1974), 1, 13, 21, 28–32, 207, 291n1, 307n4; aggravating conditions in, 13, 206, 250–51, 300n1, 300n3, 300–301n4, 302n11, 308n5; consent and coercion in, 68–69, 72, 111, 112, 114, 121, 135, 144, 164, 169, 232, 292n3, 297n3, 299n7, 300n3, 300–301n4, 304–5n1, 308n6, 308n10; de jure corroboration in, 14, 117, 248; inadmissibility of past sexual activity in, 15–16, 182–83, 206, 209, 221, 293n1, 310n3; influence of, 292n1; Hearn case in, 121, 244; rape defense and burden of proof in, 169, 171–73, 298n2; rape differentiation in, 13, 150, 300–301n4; rape punishment in, 19, 150; rape victim resistance requirements repealed in, 15; research in, 32, 34, 35, 36–37, 57; resistance demands in, 15; victim polygraphs in, 18, 41; victim shields and anonymity in, 18, 57–58; women’s organizations and, 315n7

Miller, Susan, 275, 281

Minnesota: affirmative consent in, 309n15; definition of consent in, 112, 299n9, 309n15; rape victim resistance requirements repealed in, 15

Mississippi, victim resistance requirements in, 14

Missouri, nonconsent in, 126

model of rape reform, author’s, 124, 312n4; comprehensive change and, 8–10; consent in, 169, 176, 178, 187–88, 228, 230, 232–34, 244, 246, 305n1; duress/force in, 191, 199, 232–34, 235, 236; Estrich’s approach and, 4; legal precedent for, 205–6; as middle ground, 6–7, 246, 254; negligent culpability in, 151, 154, 163, 244, 305n1; involuntariness/nonagreement in, 121, 151, 152, 154, 157–58, 163, 178, 235, 236; presumptive nonagreement, pp.?????; political compromise of, 4, 172, 248; rape shield in, 219, 223–24, 250; rights of accused in, 250–51; theoretical models and, 99; viability of, 6–8; voluntariness, agreement in, 169–70, 174, 177, 178, 179, 234, 246, 306n6; woman’s point of view in, 163, 306n6

Model Penal Code (MPC) (1962), 249; American Law Institute, and, 292n1; commentators on, 143, 164; corroboration requirement in, 307n2; on drug-induced rape, 306n8, ineffective consent in, 196; as model for state law, 204, 269, 292n1; sexism of, 196, 204 models of rape reform, 2–11; “communicative sexuality, 82–88, 98, 154; “sexual autonomy,” 3–4, 95, 154, 312n3. See also model of rape reform, author’s; “real rape”

