INDEX

activism, 95–115, xi
ALKQN, 49–51, 54–55, 56
Asociación Ñeta, 54–55, 56 authority in, 103
Bloods, 99–101, xi
careers in, 112n8
Crips, 99–101
females in, 193–194, 203–205
gang members in, 108–109 OG activists, 107–108
political consciousness in, 104–106 recovered gang members in, 106–107 research methods and sources on, 96–97
specialized knowledge in, 103–104 typologies of, 106–109 violence prevention and, 102 adaptation paradigm, 7–8 Adler, Freda, 179n1
adult influence criminal adult dependent gangs, 21–25
in Mexican American gangs, 21, 37–38
African American gangs. See also Bloods
activism of, 95–110, 103–106
classification of, 16
Crips, 99–102
economics and, 102–103
Gangster Disciples, 79–80
political consciousness in, 104–106
specialized knowledge in, 103–104
Vice Queens, 164–165
agency, xi–xii
in New York City gangs, 56–57 social structure and individual, 6–8 spirituality and, 125–127
ALKQN. See Almighty Latin King and Queen Nation (ALKQN) Almighty Latin King and Queen Nation (ALKQN)
avtivism by, 49–51, 54–55, 56 African Americans and, 195 agency in, 56–57, 125–127 assemblies in, 130–131 assistance provided by, 199–200 baptism in, 323, 333 behavior code of, 128
Bloods and, 95–96
children born into, 324, 333–334 community/family networks and, 200–201
culture of resistance in, ix curriculum of, 152–153
double standards in, 205 drug selling by, 42, 49–51, 53–55
education and, 136–137
endorsement of school by, 141–143 endorsement of self-control and self-help by, 143–144
entry route of females into, 192 ethnographic data on, xii
as family, 197–199
family in, 325, 334
fasting in, 130
female members of, 183–209, 322, 332–333
group-based knowledge and, 146–147 growth of, 51
history of, 140–141, 190–191
identity and, 133n6
influence of on schools, 155n16
Kingism/Queenism in, 124–131
King Tone, 329, 335–336 leadership and education in, 147–149
liberating rituals in, 129–131
liberation theology and, 124–131 motives of female members of, 192– 206 photojournalism on, xv–xvi, 314–336, politics and, xi
prayers of, 129–130
in prison, 48
Royal Lions in, 328, 335
salutations in, 130
Reflects on How His Work with Gangs Got Him Arrested” (Yager), 262–264
Camp, Camille Graham, 236, 248n44
Camp, George M., 236, 248n44
Campbell, Anne, 164, 172, 184 capitalism bureaucratic-industrial, 63 network, 63–65
Capitol Region Council of Churches, 90 carnalismo (Brotherhood), 17
Carter, London, 100, 107
Central American gangs
  classification of, 16–17
Chabot, Russell, 77–94, 81, x–xi Chicago gangs expectation diversity in, 9–10
  Gang Congregation Ordinance and, 215–216
Chicago School, 3–11, 66–67, vii–viii
Chicano Boyz, 23
Chicano Brotherhood, 22–23
Chicano gangs. See Mexican American gangs cholo subculture, 17–18 Cicourel, Aaron, 5
ciphers, 130–131
City of Chicago v. Morales, 220 class consciousness, 50 diques, 168, 169–170 collective politics of, 105, 106
Cohen, A., 137
Cohen, Albert, 8
Collier, John, Jr., 257
Collier, Malcolm, 257 communities
  activism and, 151–152
  capacity of for delinquency prevention, 5–6
  education and, 151–152
  gangs as, vii
  gang support of, 95–115 identity and weakening of, 68–72 violence and, 70–71
Community Against Police Brutality, 108 community field study method, 13, 18–19
conflict, within gangs, 8–10 Conquergood, Dwight, 5 consumption, identity, viii, 63–65, 69– 70, 71
Cooper, Gerald, 215
