INDEX

Page references in italics refer to tables and figures.

accountability, 150
advice, 166
affiliative leadership, 90, 92, 93 agendas, 160–61
aggregations, participation in, 2
American Association for the Study of Group Work (AAGW), 5 anticipatory socialization, 38
Argyris, C., 75, 216n2
Asch, S. E., 202 attitudes, 202–3
authenticity, self-disclosure on behalf of, 176 authoritative leadership, 90, 92, 93
Bales, R. F., 74, 75, 101, 111, 113, 115, 138, 207, 216n1 Balgopal, P. R., 99, 131, 197
Bavelas, A., 202 behavior(s): boards of directors role, 154; of chair and staff, 49, 50, 134, 138–39, 196, 216n2; concepts used for, 215n1; consistency in, 200; constructive and destructive, 81, 82–86, 126; contracting, 13, 14, 16; descriptive, 39; due to physical space, 162; group vignettes of, 189–94; individual vignettes of, 183–89, 193–94; leadership, 55, 58, 71, 73, 81, 82–86, 90, 115, 138–39, 155–56, 160, 163, 178, 179, 184, 185, 188–89, 194, 215n2, 216n1; manipulative, 168; normative and deviant, 141; oppositional, 194; patterns of, 28–29, 40–41, 70, 75, 77–78, 114, 118–19, 127, 145, 153, 196; psychological, 98–99, 117; task accomplishment, 47; transformation of, 30–31; worker, 50, 132 behavioral scientists, 4 Benne, K. D., 95
Bennis, Warren, 55–56, 111, 121
Benveniste, G., 166
Bernstein, S. B., 118
Bion, W. R., 38–39, 58, 69, 209 boards of director(s): collapse of moral authority in, 11; components of high-function, 158; description of, 152–55, 157; fiduciary responsibility of, 155–59; bonding: among members, 30; types of, 30–31, 215n3 Brill, N., 132
budgeting process, 148–49, 203 building/structuring, 174 burnout, phenomenon of, 7 capitalist triumphalism, 10, 54
Caplan, G., 196
Carter, Stephen L., 95 commitment: issues of, 66–67; of organization, 66–67, 215n1
Chaiklin, H., 207
Chair(s): behavior of, 49, 50, 134, 138; contract involvement for, 14, 15; definition of, 2, 12; devices useful for, 160, 161; differentiation stage of development for, 124; educational process for, 33; expectation levels for, 114–15, 204; group participation of, 26; objectives of, 51; power and control stage of development for, 120, 121; preaffiliation stage of development for, 117–18; pregroup stage of development for, 115–16; preliminary involvement stage of development for, 118–19; problem solving role of, 183–94; quadrifocal vision of, 126; role of, 52, 68, 71, 77–79, 102, 103, 148, 215n1; shorthand assessments of, 200; solidarity stage of development for, 122–23; staff relationship with, 178, 180–82, 216n3; style of, 194; technologies useful for, 162–77, 216n2; viewpoint of, 47–48; work between meetings, 162
Change(s): in gender roles, 9; induction purposes, 131–32; in life cycle, 9–10; in nature of work force, 8; in organizations, 8, 9, 152; processes, 103; theory of, 205
Citizenship, standards of, 38
Civility, concept of, 95
Clarifying, 177
Clarity, lack of, 175, 188
Coaching, 91, 93, 94, 169, 176
Coercive leadership, 90, 91, 93
Collectives, participation in, 2
Commitment: issues of, 45; member, 100, 109
Composition, variables of, 37–38
Concerns, 6–7
Conflict(s): change creates, 48; constructive, 54, 120–21, 156; destructive, 139; expectations regarding, 130; management, 28, 52, 173; styles of, 141
Confrontation, 130, 167–68
Contract(s): abuse of, 16; definition of, 13; elements in development of, 38; evolution of, 13; fixed and rigid, 14; objectives of, 15; revision of, 15–16; termination of, 16
Contracting: behaviors, 13, 14, 16; definition of, 12; framework of, 14–15; processes of, 12, 13–15, 116, 143
Coordinate covalent bonding, 30–31, 215n3
Coser, L., 147, 148
Counterdependency, 212–13
Covalent bonding, 30, 215n3
Criticism, 184–85
Davenport, Thomas H., 56
Davis, L., 206
decentering, 172
decision making: capacity for, 51; consequences of, 167, 171; effective, 104; factors that affect quality of, 104–9; health and human services, 104, 136; interprofessional, 135–37; leadership, 104–5, 135; minutes as record of, 161; organizations, 2, 103; processes, 1, 100–101, 102, 108, 109–10, 134, 135, 139–40, 148, 153; result of, 2, 126; staff role in, 137–38; stages of, 103; typologies of, 108 democracy: emphasis of, 47; leadership implications for, 55, 89; in workplace, 4, 45, 56 democratic group: undemocratic group vs., 45–46 democratic leadership style, 90–91, 92, 93, 99 democratic microcosm: characteristics of, 36, 47–49; components of, 44–45; concept of, 95, 109, 187; coordinate covalent bonding for, 30–31; development of, 45, 139, 154; fostering, 49–52; group life as, 30, 43, 124, 215n2; hallmarks of, 37; maturity in, 45–47; member of, 199; method of inquiry in, 99 democratic processes, 11, 44, 95–96, 99, 109, 155

