INDEX

abortion: act utilitarian view on, 117; autonomy virtue for, 117, 130; beneficence virtue for, 119; as example in distribution of resources, 128–30; NASW Code of Ethics on, 117, 130; NASW pro-choice position on, 117; rule utilitarian view on, 117; social workers’ position on, 129; as value conflict, 35, 116–18; in values period, 6 act utilitarian, 67–68, 79; on abortion conflict, 117; on agency policy v. discussion of topic, 119; on allocation of limited resources, 127; on confidentiality for minors, 97; on confidentiality in family/couple counseling, 91; on deception, 150; on distribution of resources, 129; on divided loyalties, 104, 106; on dual/multiple relationships, 110; on government in private lives, 133; on government obligation to assist vulnerable people, 136–37; on labor-management disputes, 143–44; on laws/regulations, 140; on right to self-determination, 99; on sexual relationship, 117; on subpoenas, 94; on third party harm, 88–89; on whistle-blowing, 152–53 adjudication, of social workers, 4; ethics complaints filed in NASW, 157; ethics complaints filed with state licensing boards, 4, 157, 158; for impairment, 185; lawsuits/liability claims for malpractice in, 4, 157 advocacy, 14; direct confrontation in, 14; for increase in service funding, 127–28, 138; NASW Ad Hoc Committee on Advocacy, 144; social workers’ obligation for, 107 agency rules/regulation compliance, 19; agency policy change in, 120; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 119 allocation, of limited resources, 123–28, 190; act utilitarian view on, 127; communitarianism (community based theory) on, 127; concept of equality in, 124; criteria of contribution by recipients for, 126; deontology ethical theory on, 126–27; distributive justice in, 124; distributive mechanism for, 127; equality in, 124–25; ethical dilemmas in indirect practice for, 123–28; justice virtue on, 127; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 127; non-monetary contribution of recipients for, 126; by potential recipients’ need for, 125; preferential consideration for oppressed in, 126; rule utilitarian view on, 127 altruism, 40; in dual/multiple relationships, 109–110; as reason for deception, 177 American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, 78; ethical reviews by, 157 American Association of Social Workers, code of ethics (1947) for, 45