cooperative photography, 266–268 corporate gangs, 14
counterinstitutions, 137
criminal adult dependent gangs, 21–25
criminality
  facilitation of, 179n2
  literature on, 97–99
  in Mexican American gangs, 19–20
  in transitional gangs, 33–37
typologies based on, 15
criminalization of street youth cultures, 73 criminal non-adult dependent gangs, 25–31
criminology
  limitations of, 4–8
Crips, 24
  Bloods and, 101
  history of, 99–101
  truce of, 102
  violence in, 100–101
cruel and unusual punishment, 219 Cruz, Miguel, 289–290 cultural artifacts, 78
cultural deficiency, 145–146 cultural gangs, 14
cultural reproduction, 6–8 cultural studies research, 6–7 culture of resistance, ix, 47–48
  Los Solidos and, 87–90, 92
culture of risk, 64, 65
Curry, David, 184–185
Curtis, Ric, ix, 41–61
Daniels, Steve, 235
databases, gang, 223–226
Davis, Mike, 112n10
Dawley, David, 92
DeCesare, Donna, xv, 283–313 deideologization, 120, 132n2 delinquent gangs, 14 democracy, challenges facing, 73–74 deviance paradigm, vii–viii, 3–4 community organization and, 5–6 in contemporary scholarship, 6–7 criminality and, 98
diversity and, 8–10
human ecology paradigm and, 5–6 shortcomings of, 4–8 DiChiara, Albert, x–xi, 77–94 diversity, 3, 8–10
crime and, 8–9
positive gang activities and, 77–79
Don’t Spit On My Corner (Durán), 256, 268–270 dress
ALKQN, 52–53
antigang injunctions and, 222 culture of consumption and, 69–70, 71 gang databases and, 224
identity and, 69–70
in Mexican American gangs, 17–18
Neta, 52–53
drug selling, 15–16, 52–55 Chicano gangs and, viii–ix corporate-style, 45–51
in criminal adult dependent gangs, 21–25 effects of on urban landscape, 45–46 law enforcement myths about, 246n38
in Mexican American gangs, 32–33
new forms of, 57–58
New York gangs and, ix, 41–61 police crackdown on, 45–51 drug use
ALKQN on, 143–144
education and, 148–149
in female gangs, 172
female gangs and, 202–203
in Mexican American gangs, 20–21, 28
DuBois, Larry E., 228–229, 233, 248n50 due process, 223–224
Durán, Miguel, 256, 268–270, 274
Duret, Pascal, 69, 70
Durham, Jimmie, 258
ecology paradigm, vii–viii, 3–11 deviance and, 5–6
economic activities
females in, 166–167, 187
of Los Solidos, 88–90
in Mexican American gangs, 19–20, 30, 37–38
motivations for, 7–8 profit distribution and, 20, 27 economic status
Mexican American gangs and, 18 education, 136–157
activists on, 106–107
curriculum in, 152–153
data types on, 139
in El Salvador, 289
endorsement of school and, 141–143 formal vs. informal, 139
group-based knowledge and, 146–147 group endorsement of, 141–144 identity influences of, 64–65 leadership, role division, and, 147–149
literature on, 137–138
Los Solidos and, 90
political consciousness and, 104–106 prison and, 240–241
reorganization of, 90–91
research methodology on, 138–139
resistance to, 154n9
roles of in gang reform, 141–153 social networks and, 149–152 values of formal, 144–146
Ehrenberg, Alain, 64
Eighteenth Street gang, xv, 284
El Salvadoran gangs, 283–313 emergent social groups, 80 empowerment, 14
activism and, 105–106
education in, 136–137, 147–149
female gangs and, 177–178, 201–206
spirituality as, 124 entrepreneurial activities, 8–10. See also drug selling; economic activities Escobar, Edward J., 276–278
Esteva Martínez, Juan Francisco, xi, 96–115 ethnography, 42–43
photojournalism as, 256, 257–268 everyday practice, 7–8 exclusion, 66, 67–68