dependency, 210–11

development: of democratic microcosm, 45, 139, 154; differentiation stage of, 54, 120, 123–25; existence of both phases and cycles during, 215n1; implications of, 34–35; issue of group composition for, 155; power and control stage of, 120–22; preaffiliation stage of, 116–18; pregroup stage of, 113, 115–16, 216n2; preliminary involvement stage of, 118–20; of problem solving, 97; solidarity stage of, 120, 122–23; termination stage of, 113, 125–26; work phase of, 167 developmental theory, 200 direction, 166

discussion: activities of, 29; subjects for, 33 domineering member, 187 double loop learning, 59–60

Druskat, V. N., 127, 130 education: curricula of professional, 43, 79–80, 136, 171, 195, 201, 202, 205, 207; process of, 33–34; state of, 10; vehicle in teams, 133; working groups’ role in, 3–4 ego-psychological linkage, 196–99 emotional intelligence, 91, 127, 128–29, 130–32 empathy, 42, 54, 74, 90, 164–65, 194 encounters, participation in, 2

Enron, 150

Ephross, J. E., 135

Ephross, Paul H., 73, 135, 136

equanimity, 51, 69, 109, 135 ethnic characteristics, 55

evaluation, 175–76

excessive talker, 184

exploring, probing, questioning, 165–66

failure, 77, 79

feedback, 165

feelings: desensitizing and sensitizing, 176; reflecting (mirroring), 185 fence-straddler, 186

fiduciary responsibility, 155–59

fight, 39, 209–10

flight, 212

focus, 171

Follett, Mary Parker, 4, 5

formalist-theoretician, 185–86

Freud, Sigmund, 53

funds, 2, 148–49, 150, 154

Galinsky, M. J., 111, 112, 113

Garland, J. E., 111, 112, 113, 122, 141

Garvin, C. D., 111, 206

gender role(s): changes in, 9; characteristics, 55

Getzels, J. W., 97

Glidewell, J., 88, 111, 112, 127

Goffee, R., 53, 54

Goffman, E., 102

Goleman, Daniel, 90–94

grading, 172

greedy institutions, 147–48

group culture: constrictive, 40–41; of democratic microcosm, 37; development of, 130; integrative, 39–40; labile, 41–42; leadership in, 75, 96, 123; of organizations, 141, 143, 155; unstable, 42, 215n4 group dynamics, 5, 6

group examples. See examples and case studies
INDEX

232

group flow, 176

Janis, I., 104, 105, 153

Jaques, E., 58, 103

Jefferson, Thomas, 45

Jones, G., 53, 54

Jones, H. E., 111, 112, 113, 122, 141

Kane, R., 135

Kanter, R. M., 132, 133 knowledge: aspects, 201–2; authority of, 79; extent and limits of, 207, 216n1; sociology of group work, 4–8; work, 56