Morgan, Director of Public Prosecutions v. (Britain), 70–71, 73, 140, 151, 152, 244, 257
Morrison et al., U.S. v., VAWA and, 52–53
MPC. See Model Penal Code
M.T.S., State ex rel. (New Jersey), 124, 176, 237, 297n7
Mullendore, Kristine: on civil law, 298n5; on consent/nonconsent, 100, on defense of consent, 295–96n3; on evidence standard, 306n5; on strict liability, 295n1; on treatment of rape, 303–413
Murthy, Sakti, 204, 220–21
Myers, State v. (Utah), 117
Myhr, Terri L.: on Canadian rape reform, 21–22; Du Mont and, 47–48
Nebraska, corroboration requirement in, 307n2 negligent liability: criminal negligence and recklessness and, 4, 140–43, 146–53, 166, 248; Estrich and, 3, 70–74, 83, 155, 164; force/coercion and, 160–62, 305n4; nonagreement and, 149; problems with, 144–46; rape and, 63, 140–43; rape reform and, 238; recklessness and, 148; woman's point of view and, 163–65
Nevada, victim history in, 218
New Bedford (Massachusetts) pool table gang rape case, 61, 264, 280
New Hampshire, nonconsent in, 126
New Jersey: affirmative consent rule in, 32, 76–78, 176, 246, 297n3, 312n3; force/coercion in, 124; Garron case in, 32–33; Glen Ridge case in, 38, 60, 80–82, 176, 297n7; Michigan law influence on, 292n11; M.T.S. case in, 124, 176, 237, 297n7; resistance requirements repealed in, 15; shield legislation in, 280; victim history in, 253
New York: Evans case in, 106–7, 148, 162; rape in, 59, 61, 264, 280; sexual assault by fraud in, 196–97
New York Central Park jogger rape case, 59, 61, 264, 280
New Zealand, 21, 293n4
Neuman, Lawrence W., 16, 19, 34
Nicholson, George, 23
1976 Sexual Offences (Amendment) Act, 22
nonaggravated rape, 3; as bulk of rape, 9; rape reform and, 99, 265. See also acquaintance rape; date rape; simple rape nonagreement, 4, 111, 119; as defining rape, 126; expression of, 18; force/coercion and, 126, 158–62, 166; inability to indicate, 302n11; “no” as sufficient indication of, 126–29, 155, 164, 166, 207, 216, 233–34, 236; presumptive, 120–24, 137, 150–51, 154–60, 166–68, 169, 178, 208, 215–17, 225–26, 228–29, 233–34, 238, 240, 249, 265, 302n7, 311n9. See also nonconsent; involuntariness, nonagreement nonconsent: as continuum, 99–101; as demonstrated by resistance, 143; determination of, 84–85, 114; as element of rape, 66, 74; expression of, 124–29, 131; force/coercion and, 65, 106, 108, 139–40, 308n7; implication of, 120; as involuntariness, nonagreement, 109–11, 118; need for rape victims to express, 10, 107, 157; “no means no,” 91–92, 126–29, 134, 137, 146, 155, 160, 166, 207, 236, 253–54, 283, 312n1; proof of, 80, 139–40; redundancy of, in presence of force/coercion, 104, 119–20, 133, 137, 160–62, 235; semantics of, 109–11; in trespass, 114, 166; woman’s point of view defining, 134, 146, 168, 210, 214–15, 308n10. See also nonagreement; involuntariness, nonagreement
North Carolina: Alston case in, 106, 148, 235–39; Duke University alleged gang rape case in, 60, 61, 280, 295n7
NOW (National Organization of Women), 16, 281, 315n7
NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund, 23
Ohio, resistance requirements in, 15
Olden v. Kentucky, 218
Olugjoba case (Britain), 104
Paglia, Camille, 199, 252
Parrot, Andrea, 23, 51
Paternoster, Raymond, 34, 36, 38 patriarchy, 6, 62–65, 315n4; inequality of, 200, 285, 298n3; point of view of, 136; society as, 292n5 penal code, and federal government, 9. See also Model Penal Code penetration, 3, 18, 75, 77, 80, 82, 93, 112, 129, 141, 150, 234, 237, 238, 239, 309n15; anal, 17, 22, 38, 214, 291n2; criminal sexual, 13, 38, 66, 76, 87, 93–94, 232, 291n2, 292n2, 295n1, 297n2, 297n12, 308n5; oral, 17, 38, 214, 291n2; proof of, 123, 124, 173, 215, 216, 226, 300n3; rape as, 17, 22, 63, 66, 98, 206, 214, 291n2; vaginal, 17, 38, 63, 214
Pennsylvania: Berkowitz case in, 107; consent in, 297n14; mens rea in, 66; questions of intent or mistake in, 138–39, 178; strict liability in, 158, 178; victim’s sexual history in, 32, 57–58
People v. Bernard (Michigan), 69
People v. Evans (New York), 106–7, 148, 162
People v. Hearn (Michigan), 121, 244
People v. Jansson (Michigan), 232–34
Pineau, Lois, 2; on affirmative consent policy, 77; on “communicative sex,” 179; “communicative sexuality” rape reform model of, 82–88, 98, 154; on consent standard, 92, 126; on due notice, 231; on duress and rape, 184, 189; on mens rea, 139; on rape reform, 241, 243; on use of woman’s point of view, 90, 136 plea bargain, 9; consent defense and, 179, 231; rape reform and, 263–66, 270, 313n3, 5 police: accountability of, 262–63, 272, 273; as anti-feminist, 45; definition of sexual assault by, 49; education of, 284, 287; unfounding of rape cases and, 34–35, 115, 262, 299n12 politicians: new model of rape reform laws and, 8; public opinion and, 55, 247, 255; rape sentences and, 20