American Association of State Social Work Boards, 48 American Board of Examiners in Clinical Social Work, ethical reviews by, 157 amoralistic orientation, 19–20; absence of value-based or normative concepts in, 19; psychodynamic constructs in, 19; technical approach in, 19 assessment/intervention: in delivery of services, 169; for ethnic minority, 51; malpractice/misconduct in, 168; social work use of, 13; values influence on, 13, 14 autonomy virtue, 32, 91, 104, 114; in abortion, 117, 130; in client right to set/pursue goals, 100; in confidentiality/privacy, 92; on conservative view, 133; definition of, 32; in government obligation to assist vulnerable people, 136; in right to self-determination, 100, 113; values period in, 6 bartering provision, in NASW Code of Ethics (1996), 55–56 basic goods, 70
basic human needs, 22, 61; NASW commitment to meet, 49; resources/services for, 22 Baylor Law Review (1975), 81–82 beneficence virtue, 98, 104, 141; in abortion-related information, 119; in coercion to protect clients from harm, 100; in community accommodation to special needs individuals, 134; definition of, 32; in government obligation to assist vulnerable people, 136; in government sponsored services, 137; in labor-management disputes, 143; in right to self-determination, 100 Beuchamp and Childress, on professional virtues, 31–33 Buckley/Pell Amendment. See The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act child abuse, 53. See also protective services clients. See divided loyalties, between client and employer interests; empowerment, of client; ethical responsibilities, to clients clinical orientation, 19; ethical decision making in, 19; professional obligation conflicts in, 19 code of ethics, 44–53, 191. See also NASW Code of Ethics; American Association of Social Worker’s, 45; as guidelines for ethical dilemmas, 45; Richmond and, 45 Code of Ethics of the Canadian Association of Social Workers, 45
Code of Ethics of the National Association of Black Social Workers, 45 Code of Ethics of the National Federation of Societies for Clinical Social Work, 45 colleagues. See ethical responsibilities, to colleagues commitment to client, NASW Code of Ethics standard for, 75 Common Human Needs (Towle), 49 communitarianism (community based theory), 72; in allocation of limited resources, 127 competence value, 40; NASW Code of Ethics ethical principle for, 27 “Confidentiality of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Patient Records,” 98n2, 160 confidentiality/privacy, ix, 3, 9, 19, 21, 22, 44, 47, 141, 186, 190; act utilitarian view on, 91, 97; agency staff training for, 165–66; autonomy virtue in, 92; for delinquent acts, 97; deontology ethical theory on, 91, 97; ethical dilemmas of, 87–98; ethical responsibilities to clients for, 54–55; in family/couple counseling, 91–93, 164–65; in group treatment, 164; informed consent in, 91; informing clients about limits of, 164; as instrumental value, 29; laws/regulations for minors of, 98; legal proceedings for, 95; malpractice in, 160–66; in managed care, 10; of minors, 96–98; moral dialogue in, 91; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 54–55, 76–77, 160, 164, 166; NASW Delegate Assembly revision of standard for, 55n2; prima facie duties in, 92; in privileged communication, 166; for research and evaluation participants, 148; rule utilitarian view on, 91, 97; social worker mistakes in, 165; social workers’ familiarization with regulations/policies/principles of, 160–61; subpoena in, 93–96; in Tarasoff v. Board of Regents of the University of California, 162; in third party harm, 88, 90; v. welfare fraud as example of ethical decision making, 74–83 confidentiality/privacy guidelines, 160–61; for agency, 166; “Confidentiality of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Patient Records,” 98n2, 160; of FERPA, 161; of HIPAA, 161 conflicts of interest, 19, 108–15; in NASW Code of Ethics (1996), 54 consultation/referral, 186, 191; to agencies, 174; in ethical decision making, 81–82; ethical responsibilities to colleagues for, 56–57; failure to contact organization for, 173; malpractice allegations for, 172; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 173, 174; negligent referral as, 174; with specialist, 173 cost-benefit analyses, 20, 106 couple counseling. See family/couple counseling cultural competence/social diversity: ethical responsibilities to clients for, 54; NASW Code of Ethics on, 51, 54, 61; respect for diversity in, 22 cultural/religious values, 35–37 delusive acts, confidentiality for, 97 dehontology ethical theory, 65–66, 79; agency policy v. discussion of topic in, 119; on allocation of limited resources, 126–27; on confidentiality for minors, 97; on confidentiality in family/couple counseling, 91; on deception, 150; on distribution of resources, 129; on divided loyalties, 103–4, 106; on government in private lives, 133; on government obligation to assist vulnerable people, 136; on labor-management disputes, 143; on laws/regulations compliance, 140; in normative ethics, 65; on research and evaluation, 148; on right to self deontology ethical theory (continued) determination, 99; on sexual relationship, 113; on subpoena response, 94; on third party harm, 88–89; on whistle-blowing, 152 dishonesty, 150. See also deception; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 77 distribution of resources: abortion issue example of, 128–30; act utilitarian view on, 129; creative problem solving in, 130; deontology ethical theory on, 129; rule utilitarian view on, 120–30 diversity. See cultural competence/social diversity divided loyalties, between client and employer interests, 103–8; act utilitarian on, 104; act utilitarian view on, 106; deontology ethical theory on, 103–4, 106; limits of health care for severely impaired infant as, 106–8; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 104–5; nursing home residents’ mutual sexual contact as, 103–5; rule utilitarian view on, 104, 106–7 documentation, 9, 186; in ethics audit, 188; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 85, 175; in supervision, 172 Donagan, Alan, 69–70