expectations
  conflict and, 8–10
failure, 70
families abuse by, 168–169, 176, 187, 192, 195–199 criminal adult dependent gangs and, 22–25 criminal history of, 168 fathers and female gang members, 168 female gang members and, 195–199 gangs as, 8–10
  large urban gangs and, 15–16
  Los Solidos and, 84–85, 87–88
  social control and, 38
fasting, 130
fatalism, 145–146, 154n10
Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), 225
Fein, Lisa C., 112n6
Felipe, Luis, 140, 190, 316, 330 female gangs, xii–xiii, 161–209
activism and, 203–205
ALKQN, 183–209, 322, 332
arrest statistics and, 165–167, 170–171 assistance offered by, 199–200 asylum in, 164, 172–174, 187 autonomy and, 165
background members in, 168, 169–170 benefits and drawbacks of, 172–177 biased research on, 184–185 cliques compared with, 168–171
community/family networks and, 200–201 cultural pride and, 173–174
drug use in, 172
economics of, 166–167, 173, 187, 199–200 educational background and, 192 empowerment and, 177–178 family pressures and, 195–199
identity and, 186–187, 193–195
liberation hypothesis on, 162–163, 174–175, 178–179, 184–185, 199–200
Los Solidos, 85, 88
male control in, 172 motives for joining, 192–206 overview of Boston, 167–172 paradoxes facing members, 161–182 past research on, 163–165 as protection, 171
push/pull factors in, 185–188 recruiting in, 200–201
research methodology on, 167–168, 188–189
research sample characteristics, 191–192 risks facing members in, 163, 171 sexual/physical abuse and, 168–169, 176, 187, 192, 195–199
social injury hypothesis on, 162–163, 178–179, 185
solidarity and, 164–165, 175–176, 203–205
stereotypes of, 163–164
territoriality of, 171–172 trends in, 165–167
underclass experience and, 188, 201–206 violence by, 170–171
fencing activities, 24
Fernandez, Antonio, 150
Fishman, Laura T., 164–165
Focus Youth Gang Services (FYGS), 107
Fong, Robert S., 247n44
Fordism, 63
fraternities, 4–5
freedom of speech, 218–219
Galton, Francis, 274
Galvez, José, 279
Gang Civil Injunction Fund, 221
INDEX

Gang Congregation Ordinance, 215–220 right of free movement and, 217–218 vagueness of, 217
gang databases, 223–226
gang experts, 107
gangs
   as American phenomenon, 66–67 changing needs and motivations in, 80–81 classical, 65–67
   classification of, 12–40
   diversity in, 3, 8–10, 77–79 economics and development of, 86 everyday practice among, 7–8 fraternities as, 4–5
   goals of, x–xi
   laws against, 213–227
   minorities and, 16–17
   politics and, x–xi
   positive activities of, 77–81
   prison treatment of, xiv as sociological phenomenon, 77–81
   stereotypes of, 77
   women in, xii–xiii, 161–209 youth culture vs., ix–x Gangster Disciples, 79–80
Gangsters, 23–25
ganking, 32
ghetto, changes in, 102–103 Gilchrist v. DuBois, 245n27 global cities, 64
González, Jennifer A., 271–272 government. See also politics activists and, 108
   Focus Youth Gang Services and, 107 support of activism by, 110 graffiti art, 34–35, 68 Grassian, Stuart, 244n18
groundroots movements, 134n12
Gutierrez, Gustavo, 122
Habermas, Jürgen, 9
Hagedorn, John M., 184
Hart, Steve, xv–xvi, 314–336
Hartford Housing Authority, 89
Haverty v. DuBois, 234, 243n8, 245n26, 246n30, 246n32 hierarchy, 66
hoods, 96–97
Horowitz, Ruth, 81
Huff, C. Ronald, 235
humanism, 149–150
idealism, 149–150
   “Identifying the Criminal” (Phillips), 272–273 identity, 62–74
