INDEX

Numbers in italics refer to boxes, and numbers in boldface indicate figures and tables.

abandonment: for adopted children, 107; of dreams, 7; by parent, 212; reaction to, xii abortion: and adolescent grief, 158; lived experience of, 225; and loss, 159; therapeutic interventions in, 224–25, 225; and young adults, 104–95, 197–98 Accelerated Recovery Program (ARP), 351 accidents: and adolescents, 142, 154; and death of adolescents, 184; and grief process, 58; and self-image, 7 accommodation, in grieving process, 40 acculturation: and counseling approaches, 289; as two-dimensional process, 78. See also cultural diversity adolescence: developmental considerations of, 139–43; early, 140–42; late, 142–43; middle, 142 adolescents: death education courses for, 166; embarrassment of, 163, 164; identity of, 141, 149; independence of, 149; Latino, homicide risk of, 154; Native American, suicide prevention for, 166, 167–68; and peer groups, 147; personal capacities of, 144–45; respecting, 165; risk-seeking behavior of, 142; social capacities of, 145, 148, 162. See also suicide, of adolescents adolescents, grieving, 13, 139, 143, 144; counseling of, for death of parent, 146–48, 173–76; counseling of, for death of peer or friend, 154–58; counseling of, for death of sibling, 148–52, 173–76; counseling of, for perinatal death, 177; counseling of male, 172–73; depression in, 165–66; group-based interventions for, 169–70; hormonal changes in, 163; interventions for, 136–65, 190; and parental divorce, 152–54, 176–77; as parents, 158–61; and pregnancy, 177–78; problem solving for, 176; psychological education for, 176; resilience of, 144–46; and religious institutions, 148; self-concept of, 144–45; stress management skills for, 176; and traumatic events, 184–89; use of music in counseling of, 170; use of paradox in counseling of, 167. adoption: as adolescent loss, 158; of child with disability, 200, 201; decision for, 159; feelings of loss associated with, 106–8; grief associated with, 160; open vs. closed, 229; and regret, 160; and young adults, 197–98 adulthood, middle. See midlife adults adulthood, older. See older adults adulthood, young. See young adults adversity: definition of, 71; and resilience, 71–72 African Americans, 188, 346; as adolescents, 171; attitudes of, toward death of, 79; bonds of, with deceased, 61; as caregivers, 267; funerals of, 21; homicide rate for, 154; as older caregivers, 318; religious traditions of, 74, 335; resilience of, 71; self-help strategies of, 226; and suicide risk, 340; support groups for, 237 after-death experiences, 61 age, and resilience, 70 ageism, effects of, 322–23 AIDS: death of partner or friend from, 208–9; young adults with, 234, 236–37. See also HIV/AIDS alcohol, and risk for suicide, 338 Alzheimer's disease, 317; care for relatives with, 315; chronic sorrow of, 316; psychological death of, 317; support groups for, 340–41. See also anticipatory grief ambivalence: and adoption decision, 160; toward deceased partner, 206 Americans, bonds of, with deceased, 61. See also Western cultures anger: of adolescents, 153, 163, 164; and disenfranchised grief, 9; and divorce, 261; in grief counseling, 282; toward deceased partner, 206
anniversaries: and grief, 243; as triggers of grief, 122
anthropology, of grief, 15
anticipatory grief: guided imagery for, 345; process model of, 341
anxiety, in grief counseling, 282 appropriateness, cultural, 11. See also cultural diversity
Asian Americans, elders among, 305, 307
attachment: after loss, 48–49; and child’s death, 243; and grief, 8, 17
attachment bonds, 26–27 attachment theory: in bereavement, 26, 27; and childhood loss, 91; and loss orientation, 42 Attig, T., 75
avoidance strategies: of children, 92; in grieving process, 40
Baliinese, 19, 45
Becvar, D. S., 4, 5
Begin Again, 217
beliefs: assessment of, 276–77; cultural assessment of, 274, 275–78 bereaved: interventions for, 12 (see also interventions); working with, 347–53, 349 bereaved adults, assessment of, 272–79 bereaved parents: and culture of everyday life, 250–52; exclusion of, from normal living, 247–50; new meanings and support for, 252–55; personal reconstruction by, 255–57; reactions of, 243–52; support groups for, 246
bereavement: and attachment style, 27; chronic, 349–50; definition of, 18; dual-focus model of, 312; dual-process model of, 42, 42–43, 47; duration of, 36; early, 206; elements influencing, 25; integrative theory of, 41–42; literature about, 116, 117–19;
multicultural perspective for, 22; and older adults, 304, 327; for pet, 346; renewal in, 41;
for spouse, 41–42; theoretical perspectives on, 34–35; therapeutic rituals for, 222, 223; traumatic, 185
bereavement group interventions: for adolescents, 170; efficacy of, 219; for HIV-infected women, 237; music therapy–based, 172–73; for older adults, 332; for persons with intellectual disabilities, 232–33 bereavement leave, and disenfranchised grief, 9 bereavement outcomes, 279; for survivors of suicide, 71. See also research bereavement therapists, 286 bereavement training, 348 biofeedback, in chronic illness, 297 birthdays, and grief, 255. See also anniversaries birth mothers: grief of, 198; losses experienced by, 229. See also adoption birth parents, and adoption decision, 161 bisexuals, 362
Black, D., 130
Blanton, T. L., 229
Blessing (Quindlen), 160