dual/multiple relationships, 9, 19, 57; act utilitarian view on, 110; altruism in, 109–10; boundary issues in, 109; dependency needs of professional in, 109; ethical responsibilities in practice settings in, 57; ethical responsibilities to colleagues in, 57; of former clients, 115; intimate relationships in, 109; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 54, 111; pursuit of personal benefit in, 109; responses to unanticipated circumstances in, 110; rule utilitarian view on, 110–11; sexual misconduct in, 171; therapeutic relationship in, 109 duty to protect, 89–90, 162. See also third party harm; identification of probable victim in, 163; nonmaleficence virtue in, 100; steps to reduce civil suits in, 163; Tarasoff v. Board of Regents of the University of California, 162; threat of violence in, 162; violent act as foreseeable in, 162; violent act as imminent in, 162–63
Dworkin, Gerald, 101
Elizabethan Poor Law of 1601, 15; poverty as natural state in, 136; religious charity of, 15 empowerment, of client, 22, 23, 81; definition of, 49–50 equality, in allocation of limited resources: equal shares in, 124–25; opportunity or random selection in, 125; procedures of first come, first served in, 125 ethical decision-making process, x, 3, 4, 73–86, 189, 190; clinical orientation of social work in, 10; confidentiality/privacy in, 74–83; consequential theory in, 79; consultation/referral in, 81–82; courses of action identification in, 74; decision monitoring/evaluation/documentation in, 85–86; decision making and documentation in, 82–85; ethical issues identification in, 74; framework for, xi, 73; informed participation by public in, 135; laws/regulations in, 78–79; NASW Code of Ethics resources for, 52; parties affected identification in, 74; principles/theories/guidelines examination in, 75–81; rights of local residents to participate in development of, 134; teleology ethical theory in, 79; welfare fraud v. confidentiality as example for, 74–83 ethical dilemma, x, 14, 40, 42, 189, 190; code of ethics as guidelines for, 44; of confidentiality/privacy, 87–98; decision making in, 43–86; definition of, 3–4, 44; hard cases as, 44; minimization of suffering in, 44; NASW Code of Ethics (1960) on, 45; prima facie duties in, 44; value conflicts in, 34; value importance in, 13 ethical dilemmas, in direct practice, xi, 87–121, 189; personal/professional values in, 115–20 ethical dilemmas, in indirect practice, xi, 123–54, 189; allocation of limited resources in, 123–28; deception in, 148–51; decision-making framework in, 123; government/private sector responsibility for social welfare in, 131–38; laws/regulations compliance in, 138–41; organizational ethics in, 141–45; research and evaluation in, 145–48; whistle-blowing in, 151–54 ethical responsibilities, to clients: on bartering, 55–56; on confidentiality, 54–55; on conflict of interest, 54; on cultural competence/social diversity, 54; on informed consent, 54; on loyalty to clients, 53; in NASW Code of Ethics (1996) standards, 53–56; on physical contact, 55; on sexual relationship, 55; on social worker leaving employment, 56; on termination of service, 56 ethical responsibilities, to colleagues, 56–57; in consultation/referral, 56–57; in dual/multiple relationships, 57; for impaired/incompetent/unethical colleagues, 57; for interdisciplinary team, 56 ethical responsibilities, in practice settings, 57–59; for agency administration, 58; for changing service providers, 58; for client billing, 58; for client records, 58; for dual/multiple relationships, 57; for labor-management disputes, 59; for service within areas of knowledge and competence, 57; for services by students, 57; for social work employees, 58–59 ethical responsibilities, to profession, 60–61; integrity in, 61; protection of research participants as, 61; in research and evaluation, 61 ethical responsibilities, as professionals, 59–60; of honesty in relationship with all parties, 59–60; of integrity, 59; on personal impairment of social worker, 60; of proficiency obligation, 59; of qualifications/credentials, 60; for solicitation of clients, 60; of values and personal behavior, 59 ethical risk management, x, 3, 4, 9–10, 155–88, 189, 191; defensive orientation of social work in, 19; in delivery of services/boundary violations, 167–71, 186, 191; ethics audit for, 185–88; for impaired social worker, 181–85; lawsuits/ethics complaints in, 156; for supervision of clients/staff, 171–72; for termination of service, 178–81; for unintentional mistakes, 156; for willful violation of individual’s rights, 157 ethical theory, 191; act utilitarianism as, 67–68, 79; communitarianism (community-based theory), 72, 127; deontology as, 65–66; egoism as, 66; ethics of care in, 72; good-aggregate utilitarianism as, 67; locus-aggregate utilitarianism as, 67; metaethics as, 62; normative ethics in, 65–66; rights-based as, 69; rule utilitarianism as, 67; teleology as, 66 ethical theory and decision-making period: Association for Practical and Professional Ethics in, 7; ethics centers for, 7; Hastings Center in, 7; Kennedy Institute of Ethics in, 7 ethics, ix. See also evolution, of values/ethics; absolutism in, 62–63; of care, 72; conferences on, 191; disagreements in, 192–93; evolution of, 6–10; normative, 65–66; relativism in, 62–63; scholarship fund for, 192; as values in operation, 40 ethics audit, 185–88; assessment of risk in, 187; committee formation in, 186; data source for, 186–87; documentation in, 188; ethics-related issues identification in, 186; measures to address problem areas in, 187–88; as prevention of lawsuits/liability claims, 185; priorities establishment in, 187; task assignment in, 188 ethics complaints of NASW members: peer review model for, 157–58; sanctions/corrective actions in, 158 ethnic minority, 11; interventions/social policies for, 51

evolution of values/ethics, 4–10; morality period in, 5; values period in, 5–7 exploitation, of client, 47, 61