   classical gangs and, 65–67
   consumption as, viii, 63–65 contemporary gangs and, 67–72 ethnic, 194–195
   female gangs and, 186–187, 193–195, 207n6 Gangster Disciples and, 80 gender, 197
   marginalization and, 67–72 network capitalism and, 63–65 prison programs and, 240–241 salutations and, 130
   spirituality and, 126–129, 133n6 symbolic communication in, viii territoriality and, 67–72
   violence in, 72–74
illiteracy, 240–241
immigrants
   classical gangs and, 66–67
   human ecology paradigm and, 3–4
   New York City gangs and, 44–45
   second-generation, vii–viii Immigration and Naturalization Service, 283–284
individuality
   network culture and, 64–65
   research on, 6–8
   violence as, 72–74
industrialization, 66–67
informers, 154n15
injunctions, xiii–xiv, 220–223 innational political consciousness, 105–106 institutional influences, 64–65. See also prison
   activism and, 105–106, 109–110
   counterinstitutions and, 137

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
Invaders, 31–33
Islands in the Street (Jankowski), 4 isolation, 102–103, 128–129 isomorphism
   institutional, 112n6
   mimetic, 109, 113n15
   normative, 107, 108
Iturbide, Graciela, 279

Jankowski, Martin, 4, 6, 14, 112n6
John Jay College of Criminal Justice, 149–150
   Street Organization Project, 95–96

Kassel, Phillip, xiv
Killing Crew, 35–37
King, Rodney, 273–274
Kingism/Queenism. See Almighty Latin King and Queen Nation (ALKQN)
Kirby, Lynne, 274
Klein, Malcolm W., 233, 235, 246n38, 264–265
Knox, G. W., 14

L.A. Gang Truce, 95–96, 102 labor opportunity, 10. See also economic activities
   education and, 144–146
   Los Solidos and, 89–90
Labor Relations Act, xiv
Lane, Dermot A., 133n5
Lapeyronnie, Didier, 73 law, gangs and, xiii–xiv, 213–227 antigang injunctions, 220–223
   cruel and unusual punishment, 219
due process and, 223–224 free speech and, 218–219
gang databases, 223–226
loitering laws, 214–220
   pariah status and, xiii–xiv, 213–214 photography in, 256–257, 272–278 privacy rights and, 223–224
   right of free movement and, 217–218
   unreasonable searches and seizures, 219–220
   vagrancy, 214
leadership
   activism and, 103
   authority and, 68–72
   education and, 147–149
   in Mexican American gangs, 20, 25, 26, 29–31, 33 prison targeting of, 229–230 respect and, 69–70
   in transitional gangs, 33–37
LeBron, Lolita, 204
Lee, Annie, 224
Leyvas, Henry, 276–277
liberation hypothesis, xiii, 178–179, 179n1, 184–185 economic survival and, 199–200
   female gang members and, 162–163 liberation theology, 122–123 Kingism/Queenism and, 124–131
   liberating rituals in, 129–131
loitering laws, 214–220
Los Angeles Daily News, 276–278
Los Angeles gangs, 95–115
   Blythe Street Gang, 221 injunctions against, 220–223 photojournalism of, 257–268
   Playboy Gangster Crips, 220–221
Los Macheteros, 86, 92–93 Los Solidos, x–xi, 81–93 business project, 88–90
   civic project, 89–90 community and, 92–93
   crews, 90–91
   criminal behavior by, 88–89, 92–93 duality in, 86
   as family, 84–85
   family project, 87–88
   female members of, 85, 88
   framing by, 84–86
gang formation theory of, 88–89
gangster project, 82–83 Handbook, 82, 83, 87
   patrons, 82, 83–84, 89–90 politics and crime in, 80
   positive activities of, 78–79 projects of, 81–83
   loyalty, 66
Luckenbill, Dan, 276
machismo, 17
Magnifident, 20s, 83
Marable, M., 5