blunt trauma model, of parental death, 94 body, care of, 219
Buddhism, 312
Buddhists: bonds of, with deceased,
22
Buck, Pearl, 26–28, 90
brain injury, 204
breathing, importance of, 45 BRIDGES (Building Recovery of Individual Dreams and Goals through Education and Support), 297
brief treatment counseling, 288
Buck, Pearl, 202–3
Buddhism, 27, 78
Buddhists: bonds of, with deceased, 61;
mourning of, 20; rituals of, 135 Building Recovery of Individual Dreams and Goals through Education and Support (BRIDGES), 297
burnout, of professionals, 352
Butler, R. N., 325
Candle Lighters, 217
capacities, 361; community, 90; concept of, 85;
cultural, 78–81, 83, 90; definition of, 73;
family, 82–83, 89, 104; and life structure, 192; personal, 73–78, 89, 91, 144–45, 193–94, 241, 262, 304, 306; social, 81–82, caregivers: adult, 267; at end of life, 344; grandparents as, 342; grieving of, 341; for HIV/AIDS patients, 236; interventions for, 341–42; losses experienced by, 265; for older adults, 341–42; older adults as, 314–18; for older parents, 296; for persons with chronic life-threatening illnesses, 297, 298, 299–300; for persons with mental illness, 296–97 caring professionals, 347 cascade of events model, of parental death, 94 Caserta, M. S., 332 catharsis theory, 164 Center for Traumatic Stress in Children and Adolescents, 185 Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 182 Central Americans, grief among, 21 ceremonies: predeath, 299; as triggers of grief, 122. See also memorial services; rituals change: for bereaved, 49; loss associated with, 3, 51 Changing Lives of Older Couples study, 307 child, death of: grandchild, 247; impact of, 246; impact on family of, 260–61; and marital/partner relationship, 257–60; and midlife adults, 241–61; and parents, 26, 243–52; sudden, xi–xii; unanticipated consequences from, 67–68 child abuse: chronic grief from, 212; interventions for, 136–37; survivors of, 212 childhood, 87; developmental tasks of, 87–89; late, 88–89, 97–98; middle, 88, 96; resilience of, 89–91; traumatic grief in, 91–93, 114; young, 88 childhood loss, 13; adoption as, 106–8; death of parent as, 93–102; death of sibling as, 102–3; and foster care, 108–9; grief associated with, 111; grief tasks in, 101–2; nature of, 87; parental divorce or separation as, 103–5 children: abused, 136–37; adopted, 106; foster, 108–9; and grief from divorce, 103–5, 262; and loss, 5; sudden death of, 201–92; weeping of, 46 children, bereaved: developmentally congruent interventions for, 137; research in, 94; rituals with, 120–22, 121 children, grieving, 11; abused, 136–37; adopted, 106–8; assessment of, 112–15, 113; bereavement groups for, 128–29; communication with, 116; community-level interventions for, 134–35; cultural differences in, 135; for death of pet, 115, 132–33; family-based interventions for, 129–31; in foster care, 135–36; group-based interventions for, 126–28; interventions for, 115–16; joint group sessions for, 129; play therapy for, 123–26; professional help for, 112; psychiatric disorders in, 111; psychotherapeutic interventions for, 128; school-based interventions for, 131; therapeutic goals for, 123; and traumatic events, 91, 133–35; triggers of grief for, 122–23 Chinese: death rituals of, 57, 78; expressions of grief among, 20 Chinese Americans: bonds of, with deceased, 61; feelings expressed by, 68 Christians, childbirth ritual of, 246 chronic illness, 6, 299; AIDS as, 208; and hypnosis, 297; older adults with, 343; and relaxation techniques, 297; and risk for suicide, 328; spiritual assessment of, 300, 301; young adults with, 203–4 chronic sorrow: of caregivers of persons with Alzheimer’s disease, 316; of caring for child with disabilities, 200–202; definition of, 6; of older adult caregivers, 316 closure, and grief, 51 cognitive behavioral techniques: for older adults, 330; in suicide intervention, 182; for traumatized children, 134 cognitive development: of adolescents, 142, 144–45; of children, 88–89 cognitive restructuring, in grief counseling, 284 communication: and ageism, 323; cross-cultural, 275–78; in death of sibling, 149; at end of life, 344; in families, 83; with grieving children, 123; physiological changes affecting, 323, 324; in suicide prevention, 179 community: and adolescent grief, 148; and death-related practices, 83–84; and midlife adults, 242; support for traumatized children of, 134–35; violence in, 188, 188–90. See also gay community; schools Compassionate Friends, 41, 82, 217, 253, 292 compassion fatigue, 350–51 computer-based support interventions, 218 confrontational strategies: in grief work, 29; in grieving process, 40; in suicide intervention, 183 conservation-withdrawal, in bereavement, 41 control, loss of: for bereaved parents, 243–45, 248; in disability, 6–7; discomfort associated with, 5; in illness, 6 coping resources, for older adults, 325 coping strategies: adaptive, 63; of children, 97; gender differences in, 68–69; in grief counseling, 283; individual, 52; religious beliefs in, 74 counseling: brief treatment, 288–89; family, 229–30; goals of, 279; grief, 279–88, 280, 284–85; for male adolescents, 172–73; for older adults, 329–31; for perinatal loss, 178; traditional approaches, 289. See also grief counseling counselors: and adolescent grief, 148; and bereavement, 347–48. See also grief counselors; professionals countertransference: definition of, 355; and grief, 355
Index