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the, 98n2; as Buckley/ Pell Amendment, 161; confidentiality/privacy guidelines for, 161 Family Welfare Association of America, 6 family/couple counseling: confidentiality in, 91–93, 164–65; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 92, 164–65; no secret policy in, 92 Federal Trade Commission (FTC):
NASW consent agreement with, 46;
“restraint of trade” in NASW by, 46 FERPA. See Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, the fraud, 150, 186, 191. See also deception; welfare fraud; definition of, 175; intentional inaccuracy in, 176; intentional misdiagnosis in, 176; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 176; in sexual misconduct, 175; social worker’s self-interest in, 176
FTC. See Federal Trade Commission

Gewirth, Alan, 70–72
Gordon, William, 20–21, 29–30 government, in private lives, 190; act utilitarian view on, 133; Aristotle on, 132; conservative position on, 132; deontology ethical theory on, 133; liberal position on, 133; moral philosophy on, 133; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 134; Plato on, 132; public resistance to affordable housing in, 132; public resistance to community-based facilities in, 132; radical position on, 133; role of, 132; rule utilitarian view on, 133–34 government obligation, to assist vulnerable people, 135–38; act utilitarian view on, 136–37; autonomy virtue in, 136; beneficence virtue in, 136; deontology ethical theory on, 136; justice virtue in, 136; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 137; nonmaleficence virtue in, 136; rule utilitarian view on, 137; through taxation, 135

Great Depression: affect on values by, 16; morality period in, 5; public welfare advancement from, 16 hard cases, 82; definition of, 44 Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 98n2; confidentiality/privacy guidelines for, 161 homosexuality, 36; in values period, 6 human research subjects protection:

National Commission for the Protection of Human Subjects of Biomedical and Behavioral Research, 147; Public Health Service directive on human experimentation for, 147
Humphrey v. Norden (1974), privileged communication in, 95, 166

IEC. See institutional ethics committees (IEC) individual worth and dignity, 22, 23, 40; Levy on, 23; NASW Code of Ethics ethical principle for, 26–27; in values period, 6; Western capitalism influence on, 39 informed consent, 9, 19, 186; case law standards for, 167–68; confidentiality in, 91; consent forms for, 54; in delivery of services, 54; ethical responsibilities to clients in, 54; as instrumental value, 20; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 76, 167; for research and evaluation participation, 148; state/local jurisdiction standards for, 167–68; for third-party payer limits, 54 institutional ethics committees (IEC), 81–82; Baylor Law Review and, 81–82; for healthcare limits for severely impaired infant, 107–8; in Quinlan case, 81 integrity, 40; deception in, 150; definition of, 31; ethical responsibilities as professionals for, 59; ethical responsibilities to profession of, 61; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 27, 77; as virtue of professionals, 31

Introduction to Value Theory (Rescher), 12 justice virtue. See also social justice: in allocation of limited resources, 127; in community accommodation of special needs individuals, 134; definition of, 32–33; in government obligation to assist vulnerable people, 136; in values period, 6

“Knowledge and Value: Their Distinction and Relationship in Clarifying Social Work Practice” (Gordon), 20–21 labor-management disputes: act utilitarian view on, 143–44; beneficence virtue in, 143; deontology ethical theory on, 143; ethical responsibilities, in practice settings for, 59; nonmaleficence virtue in, 143; organizational ethics in, 142; rule utilitarian view on, 144; termination of service in, 142, 145 laws/regulations: act utilitarian view on, 140; agency ethical violation of, 139; civil disobedience morality in, 139; for confidentiality of minors, 98; deontology ethical theory on, 140; in ethical decision making, 78–79; ethical dilemmas in indirect practice in, 138–41; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 140–41; for premature termination of service, 179–80; rule utilitarian view on, 140; social workers’ obligation to comply with, 3, 19, 139–40 lawsuits/liability claims, xi, 9, 19, 189; adjudication of social worker in, 4, 157; as civil proceedings, 159; for economic injury, 159; for emotional injury, 159; for moral injury, 159; in protective services, 170; for supervision of clients/staff, 171–72 legal proceedings: confidentiality in, 95; privileged communication in, 19, 95, 166; subpoenas in, 93–96