Polk, Kenneth, 35
Powell, Marlene R., 272 practices of law, 7–8, 92, 243 premeditation, in rape, 146–47, 153, 161, 234, 237 Price Waterhouse v. Hopkins, 173, 179 private hearings, on victim’s past sexual history, 15 procedural law, 6; paradigm of rape reform and, 9, 248; principles of, 7 prompt complaint requirements, 16–17, 34, 66, 204–5; in Canada, 48; de facto, 58; at Harvard University, 261–62; myth of, 219; repeal of, 21, 206, 208–9, 214, 308n12 prosecutors: accountability of, 262–63, 272, 273; arrest warrants and, 312n2, 313n5; charging decisions of, 294n4; definition of sexual assault by, 49; education of, 284; establishment of nonconsent by, 114, 119–20, 123–24 public, the: attitudes of, on rape, 58–59, 110, 242–43, 267, 281; education of, 284, 287; plea deals and, 264–65; rape reform laws and, 1–2, 8 punishment for rape, 19–20; aggravating conditions and, 19; certainty of vs. severity of, 20; reductions in, 88 rape: attitudinal shift on, 2, 56–60, 201, 282, 284–85; civil suits and, 23, 50–51; coercion and, 107; consensual sex vs., 42, 78, 96, 105; convictions for, 12–13, 35–36, 46, 66, 73, 83, 265; culpability rape, real. See real ape rape, simple. See simple rape rape, statutory. See statutory rape rape cases: attrition rates of, 36, 37, 46, 47, 274–75, 276, 299n12; consent in, 127; discretionary decision making and, 97–98, 242, 274; false convictions in, 85, 86, 88, 123, 133, 137; requiring statistics for, 271; treatment of, 241, 243, 274–76, 304n3; universities and, 23, 51, 60, 61, 280, 295n7 rape defendants. See defendants, rape rape defense, 296n4; burden of proof in, 170–72, 265; consent/agreement, 4, 76, 110, 113, 169–70, 176; marriage as, 20–21; mens rea and, 139; preponderance of evidence standard in, 172–74, 178–79, 183, 230–31, 246, 249; rape reform and, 226–31; reasonable, 159; sexual history evidence and, 182–83; submission, 108; terminology changes of, 174–75 rape prosecution, 12; consent in, 30–31, 70, 82, 110; as criminal prosecution, 5, 15; negligence in, 73; nonconsent and coercion in, 74, 139, 160–61, 236; presumptive sentencing in, 156–57; problems with, 17; rates of, 35, 274; successful, 309n1; victim credibility and, 30; victim intoxication in, 301n5; woman's point of view used in, 74, 137 rape reform: accountability and, 270–72, 289; backlash to, 10–11, 32–33, 92, 241, 252–54, 261, 280, 285–86; character evidence and, 32; consent and, 74, 113; consent defense and, 68–70; criminal intent and, 74; educative function of, 282–84; effectiveness of, 28–29, 268; enforcement problems with, 165; extralegal developments of, 56; failures of, 60–61; feminist scholars and, 2–3; funding for, 273–74; jurors and, 266–68; models of, 2–11, 245–52; paradigm of, 9, 240–45; political climate and, 10–11, 252–54; property crime law applied to, 192; punishments altered by, 42; rape crisis centers and, 26, 56, 60, 287, 289; rape victims and, 29; redefinition of rape by, 38, 96–98; regression of, 252–54; simple rape and, 3, 97, 121; successes of, 60; victim treatment and, 258–62 rape reform laws: accused and, 69; alternative model of, 99; changes to, 117–18, 152–53, 203–12, 213, 217, 242, 284–85; defenses to rape and, 183, 226; due notice of, 168, 180–81, 212; educative function of, 2, 95, 99, 201, 237, 242–43, 246, 248, 255, 270; enforcement of, 97, 243–44, 270–71, 289, 313–14n10; in English-speaking countries, 21–22, 44–49; failure of, to deal with de facto practices, 7; gender intent and, 139, 141–42, 153; historic, 62; impact of, 2, 240–45; on implied consent, 113–14; of 1970s, 13, 141; negligence and, 153, 168; neutrality in, 39, 133; past sexual history evidence and, 182–83; presumptive nonagreement in, 120–21, 137, 167–68; property laws vs., 199–201; real rape and, 3; on sexual assault under duress/fraud, 202; shield laws and, 220–22; silence in, 132, 137; strict liability and, 67–68; symbolism of, 2, 5; unintended consequences of, 1–2; victim anonymity in, 39–40; victim innocence in, 117, 223; voluntariness, agreement and, 111, 138; woman’s point of view in, 168, 202, 207. See also Michigan model rape reform law (1974)