Mara Salvatrucha (MS-13), xv, 284, 285–313 marginalization, 67–72
female gangs and, 186–187
Marianismo, 186, 193, 194
Martin Thugs, 37
Marxist theory, 6–8
Massachusetts prison gang crackdowns, 228–252 alternatives to, 239–241 Criminal Sentiments Program, 232 efficacy of, 232–233 gang mythology and, 233–234 gang renunciations and, 231, 232, 238 implications of, 232–237 misidentification in, 230–231, 235–236, 249n63 policy operation in, 229–232 problems in, 233
psychiatric consequences of, 230, 238–239, 244n18 security and public safety and, 237–239
solidarity and, 233–235, 238–239
stereotyping in, 236–237 unfair labeling in, 231–232 mass production, 63–65
Matias, Julio, 218
McCarthyism, 226
McDonald, Kevin, ix–x, 62–74
McKay Commission, 251n81
Melendez, Francis, 245n27
Mexican American gangs, 12–40 adult influence in, 21
barrio-territorial, 31–33
Chicano Boyz, 23, 26–29
Chicano Brotherhood, 22–23
compared with other gangs, 17–18 criminal adult dependent, 21–25 criminal networks and, 13 criminal non-adult dependent, 25–31
drug use in, 20–21
Gangsters, 23–25
illegal activities of, 19–20
Invaders, 31–33
the Killing Crew, 35–37 minority status and, 16–17
Nine-Ball Crew, 22–23
photojournalism and, 256
research methodology on, 17–18, 18–19
in San Antonio, viii–ix
territoriality and, 12–13, 17–18, 31–33
transitional, 33–37
types and organization of, 13–16, 19–21
Up and Above, 34–35
Varrio La Paloma, 29–31
violence in, 21
Michaels, Eric, 266–268
middle class
African American, 102
Mexican American, 18
Miller, Larry L., 273
Miller, W., 137
mimetic isomorphism, 109, 113n15
Miranda, J. P., 134n13
Mitchell, William J., 264
Mi Vida Loca/My Crazy Life, 270
Mizruchi, Mark S., 112n6
Molina, Gloria, 278
Montero, M., 132n2
Moore, J., 153n3, 165, 177, 184
Moreno, Miguel, 222
Mosk, Stanley, 226
MS–13. See Mara Salvatrucha (MS–13)
Naia Tribe of New York State, 190.
See Almighty Latin King and Queen Nation (ALKQN)
National Gang Tracking Network, 223
National Institute for Corrections (NIC), 234, 239 National Labor Relations Act, 221 national political consciousness, 105–106
National Youth Gang Center, 214 National Youth Gang Survey, 101 near groups, 80
negotiated poses, 256
network capitalism, 63–65
self-esteem and, 72–74
New York City gangs, ix, 41–61. See also Almighty Latin King and Queen Nation (ALKQN) corporate-style drug distribution and, 45–46 in drug distribution, 41–61 economics and, 44 history of, 43–46 neighborhood deterioration and, 44–45 Puerto Rican and Dominican, 46 research methodology on, 42–43 retrenchment in, 52–55 territoriality of, 44

New York Times, 48
Nguyen, Ted, 225
Nine-Ball Crew, 22–23
normative isomorphism, 107, 108
Nurges, Dana, xiii

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), 214 OFO. See Original Family Organization (OFO) organization, typologies based on, 14, 20
Original Family Organization (OFO), 82, 93n1. See also Los Solidos

Pachuco Era, The (Luckenbill), 276
Padilla, F., 9, 14
Pan-American Health Organization, 287

Papachristou v. City of Jacksonville, 214, 217 pariah status, xiii–xiv, 213–214 parochial political consciousness, 105–106 party gangs, 14, 33
pathology
criminality and, 98
subcultures as, vii–viii
Pee Wees, 190, 191, 321, 331–332. See also Almighty Latin King and Queen Nation (ALKQN)

Pham, Quyen, 224
Phillips, Sandra S., 272–273

Photography: A Middle-brow Art (Bourdieu), 258