Levy, Charles, 7, 23–26. See also typologies, in social work practice, of Levy limited resources. See allocation, of limited resources malpractice, xi, 4, 8, 9, 19, 82, 85, 191; adjudication of social workers for, 4, 157; advice giving as, 169; in assessment/intervention, 168; confidentiality case of, 160–66; in consultation/referral, 172; definition of, 159; in delivery of service, 167–71, 186, 191; lawsuits/liability claims for, 4, 157, 158; in standard of care, 168 managed care, 9–10; confidentiality in, 10; deception in, 10; termination of service in, 10 metaethics: cognitivist in, 62; definition of, 62; noncognitivist in, 62

Mill, J. S., 101

minimization of suffering, as choice in ethical dilemma, 44 mission statement, of NASW Code of Ethics: client empowerment in, 49–50; commitment to meet basic human needs in, 49; individual well-being in social context in, 50–51; sensitivity to cultural/ethnic diversity in, 51; service to vulnerable, oppressed people in, 50; social justice/social change in, 51 moral dialogue: in divided loyalty case, 107; in family/couple counseling case, 91

NASW. See National Association of Social Workers

NASW Ad Hoc Committee on Advocacy, on labor strikes, 144

NASW Code of Ethics (1960): ethical dilemmas and, 45; preamble of, 45; proclamations of, 45; purpose of, 51–52; resources for ethical decisions in, 52
NASW Code of Ethics (1979): FTC’s “restraint of trade” inquiry in, 46; pre-amble of, 47–48; principles of, 45–46; revisions for solicitation/referral of client by, 46; sexual relationships with client standard in, 55

NASW Code of Ethics (1996): agency administration in, 58; on ethical responsibilities as professionals, 59–60; on ethical responsibilities in practice settings, 57–59; on ethical responsibilities to client, 53–56; on ethical responsibilities to colleagues, 56–57; on ethical responsibilities to profession, 60–61; on ethical responsibilities to society at large, 61

NASW Code of Ethics (1999), 20; client definition in, 20; Code of Ethics Revision Committee for, 48; core values of, 26–27; on discrimination of sexual orientation, 36–37; mission statement in, 20, 49–51; principles section in, 52; purpose section of, 51–52; standards section in, 52–53

NASW Code of Ethics Review Task Force, addition of impairment principles by, 184

NASW Code of Ethics Revision Committee: preparation of final draft phase by, 49; public comment/ethical expert review phase by, 48–49; review phase by, 48; on service to vulnerable, oppressed people, 50

NASW Code of Ethics standards: for advice giving, 169; for agency rules/regulation compliance, 19; for allocation of limited resources, 127; for boundary issues, 113–14; for commitment to client, 75; for confidentiality/privacy, 54–55, 76–77, 160, 164, 166; for consultation/referral, 173, 174; for deception, 77, 150, 176; for delivery of service, 169; for dishonesty, 77; for divided loyalties, 104–5; for documentation, 85, 175; for dual/multiple relationships, 54, 111; for family/couple counseling, 92, 164–65; for fraud, 176; for government in private lives, 134; for government obligation to assist vulnerable people, 137; for informed consent, 76, 167; for integrity, 27, 77; for laws/regulations compliance, 140–41; for organization ethics, 144–45; for physical contact, 55; for research and evaluation, 148; for right to self determination, 75; for social welfare, 78; for social worker impairment, 184–85; for social/political action, 78; for supervision, 172; for termination of service, 56, 77, 114, 178–79; for third party harm, 89; for undue influence, 169; for whistle-blowing, 153

NASW Delegate Assembly: 1993 code amendment by, 46; 1999 revision to confidentiality standard by, 55; boundaries issues inclusion in code by, 46; ratification of 1997 Code of Ethics by, 49; resolution for revision of code by, 46, 48; social worker impairment in code by, 46, 181

NASW Encyclopedia of Social Work, 9, 117–18

NASW Impaired Social Worker Program Resource Book, description of impaired in, 181–82

NASW Insurance Trust: acts of commission or misfeasance/malfeasance, 158; acts of omission or nonfeasance, 158; liability claims for, 158

NASW Occupational Social Work Task Force, for social worker substance abuse, 181

NASW Standards for the Classification of Social Work Practice, social work values within, 21

NASW Standards for the Practice of Clinical Social Work, 176

National Association of Black Social Workers, 48

National Association of Social Workers (NASW), 6, 7, 16–17; code revision by task force of, 46; data on employment in, 16–17; data on members in, 16; on labor strikes laws, 144; on pro-choice for abortion, 117