rape reform movement: education by, 12, 203; media and, 254; 1970s, 1, 13; on problems with rape prosecution, 17 rape trauma syndrome (RTS), 242, 302–312, 309n14, 310n1 rape victims. See victims, rape rapists: community registration and notification laws and, 55–56, 261, 315n2; deterrence of, 13; as men who force sex, 160; prosecution of, 2, 5, 12; rights of, 40, 41. See also defendants, rape

Reagan, Nancy, 280

real rape: comparison of, to acquaintance rape, 38; conviction rates and, 36; coercion and, 189; force and, 124; mens rea and, 66; as only rape, 54, 258, 282; rape reforms and, 3, 29, 60–61, 99, 213; resistance standards and, 31; stereotype of, 9. See also Estrich, Susan

Reeves Sanday, Peggy: on consent/permission, 76–78, 80, 92, 177; on equal protection, 25; on “frozen fright,” 78, 130, 297n7, 302n11; on overturn of rape convictions on appeal, 51; proposal of, to change rape laws, 3; on silence, 78, 130, 297n7, 302n11; on victim’s dress, 223

Regina v. Cogan (Britain), 71–72, 73

Remick, Anne Lani, 127, 308n8

Renner, Edward K., 47

reputation of rape victims, 32, 70, 205, 208, 209, 217, 221, 299nn, 311n11, 311n12, 314n12; coercion/duress and, 187, 192; credibility and, 10, 15, 220; intimidation of victims and, 51; rights of defendant and, 48 requirements of rape prosecution: removal of, from laws, 13–17, 205–6, 212, 214. See also character evidence; complaints: prompt; consent: requirement of; corroboration of rape victim’s testimony; resistance requirement; victims, rape: sexual history of; jury instructions; cautionary resistance requirement, 5, 30–31, 205; criminal justice officials and, 57; demonstration of force and, 65, 66, 69, 145; discrimination of, 8, 9, 133; implied consent and, 112; patriarchy and, 63, 65; reintroduction of, 73; removal of, 14–15, 68–70, 99, 144, 159–60, 206, 214, 236