Crider, T., 244

crisis intervention, 234; in schools, 168 (see also interventions); in SIDS, 218–29; solution-focused approach to, 234, 235–36

crying, expression of grief through, 45 cuban americans, suicide rates for, 340 cultural competency: definition of, 11; in grief intervention, 289–90 cultural diversity, 11; assessment of, 274, 275–78; and death-related practices, 83–84; and family therapy, 131; grief-related customs, 273–74; in grief theory, 288; in meaning of disability, 231–32; and older adults, 324; in ongoing bonds with deceased, 61–62; and perinatal death, 196; and play therapy, 126; and support groups, 332–33; and young adults, 194 culture: definition of, 78; and resilience, 70–71 day of the dead, Mexican, 21, 78–79 day: AIDS-related, 208–9; anticipated, 72, 311; approach of, 343–45; assessment of, 276–77; books for children about, 116, 117–19; children’s response to, 121; cultural perspectives on, 20, 78–81; denial of, in society, xv, 4; in family, 138; of friends, 314; location of, 311–12; as loss, 2, 5; loss not related to, 5–7; of loved one, 27; perinatal, 177–78, 194–97; prenatal, 194–97; preparation for, 305, 312; psychological, 316; “social,” 9; teaching children about, 115; telling children about, 116, 119–20; violent, 312. See also child, death of; dying; parent, death of; partner, death of; sibling, death of; spouse, death of debriefing, after major disaster, 185

decathexis, 23

decease: emotional relocation of, 282; ongoing bonds with, 59–62; transforming relationships with, 35 deficit model of partner loss, 64 delirium, development of, 326

delta society, 127
dementia: caring for older relatives with, 266; caring for parents with, 315; caring for person with, 316; and chronic sorrow, 316; compared with delirium, 326. See also anticipatory grief demi, A. S., 63

denial: as complicated grief, 44; as delayed grief reaction, 29; functional, 32; short-term, 45 depression: in adolescents, 165–66; and anticipated death, 71; assessment of, 339; and bereavement, 29; and death of parent, 99; grief process as, 56; in later life, 339; and loss of child, 248; in older adults, 320, 327; and risk for suicide, 338; in suicide bereavement, 168

deSantis, L., 174

deschner, j., 229

despair: feelings of, 7; in grieving, 40

detachment, from grief, 29 developmental disabilities, caring for adults with, 318. See also disabilities developmental phase of life, and grief, 12 diagnostic and statistical manual of mental disorders (american psychiatric association), 53, 165, 339 disaster, public mental health approach to, 185 distraction techniques, 45

divorce: and adolescent grief, 153, 176–77; and child grief, 103–5, 262; counseling for, 295–96; and death of adult child, 258, 259; grief responses to, xvi; losses associated with, 103–5; of midlife adults, 261–63; and parenting style, 154; phases for, 205; and rejection, 261; and rituals for children, 122; support groups for children of, 128

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
Index

Doka, K., 53, 297, 298
Dougly Center, 169
drawing: by children, 124–25, 125; in grief counseling, 284 dreams: and child grief, 93; loss of, 7; in phases of grief, 48 drug abuse, and risk for suicide, 338 Drysdale, A. E., 343
dual-process model, of grief process, 42, 42–43 dying: books for children about, 116, 117–19; chronic illness associated with, 299; five stages of, 37–38 ecological approach, to adolescent problems, 178–79 ecology, of family’s grief experience, 220 cemap, ecological approach, to adolescent problems, 178–79 economic: and cultural diversity, 22; and young adults, 193. See also schools ego integrity, 305

egyptians, reaction to loss by, 20 elects: with chronic illness, 343; with dementia, 340–41; mistreatment of, 319, 345; spiritual beliefs for, 335. See also older adults emotional instability, symptoms of, 179 emotions: of adolescents, 141, 143; of children, 88, 96–97; and death of child, 243; and death of sibling, 140, 150; of older adults, 306; positive vs. negative, 31; social functional approach to, 30–32; and suicide of adolescents, 157; and support groups, 218 empowerment strategies, in disadvantaged communities, 189 Empty Arms, 217
empty chair, in grief counseling, 284 end-of-life care: and anticipatory grief, 343–45; and needs of elders, 343; social work’s role in, 10–11, 344 English, meaning of grief for, 19. See also Western cultures Erikson, E., 140, 192, 240, 305, 325, 346 ethnic: and adolescence, 140; and cultural diversity, 22, 78; and resilience, 70–71. See also cultural diversity ethnic minority groups, 362; and midlife adults, 240; and poverty and discrimination, 84. See also specific groups European Americans, support groups for, 237. See also Western cultures expectations: and attachment bonds, 27; cultural, 20, 21, 194; and guilt, 47; and loss, 3–4; mourning, 277; of parents, 194 eye movement desensitization and reprocessing (EMDR) treatments, for suicide survivors, 294 facilitators: for grieving children, 127, 129; in suicide intervention, 168 family: bereaved, 220; and care of persons with mental illness, 296–97; and counseling approaches, 229–30, 289; death in, 138; and end-of-life decisions, 344; grief therapy for, 299; impact of adult child’s death on, 260–61; impact of divorce on, xvi, 103–5, 122, 128, 153, 154, 176–77, 258, 259, 261–63, 295–96; interventions based on, 215, 221; multigenerational, 265; and risk for suicide, 338; roles in, 83; single-parent, 103, 129, 153; in support of grieving children, 119–30; two-parent, 153 Family Bereavement Program, 174 family systems: and grief, 3; and patterns of grieving, 82–83; and suicide of parent, 294 family therapists, 220 family therapy: cultural considerations in, 131–32; goals of, 131; for grieving children, 130–31 fathers: adolescents as, 161; and child with disabilities, 199; death of, xvi–xviii; and death of neonate, 226. See also parents fear, grief as, 43
feelings, in grief counseling, 282. See also emotions Feil, N., 341
FICA assessment tool, 336
Filipinos, expressions of grief of, 46 finances: in chronic life-threatening illness, 299; of families with chronically ill or disabled child, 291; of midlife adults, 241; of older adults, 322 “forbidden feelings,” and death of parent, 95 foster care: children in, 343