Kolodny, R. L., 111, 112, 113, 122, 141, 185

Kouzes, James M., 57

Kurland, R., 113, 216n1

“Law of Optimum Distance,” 37–38

Lawler, Edward E., III, 56 leadership: assistance to boards of directors, 155; authorities of, 78–79; behaviors, 58, 71, 73, 81, 82–86, 90, 115, 138–39, 155–56, 160, 163, 178, 184, 185, 188–89, 194, 215n2, 216n1; characteristics of, 54–55; danger signals of, 81; decision-making for, 104–5, 135; democratic v. autocratic, 44–45; differentiation stage of development for, 124; emotional, 90, 91, 128–29; function, 95–96, 159; in groups, 3–4, 12, 16, 40, 41, 42, 43, 50–51, 59, 75, 77–78, 89, 96, 99, 101, 123, 150–51, 215n4; for human services, 55–57; implications for democracy, 89; in mature groups, 69, 124; models, 89; within organizations, 32, 35–58, 71, 90, 146, 159; power and control stage of development for, 120, 121–22; preaffiliation stage of development for, 117–18; pregroup stage of development for, 115–16; preliminary involvement stage of development for, 118–20; proactive, 73–74, 215n2; problem of, 39; professional, 75; qualities, 53, 74–75; as representative and distributive functions, 68–69; research on, 53, 55–57, 58, 71, 90–94, 167–68; role in case study, Handy, Charles, 56

Hare, A. P., 216

Hartford, M. E., 111, 112, 113, 216n2

HartsocK, S., 55

health service(s): big business in, 203; decision-making in, 104, 136; delivery of, 7; group involvement for, 2; organizations, 3, 72, 135, 136, 143, 146–51, 154; professionals, 2, 3, 43, 68, 135, 145, 147; skills in staffing for, 195; staff, 57–58, 145, 148, 149; students of, 201; technological use of, 79; as victims of groupthink, 106–8 historical developments, 4–7 human service(s): big business in, 203; culture of democratic microcosm within, 37; decision-making in, 104, 136; development of, 6, 7; group involvement for, 2; observations of leadership for, 55–57; organizations, 3, 72, 135, 136, 143, 146–51, 154; professionals, 2, 3, 43, 68, 135, 145, 147; skills in staffing for, 195; staff, 57–58, 145, 148, 149; students of, 201; technological use of, 79; as victims of groupthink, 106–8 ideologue, 186–87

information technology, importance of, 8

intergroup relations, 10 interpersonal needs, of staff, 146 interpersonal relationships, 141–43, 151–52

interpersonal understanding, 127, 128–29, 130

Jaques, E., 58, 103
60–67; shaping, domain of, 169–70; skills, 73, 94, 99; solidarity stage of development for, 123; strands of, 69–73, 215n1; styles, 90–94, 95; tasks regarding, 68, 160; team, 130, 131, 132–33, 134; termination stage of development for, 125–26; theory, history of, 53; views of, 32, 89 learning: ambivalence of, 201; double loop, 59–60; processes of, 52, 182; settings for, 199; single loop, 59; transfer of, 33–34

Lewin, Kurt, 4, 46, 103, 199, 200, 201, 202
Lieberman, M.A., 167 life cycles, changes in, 9–10 limits; setting, 172–73
Lincoln, Y. S., 3
Lippitt, R., 90
listening, 177
long-term group (permanent), 27, 28, 29

Maier, N. R. E., 102, 103 manager, 12
Mann, L., 2, 103, 104, 153 Mann, R. D., 111, 112 mature group(s): commitment in, 100; executive function in, 12; growth into, 16; leadership in, 69, 124; process of, 30, 33, 45 McLeaurin, D., 136
mediator function, 151
meeting notices, 161–62

member(s): bonding among, 30; capacities, 98–99, 100, 104–5, 197, 198; commitment, 100, 109; cultural aspects for, 113; of democratic micросosm, 199; devices useful for, 160, 161, 162; differentiation stage of development for, 124; dominant, 187; effective, 109; executive function of, 12; expectation levels for, 114–15, 204; groupthink in, 108; integration of abilities for, 198; interpersonal understanding of, 127, 128–29, 130; of long-term groups, 28; power and control stage of development for, 120–22; preaffiliation stage of development for, 116–18; pregroup stage of development for, 115–16; preliminary involvement stage of development for, 118–20; professionals as, 2; public and private sentiments of, 29; role in problem solving, 183–94; role of, 13, 69, 77–78, 137, 148, 215n1; shorthand assessments of, 200; in small groups, 69, 99; solidarity stage of development for, 122–23; team, 135, 136, 138, 139; technologies useful for, 162–77, 216n2; of temporary groups, 27; tendencies of, 75; termination stage of development for, 125–26; work in idiom of, 171. See also membership method of inquiry, 99, 103 Miles, M., 131, 132, 167