INDEX  |  344

Rhode, Deborah L., 241
Roberts, Dorothy, 108
Robinson, Matthew, 280
Roiphe, Katie, 199, 252
Rothblatt, Henry B., 14
RTS (rape trauma syndrome), 242, 302–311, 309n14, 310n1 rules of evidence: changes to, 4, 5, 203–9, 269; federal, 9; fraud and, 131; paradigm of rape reform and, 9, 248, 309n1; past rape charges under, 218–19; rape cases and, 136
Rusk v. State (Maryland), 106, 162, 191
Russel, Dianna E. H., 43
sadomasochistic sex, as atypical, 120, 175, 179, 181, 246
Schafran, Hecht, 59
Schneider, Elizabeth, 288
Scholz, Sally J., 83
Schulhofer, Stephen, 2; on affirmative consent policy, 77, 78–81; on ambiguities of rape, 97, 156; on consent, 127, 130, 132, 297n4, 11, 12; on Estrich, 73, 199; on force, 123; Kadish and, 71–72, 158, 170, 171, 176, 178, 190, 193, 221, 235, 303n2, 307nn1–2; on legal reform, 242–43; on male definitions of rape, 134; on mens rea, 142; “Model Criminal Statute for Sexual Offenses,” 93–95, 148; on negligence, 141, 148–49, 165, 224–25, 303n2; on nonconsent as rape, 126; on Pineau’s model of communicative sexuality, 86, 87; semantics of consent and, 93; on sexual assault under duress, 184–85, 187, 189, 191–95; “sexual autonomy” model of, 3–4, 5, 6, 88–95, 98, 101–2, 154, 247, 307n6 (chap. 12), 307n4 (chap. 13), 312n3; on threats, 94–95, 105–6; Unwanted Sex, 3–4; on victim resistance requirements, 14–15; on woman’s point of view standard, 136
Scotland, victims’ rights in, 277
Searles, Patricia, 16, 19, 34 sentencing guidelines: federal, 9, 204, 284; presumptive, 156–57 sex, consensual: differentiation of, from rape and sexual assault, 42, 78, 96, 99–100, 101–2, 105; in Pineau’s model of communicative sexuality, 86 sex crime, rape as, 17, 54, 98 sexism, of legal practice, 12 sexual assault: affirmative consent policy and, 75, 78; of children, 24, 25, 56; comparison of, to other violent crime, 37–38, 250; comparison of, to property crimes, 3, 184–85, 296n6; conceptualization of, 9; consensual sex vs., 99–100, 101–2, 105; continuum of, 15; definition of, 66, 98, 124, 214; under duress, 184–95, 198–202, 207, 266, 306n1; under fraud/guile/deceit, 195–202, 207, 266; graduated degrees of, 300n4, 312n5; prosecution of, 7; rape vs., 48–49, 242, 291n2; as term, 17; VAWA and, 52; view of, 201–2; as violation of sexual autonomy, 89. See also rape “sexual autonomy,” 5; of females, 4, 6, 86–87; model of, 3–4, 88–95 sexual harassment law, and sexual assault under duress, 192–93 sexual history: of rape victims, 10, 15–16, 30–31; shield laws and, 46 sexual history evidence: Adler on, 70; blackmail and, 192; in civil court, 50; criminal justice officials and, 57–58; implied consent and, 299n10; inadmissibility of, 21–22, 24, 182–83, 208–9, 214, 217, 219–23, 237, 249–50, 300n14; in Kobe Bryant case, 61, 308n13; limitations of, 306n9; rape law and, 65, 205–6, 240, 286; relevance of, 309n14, 310n3 sexual penetration. See penetration Sherry, Commonwealth v. (Massachusetts), 72, 73

shield legislation, 5, 15–16, 21–22, 60, 219–23; in Canada, 48; constitutional challenges to, 31–32, 253, 280; defendants’ rights and, 250; (in)effectiveness of, 46, 57–58, 204, 217–18

simple rape: as bulk of rape, 9, 97; in criminal justice system, 29; defense of consent and, 227, 228; definition of, 3; educating men about, 282–83; force/coercion and, 236; negligence and, 151, 164; presumptive nonagreement and, 121–22, 123–24, 166; rape reform and, 99, 213, 231–32, 237; sexual assault under duress vs., 189, 202; strict liability and, 141