photojournalism, xiv–xvi, 255–336
ALKQN, 314–336
approaches to, 256–257
autoethnographic, 256, 268–272 cooperative, 266–268
El Salvadoran, 283–313
law enforcement and, 256–257, 272–278 perception and representation in, 278–280 of Yager, 257–268
Playboy Gangster Crips, 220–221
“Playboy ‘Muerto’ Puts a Gun in His Mouth” (Yager), 258–260 Polanco, Luis, 290
police harassment, 225
politics, x–xi
female gangs and, 203–205
Los Solidos and, 78–79, 89–90 photojournalism and, xiv–xvi political consciousness, 104–106 social demands transformed into political demands, 73–74 post-Fordist society, viii, 3, 4, 10n1 self-identity and, 63–65 postmodernism, 62–63
poverty
criminality and, 98
deviance paradigm and, 4–8 gang formation and, 78–79 individual responses to, 7–8 Powell v. Texas, 219
Pratt, Mary Louise, 258
praxis, 123, 133n3
prayer, 129–130
primitives, 154n13
prison, xiv
activism and, 104–105
ALKQN and, 49–50
females in, 205
gang crackdowns in Massachusetts, 228–352 gang mythology in, 228, 233–234 gangs in, 48
Nine-Ball Crew and, 22–23 prison (continued)
  rehabilitation efforts and, 240–241 restrictive housing in, 228–232 Texas gangs, 247n44
  unrest in, 239–241, 250n80, 251n81 *Prison Gang Dynamics: A Look Inside the Texas Department of Correction * (Fong), 247n44
Prison Gangs: Their Extent, Nature and Impact on Prisons (Camp, Camp), 248n44
privacy rights, 223–224, 225 professionals, gang affiliation with, 150–151
projects, 81, 92
  Los Solidos, 81–83
Psychopathological Effects of Solitary Confinement (Grassian), 244n18 psychopathology, criminality and, 98 public relations, 150–151 Puerto Rican gangs
  classification of, 16–17
  Los Solidos, 83–93
Quicker, John C., 184
Race, Police, and the Making of a Political Identity* (Escobar), 276–278 racism
  female gang members and, 194
  gang databases and, 225–226
  gang development and, 86
  New York City gangs and, 44–45 photography and, 270–278 prison restrictive housing and, 236– 237, 240, 249n66
  redemption, 127–128
resistance, ix, 78–79
  culture of, 47–48
  education and, 144–145
  in New York City gangs, 56–57
  praxis, 123
  spirituality and, 119–120, 121–122, 134n13
  theory, 6–8
  respect, 69–72
  El Salvadoran gangs and, 290
  female gangs and, 171, 201–206
  prison authorities and, 240 RICO act, 113n1, 330
  right of free movement, 217–218 Riley, William, 239–240 risk, culture of, 64, 65
  Robinson v. California, 219
  Rodriguez, Joseph, 279
  Rodriguez, Richard, xv, 255–382
  Roundtable for Youth, 155n18 rules and rituals
  activism and, 103–104
  liberating, 129–131
  in Mexican American gangs, 17–18, 30–31
  typologies based on, 15
  Russell, Nehemiah, 79–80
Salazar-Atias, Camila, xiii, 183–209 salutations, 130
Salvadoran gangs, xv
San Antonio gangs, viii–ix, 18–40
  Nine-Ball Crew, 22–23
  research methodology on, 18–19
  Varrio La Paloma, 29–31
Sanchez, Mark, 28–29
Sanday, Peggy, 4–5
San Jose gangs, 221–222, 226
Sansone’s Police Photography (Miller), 273 school-based gangs, 34
Sekula, Allan, 272, 274 self-control, 143–144
self-esteem
  education and, 148
  network culture and, 64, 65, 72–74
  violence and, 71–72
self-help, 143–144
Sennett, Richard, 64, 65 sets, 96–97, 111n2
Shelden, Randall G., 249n63
Short, James, 8
Siegel, Loren, xiii–xiv
Simon, Rita, 170n1
social change, 193–194
social cohesion, 127–129 social control, xiii–xiv families and, 38