Mill, John Stuart, 207, 216n1
Mills, T., 12, 111, 112 minutes, 161
mirroring, 165
model(s): Boston, 111; development, 27–42, 112, 215n1; leadership, 89; stage, 113; team, 132 modeling, 169, 176
molar/molecular characteristics, 31–32
Moulton, Lord, 57, 95
National Association of Social Workers, 5 news management, 149
Northen, H., 111, 112, 113, 216n1

Ogilvy, James, 87 organization(s): boards of directors in, 152, 153, 157, 158; case study of, 60–64, 215n1; changes in, 8, 9, 152; characteristics of, 3, organization(s) (continued) 26, 35–36, 114, 141–43; culture of, 141, 143, 155; decision-making by, 2, 103; examples of structure of, 144–45; group settings within, 35–36, 37, 43, 47–48, 74, 80, 90, 126, 131; health and human service, 3, 72, 135, 136, 145, 146–51, 154; host, 14, 15; important work in, 127; inequality within, 10; leadership within, 32, 55–58, 71, 74, 90, 146, 159; mediator for, 151; membership determined by, 37; minutes for, 161; networks of, 130; new paradigm in terms of, 88; phenomena, 147–51; power in, 145–47; pregroup stage of development for, 115; problem solving within, 97, 98, 99; small groups in, 9, 88–89, 97; sponsor, 13, 14, 15; strands of, 70–73; structure of, 88, 131, 144–45, 155, 202; subsets of, 141–43; technological use within, 80; work in, 127; worker relationship to, 146 pace setting, 91, 93, 94 pacing, 172
pairing, 211
paradigms, new, 87–88
partializing, 171
Patton, M. Q., 87
pedagogy, 95, 96
Personality and Social Systems (Smelser and Smelser), 207 Phillips, Helen, 204 physical space, 162
planning: connected with problem solving, 196–97; forms of, 2, 194; groups, 123 Plaut, S. Michael, 210
pointing to history, 175
Polley, R. B., 216
Posner, Barry Z., 57 power strategies, 140
practice: perspective gained from, 8; in postwar period, 4–5, 6; principles for teams, 138–39; professional, 76–77, 151–52, 195, 202, 205 problem solving: assets for, 103; chairs and members role in, 183–94; creative, 130; detachment in, 100; development of, 97; methodology, 131; within organizations, 97, 98, 99; phases of, 101–2, 113–14; planning connected with, 196–97; process, 46, 99, 100–103, 108, 109–10, 121, 131–32, 135, 139–40, 173; staff role in, 137, 183–94 problems, recurring, 183–94 professional(s): activity research, 204–7; on boards of directors, 152, 153; education curricula of, 43, 79–80, 136, 171, 195, 201, 202, 205, 207; function, 172; health and human service, 2, 3, 43, 68, 135, 145, 147; leadership, 75; as members, 2; practice, 76–77, 151–52, 195, 202, 205; preparation of, 201–4; skill, 203; social work, 159; staff persons, 137–38, 161; team involvement for, 132 public and private domains, 29–30, 58, 59, 117

Q-sort: instrument, 209; statements, 209–13

quiet person, 183–84

Redl, F, 69

Reed, B. G., 111, 206

reflecting feelings (mirroring), 165 releasing tension, 174–75

research: agenda, 195, 205–6; on leadership, 53, 55–57, 58, 71, 90–94, 167–68; perspective gained from, 8; in postwar period, 4–5; for professional activity, 204–7; of sociologists, 146 role-playing, 170, 202

Sarri, R. C., 111, 112, 113

Schiller, L. Y., 111, 113

Schon, D. A., 75, 76, 205

Schwartz, Peter, 87

Schwartz, W., 30, 143, 166, 205

self-disclosure, 176

sensing, 54

sequencing, 171–72

shaping, 169–70

Shepard, H. A., 111, 121

Shulman, L., 113, 185

silence, 163–64

simple bonding, 30, 215n3

single loop learning, 59

skill(s): aspect, 203–4; development of, 7, 52, 74; of group life, 199; job, 201; leadership, 73, 94, 99, 160, 216n1; list of, 178, 179; professional, 203; in staffing, 195; team building, 133, 137

Slater, Philip, 57

small group(s): in democratic society, 46; function of, 3; members in, 69, 99; in organizations, 9, 88–89, 97; processes of, 11, 71

