CONTENTS

Foreword ix
  B. Timothy Walsh
Preface xiii
  Barbara P. Kinoy
Acknowledgments xix
List of Contributors xxi

Introduction 1
  Diane W. Mickley

1. Medical Aspects of Anorexia and Bulimia 7
  Diane W. Mickley

2. Recovery Through Nutritional Counseling 17
  Annika Kahm
3. Psychiatric Consultation with Eating Disordered Patients 49
   David Greenfeld

4. A Family Systems Perspective on Recovery from an Eating Disorder 57
   Nancy Thode

5. Relationship to Food as to the World 77
   Suzan J. Ryan

6. The Therapeutic Use of Humor in the Treatment of Eating Disorders; or, There Is Life Even with Fat Thighs 89
   Sarita Broden

7. Jodie’s Story 98
   Debra Bader

8. Eating Disorders and Managed Care 107
   Inge S. Ortmeyer

9. Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy and Other Short-Term Approaches in the Treatment of Eating Disorders 112
   James T. Wegner and Andrea Z. Wegner

10. The Nurse’s Role in a Pilot Program Using a Modified Cognitive-Behavioral Approach 127
    Phyllis Roloff

11. Individual Psychotherapy: A Long Journey of Growth and Change 133
    Inge S. Ortmeyer

12. Young Adult Women: Reflections on Recurring Themes and a Discussion of the Treatment Process and Setting 148
    Nancy King

13. Recovery 159
    Margaret Goldkof-Woodtke

Afterword 178
   Diane W. Mickley

Index 185