institutions, failures of, 152–153
Los Solidos and, 85–86
network culture and, 64–65
social disorganization, 66, 67–68 social gangs, 14
social injury hypothesis, 162–163, 177, 178–179, 185 social justice, 151
social mobility, 144–145 social networks, 149–152 social relationships, deviance paradigm on, 6 social structure, individual agency and, 6–8 social workers, 155n17 Spigel, I. A., 12
Spirituality, xi–xii, 119–135 agency and, 125–127
deideologizing, 120
Kingsism/Queenism and, 124–131
liberation theology and, 122–123, 124–131
literature on, 121–122
religious institutions and, 120 religious practices and, 133n8
research methodology on, 123–124
resistance and, 121–122, 134n13 social cohesion and, 127–129 sources of, 123
St. Onge, David, 231–232 status, violence and, 71–72 stereotypes, 77
of female gang members, 163–164
prison restrictive housing and, 236–237
Street Organization Project, 95–96
ALKQN and, 183–209
approach of, 98–99
on spirituality, 123–124 street organizations, 153n1, 206n1, xii political, 132n1
Stringer, E., 124
Strotbeck, Fred, 8
subjectivity, 70
subjugation, 47–48
subordination, 145–146
supergangs, 100–101
tagging crews, 34–35
tattoos, 327, 334–335
Taylor, C., 14
Teen Angel’s Magazine, 236, 270–271 territoriality, viii–ix of female gangs, 171–172
identity and, 67–72
Mexican American gangs and, 12–13, 17–18, 31–33
in New York City gangs, 44
Thrasher, F., 121, 133n3
Tillman, Oscar, 225
Tram, Minh, 224
transitional gangs, 33–37
Tsang, Daniel C., 278
twelve-step programs, 124, 146–147 typologies, 12–40
adult influence and, 21 barrio-territorial gangs, 31–33 based on activity, 13–14 based on criminality, 15, 19–20 based on development stages, 14–15 based on organization, 14, 20 based on rules and rituals, 15 commonalities in, 15–16 drug-use patterns and, 20–21 factors used in, 13–16
transitional gangs, 33–37
underclass, 79, 98, 188
female gangs and, 201–206
unreasonable searches and seizures, 219–220
Up and Above, 34–35
vagrancy laws, xiii–xiv, 214 Valdez, Avelardo, viii–ix, 12–40 values, deviance paradigm and, 5–8
Varrio La Paloma, 29–31
Varrio Sureno Locos, 221–222
Varrio Sureno Treces, 221–222
Vatos Locos, 32–33
Venkatesh, Sudhir, vii–viii, 3–11
Vice Lords, 92
Vice Queens, 164–165
Vigil, D., 17
violence
activists on, 107–108
as boundary, 72–74
controlling, 112n11
drug-related, 47–48
female gangs and, 170–171
in Mexican American gangs, 17–18, 31–32
respect and, 70–72
self-esteem and, 71–72
social meaning of, 71–72 typologies and, 15–16, 21
by women, 166–167
Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, 112n11
Violent Gang and Terrorist Organization File, 225 Violent Gang Task Force, 284 void-for-vagueness doctrine, 217, 220 weapons
availability of, 37
selling, 36
violence levels and, 101
Weber, Max, 63
Williams, Nick, 277
Willis, Paul, 7
Wilson, Pete, 221
Wilson, William Julius, 102
“Work of Art in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction, the” (Benjamin), 255
Yablonsky, Lewis, 80
Yager, Robert, 256, 257–268
“Camera Man: A Photographer Reflects on How His Work with Gangs Got Him Arrested,” 262–264
“gang member shooting heroin,” 266–268
Newsweek cover, 264–266
“Playboy ‘Muerto’ Puts a Gun in His Mouth,” 258–260
Young, Iris Marion, 105
Youth Board, 155n18
youth culture, ix–x, 45–46
Zatz, Marjorie S., 280
Zinzun, Michael, 108
Zoot Suiers, 268–270, 275–276
Zulu Nation, 95–96