Smelser, N. J., 207

Smelser, W. T., 207

social history, sex and racial/ethnic background in, 38 social psychological linkages, 199–200 social scientist(s): leadership study by, 55; research and practice of, 4–5 social trends, 8–11

social work: culture of democratic microcosm within, 37; exercise of civility in, 95; formulations within, 111, 112; history of, 132; practice of, 206–7; professional, 159; research and practice of, 5, 6, 76–77 social workers, 4, 135, 202 sociology, of group work, 4–8

Sonnenfeld, J. A., 158

staff(s): awareness of power strategies, 140; behavior of, 49, 50, 196; board groups, 32, 69; case study role of, 60–64, 65, 66–67; chair relationship with, 178, 180–82, 216n3; composition participation by, 37; contract involvement for, 13, 14, 15; definition of, 2, 12; development phases of, 34; devices useful for, 160, 161; differentiation stage of development for, 124; double loop learning for, 59–60; health and human service, 57–58, 145, 148, 149; interest, 154, 155; interpersonal needs of, 146; lead democratic microcosms, 37; as mediator, 151; objectives of, 51; power and control stage of development for, 120, 121; preaffiliation stage of development for, 117–18; pregroung stage of development for, 115–16; preliminary involvement stage of development for, 118–19; problem solving role of, 137, 183–94; processes of, 6; professional, 137–38, 161; quadrifocal vision of, 126; role of, 26, staff(s) (continued)
52, 58, 68, 72, 73, 77–79, 102–3, 135, 136, 137–40, 215n1; shorthand assessments of, 200; solidarity stage of development for, 123; style of, 194; technologies useful for, 162–77, 216n2; viewpoint of, 47–48; work between meetings, 162; work with, 31 stages/phases: case study role-induction, 64, 65; decision making, 103; of development, 50, 69, 100, 111–26, 215n1, 216n2; patterns of, 113–14; for women's groups, 111, 113

Stanford Research Institute, 87
Stewart, Thomas A., 56–57
Stone, P.J., 216

strand(s): citizenship, 73; personality, 69–70; social/organizational, 70–73

Strodbeck, F., 101, 111, 113 structuralist, 188

structure: aspects of, 28, 34; interaction as part of, 29; organizational, 88, 131, 144–45, 155, 202; processes within, 52; task requirements for, 36

subgroups, dividing into, 173

summarizing, 171

support, 169

suppositions, 170–71

symbolic interaction theory, 199–200

synthesizing, 177

talker, excessive, 184

task(s): accomplishment, 47, 165, 166, 188; groups, 1, 39, 163, 185; importance of, 51; leadership regarding, 68, 160; membership determined by, 37; at power and control stage, 120; at preaffiliation stage, 117, 118; at preliminary involvement stage, 119; requirements for structure, 36; specifics of, 36; teams, 130 team(s): construction of, 133, 138; elements of mature, 134–35; interprofessional, 135–37, 140; leadership, 130, 131, 132–33, 134; model, 132; practice principles for, 138–39; service delivery, 136–37; tasks, 130; types of, 132 technology: growth in use of, 78–79; power of experts on, 80–81; video, 206 temporary groups, 27, 29, 118, 132 temporary systems, 131, 132 terrorism, 10

Thelen, Herbert A., 58, 69, 97, 204, 209, 215n2 totalitarianism, 4 transactional leadership, 55 transformational leadership, 55
Tropman, J.E., 160
Tuckman, B., 111, 112

Underwood, W., 81
universalizing, 166–67

University of Chicago, 58, 132, 209
U.S. population, diversity of, 9

Vaillant, G., 199
valuing, 46–47

Vasil, Thomas V., 99, 131, 197 vertical resource patterns, 149 vignette: group, 189–94; individual, 183–89, 193–94

Wayne, Raymie, 216n3

weaknesses, revealing, 54

Weber, M., 53, 88
Weick, Karl E., 57, 89
Weiss, J.C., vii, 220, 226
West, Margaret, 132
White, R.W., 90
The Wisdom of the Ego (Vaillant), 199
Wolff, S.B., 127, 130

women's groups, stages for, 111, 113 work: bifurcation of, 43; of boards, 153; components of, 32–33; emotional connection with, 58–59; between meetings, work force: changes in nature of, 8; diversity of, 8–9 worker(s): activity requirements of, 76; behavior, 50, 132; intervention, 28; relationship to organization, 140; role of, 60–65, 66, 67, 119, 136; social, 4, 12, 135, 202 WorldCom, 150

Yalom, I., 167