Smith, William Kennedy, rape case of, 40, 59, 280

Somers, Margery, 11

Soothill, Keith, 44, 47

Spears, Jeffrey W., 34, 35

Spohn, Cassia: on discriminatory evidence requirements, 31–34; Horney and, 34–36, 38, 57–58, 313n7; Spears and, 35 spousal exemption, to rape charges: extension of, 252–53; repeal of, 20 spousal rape, 21; in Maine, 253. See also marital rape state laws: federal government and, 9, 269–70; for rape, 13

State, Goldberg v. (Maryland), force in, 107

State v. Lederer (Wisconsin), 112

State v. Thompson (Michigan), 193, 305n1 statutory rape, 18–19, 41–42; age limits of, 19; “jail bait” and, 245, 281; strict liability in, 68, 180, 249, 295n1 strict liability: criminal responsibility and, 67–68; in law, 295n1; mistaken consent and, 158, 178, 246; in Pineau’s model of communicative sexuality, 83, 84–85, 87, 88; rape law and, 63, 140–41, 240, 248 substantive law, 6, 9, 166, 242, 252, 264, 268, 283, 285; on rape, 204

Sweden, victims’ rights in, 277 symbolism, of rape reform laws, 2, 5, 6, 8, 31, 55, 201, 203, 242, 260, 282

Tchen, Christina M., 299n9; on defense of consent, 112, 114, 169, 171, 246; on doctrine of implied consent, 116–17, 300n3; on People v. Hearn, 121

Temkin, Jennifer: on character evidence, 222; on consent, 104, 181, 276; on counseling services, 315n12; on criminal justice system, 285; on defense of rape accusation, 305n3; on definition of rape, 299n9; on New Zealand, 293n4; on rape reform in England and Wales, 22, 46; on victims’ role, 277

Tennessee, rape as nonconsent in, 126

testimony: children’s, 25, 315n2; defendant’s, 121; drugs and, 180–81; expert, 302n12; female, 16, 117; male, 16; victim, 14, 117, 206, 307n2, 309n1

Texas: consent in, 176; corroboration requirement in, 307n2; rape trials in, 38

Thompson, State v. (Michigan), 193, 305n1 threats: as duress, 186–89, 194–95, 199; as force, 106, 207; implicit, 91, 130, 135; as implicit force, 105–6, 191; as negation of consent, 103–5, 237; psychological pressures vs., 187, 189–90, 199–200, 298n5; Schulhofer on, 91, 94–95. See also duress

Tong, Rosemarie, 16, 33

Tyson, Mike, rape case, 280

United States, Doe v., 219

United States v. Morrison et al., 52–53

University of Colorado, rape at, 51
“unwanted sex,” 4, 101–3
U.S. Constitution, 53; First Amendment to, 40; Fourteenth Amendment to, 6, 25, 31, 53, 250, 253, 275, 314n11; rape victims’ rights amendment to, 10, 260; rights under, 6; Sixth Amendment to, 6, 31, 181, 250, 253, 262; Tenth Amendment to, 313n10
U.S. Supreme Court: on discretion of judges and juries, 313n8; discrimination case in, 173, 179, 294n3; on prior sexual history provisions, 32–33; on sex-based characteristics, 314n11; shield laws and, 32, 218; VAWA and, 25, 52–53
Utah: definition of rape in, 297n4; Myers case in, 117

