EDITORIAL BOARD

Anthony Burry, Ph.D. Former director, Psychology Internship Program and associate director, Department of Psychology, Postgraduate Center for Mental Health. Author of volumes on psychopathology, differential diagnosis, and psychodiagnostics.

Robert Cancro, M.D., Med. Sc.D. Lucius N. Littauer Professor of Psychiatry, Department of Psychiatry, New York University Medical Center. Former faculty, Menninger School of Psychiatry; former chairman, Department of Psychiatry, New York Medical Center; former chief editor, Journal of Psychiatric Education; former director, Nathan S. Kline Institute for Psychiatric Research.

Vincenzo Conigliaro, M.D. Founder, dean, and medical director, Training Institute for Mental Health. Author of a volume on the use of dreams in psychodynamic psychotherapy. Former professor of psychiatry, professor emeritus, Graduate School of Social Services, Fordham University.

Elizabeth Ann Danto, Ph.D. Associate professor of social work, Hunter College School of Social Work of the City University of New York. Former commissioner on employment and economic support for the National Association of Social Workers. Her volume, Freud’s Free Clinics: Psychoanalysis and Social Justice, 1918–1938, has won the Gradiva Award and the Goethe Prize.

Roberta Graziano, DSW. Professor and director of the Aging and Health Program, Hunter College School of Social Work. Former associate dean, Hunter College School of Social Work.
Professional publications treat object relations theory, clinical social work practice, and trauma and social work. Fellow, New York Academy of Medicine.

Catheleen Jordan, Ph.D., LCSW. Professor of social work, University of Texas. Author of volumes on clinical assessment, brief family therapy, and family therapy with special populations. President, National Association of Social Workers–Texas chapter. Former director, University of Texas (Arlington) Ph.D. Program. Former clinical director, University of Texas at Arlington Community Service Clinic.

Susan Kavaler-Adler, Ph.D., ABPP. Founder and executive director, Object Relations Institute. Author of volumes in object relations theory, creativity, developmental mourning and psychic change, and the psychobiography of women writers. Her scholarship has won the Gradiva Award, National Association for the Advancement of Psychoanalysis.

Frank Lachmann, Ph.D. Founding faculty, Institute for the Psychoanalytic Study of Subjectivity (New York); clinical assistant professor, New York University Postdoctoral Program in Psychotherapy and Psychoanalysis. Author of volumes on communication in psychoanalysis, infant research and adult treatment, aggression, and narcissism.

Fayek Nakhla, M.D. Member, British Psychoanalytic Society. Former director, Psychiatric Residency Training, Brookdale Hospital (New York). Former clinical associate professor, State University of New York, Downstate Medial Center. Author of volume on the therapeutic process.

Allan Schore, Ph.D. Clinical faculty, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, UCLA David Geffen School of Medicine and UCLA Center for Culture, Brain, and Development. Editor, Norton series on interpersonal neurobiology. Member, Commission on Children, Risk for the report on children and civil society, Hardwired to Connect.

Andrew Slaby, M.D., Ph.D., M.P.H. Clinical professor of psychiatry, New York University Medical Center, and New York Medical College. Member, Psychopharmacology Committee, the Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry. Past president, American Association of Suicidology. Former medical director, Fair Oaks Hospital.

Robert Stolorow, Ph.D. Founding faculty, Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis (Los Angeles); founding member, Institute for the Psychoanalytic Study of Subjectivity (New York); clinical professor of Psychiatry, UCLA School of Medicine. Author of volumes on an intersubjective systems perspective in psychoanalysis.