National Federation of Societies for Clinical Social Work, 49; ethical review by, 157 Nature of Human Values, the (Rokeach), personal values definition in, 28 nonmaleficence virtue, 89, 91, 92, 98, 141; on community accommodation for special needs individual, 134; definition of, 32; in duty to protect, 100; on government obligation to assist vulnerable people, 136; on government-sponsored service, 137; in labor-management disputes, 143; in right to self-determination, 100; in sexual relationships, 104; on subpoenas, 94 nonsubtractive goods, 70 normative ethics: definition of, 62; deontology theory in, 65; teleology theory in, 66 “On Liberty” (Mill), 101 organizational ethics: ethical dilemmas in indirect practice in, 141-45; labor strikes of social worker’s in, 143; labor-management disputes in, 142; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 144-45 paternalism, 19, 49, 98-103, 190; Aristotle on, 101; in civil rights issues, 101; in deception to client, 100; Dworkin on, 101; of early charity organizations, 15; Mill on, 101; in morality period, 5; physical interference with client, against their wishes as, 100; pseudo-paternalism v., 102; as social work religious orientation, 18; in withholding information for client’s good, 99 “Paternalism” (Dworkin), 101 personal value conflict, professional v., 115-20 physical contact: ethical responsibilities to clients in, 55; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 55 Politics (Aristotle), 101; on government involvement in society, 132 practice. See ethical dilemmas, in direct practice; ethical dilemmas, in indirect practice practice settings. See ethical responsibilities, in practice settings prima facie duties, 141; in confidentiality, 92; definition of, 44; in ethical dilemmas, 44; Rawls on, 69 principles, of NASW Code of Ethics (1979): abstract examples of, 46; concrete and specific examples of, 46; prescriptive examples of, 46; proscriptive examples of, 46; purposes of, 47 privacy. See confidentiality/privacy privileged communication, 9, 19; confidentiality in, 166; Humphrey v. Norden (1974), 95, 166; legal proceedings for, 19, 95, 166 profession. See ethical responsibilities, to profession professionals. See ethical responsibilities, as professionals protective services, 3; liability claims in, 170 psychotherapy: in social work, 5, 17, 20; v. social work, 17; termination of service in, 178 Pumphrey, M. W., 22-23. See also typologies, in social work practice, of Pumphrey Quinlan, Karen Ann, IEC consultation for, 81 Rawls, John, 69 Reason and Morality (Gewirth), 70-72; additive goods, 70-71; basic goods, 70; hierarchy for conflicting duties, 71-72; nonsubtractive goods, 70 referral. See consultation/referral relativism, in ethics, 62-64; 1960’s popularity of, 64 religious charity: Elizabethan Poor Law of 1601 and, 15; negative values in, 15 religious orientation, 18-19; charity in, 15, 18; paternalism in, 18; social justice in, 18 Republic (Plato), on government involvement in society, 132 Rescher, Nicholas, 12 research and evaluation, 145-48, 190; adherence to strict ethical guidelines in, 146; confidentiality of participants research and evaluation (continued) in, 148; deontology ethical theory on, 148; ethical dilemmas in indirect practice in, 145–48; ethical responsibilities to profession in, 61; informed consent in, 148; institutional review boards for, 148; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 148; Nuremberg Trials as example of, 146; Public Health Service directive on human experimentation in, 147; Tuskegee study as unethical in, 146–47; Willowbrook study as unethical in, 147 resources, limited. See allocation, of limited resources Richmond, Mary, code of ethics of, 45 right to self determination, 3, 14, 22, 23, 98–103, 114, 190; act utilitarian view on, 99; autonomy virtue in, 100, 113; beneficence virtue in, 100; deontology ethical theory on, 99; as instrumental value, 29; limitations for, 53; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 75; nonmaleficence virtue in, 100; values period in, 6; Western capitalism influence on, 39 rights-based theory, in ethics: Donagan on, 69–70; Gewirth on, 70–72; minimization of suffering in, 69; negative utilitarianism in, 69; Rawls and, 69 Rokeach, Milton, 28 rule utilitarian, 67–68, 80; on abortion conflict, 117; on allocation of limited resources, 127; on confidentiality for minors, 97; on confidentiality in family/couple counseling, 91; on deception, 150; on distribution of resources, 129–30; on divided loyalties, 104, 106–7; on dual/multiple relationship, 110–11; on government in private lives, 133–34; on government obligation to assist vulnerable people, 137; on labor-management disputes, 144; on law/regulation compliance, 140; on sexual relationship, 113; on subpoenas, 94; on third party harm, 89; on whistle-blowing, 153 self determination. See right, to self determination service. See delivery, of service; termination, of service service value, 40; NASW Code of Ethics’ ethical principle for, 26 sexual misconduct, 47; dual/multiple relationships in, 171; fraud in, 175; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 171; studies for, 170 sexual relationship: act utilitarian view on, 113; deontology ethical theory on, 113; ethical responsibilities to client in, 55; examination of code of ethics on, 78; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 55; nonmaleficence virtue in, 104; rule utilitarian view on, 113 social equality, 22; values period in, 6 social justice, ix, 18, 21, 22. See also justice virtue; ethical responsibilities to society at large in, 61; in NASW Code of Ethics, 20; NASW Code of Ethics ethical principle for, 26; NASW mission statement on, 51; social workers’ social action for, 40; as value, 40; values period in, 6; Western capitalism influence on, 39 social welfare, 5, 15, 190; government/private sector responsibility for, 131–38; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 78; secularization in, 15 social work: education programs in, 16, 191; entrepreneurial model of practice in, 39; intervention use in, 13; medical model’s influence on, 39; as moral enterprise, 39; in private sector