VAWA. See Violence against Women Act
Vermont, resistance requirements repealed in, 15 victim advocates: antirape movement and, 26; rape reform laws and, 1–2, 8 victims, rape: age of, 19; anonymity of, 18, 21–22, 25, 39–40, 47, 60, 259–60, 314n12; attitudes about, 56–60, 173, 218, 266; attorneys for, 276–78, 289; behavior of, 35, 57, 73, 117, 209, 223–24, 252–53, 300n14; blaming of, 61, 64, 85, 113, 224, 240, 253, 293n5, 294n6; civil suits and, 50–51; consent of, 80, 144, 221; credibility of, 30–31, 33, 35, 114–17, 220–21, 310n3; as disabled, 10; discrimination against, 9–10, 29, 57, 114–17, 122, 250, 275–76, 283; double victimization of, 2, 12, 15, 40, 241, 254–55, 275–76, 283, 285; drinking on part of, 47, 156, 309n14; equality for, 10, 12–13, 200–201, 241–42, 250; focus on, 80, 81, 85, 114, 133, 141, 308n13; implied consent of, 113; incapacitation of, 100, 121, 167, 180–81, 206, 283, 297–98n12, 301n5, 302n11, 306n7, 310n6; as innocent, 116–17, 118, 208, 219; men as, 2, 21–22; nonconsent/resistance of, 14–15, 80, 125–26; perceptions of, 108; persecution of, 2, 12; polygraphs for, 33, 40–41, 48, 315n2; precipitation, 37, 48, 59, 113, 204, 262, 296n4; protection of, 8; reputation of, 10, 15–16; resistance of, focus on, 73, 158–60; rights of, 5, 6, 10, 25–26, 41, 54–55, 258–62, 264, 269–70, 276–78; sexual history of, 10, 15–16; stereotypes of, 48; trauma for, 13; VAWA and, 51–54; as witnesses for prosecution: 54, 259, 276, 278
Victims of Crime Act (VOCA), 26 victims’ rights movement, 55, 250 violence: as force, 77; normalized in sex, 286; rape as crime of, 17, 98. See also domestic violence; rape; sexual violence Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), 23–25, 269, 313n9; cost of, 294n2; funding for rape reform in, 273–74; media and, 281; rape victims and, 51–54, 277
Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act, 24, 221, 269–70
Virginia: Brzonkala rape case in, 53, 294n3; VNI case and, 314n11
Virginia Polytechnic and State University, Brzonkala v. (U.S. Supreme Court), 53 voluntariness, agreement: definition of, 112–13; expression of, 229; as never implicit, 114, 207, 237; replacement of consent by, 109–11, 118; sadomasochistic sex and, 246; threats and, 191–92; victim behavior and, 223–24; victim indication of, 175–76, 183. See also consent Wales, rape reform in, 22, 44–45
Walsh, Anthony, 260
Washington: affirmative consent policy in, 30, 76, 81, 312n3; Blakely case in, 284, 313n8; burden of proof in, 171; consent defense in, 68, 171; Michigan law’s influence on, 292n1; rape as nonconsent in, 126
Washington, D.C. See District of Columbia
Weiner, Robin, 128–29
Weldon, S. Laurel, 286–89, 315n6, 315n7, 316n9
Wells, Catherine, 303n13
Wisconsin: affirmative consent policy in, 76, 81, 125, 176–77, 211, 228, 246, 312n3; definition of consent in, 112; rape as nonconsent in, 126, 176
Wright, Richard, 46
Wrightsman, Lawrence S., 59 women: definition of force of, 77; definition of rape of, 128–29; government access for, 288–89; as offenders of sexual assault, 18, 19; point of view of, 163–65, 168, 198–99, 202, 207, 302n6, 304n8; protection for, 245, 275; rape accusation and, 114–17; sexual agency of, 86, 110, 129, 181–82, 245, 253–54; stereotypes of, 40, 82, 91, 98, 134, 179; as subjugated group, 5, 6, 285–87; unfair treatment of, by legal system, 3, 275; victimization of, 5, 136; violence against, 5, 6, 25, 52–53, 55, 286–89; as wives, 20
women’s movement, 287–88, 315–16n8, 316n9
women’s rights, 6; of freedom from sexual assault, 246; movement, 1; to sexual autonomy, 4, 6, 86–87, 88–95, 125, 136, 187, 245; and VAWA, 24–25
Wyoming, victim resistance requirements in, 14
Yancey Martin, Patricia, 272
Yllo, Kersti: Finkelhor and, 43
Yurchesyn, Kathleen A., 47
Ziegenmeyer, Nancy, 39