

Acknowledgments

We would like to thank the following individuals for their assistance with this book, which has been transformed through the many talents possessed by the following collective. Laura Bronstein's writings, research, and resources are an asset to this book. We recognize as well Johanna Byrd's careful review and guidance of the legislative chapter; Donna Corbin's provision of numerous documents on the current state of foster care; Brian Manganaro's review of the mental health and developmental disabilities information; Lynne Masland's contributions and review from the foster parent perspective; Nancy Moss's contribution as another talented and experienced foster parent; Antonio Nunez's helpful research assistance; Dianne Oakes' contribution of her legal knowledge; Amber Riley's review of some of the earliest drafts; Shirley Rolison's coauthorship of table 4.2; and Debbie Winters' insight regarding the services offered for youth in foster care in schools.

A special "thank you" is extended to Dr. Gary Mallon, both for his mentorship over the years and for the foreword he has written for this book.

Finally, we thank Lauren Dockett, editor for social work at Columbia University Press, for her initial idea and support throughout the book's creation, and the editorial staff at the press, for their assistance in bringing this book to publication.

Advocating for Children in Foster and Kinship Care