freud, S., 6, 22–24, 25, 28, 48 friend: death of, 154–58, 314; loss of, xi friendships, for widowed persons, 313
Genetics, reaction to loss by, 20
Ghana, reaction to loss by, 20
Ghoshal, S., 179
Gibbs, G., 127
Gildersleeve, H. C., 116
Glasgow, E., 127
Glauber, H., 127
glaucia, 127
good grief, 127
Gonzalez, L., 127
Gonzalez-Franco, P., 127
Gopnik, A., 127
Greer, W., 127
Greller, J., 127
Grotrevin, J., 127

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu funerals, 71, 221; children at, 120; children participating in, 90, 100–101. See also ceremonies; memorial services; rituals gang violence, 188, 188–90 gender differences: of adolescents, 140; of bereaved parents, 292; bereavement in older men, 333, 334–35; and cultural diversity, 332–33; and death of parent, 98–99; in grief reactions, 228, 258; in grieving for divorce, 295–96; in grieving of older adults, 308–10; of midlife adults, 240, 241; and resilience, 66–60; in sexual intimacy, 259; in social support, 81; in suicide risk, 338; in widows' and widowers' well-being, 204–5 genogram, 220; in later-life loss, 327; spiritual, 335 grandchildren: death of, 247; grandparents as caregivers of, 342; older adults as caregivers of, 304, 317–18 grandparents: as caregivers of grandchildren, 317–18, 342; grief controlled by, 247 grief: anticipatory, 341, 345; assessment of, 112–15, 113; benefits of, 50; books for children about, 116, 117–19; in children, 90; and closure, 51; cultural considerations in, 18–22, 273–74; definition of, 2, 16; as disabling condition, 24; disenfranchised, xix, 8–9, 217, 222, 263, 296, 313, 316–17; for divorce vs. death, 262; growth-oriented model of, 38; invisible, 195; in later life, 304, 325–26; lingering, 151; nature of, 8; normal behavior in, 282–83; pathological, 54–56; pervasive quality of, 2–11, 16; physical reactions to, 39; postmodern social constructionist paradigm of, 32–35, 312–13; psychoanalytical perspectives on, 22–28; and retirement, 342; and returning to work, 252, 256; social functional approach to, 31; social workers' understanding of, 9–11; somatization of, 20; stress hormones released during, 22–24; suppressed, 85; theoretical models of, 35–36; traumatic, 53, 91–93, 114, 133, 261; unaddressed, xviii; universal meaning of, 15; unresolved, 28; well-being in regard to, 84–85. See also anticipatory grief; interventions; posttraumatic stress disorder grief, complicated, xvii, 44, 53–57, 213, 361; assessment of, 273; definition of, 53; occurrence of, 56; and preparation for death, 72; symptoms of, 54–55, 55 grief counseling: cultural considerations in, 288–90; defenses in, 283; differentiated from therapy, 279–80; and facilitating meaning reconstruction, 280–83; for midlife adults, 279–88, 280, 284–85; symbols in, 285; task-based model of, 28, 281–83; techniques of, 283, 284–85, 285–88. See also counseling grief counselors: music used by, 171; recommendations for, 279, 280. See also counselors grief courses, xiv–xv, 350 grief groups, for adolescents, 169–70. See also bereavement group interventions grief models: dual-process, 42, 42–43; excessive rumination, 51–52; five stages of dying, 37–38; growth-oriented, 38; integrative theory, 41–42; phases of, 39, 39–41; R process, 43–51; tasks, 38–39 grief process, 1, 17, 27; for adolescents, 143–44; and Alzheimer's disease, 315–16; and bond with deceased, 59–60; for children, 101; with child with disabilities, 200; concept of, 37; cultural context for, 19; cultural variations in, 15; and death of adult child, 310; decision making in, 33; distress in, 30; gender differences in, 67; humor in, 29; integration in, 41; in larger environment, 12; loneliness of, 81–82; mediating factors affecting, 65; motivation in, 41; phases of, 39–41; protest in, 40; as reactive depression, 56; reorganization in, 40; transitions in, 39; for young adults, 214 grief therapy, 279–88; for family, 290; for loss associated with mental illness, 297 grief work, 10, 17; for adolescents, 170; compulsive, 35; difficulty of, 26; early theories of, 12; nature of, 361–62; postmodern critiques of, 28–30; process of, 28; psychoanalytical perspective on, 23; for traumatized children, 134 grieving: active, 50–51; of children, 90–91; goal of, 24; healthy, 11–12, 50; nature of, 11; parental styles of, 247–57; patterns of, 69; phases of, 39–41; well, 85