employment, 17; unionization of, 142 Social Work Ethics (Levy), 7 social work mission, 15–20; code of ethics in, 45; life problems assistance in, 13; value importance in, 13, 15–20; value of charity in, 15 social work orientation: amoralism, 19–20; clinical, 19; defensiveness, 19; paternalism, 18; religion, 18–19; for social justice, 18 social work values, x, xi, 13, 14, 28–31, 189, 190; instrumental, 29; personal, 22, 23, 28; professional, 22, 25, 28–29; proximate, 29 social worker adjudication. See adjudication, of social workers social worker impairment, 181–86, 191; adjudication for, 185; colleague confrontation for, 183–84; description of, 181–82; ethical risk management for, 181–85; mental illness in, 182; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 184–85; stress in, 183; substance abuse in, 181; from therapeutic role, 183 Social Workers Helping Social Workers, for chemically dependent practitioners, 181 social/political action, NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 78 society. See ethical responsibilities, to society at large standard of care, malpractice/misconduct in, 168 subpoena: act utilitarian view on, 94; confidentiality in, 93–96; deontology ethical theory on, 94; in legal proceedings, 93–96; nonmaleficence virtue in, 94; requirements for, 94–95; rule utilitarian view on, 94 supervision, 191; documentation in, 172; ethical risk management in, 171–72; lawsuits/liability claims in, 171–72; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 172; private practice need for, 172; respondant superior in, 171; training provided by, 172; vicarious liability in, 171 Tarasoff v. Board of Regents of the University of California (1976): confidentiality/privacy misconduct in, 162; third party harm in, 89–90 teleology ethical theory: egoism in, 66; in ethical decision making, 79; utilitarianism in, 66–67 termination, of service, 9, 19, 186, 191; abandonment concept in, 178, 180; adequate follow-up for, 180; ethical responsibilities to client in, 56; ethical risk management in, 178–81; failure to terminate in, 179; from labor-management disputes, 142, 145; in managed care, 10; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 56, 77, 114, 178–79; premature, 179; referral obligation in, 178; in sexual relationship issues, 114–15; unavailability of social worker in, 180 Theory of Justice, a (Rawls), 69; lexical ordering in, 69; moral principle formulation in, 69; natural duties in, 69; supererogatory actions in, 69 Theory of Morality, the (Donagan), 69–70 therapeutic relationship, 2, 14, 88; dual/multiple relationships in, 109; in sexual relationship/boundary conflicts, 114 third-party harm: act utilitarian view on, 88–89; confidentiality for, 88; deontology ethical theory, 88–89; duty to disclose confidential information for, 90; duty to protect in, 89–90, 162; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 89; rule utilitarian view on, 89; in Tarasoff v. Board of Regents of the University of California (1976), 89–90 trustworthiness virtue: deception in, 150; definition of, 31 typologies in social work practice, 20–24, 189; commitment to individual in, 27; Levy and, 23–26; NASW Code of Ethics on, 26–27; Pumphrey and, 22–23; welfare of society, 27 typologies, in social work practice, of Levy: on human service practice values, 25–26; on organizational and institutional values, 25; preferred conceptions of people in, 23; preferred instrumentalities for dealing with people in, 23–24; preferred outcomes for people in, 23; on professional values, 25; on societal values, 24–25 typologies, in social work practice, of Pumphrey: internal relationship within professional membership in, 23; relation of professional values to culture at large in, 22; relation to group or individual served in, 23 undue influence: definition of, 169; NASW Code of Ethics standards for, 169 unethical behavior, xi, 8 utilitarianism theory, in ethics. See also act utilitarian; rule utilitarian: good-aggregative as, 67; locus-aggregative as, 67; on research and evaluation, 148; rights-based theory as alternative to, 69 value base, of social workers, x, 3, 11; conflict with society’s values in, 22; Gordon on, 29–30 value conflicts, 33–34; in abortion, 35, 116–18; addressing ethical dilemmas of clients in, 34; agency policy v. discussion of topic in, 119; culture role in, 35–26; in marriage, 35; NASW policy discrimination for sexual orientation as, 36–37; of personal v. professional, 36, 115–20; religious role in, 35; role of practitioner’s personal values in, 33–34; on social worker sharing with client, 36; values period in, 6 value importance: in ethical dilemma resolution, 13; in human relationships, 40; in intervention methods of social workers, 13; NASW Code of Ethics ethical principle for, 27; in social work mission, 13, 15–20; in social worker’s relationships, 13 values, ix, 11. See also evolution, of values/ethics; attributes of, 12; challenging of, 38–39; of charity, 15; of competence, 27, 40; converted into action, 40; cultural/religious, 35–37; definition of, 12, 39; evolution of, 4–10; functions of, 12; Gordon on, 20–21, 29–30; as guide for practice, 39, 189; of human relationships, 40; in humanitarianism, 21; of individual, 22, 23, 28; influence on intervention methods by, 13, 14; influence on social workers’ ethical decisions by, 30; influence on social workers’ relationships by, 13; instrumental, 29; Levy on, 24–26; period of, 6; political aspect of, 39; on professional, 22, 25–26, 28–29; Rokeach on, 28; of social justice, ix, 6, 18, 20, 21, 22, 26, 39, 40, 51, 61; of social work, x, xi, 13, 14, 21, 28–31, 189, 190; as social work framework, xi, 6, 12 virtue, of professionals: autonomy as, 6, 32, 91, 92, 100, 104, 113, 114, 117, 130, 133, 136; beneficence as, 32, 98, 100, 104, 119, 134, 136, 137, 141, 143; Beuchamp and Childress on, 31–33; compassion as, 31; conscientiousness as, 32; definition of, 30; discernment as, 31; influence on ethical judgments by, 30–31; integrity as, 27, 31, 40, 59, 61, 77, 150; justice as, 6, 32–33, 127, 134, 136; nonmaleficence as, 32, 89, 91, 92, 94, 98, 100, 104, 134, 156, 137, 141, 143; trustworthiness as, 31, 150

