Index

INDEX

caregiving and physical health, 93, 117–18
Caribbean, 278

Case management: general, 188; HIV/AIDS, 188–89; older adults, 189–90; HIV-affected caregivers, 121, 196–97
child welfare system, 261–65, 299

Children raised by grandparents, ix, 6, 163; psychosocial needs, 209–11
Children’s Defense Fund, 301

Children’s Evaluation Rehabilitation Center, 131
China, 281
Coalition on AIDS in Passaic County (CAPCO), 190, 191

Community-based programs, 288–89

Community-based supportive services, 106–107, 261, 304

coping strategies, 102, 116, 118, 161–62
counseling, 102, 198–99 custodial grandparents. See grandparents as parents custody and permanency planning, 170–71 depth: AIDS and, 67, 73; adult child, 11, 65, 67; cultural systems and, 64–65; older adults and, 5, 17–19, 21
depression, caregiver: 102–103; effect on self-care, 99–100 disclosure, HIV infection: 142–44, 202, 239, 241
educational system, 205–27; caregivers, 216–18; program interventions, 218–24; rights of infected child, 213–16; special needs of infected children, 137, 143, 209

Empowerment, caregiver: 297–304

Family-based services, 271–72

Family Center, the: 152, 171–72, 174; legal services, 154, 178; mental health services, 154; Project Care, 152; Project Share, 152

Family conflict, 144–45

Family displacement and HIV-affected families, 285–87

Foster care, relative: 175–76, 263–64
generation gap, 147

Generations United, 301

global implications, xii–xiii, 278–96

“grandmother’s disease,” 280

Grandparents as parents: economic status, 6–7; emotional well-being, 102; physical health, 92–94, 95; policy recommendations, 248–74; poverty, 92; prevalence, ix, 6; satisfactions, 160, 167; stress, 6–7, 92–93, 114–15, 209 grief: African Americans, 71, 81; anticipatory, 72–73; caregivers of infected children, 140; children’s, 78–80, 82; “cascade effect,” 72; complicated, 65, 69–70, 73–75; cultural variability, 70; disenfranchised, 11, 72, 78; gender, 70; Latinos/as, 71; multiple losses, 157–58, 161–62; older adults, 75–77; reactions, 66; social support, 48, 80; spirituality, 71

Guardianship, 175, 263–65

Health education, 106–107

Health insurance, 104, 187
INDEX

health promotion, 300, 304 “hidden patient(s),” 92, 105–106
highly active antiretroviral therapies.
See antiretroviral therapies
Hispanics: chronic disease, 91, 104, 230, 244; grandparent-headed families, 151; HIV/AIDS, 13, 131
HIV-affected families, 228; impoverishment, 13–15, 27–41, 68, 100, 156, 229, 235, 278, 297, 301–302
HIV/AIDS: prevalence (U.S.), 13, 302; prevalence (worldwide), 278–81
HIV/AIDS, pediatric, 130–32; developmental delays, 136–37; disease progression, 135–37, 139; diagnosis, 133–35; prevalence, 132, 234–35; transmission, 132; treatment, 137–38; undiagnosed, 237
HIV caregiving, 9–11, 93–94, 117
HIV disease, symptoms: 15, 287–88
HIV-infected children: attention and behavioral issues, 136–37; caregiving for, 139–46; cognitive deficits, 136–37; confidentiality and schools, 215; depression, 137; developmental delays, 136, 212; educational rights, 143, 211–13; learning disabilities, 136–37; self-esteem, 136
HIV infection, female. See women and HIV/AIDS
HIV testing: newborn infant, 133–34; pregnant women, 133–34
housing, senior, 255–56
Housing Opportunities for People with AIDS (HOPWA), 199–200, 260–61 immigrant families, 228–29, 243–45
immigrants, HIV risk, 229
immigration policies, 244
India, 281
International Year of Older Persons, 292 isolation. See social isolation kinship care, 261–65
Latin America, xii, 279
Latino/as, HIV/AIDS: 13–14, 131
Latino/a elders: chronic disease, 104, 230, 244
long-term care, 299
Malawi, 279, 288
managed care, 268–70
maternal transmission, 132–33
Medicaid, 100, 257–58, 261, 266–70
Medicare, 100, 104–105, 256–57
mental health, caregiver: 165–66, 168
mothers, HIV-infected, 14–15, 176, 179, 181
National Orphan Care Task Force, 288
OASIS Project, 191–203
Older Americans Act, xi, 18, 251, 253–55
perinatal transmission, 132–33
permanency planning, 170, 173–85
Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act. See welfare reform poverty: among grandparents as parents, 6, 27, 100–101; HIV infection, 301–302; as barrier to self-care, 100
prayer, 102
pregnant women, 133–34
public policy. See social policy
INDEX

rural populations, 229–30
Ryan White CARE Act, xi, 17, 188, 199, 258–59, 272
“secondary survivor,” xii
self-care, 96–102, 106
senior housing. See housing, senior social isolation, 52–55, 57, 113, 114, 116, 163, 201
social policy (on HIV/AIDS-affected/orphaned children): framework, 250–52; France, 290; global perspectives, 289–94; Netherlands, the, 291; policy recommendations (international), 292–94; Russia, 290; Sweden, 290; Switzerland, 291; United States, 248–73
Social Security, 267
Social Services Block Grants, 253
social support, 43–44, 46–47, 57, 68, 113, 118, 121–27
South East Asia, xii, 278
South Texas AIDS Center for Children and Their Families, 228
South Texas border, 230–33
spiritual beliefs, 102, 116, 166
standby guardianship, 174–75
stigma, 42–63, 142–43, 161–62, 201 stress, 113–29; coping, 113, 116; intervention, 120–26; mental health, 165–66; multiple stressors, 156–57; social support, 117–21
sub-Saharan Africa, xii, 278, 287
substance abuse, 3, 14, 27, 145, 151, 162
Supplemental Security Income (SSI), 267 support groups, 56, 80–81, 119, 147–48, 221
Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), 265–68
Thailand, 279
Uganda, 279, 283
Uganda Women’s Effort to Save Orphans (UWESO), 284
UNAIDS, 281
uninfected children, 210
United Nations Children’s Fund, 279 welfare reform, 265–68
women and HIV/AIDS, 13–15, 131, 236–37, 280–81, 302
Zambia, 279, 284, 286, 288
Zimbabwe, 16, 279, 281, 283, 288