Guatemalans, death rituals among, 79 guided imagery: in anticipatory grief, 345; in grief counseling, 284 guided mourning therapy, 330 guilt: and death of sibling, 102–3; and disenfranchised grief, 9; expressions of, 46–47; in grief counseling, 282; illegitimate, 47; parental, 245; in sudden death, 156; and sudden loss, 17; with suicidal deaths, 71

Harvey, J. H., 51, 268

healing: in bereavement, 41; tasks for, 38; and time, 50; rituals for, 221–24, 223; weeping in, 46 health care providers, xviii; and ageism, 323; and stillbirths, 196. See also professionals helplessness: of caregiver, 317; in grief counseling, 282. See also powerlessness

Hindus, death-related practices of, 21, 84

Hinrichsen, G. A., 340

HIV/AIDS: and service providers, 274; diagnosis of, xviii; terminal diagnosis of, xvi–xvii; loss associated with, xii; sudden diagnosis of, xviii; terminal diagnosis of, xii, xiii. See also chronic illness; dementia; life-threatening illness immigrants, 110, 346, 362

India, childbirth ritual in, 245–46. See also Hindus infant, death of, 226–27; interventions for, 226–27. See also sudden infant death syndrome infants, and death of parents, 95–96 infertility, 7, 34, 191, 196, 215

in-law relationships, and divorce, 263 integrative theory of bereavement, 41–42 intensive care units, death in, 208 internalization: in death of parent, 352–53; for parents of children with disabilities, 216; of older adults, 304; in grief counseling, 282; spiritually

Islam, death practices of, 246 interventions: after death, 7; for professionals, 215; evidence-based, 215; preventive, 284; studies, 279. See also specific interventions

Inventory of Complicated Grief (ICG), 54, 55

Inventory of Traumatic Grief, 57

Islam, death practices of, 21

isolation: of bereaved parents, 249; of bereaved adolescents, 169; of older adults, 304

Japan, abortion in, 159

Japanese, expression of grief of, 46

JB (MacLeish), 63

Jews: bonds of, with deceased, 62; childbirth ritual of, 246; and death of adult child, 310; differences among, 79–80; grieving for, 80–81

job, loss of, 6

journaling, 48; benefits of, 285–86; in grief counseling, 283, 284, 285–86; guidelines for, 286; for professionals, 356

Kastenbaum, R. J., 38

Kids Alive and Loved (KAL), 189

Klass, D., 18, 74, 75, 246

Korean families, older adults in, 319
Index

Kottman, T., 124
Kramer, B. J., 333
Kübler-Ross, E., 37–38
Kushner, H. S., 63

language, and discussion of death, 100 Latinos: adolescent, homicide risk of, 154; beliefs about death of, 20–21; bonds of, with deceased, 62; support groups for, 237 Leite, B., 198–90
lesbians: and death of partner, 34 listening, in grief counseling, 284 loneliness: of bereaved parents, 258, 259; of older adults, 308; of young widows and widowers, 205
long-term-care facility, 320 loss: accumulation of, 70; actualization of, 281–82; awareness of, in bereavement, 41;
and choice, 50; coherent narrative for, 27–28; cultural variation in reaction to, 21;
dealing with, ix; through death, 5; definition of, 2; deriving meaning from, 279–81; integrative view of, 50; major, 2–3; in midlife adults, 271; nature of, 4–5; in older adults, 303, 304, 321; pervasiveness of, 2–11; reaction to, 7, 8; regrieving for, 4; reinvesting after, 49–51; secondary, 38; social workers’ understanding of, 6–11; “story” of, 274, 278–79; sudden, 57–59; and terrorists attacks of September 11, x, 3, 185; traumatic, 57–59; as turning point, 39;
types of, 6, 7; unanticipated nature of, 58 loss orientation, 42, 42
Luchterhand, C., 232
Lund, D. A., 332
MacLeish, Archibald, 63
magical thinking, 95, 107
Managing Sudden Traumatic Loss in the Schools (Underwood and Dunne-Maxim), 182 marriage: changing concept of, 192; and death of child, 259. See also divorce
McCacken, A., 242
McCubbin, H., 66
McCubbin, M., 66
McNeely, R. L., 346
meaning: for adolescents, 142; culture-specific, 288; and death, 244; definitions of, 33, 77;
and loss, 5, 16–17, 282; for midlife adults, 271; need for, 76; of parenthood, 243; reconstruction of, in grief counseling, 285;
search for, 48, 279
meaninglessness, 4
meaning making, 35; for bereaved parents, 252; in death of child, 245; of disability, 231–32; and grief, 33; for midlife adults, 241; and religion, 75; and resilience, 76;
support groups for, 82
media: and coping with violent death, 187; and suicide contagion, 179, 182; violent death covered in, 155, 168–69 memorial services, 221; children at, 101–2; and family relationship, 260; preparing child for, 121. See also rituals memorial tributes, in traumatic death, 187 memory book: for children, 127; in grief counseling, 284
mental illness: caring for adults with, 296–97; caring for children with, 263–64. See also dementia
metaphors: common, 285–87; in grief counseling, 285, 285–87. See also meaning making Mexico, Day of the Dead in, 21, 78–79
midlife adults, 239; bonds of, with parents, 269; as caregivers of child with mental illness, 263–64; as caregivers of old relatives, 264–68; and death of, 268–70; and death of child, 242–61; developmental considerations for, 239–40; personal capacities of, 241; resilience of, 240–42; social capacities of,
241–42