War on Poverty, 16, 131 welfare fraud, 43; v. confidentiality as example for ethical decision making, 74–83 whistle-blowing, 19; act utilitarian view on, 152–53; decision considerations for, 152; deontology ethical theory on, 152; in ethical dilemmas in indirect practice, 151–54; NASW Code of Ethics standards on, 153; rule utilitarian view on, 153; on unethical conduct, 151–54 David G. Gil, Confronting Injustice and Oppression: Concepts and Strategies for Social Workers

George Alan Appleby and Jeane W. Anastas, Not Just a Passing Phase: Social Work with Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual People

Frederic G. Reamer, Social Work Research and Evaluation Skills

Pallassana R. Balgopal, Social Work Practice with Immigrants and Refugees

Dennis Saleeby, Human Behavior and Social Environments: A Biopsychosocial Approach

Frederic G. Reamer, Tangled Relationships: Managing Boundary Issues in the Human Services

David M. Austin, Human Services Management: Organizational Leadership in Social Work Practice

Toba Schwaber Kerson, Boundary Spanning: An Ecological Reinterpretation of Social Work Practice in Health and Mental Health Systems

David M. Austin, Human Services Management: Organizational Leadership in Social Work Practice

Anthony M. Maluccio, Barbara A. Pike, and Elizabeth M. Tracy, Social Work Practice with Families and Children

Joan Shireman, Critical Issues in Child Welfare

Robert G. Madden, Essential Law for Social Workers

Jerrold R. Brandell, Psychodynamic Social Work

Stuart A. Kirk, Mental Disorders in the Social Environment

Sheila H. Akbas and Paul A. Kurzman, Social Work and the Workplace