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
miscarriage, 159; and adolescent grief, 158; parents’ reactions to, 196; supportive interventions for, 225–26; and young adults, 194–95
Monahan, J. R., 237
moral guilt, 47
mortality, 4; attitudes toward, 10; awareness of, 5; universal nature of, 1. See also death mothers: adolescent, 161; death of, xvi, 268–69; and death of adult child, 258; loss of, 26, 106. See also parents Mothers Against Drunk Driving, 41, 292 mourners: “forgotten,” 150; friends as, 314; high-risk, 272 mourning, 211; of adolescents, 147; of African Americans, 79; anticipatory, 343, 345; assessment of, 277; of children, 127; complicated, 273; as crisis of meaning, 32; cultural variations in, 18–19; definition of, 18; guided, 330, 345; of Jewish Americans, 80–81; of parents, 100; of parents/spouses, 100; task model of, 38. See also rituals Mourning and Melancholia (Freud), 22
Murphy, N., 232
music, expressing grief through, 170–72 music therapy, 171–72, 344 Muslims: childbirth ritual of, 246; and perinatal death, 196–97 narratives, for finding meaning, 77. See also meaning making; narratives Native Americans: adolescent suicide prevention for, 166, 167–68; bonds of, with deceased, 62; elders among, 305, 307; death rituals of, 83–84; grief experience of, 21, 274; homicide risk of, 154
Neimeyer, R. A., 279–80, 287
Nelson, C. F., 343
networks, social, 81
New Guinea, abortion in, 159
New Jersey Adolescent Suicide Prevention Project, 182 nursing homes, 7, 342
obsessive ruminations, 44, 51–52 old age: developmental considerations for, 303–5; multiple losses in, 13, 303, 304, 321 older adults: and ageism, 322–23; as caregivers, 314–18; as caregivers of adults with developmental disabilities, 318; as caregivers of grandchildren, 317–18, 342; with chronic disabilities, 319–20; and death of partner, 307–13; and death of sibling, 313–14; with dementia, 340–41; family caregiving for, 341–42; IPT for, 329; life review of, 328–29; life transitions for, 342–45; loss of independence of, 320; mistreatment of, 319; patterns of grieving of, 309–10; personal capacities of, 306; REBT for, 340; and relocation, 342; resilience of, 306–7, 320; self-identity of, 309; social capacities of, 306–7 older relatives: caring for, 264–68, 296; with dementia, 266 Omega Project, 217
online services, demand for, 218 pain: cultural context for, 19; and risk for suicide, 338; in Western cultures, 78 paranormal phenomena, deceased in, 60 parents: abandonment by, 212; adolescents as, 178; and adolescent sibling grief, 152; adoptive, 190; bonds of, with child with disabilities, 198–203, 230–32, 232; bonds of, with midlife child, 269; of child who dies suddenly, 291–92; of child with disabilities, 198–203; of child with life-threatening illness, 290–91; and death of child, 26, 243–52, 291–92; and death of neonate, 226; divorce of, 105; foster, 135, 199; homicide parents: abandonment by (continued) of, 133–34; and PTSD in children, 92; and SIDS, 197–98, 227–29; and suicide prevention, 179; surviving, 101, 102, 148; terminal illness of, 174; young adults as, 195. See also fathers; mothers parents, death of, xi, 268–70; and adolescents, 146–48, 146–89, 173–76; and children, 91, 93–102; and developmental considerations, 95–98; longer-term effects of, 99–100; and midlife adults, 292–93; reactions to, 269; in resilience model, 98–101 parents, grieving, 149; adolescents as, 158–61; bonds of, with deceased, 59–60; gender differences of, 67–68; styles of, 247–57; support groups for, 82, 227. See also child, death of Parents Without Partners, 217
Parkes, C. M., 15, 25, 27, 39, 40, 48 partner: bereavement interventions for, 237–38; and death of adult child, 257–60; definition of, 13; disenfranchised bereaved, 313; grief process for, 24 partner, death of: from AIDS, 208–9; in old age, 307; for older adults, 336–37; for young adults, 204–7 PATHWAYS, 351
peer, death of, 154–58
peer group, and adolescents, 147 perinatal death: and adolescents, 177–78; interventions for, 224–25; and young adults, 191, 194–97 pet, death of, 115, 132–33, 346 physical abuse, 211–14; solution-focused approach to, 236–37; and young adults, 233–34 physicians, and suicide risk, 337 pining behavior, 39
play therapy, 123; for abused children, 136–37; cultural considerations in, 126; definition of, 124; drawing in, 124–25, 125; reflecting feelings in, 124; restarting content in, 124; toys in, 137; tracking in, 124; for traumatized children, 134 postmodernism, and grief work, 28–30 posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 53, 58, 91, 93, 133; in adolescents, 166, 180; in children, 91–93, 114; compared with traumatic stress, 92; in older adults, 325; symptoms of, 93, 213–14, 350–51; in women, 213 postvention implementation, in suicide, 182, 184 powerlessness: and disenfranchised grief, 9; and divorce, 261; feelings of, 5, 7 pregnancy: and adolescents, 177–78; bonds formed through, 195; denial of, 159–60. See also abortion; miscarriage preoccupation: in grieving, 40; and obsessive rumination, 44 preschoolers, and death of parent, 95–96 primary care physicians, and suicide risk, 337 primary traumatic stress disorder, symptoms of, 350–51 process perspective, of grief, 38. See also grief process professionals, human service, 9, 111; burnout of, 352; and chronic bereavement, 349–50; and compassion fatigue, 350–51; grief work of, 8; and grieving adolescents, 164; and importance of rituals, 222; programs for, 351; self-awareness of, 353; self-care strategies for, 355–56, 359–60; understanding of grief and loss of, 9–11; work of, with bereaved, 347–53, 349. See also caring professionals; health care providers; service professionals; social workers psychiatric disorders, in grieving children, 111 care phenomena, and deceased, 60 psychoanalytic theory, 6, 22–24, 25, 28, 48, 355 psychosocial death, 9
psychotherapy: for older adults, 329–31; for young adults, 216 PTSD Reaction Index, 157 public mental health approach, to postdisaster treatment, 185 Puchalski, C. M., 336
Raad, S. A., 18
racism, 135, 324
Rando, T. A., 72, 222, 223, 341, 345 rape: grief reactions to, 213; psychological effects of, 234; victims of, 214 rational emotive behavior therapy (REBT), for older adults, 340 readjusting, after loss, 49–51 reconciliation, 305
Reeve, Christopher, 203 regret, and adoption decision, 160 regrief phenomenon, 102 reinvesting, after loss, 49–51 rejection, and divorce, 261 relationships: of adolescents, 145; and death of adult child, 257–60; nonrelative, 207 relaxation techniques, in chronic illness, 297 religion: and adolescents, 145; and counseling approaches, 289–90; of grieving older adults, 333, 335–36; for older adults, 325; and resilience, 73–74 religious institutions, and adolescent grief, 148 relinquishing old attachments, 48–49 relocation, for older adults, 342 remarriage, and grief from divorce, 262 reminiscences: in death of parent, 78; of bereaved parents, 253; of caregivers in, 316; and grieving older adults, 326–27; and older adults, 306–7, 321; and sources of support, 274; well-being in, 84–85 respite services, 267, 316 restoration orientation, 41, 42 retirement, grief associated with, 342 risk-seeking behavior, of adolescents, 142 rituals: assessment of, 276–77; with bereaved children, 120–22, 121; cultural assessment of, 274, 275–78; death-related, 78–81, 83–84, 100; definition of, 221–24, 223; family-initiated, 12; functions of, 221; funerals as, 71, 90, 100–101, 120, 221; healing, 221–24, 223; Islamic, 196–97; memorial, 115; postdivorce, 262; power of, 71; predeath, 299; and therapeutic bereavement, 222, 223; for transition to adolescence, 139; in U.S. culture, 221. See also specific cultures Roethke, T., 5
role change analysis, in grief counseling, 284 role-playing, in grief counseling, 284 role reversal, 265
Roman Catholics, beliefs about death of, 20–21
Rosenblatt, P. C., 67–68
Rowa-Dewar, N., 292
R process model, 43–51; pain of separation in, 44; readjusting and reinvesting in, 49–51; recognizing and accepting reality in, 43–44; relinquishing old attachments in, 48–49; reminiscing in, 47–48
Rubin, S., 35
ruminating: excessive, 51–52; obsessive, 44 ruminators, characteristics of, 52
Ryff, C. D., 85
“sandwich generation,” 241, 265
Sapp, M., 346
Schafer, C., 124
schools: and adolescent grief, 148; death education in, 166; grief counseling in, 162; grief interventions in, 132, 168; perinatal death interventions in, 178; suicide prevention programs in, 179; trauma and grief-focused group psychotherapy protocol in, 189; and traumatic loss, 185, 186–87; violent death in, 186–87
Schuchter, S. R., 339
Schut, H., 29, 64
Seager, K. M., 124
self-actualization, 305
self-awareness: and countertransference, 355; of professionals, 353 self-blame, in prolonged grieving, 28 self-care, 362–63
self-care strategies: emotional, 358, 358; personal assessment of, 357; physical, 356, 357; for professionals, 355–56, 359–60; psychological, 356, 357, 358; spiritual, 357, 358–59; for vicarious traumatization, 351, 352; workplace, 359 self-concept, of grieving adolescents, 144–45 self-esteem: of children, 89; and divorce, 105, 261, 262; in prolonged grieving, 18 self-help groups, 32, 82. See also bereavement support groups self-identity, of older adults, 209 self-image, 7; of adolescents, 163; of bereaved partners, 205 Semel, M., 249, 250
separation: losses associated with, 103–5; pain of, 44–47. See also divorce separation anxiety, and death of parent, 97 separation process: and death of parent, 147; in grief work, 24–25 service professionals, and older adults, 336. See also professionals service systems, grandparent caregivers in, 318 sexual abuse, 311
sexual abuse survivors, 311; and counseling, 316; of midlife adults, 249; of young adults, 193 Silver, R. C., 29, 30 social constructionists, 30, 32–35, 312–13 social functional approach, to emotion, 30–32 socialization, cohort-specific, 323 social network crisis, bereavement as, 151 social networks: and divorce, 262–63; elders in, 306; for older adults, 311; of widowed persons, 312–13. See also bereavement group interventions; social supports social skills training: for grieving adolescents, 176; for traumatized children, 134 social supports, 63, 81–83, 361; for adolescents, 140; and disability, 204; and gender differences, 81; and grief from divorce, 262; for grieving adolescents, 176; for grieving older men, 334; for grieving young adults, 216–17; for older widows, 310–11; for siblings of deceased, 314. See also support groups; support systems social systems perspectives, of grief and loss, 83 social workers: grief in personal lives of, 348; and HIV/AIDS patients, 236; in hospices, 348; and importance of rituals, 222; motivation of, 353; music used by, 171; preparation of, xv; in schools, 135; work of, with bereaved, 347–53, 349. See also professionals socioeconomic status: and adolescent grief, 144; and cultural diversity, 22; of midlife adults, 249; of young adults, 193 Spanish, meaning of grief for, 19. See also Latinos spectrum of interventions model, 216 Spencer, S. C., 124 spiritual assessment, 300, 301 spirituality: of adolescents, 145; and counseling approaches, 289–90; of grieving older adults, 333, 335–36; of midlife adults, 241; nature of, 75; for older adult caregivers, 316; and resilience, 73–75; of young adults, 193–94 spiritual time line, 335–36 spousal bereavement, integrative model of, 41–42 spouse, death of, and older adults, 336–37 spouses: bereavement interventions for, 237–38; as caregivers, 316; and death of adult child, 257–60; grief process for, 24. See also partners stages of dying, 37–38 stillbirths: and adolescent grief, 158; and parents, 196; responses to, 159; significance of, 196; and young adults, 194–95 storytelling: for adolescents, 175; as assessment tool, 279; centrality of, 77–78; for finding meaning, 77 (see also meaning making); and loss, 274, 278–79 stress and coping models, 63–66 stress management skills, for grieving adolescents, 176 Stroebe, M. S., 29, 30, 64
Stroebe, W., 64
sudden infant death syndrome (SIDS), 191, 197; grief associated with, 227–29; interventions in, 228–29 suicide: and contagion behavior, 184; and grief of survivors, 72; and loss of child, 248; of older adults, 332–31, 337–40, 338; of older white males, 294; paradox used with adolescents bereaved by, 167; prevention of, 337, 339–40; risk factors for, 337, 338; and service providers, 348; and supportive services, 340; survivors of, 58; widows of victims of, 219 suicide, of adolescents, 154, 156–57; assessment of, 180–81; grief responses to, 158; intervention for, 182, 183; postvention for, 182, 184; prevention of, 178–79, 182 support groups, 82; for adolescents, 145; for bereaved parents, 246, 252–53; for bereavement, 217; for caregivers of children with HIV, 291; efficacy of, 332; for grieving children, 126–28; for grieving elders, 331–32; for HIV/AIDS, 237; for parents of children with disabilities, 231, 231–32; Web-based, 218; widow-to-widow, 217, 313, 337, 345.
See also bereavement group interventions

support systems: assessment of, 93

See also bereavement group interventions

supportive, of bereaved child, 39

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185 therapeutic touch sessions, 82

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group interventions

terrorist attacks, of September 11, x, 3, 185

See also bereavement group inter...
Widow-to-Widow programs, 217, 313, 337, 345 wife, definition of, 13
Wilson, D. L., 129
Wineman, A. E., 343
Wolterstorff, N., 47, 81
women: battered, 234; divorced, 263; friendship valued by, 314; grief of, 316; and PTSD, 213; reentry of, into labor market, 240–41; and sexual abuse, 211 Worden, J. W., 10, 131, 220, 332 work, loss of, 6
workplace, supportive policies of, 359 worldview: and counseling approaches, 289; loss in, 17 Wortman, C. B., 29, 30 writing: for finding meaning, 77; in grief counseling, 284; as self-help strategy, 285.
See also journaling
young adults, grieving, 191; and abortion, 224–25; and child with disabilities, 230–32, 231; and death of neonate, 226–27; with developmental disabilities, 230–32; family-based interventions for, 219–21; healing rituals for, 221; with HIV/AIDS, 234, 236–37; interventions for, 215, 238; and miscarriage, 225–26; and perinatal death, 224–25; and relinquishment of child, 229; from sexual or physical abuse, 233–34; and stillbirth, 226–27; and SIDS, 227–29; support groups for, 217–19; therapeutic bereavement groups for, 219; widowers, 237–38; widows, 237–38
Yule, W., 187
Zisook, S. S., 339
Foundations of Social Work Knowledge
Frederic G. Reamer, Series Editor

David G. Gil, Confronting Injustice and Oppression: Concepts and Strategies for Social Workers

George Alan Appleby and Jeane W. Anastas, Not Just a Passing Phase: Social Work with Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual People

Frederic G. Reamer, Social Work Research and Evaluation Skills

Pallassana R. Balgopal, Social Work Practice with Immigrants and Refugees

Dennis Saleeby, Human Behavior and Social Environments: A Biopsychosocial Approach

Frederic G. Reamer, Tangled Relationships: Managing Boundary Issues in the Human Services

Roger A. Lohmann and Nancy L. Lohmann, Social Administration

David M. Austin, Human Services Management: Organizational Leadership in Social Work Practice

Roger A. Lohmann and Nancy L. Lohmann, Social Administration

Toba Schwaber Kerson, Boundary Spanning: An Ecological Reinterpretation of Social Work Practice in Health and Mental Health Systems

David M. Austin, Human Services Management: Organizational Leadership in Social Work Practice

Anthony M. Maluccio, Barbara A. Pike, and Elizabeth M. Tracy, Social Work Practice with Families and Children

Joan Shireman, Critical Issues in Child Welfare

Stuart A. Kirk, Mental Disorders in the Social Environment

Sheila H. Akabas and Paul A. Kurzman, Social Work and the Workplace

Frederic G. Reamer, Social Work Values and Ethics, Third Edition

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu