Index

Page numbers in italics refer to case studies.

abstinence, 95, 97, 100, 120, 171, 197;
A.A. and, 157; BCT and, 177; in CM approaches, 163; from cocaine and meth, 164, 165, 166; destabilization by, 200; in first treatment stage, 117– 118; incentives for, 79, 163, 164; internalization of need for, 202;
maintenance of, 200; moderation vs., 162; reinforcers of, 166; as treatment goal, 74, 110, 120, 162, 197, 198, 199 abuse, 199; as family assessment factor, 33, 51–52; of LGBT youth and adolescents, 47, 50, 51–52, 124, 125, 128, 132; of LGBT individuals, 21, 30; of transgender people, 25; of transgender youth, 22; verbal, 47, 82, 88. See also child abuse and neglect;
victimization
Acamprosate (Campral), 121
action, as motivational stage of change, 78, 79, 95, 131
addiction: A.A. as, 157–158; assessment of, 62; behaviors of, 5, 6, 74, 79;
causes of, 126, 170; counselors, 24, 163; definition of, 5; dependence vs., 5; disease model of, 5; to GHB, 67; to heroin, 55, 81, 117; to marijuana, 62;
to MDMA, 67; medications and, 121, 122; models of, 5; to opiates, 122, 166;
recovery from, 90; science of, 167, 191, 192; sex, 119, 170; to stimulants, 163; treatment, 91, 145, 196, 215 ADHD, 113, 129, 132, 147 adolescents and youth. See LGBT adolescents and youth affirmation of client concerns: as therapeutic skill, 74, 75; affirmative practice and, 30, 31
African Americans: alcohol use by, 37, 124; attitudes of, 39, 143; domestic violence agencies and, 89; harm reduction and, 154; HIV/AIDS and,
41, 58, 98, 152; LGBT individuals, 37, 98, 108, 112, 150, 152; MET approach to treatment and, 162; same-sex sexual behavior of, 38; smoking prevalence among, 14; substance use by, 37, 66, 98, 124

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM), levels of care of, 72 amphetamines: alcohol and, 61; dementia and, 98; dependence on, 122; HIV and, 98; LG youth and, 124; stabilization treatment and, 155; as stimulants, 63, 117; unsafe sex and, 56; use of, by race/ethnicity, 37. See also methamphetamines amylnitrate, 3, 34, 70, 98 anal sex: assumptions about, 44; at circuit parties, 35; drug use and, 49, 68; HIV and, 3, 45, 57; sexual compulsivity and, 48; unprotected (barebacking), 27, 34, 46, 48, 56, 64, 68, 69, 112, 113, 114 Anderson model of couples therapy: first stage, 197–198; second stage, 200–201; third stage, 202; fourth stage, 203–204 androgynous people, 9, 10 anger, 42, 85, 108, 118, 157, 167, 197, 199; in children of substance users, 106, 176; of LGBT therapists, 27, 28; management of, 131 antidepressants, 96, 113, 118, 121, 135, 136 antidrug laws, 211–212, 213 antiretroviral medications, 70, 100, 164 anxiety, 88, 96, 171; in adolescents, 125, 132; in children of substance users, 176, 201–202; of LGBT individuals, 20, 40, 40, 42, 54, 86, 87, 89, 90, 118, 160, 195; relapse and, 170; in relationships, 202–203; substance use and, 43, 64, 65, 66, 91, 117, 176, 181
Asian Americans: alcohol and drug use by, 37, 124; attitudes of, 143, 150; as immigrants, 146; as LGBT individuals, 40, 152; smoking prevalence among, 14
AsianPacificIslanders, 59, 108, 153 assessment, 72; of children/adolescents, 128–129; of co-occurring disorders, 93; errors in, 97; instruments of, 61–62; of LGB clients of color, 153–154; of mental health for HIV-infected clients, 100, 101–102; of old/er LGBT individuals, 137–138; of stage of motivation, 166; of substance abuse, 97 assessment of factors in substance use issues of LGBT clients, 1, 32; in couples and family therapy, 184; demographic variables, 33, 36–40; family of origin factors, 33, 49–53; health-related factors, 33, 53–59; interpersonal factors, 33, 44–49; lifestyle variables, 32, 33–36; motivational readiness to change, 33, 71–72; patterns of abuse and dependent behavior, 33, 59–62; psychosocial factors, 33, 40–44; specific drugs, 33, 62–71 awareness, as stage in Lev model of transgender emergence, 86–87 barebacking. See anal sex bathhouses, gay men and, 33, 34–35, 45, 48 behavior: labels and, 8; identity vs., 12–13 behavioral couples therapy (BCT), 177 behavioral therapies, 79–81, 133, 148, 177, 178; pharmacological therapies and, 220

benzodiazepines (Valium, Xanax), 135, 165 biological theories of etiology, 14–18 biphobia, 85, 108, 150, 214; definition of, 22; education about, 221; internalized, 20, 22, 25; literature on, 24; of parents, 50; religion and, 144 bisexual individuals, 9, 11, 20, 24; adolescents, 125, 128; as clients, 24, 186; coming out of, 82–83, 85; GHB and, 67; HIV and, 57; identity development in, 85–86; LG antagonism toward, 34, 219; myths about, 22, 24; open relationships of, 175–176; as parents, 106; substance use disorders in, 2, 12, 13, 128; victimization of, 125. See also bisexuality; bisexual men; bisexual women bisexuality, 4, 9, 11, 15, 104, 144, 160 bisexual men: childhood abuse of, 51; gay men and, 12; harassment of, 21; HIV and, 3, 48, 98; stereotypes of, 45; substance use/abuse by, 2, 3, 12, 21, 48, 163; tobacco use by, 13; Viagra and, 69. See also bisexual individuals bisexual women, 34, 58, 160; alcohol and, 2, 13, 12, 21, 34, 54, 59; case studies of, 113, 128, 160, 178; discrimination against, 21–22; HIV and, 48, 57, 58; lesbians and, 12, 22, 160; in relationships, 178; shame in, 160; as sisters, 15; stereotypes of, 45; substance use/abuse by, 12, 59; tobacco use among, 2, 3, 13, 54; workplace harassment of, 21. See also bisexual individuals borderline personality disorder, 93, 97, 116, 171

Bowen, Murray, 194; interventions, 202; family systems theory and, 181, 187, 205 brain, 14; addiction as disease of, 5, 6; dopamine in, 17, 63; drug effects on, 63, 117, 130; frontal lobe of, 126; impulse control and, 80; neurotransmitters in, 62; sexual behavior and reproductive function and, 16; substance use disorders and heredity and, 17; of transsexuals, 16; vulnerability of adolescent, 126. See also under names of parts of brief motivational therapies, 38, 74, 77; empirical support for, 79, 220; strengths perspective and, 161 buprenorphine, 55, 65, 122, 149 bupropion, 81, 100, 121

cancers, 3, 54, 204; nicotine and, 63 cardiovascular disease, 3, 4, 54, 63, 69

care, levels of, 72

case studies: from author’s practice, 1; of bisexual women, 113, 128, 160, 178; of gay men, 36, 45, 50, 69, 115, 119, 152, 189; of lesbians, 40, 42, 43, 47, 55, 89, 90, 116, 120, 136, 145, 149, 150, 151, 178, 181, 198–200, 201–202, 202–203, 204–205; of injection drug users, 45; from social service agencies, 1; of transgender youth, 109, 126, 134, 148; of transmen, 134; of transwomen, 109, 126, 148
Cass model of gay/lesbian identity development, 84–85
Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), 71, 97, 98, 99, 128, 130; Methamphetamine Project (MTP), 165; on strategies for clients with COD, 94–95, 96; training for appropriate service for LGBT clients by, 25 central nervous system (CNS), 62, 63–65 child abuse and neglect, 3, 25, 47, 50, 51–52, 104, 128, 160 childhood, children, 25, 81; assessment of clients as, 128–129; attitudes of, 26; custody of, 106, 108, 210; disconnect of LGBT, in heterosexist societies, 20, 44; intersex individuals as, 10; in LGB households, 105, 176, 210; in psychological factors of etiology of substance use disorders, 17; raising of, as therapeutic issue, 105–106; of substance users, 176; treatment of, 129–134. See also child abuse; childhood cigarette smoking. See tobacco use circuit parties, 33, 34–35, 66, 69 civil rights, of LGBT individuals, 82, 158, 206, 208, 210 clients: collusion of, with therapists, 24; autonomy of, 74; decision making of, 74; with disabilities, 147–148; HIV in, 41; homeless, 148, 149; medical/psychiatric histories/current conditions of, 53–54; motivational readiness of, to change, 32; as racial/ethnic minorities, 149–154; self-acceptance of sexual orientation by, 35; sexual orientation of, 23; strengths of, 160–161; victimization history of, 52; substance abuse history of, 70–71 closeting, 82, 83. See also coming out; disclosure; passing clothing, 10, 25, 27, 44, 87 club drugs: as assessment factor, 33, 66–68; barebacking and, 113; HIV and, 55, 68; identification of, 66–67; neglect of, in MSW courses, 217; gay and bisexual men and, 2, 3, 13, 66, 67, 68, 163. See also party drugs cocaine, 37, 49, 63, 68, 70, 10, 165, 183; alcohol and, 61; bisexual women and, 113, 128; chronic users of, 17; dependence, 122, 164; lesbians and, 120, 151; matrix model of treatment and, 165; MSM and, 3, 56–57, 64, 98; MTF sex workers and, 13; stabilization treatment and, 155; as stimulant, 63, 117; unsafe sex and, 56 codependency, codependents, 186, 195, 200 cognitive behavioral techniques (CBT), 79, 80, 94, 96, 165, 171, 192, 193; behavioral self-control training (BSCT), 162; CM vs. 164; effectiveness of, 95, 131; empirical support for, 220; gay-specific, 163; matrix model and, 165; MET vs., 162; older people and, 139; in relapse-prevention therapy, 172; strengths perspective and, 161; treatment for substance dependence/addiction, 115, 163 college students, 11, 12, 26, 37, 67, 182 collusion, between therapists and clients, 23, 24, 27, 29 coming out, 18, 35, 83, 108, 190; abandonment and, 120; by bisexuals, 82–83, 85; as factor of assessment, 33, 35; families and, 50–51, 52–53, 150, 203–204; by gay men, 36; as healthy, 81–82; issues of, 17, 127, 202; by lesbians, 42, 43, 151, 199, 202, 203; of LGBT adolescents, 131; LGBT relationships and, 104–105; by parents, 105; risk in, 203–204; by spouses, 184; substance abuse disorder and, 81; as therapeutic issue, 35, 81–83; of transgender individuals, 83, 87; as white phenomenon, 151. See also closeting; disclosure; passing; transgender emergence commitment for change, 76–77, 78 common factor models of comorbidity, 92 community: management approach, 80; outpatient settings, 165; reinforcement approach, 2, 161, 166–168, 192; CRAFT and, 167;
support programs, 59, 156
comorbidity between substance use and psychiatric disorders, models of, 91–92 condom use, 27, 100, 112, 113; by MSM, 45, 98, 56–57; by transgender individuals, 46, 57–58. See also safe sex; unsafe/unprotected sex confidentiality, 128, 207–208; laws concerning, 208–209 confrontation, ineffectiveness of, 173, 192 contemplation, as motivational stage of change, 77, 78, 95, 131 contingency management (CM) approaches, 79, 80, 94, 161, 163–164, 192; CBT and, 163–164; CRA and, 166; effectiveness of, 2, 95; empirical support of, 220 continuing care, as phase of substance abuse treatment, 155, 156 contraindication, of family and group therapy, 181, 183–184 conversion therapy (reparative therapy), 19, 30–31, 207 co-occurring disorders (COD), 81, 164, 169; in adolescents with substance use disorders, 132, 133, 180; assessment of, 93; confidentiality and, 209; disabilities and, 147; HIV and, 91–103; meth dependence and, 117; as psychosocial factor of assessment, 33, 40–42; suicide and, 97 co-parents, gay and lesbian, 24 coping skills/strategies, 52, 171, 197, 202; acquisition of, 79, 96; of children, 176; to manage stigma, 21; passing as, 82; for relapses, 171–172; for stress, 58–59, 131; substance use as, 51, 86 correlates, of heterosexist attitudes, 25–27 Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), 6, 216, 217 countertransference issues, 24, 27–29, 103 couples, 1; lesbian, 23, 175; LGBT, 175; substance abuse treatment with, 176–178; therapy, therapeutic issues in, 184–187 couples/family therapy: Anderson model of, 193; approaches to behavioral therapy, 79, 87, 118, 161; empirical support of, 220; outpatient treatment programs and, 156 course specifiers, of longer-term outcomes for substance dependence, 61 crack. See cocaine crime, 3, 6, 112, 212; hate, 34, 88, 94, 107, 211 cross-dressing, cross-dressers, 9, 27, 143 cross-living, transsexuals and, 10 crystal. See methamphetamine CSAT. See Center for Substance Abuse Treatment dance clubs, 2, 14, 45

death, deaths, 103, 135, 210; HIV/AIDS and, 58, 100; overdoses and, 62, 67; religion, 141; substance use disorders and, 3, 62, 63, 66, 134, 168 defense mechanisms, as psychosocial factor of assessment, 33, 44 demographic variables, of assessment factors, 33, 36–40 denial, 42, 84; of consequences of drinking, 200; as defense mechanism of LGBT children, 20, 44, 170; of enablers, 186; of parents, 50, 120 dependence, 6, 71; addiction vs., 5; alcohol, treatment of, 115–116; patterns of, behavior of, as assessment factor, 33, 59–62; stimulant, treatment of, 117–120 depression, 47, 52, 85, 88, 90, 96, 117, 134, 137, 144, 164; alcohol abuse and, 41, 42, 92, 115–116; in bisexuals, 160; in closeted adolescents, 125; conversion therapy and, 30; gay and bisexual men and, 40, 218; HIV/AIDS and, 99, 100, 102; lesbians and, 40, 40, 41, 42, 89, 93, 116, 116, 195, 218; LGBT individuals and, 20, 42, 54, 113; Native Americans and, 153; psychotropic medication and, 172; religious beliefs and, 39; shame and, 20, 91; stimulants and, 92; substance use and, 18, 41, 43, 58–59, 63, 66, 69, 91, 120, 152, 177, 218; transgender individuals and, 16, 22, 52, 87, 134. See also antidepressants detoxification (detox), 137, 192; for heroin, 149; methadone and, 65; treatment of opiate dependence and, 116; outpatient, 199; as phase of substance abuse treatment, 138, 155–156; during pregnancy, 55 diagnosis, 97, 138, 190, 211; of ADHD, 129; of co-occurring disorders, 93; criteria of, for substance use disorders, 5; of GID, 4–5, 6; of HIV/AIDS, 56, 58, 101, 135; mental health, of homosexuality, 4–5, 30; for substance dependence, 61. See also DSM-IV-TR differentiation, in lesbian couples, 194, 201 disabilities, LGBT individuals with, 147–148 disclosure: average age of, 124; of children, to parents, 124–125, 203; to children, 105; decisions around, 82; of gender identity, 21, 102; of HIV, 98, 99, 102; of sexual orientation, 21, 102; of transgender individuals, 87. See also coming out discrimination: based on sexual orientation, 6, 32, 82, 94, 220–221; against bisexual women, 21–22; in families of origin, 50; by health care providers, 21, 135; of LGBT people with HIV, 21; protection against, 210; psychiatric morbidity and, 20–21; stress of, 18, 25, 54; against transgender people, 22, 25, 102, 107; in workplace, 38–39 disease, 3, 4, 54, 63, 177, 186, 195; chronic brain, substance dependence as, 5, 6; “gay,” 36; model of addiction, 5, 217. See also alcoholism, alcoholics; HIV/AIDS; sexually transmitted diseases; and under names of specific diseases dissociation, 20, 42, 44, 50, 170 dissonance, 9–10, 84, 86 disulfiram 81, 120–121, 122 domestic violence, 44, 112, 132; agencies, 89; in families with transition issues, 89; among gay men, 46; prevention of family therapy by, 181; substance use disorders and, 3, 103, 199. See also abuse; child abuse and neglect; partner violence; violence dopamine, in brains, 17, 63 drag performers (kings and queens), 9, 27. See also cross dressing, cross dressers drugs, drug use, 20, 46; age and, 36; alcohol and, 3; conversion therapy and, 31; anabolic steroids, 33, 68–69; depressants, 33, 62, 67; hallucinogens, 33, 64, 65–66; legalization of certain, 212; narcotics/opiates, 33, 60, 61, 65; overdoses of, 62; recreational, 84, 85; sex-related, 51, 114; stimulants, 33, 63–65. See also club drugs; date rape drugs; drug use, as assessment factors; injection drug use; opiates/narcotics; party drugs; substance entries; and under names of specific substances drug testing, 95, 165
drug use, as assessment factors: anabolic steroids, 33, 68–69; depressants, 33, 62; hallucinogens, 65–66; narcotics/opiates, 33, 60, 65; polydrug use, 33, 64, 68–69, 70; stimulants, 33, 63–65. See also drugs, drug use DSM-IV-TR (APA Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders), 4, 6, 30, 60, 97, 216; criteria of, as abusive-dependent behavior patterns assessment factor, 33, 60–61; criteria of alcohol dependence in, 162; diagnosis of substance use disorders by, 61; GID in, 107; homosexuality removed
Index

Index

from, 30; as most common diagnostic criteria of substance use disorders, 5
ecstasy, 48, 66, 68, 70, 114, 128 education: clinical, 216; continuing, 220; family, 118; graduate programs in social work, 6; groups, as part of traditional treatment programs, 74;
of meth users, 117; positive attitudes toward homosexuals and, 26; professional, in LGBT substance use disorders treatment, 217–218 elicitation of self-motivational statements, as therapeutic skill, 74, 75 emergence stages, 180
empathy, as therapeutic skill, 74 empirically supported treatments, 161– 170, 192; with couples, families, small groups, 175–187; research on, 220.
See also evidence-supported treatments
employment: disruptions in, and substance use disorders, 3; as protective factor of substance abuse, 38–39. See also workplace enablers, partners as, 185–186 enhancement therapy, 192 enlightenment, as ineffective practice, 173
environmental influences, 15, 92, 126, 166; in etiology of substance use
disorders, 17
ethics: challenges of, 1, 206–208; of conversion therapy, 31, 207 etiology: of gender identity, 8, 14–16; of sexual orientation, 8, 14–16; of substance use disorders, 8, 16–17; of substance use disorders in LGBT population, 17–18
evidence-supported treatments, 38, 97, 133, 192, 214. See also empirically supported treatments families, 1, 25, 28, 95, 102; Al-Anon and, 157, 167, 177; alienation/rejection and,
18, 34, 82; of choice, 53, 129, 175, 178, 184, 185; of creation, 193;
developmental stages of, 52–53;
dynamics of, in etiology of transsexuals, 16; in etiology of sexual orientation, 15; LGBT threat to structure of, 143; mental health and, 41; relations with, as assessment factor, 33, 52–53; substance abuse treatment with, 178–181; support of, 167, 172; toxic, 181; of transgender individuals, 50, 52, 53, 87; victimization/abuse of sexual minority youth by, 21, 50, 51–52. See also families of origin; family therapy; fathers; mothers; parents, parenting families of origin, 43, 46, 81, 102, 178, 184; in assessment factors, 33, 49–53; distancing from, 194–195, 201, 204;
heterosexual privilege in, 200; issues
of, 103–104, 180, 183, 185, 187, 193, 199; rejection by, 50, 50, 87, 142, 219; rejection and, 142; repositioning and, 204; stories about, 203; stress in, 89; substance abuse in, 103; support of, 102, 103, 131, 175; work on unfinished needs of, 203. See also families; family therapy; fathers; mothers;
parents, parenting
family therapy, 180, 181, 192, 214; effectiveness of, with adolescents, 131, 132; family education groups, 165;
family systems theory and, 181, 193;
therapeutic issues in, 184–187;
unilateral, 178–179
fathers: abusive, 43, 126, 160, 178; alcoholic, 89, 113; in children’s formation of sexual orientation, 30; coming out and, 102; in etiology of sexual orientation, 15; in etiology of substance use disorders, 16; as gay men, 105; of gender-variant boys, 16; of lesbians, 136, 151, 199, 204–205. See also parents, parenting feedback, as therapeutic skill, 73 femininity, 20, 30
feminism, 27, 196; A.A. and, 159
fetal development, sexual orientation
and, 15
Food and Drug Administration, 122, 169
Foxy (tryptamine), 65, 66 friends: alienation/rejection and, 18, 34, 82; bisexuals and, 25; as families of choice, 53; HIV/AIDS and, 18, 27, 53; of lesbian couples, 195 FTM (female-to-male) transsexuals. See transmen fusion, in lesbian couples, 193–194 future, of LGBT substance use disorders treatment, 216–221 gay and lesbian liberation movement, 4; gay rights movement and, 211–212 Gay and Lesbian Medical Association (2006), 64, 169 gay bars, 2, 114; as factor of assessment, 33, 34–35, 45; recruits for substance abuse studies in, 12; risk for HIV and, 34; risk for substance use and, 34, 115; smoke-free, 14; as social resource, 18, 34 gay male therapists, 28–29 gay men, 3, 11, 38, 46, 50, 152, 185; A.A. and, 159; alcohol and, 3, 21, 34, 36, 50, 218–219; body image of, 69, 69; case studies of, 36, 45, 50, 69, 115, 119, 152, 189; childhood abuse of, 51, 52; club drugs and, 2, 3; coming out by, 82; as co-parents, 24; conversion therapy and, 30–31; as couples, 45, 185, 187; emphasis on youth by, 135; as fathers, 105; harassment of, 21; heterosexism and, 20; heterosexual males vs., 26; HIV and, 3, 47–48, 56–58, 98, 114, 117, 119, 135, 152, 162; homeless, 152, 190; hypothalamic uses of, 14; identity tolerance stage of development and, 84; injection drug use by, 45; internalized homophobia in, 20; intimate-partner violence among, 47; matrix model of substance use disorder treatment for, 165–166; model of identity development of, 84–85; negative attitudes toward, 25–26, 30; meth use by, 48, 64, 69, 163, 165, 219; older, 114, 135; pay disparity of, 38; self-identity of gender variant people as, 9; socialization of, 3, 34–35; social venues of, 45; with straight wives, 29, 184; subculture of, 49; substance abuse/dependence among, 2, 12, 36, 43, 52, 69, 118, 171, 218–219; suicide and, 125, 218; tobacco use among, 2, 3, 13–14; twins studies of, 15; Viagra and, 69, 70, 118. See also gay bars; homosexuality, homosexuals; MSM gender, 20; as assessment factor, 33, 36–37; bias, 22; dichotomous/binary view of, 9, 10, 22, 27; dysphoria, 87, 106, 107; equality, 26; neutrality of, 10; nonconformity, 20, 21, 26; religion and, 26, 39, 143; traditional roles of, 20, 26, 103, 150; treatment protocols specific to, 189. See also feminism; gender identity; gender identity disorder; gender variant people; women gender identity, 1, 9, 38, 42, 44; affirmation of, 46; confidentiality and, 207; etiology of, 8, 14–16; in heterosexist societies, 20; substance use disorders and, 7, 218 gender identity disorder (GID), 4–5, 107–108 gender-variant people, 9, 41, 93, 106; behavior of, 15–16, 34; etiology of, 16 genetics: as basis of alcohol and other drug dependence, 16–17, 196, 199, 219–220; links of, to male homosexuality, 15; predisposition of, to sexual orientation, 14. See also heredity genitaments, 9, 10, 107 genograms, 49–50, 198; multigenerational, in Anderson model of couples therapy, 197 geography, as assessment factor, 33, 83 GHB, as club drug, 67; meth and, 70, 114 group therapy, n8, 181–184; as outpatient treatment program, 156; social support, 165; unstructured, 192; women-only, 189 guilt, 29, 40, 42; religion and, 119, 144 hallucinogens, 33, 64, 65–66 harm reduction, 97, 100, 110–113, 113, 120, 148, 149, 217; adolescents and, 130–131, 148; African American communities and, 154; MET and, 161, 162; methadone and, 116; meth and, 119–120, 120; relapses and, 172; zero tolerance vs., 212

Harry Benjamin International Gender Dysphoria Association (HBIGDA), standards of care (SoC) of, 107

hate crimes, 34, 88, 94, 211; against transgender people, 107 health care, 168, 206; discrimination in, 21, 109. See also medicine, medical care health-related factors, as assessment factors, 33, 53–59

hepatitis C, 3, 4, 27, 54

heredity, 15, 17. See also genetics heroin, 65, 81, 112, 116; bisexuals and, 128; gay men and, 36, 64; lesbians and, 55, 116, 149; transgender youth and, 126. See also injection drug use; methadone; opiates/narcotics heterosexism, 1, 25–27, 41, 185, 218; adolescents and, 129; bias of, 22–25; conversion therapy and, 31; definition of, 20; education about, 221; history of term, 20; homophobia vs., 19–20; internalized, 197, 25–26; internalized homo/bi/transphobia and, 19; of religious institutions, 39, 142; societal, 20, 32, 33, 34; transgender identity and, 93; unexamined, of therapists, 23 heterosexuality, 9; assumptions about, 44; as “natural,” 20, 22; privilege of, 85; relationship models of, 184–185 heterosexual men: as cross-dressers, 9; gay men vs., 26; as MSM, 8; perception of bisexual women by, 22 heterosexual women: hypothalamuses of, 14–15; lesbians passing as, 43; as wives of gay men, 29 highly active antiretroviral therapy (HAART), 70, 100

Hispanics: gay and bisexual men as, 112, 190; HIV/AIDS and, 58; as lesbians, 37, 120, 151; as MSM club drug users, 68. See also Latinos/Latinas history and patterns of substance use disorders, as assessment factor, 33, 49–51

HIV/AIDS, 3, 6, 34, 35, 54, 70, 81, 112, 122, 208; adolescents and, 3, 54, 126, 127; alcohol use and, 56; bisexuals and, 186; child abuse and, 51; confidentiality about, 113; confidentiality and, 207; co-occurring disorders and, 91–103; depression and, 99; disclosure of, 49, 98; discrimination and, 25; epidemic, i8, 54, 105, 137, 151, 218; ethnic/racial minorities and, 151; HAART and, 70, 100; infection status of, as health-related assessment factor, 33, 55–59, 98; lesbians and, 57; loss of friends to, 18, 27, 53; management of, 98; MDMA and, 67; mental health assessment of clients infected with, 98, 101–102; meth use and, 48, 64, 114, 117, 119, 120; MSM and, 47–48, 56–58, 114, 117, 119, 135, 152, 162; needle sharing and, 41, 45, 55, 56, 98; prevention programs, 90; psychiatric disorders and, 99; relationship stress of, 105; risk factors of, 12–13, 34, 45, 120; serosorting and, 113; statistics on, 56; stigma of, 21, 58; suicide and, 56; transgender population and, 13, 22, 46, 57, 98, 110, 126; unsafe sex and, 27, 46, 68, 135; Viagra and, 69 homelessness, 112; clients and, 148, 149; of gay men, 152, 190; of LGBT adolescents, 3, 125, 128, 190; of transgender youth, 22, 109, 126, 134

homoerotic countertransference, 28–29

homophobia, 19, 20, 108, 150, 151, 173, 185, 206, 214; adolescents and, 129; conversion therapy and, 31; education about, 221; in job settings, 82; meth use and, 219; of parents, 50, 178, 200; of practitioners, 23, 24–25, 27; religion and, 142, 143; in rural areas, 38; sexism and, 26, 40; of social workers, 25–26; societal, 23, 104, 106, 124; stress of, 124, 131, 218; transgendered people and, 90, 108. See also biphobia; internalized homo/bi/transphobia; transphobia homosexual%trality, homosexuals, 11, 67, 84; child abuse and, 104; conversion therapy and, 30–31: as diagnostic category, 216; ego-dystonic, 4; ex-gay ministries and, 30–31; genetic links to, 15; heterosexuality vs., 20, 22; markers of, 218; mental illness diagnoses of, 4–5, 6, 30, 81; as pathology, 159; religion and, 90; as sin as, 39, 143, 145; stigma against, 58; as voluntary choice, 26, 142 hormone therapy, 9; approval for, 107; black market, 87, 98, 109, 126, 127; estrogen and, 110; insurance reimbursement for, 5; transsexuals and, 10, 12, 98, 100 hostility, 21, 27, 34, 181; as defense mechanism, 44 identity: acceptance, 85; behavior vs., in HIV/AIDS risk factors, 12–13; comparison, 84; confusion, 84; development, stage models of, 83–88, 131; fluidity of, 83; formation, as factor of assessment, 33, 35; pride, 85; as recovering person, 83, 85; synthesis, 85; tolerance, 84. See also Cass model of gay/lesbian identity development, 84–85; gender identity; LGBT identity; self-identity; sexual identity immigrants, LGBT individuals as, 146–147 impotence, drug use and, 49, 118. See also Viagra ineffective practices, 173–174 inhalants, 34, 97, 98 injection drug use, 114, 116, 132; child abuse and, 52; depression and, 41; by gay and bisexual men, 36, 45, 56–57; HIV and, 3–4, 41, 46, 55, 56, 98, 103; LG youth and, 124; lifetime, 110; needle sharing and, 120, 152; PCP, 66; syringe-exchange programs and, 55, 112, 149, 212; by transgender individuals, 2, 13, 46, 126. See also heroin inpatient treatment of substance abuse, 153, 166, 182–183, 190 insomnia, 63, 100, 122 intensive day treatment of substance abuse, 155, 156 internalized homo/bi/transphobia, 23, 28, 81, 91, 106, 173, 186–187, 190; in bisexuals, 20; confronting of, 31; conversion therapy and, 30; in gay men, 20, 28–29; in lesbians, 43, 145, 196; management of, as therapeutic issue, 90–91, 100; in older LGBT people, 137; pain and stress of, 20, 131; as passive, 20; as psychosocial factor of assessment, 33, 42–43; stigma and, 19; substance use as coping system for negative feelings associated with, 2, 5–6, 18, 20, 64, 199 Internet: barebacking and, 113; black MSM and, 58; gay bars vs., 35; online sexual activities and, 48–49, 119; rural LGBT people and, 38; sex, substance use disorders, and, 49 interpersonal factors, as assessment factors, 33, 44–49 intersex individuals, 10 interventions: brief motivational, 38, 74, 77; formal, 179; judgmental/punitive, 5; models of, 155–174; science and, 191 interviews of clients, 62, 74–77; in Anderson model of couples therapy, 197. See also motivational interviewing intimate relationships patterns, as assessment factor, 33, 44–46 intolerance, for gender nonconformity, 20, 21 intravenous drug use. See injection drug use ketamine, 64, 67–68; Viagra and, 69, 70 kings. See drag performers Kinsey, Alfred, on continuum of sexual orientation, 15 Latinos/Latinas: alcohol use by, 37, 146, 152; attitudes of, toward homosexuality, 143–144, 150, 151; as bisexuals, 37, 40, 144, 159; club drugs and, 66; cocaine use by, 37; domestic violence agencies and, 89; as gay men, 118, 150, 151, 152; gender roles among, 143; heterosexism of, 39, 150; as immigrants, 146; as lesbians, 40, 159; marijuana use, 37; MET approach to treatment and, 162; as MSMs, 40, 51, 58, 139, 150–151; Puerto Rican gay men, 46; smoking prevalence among, 14; transwomen as, 108; underage drinking among, 124 laws and legal issues, 208–210; concerning confidentiality, 208–209 legislative issues, 211–215 lesbian couples, 185, 193–194; case study of, 193–205; partner violence and, 46, 89 lesbians, 9, 11, 21, 24, 36, 38, 45, 127, 147; alcohol and, 2, 12, 13, 21, 34, 35, 36, 37, 40, 42, 43, 47, 52, 54, 59, 89, 135–136, 136, 145, 150, 151, 198–200, 218; bisexual women vs., 22, 160; case studies of, 40, 42, 43, 47, 55, 89, 90, 116, 120, 136, 145, 149, 150, 151, 178, 181, 198–200, 201–202, 202–203, 204–205; childhood abuse of, 47, 51, 52; of color, 14, 37, 38, 51, 58, 150; depression in, 40, 40, 41, 42, 89, 93, 116, 116, 195, 218; heterosexism and, 20, 24; with heterosexual husbands, 40, 42, 145, 151, 184; HIV and, 57, 58; homo-phobia and, 26, 43; model of identity development of, 84–85; monogamy and, 185; as mothers, 105, 145, 149; oppression of, 19, 24, 25–26; passing of, 43, 82; pregnant, 55; sexism and, 26; social life of, 34; substance abuse among, 12, 43, 47, 55, 59, 116, 149, 151, 218, 219; suicide and, 218; tobacco use among, 2, 3, 13, 14, 54; transmen as, 134; twins studies of, 15; workplace harassment of, 21. See also lesbian couples

LGBT identity, 83, 84, 124

LGBT individuals: abuse of, 21; assessment tools for, 62; as clients of treatment counselors, 22–23, 32, 73, 98, 188–191; as couples, 175–178; depression in, 20; with disabilities, 147–148; as generally well adjusted, 2; in heterosexist societies, 20–22; HIV and, 21; immigration policies toward, 146–147; Internet and, 49; issues of, 2–3; in multiple minority groups, 146; oppression of, 221; permissive drug use norms among, 18; prevalence of, in overall population, 10–11; prevalence of substance use disorders in, 2, 21; as therapists, 27; in workplace, 38–39. See also LGBT adolescents and youths; LGBT issues

LGBT issues: antigay/trans violence as, 88; awareness of, in practitioners, 81; medical care and, 6; psychology and, 6; social work and, 6, 32; in substance use disorders, 2–3, 17–18. See also coming out; internalized homo/bi/transphobia; violence lifestyle variables, as assessment factors, 32, 33, 34–36 listening, reflective: as therapeutic skill, 74–75 LSD, 65, 68, 124

maintenance, as motivational stage of change, 78, 79, 95 males: drinking in, 36–37; gender nonconformity in, 21 marijuana, 37, 68, 116; cannabis dependence and, 60; college students and, 12, 37; effects of, 62; HIV and, 98; LGBT individuals and, 12, 36, 37, 98, 113, 120, 124, 149, 151, 178; meth and, 70; testing for cannabis and, 165; unsafe sex and, 56 marriage: assumptions about, 44; denial of privileges of, 135, 142, 210; divorce and, 184; prearranged, 143; same-sex, legal recognition of, 212 masculinity, 20, 30; Latinos and, 150, 151 matrix model of treatment, 80, 161, 164–166; effectiveness of, 2 MDMA, 66–67, 128
medical history of clients, 129 medications, 110, 219; antidepressants, 42 medicine, medical care, 6, 21, 107, 110, 138, 156, 217. See also health care mental health assessment, of HIV-infected clients, 101–102 mental health service: heterosexist bias among providers of, 22–25; lesbian and gay men and, 54, 59, 93–94 mental illness, 4–5, 98, 99 menu, as therapeutic skill, 74 methadone, 55, 61, 65, 112, 149; adverse interactions of, with HAART, 100; children and, 117; maintenance programs, 156, 212; opiate use and, 116, 122; withdrawal symptoms and, 81, 122 methamphetamine (meth), 63, 68, 110, 114, 164, 214, 215; adolescents and, 123, 127, 134; dependence, 97, 98, 164; as drug of choice, 120, 128; ecstasy and, 70; effects of, 63–64; GHB and, 67, 70; harm reduction perspective and, 119–120, 120; HIV and, 55, 56, 117, 119; marijuana and, 70; matrix model of treatment and, 165; LGBT individuals and, 13, 48, 49, 56–57, 64, 117, 119, 126, 152, 163, 165, 218, 219; psychiatric disorders and, 97, 98; residential treatment for, 190; testing for, 165; unsafe sex and, 56, 112 Miller, William, motivational interviewing and, 74 models of treatment: community reinforcement, 2; contingency management, 2; evaluation of, 2; evidence-based, 1; intervention and, 155–174; matrix, 2, 80, 164–166; motivational enhancement therapy, 2; stages of change, 71, 77–79 monogamy, 44, 45; in LGBT relationships, 175–176, 184–185 mothers: alcoholic, 89; of bisexual women, 160; coming out and, 102; in etiology of sexual orientation, 15; in etiology of transsexuals, 16; in formation of sexual orientation of LGB individuals, 30; as lesbians, 105, 149; of lesbians, 136, 149, 199, 205; rejection of lesbian daughters by, 43, 116; stories of, 204 motivational approaches, 94–95, 115 motivational enhancement therapy (MET), 80, 94, 114, 161–163; CBT and, 163; effectiveness of, 2, 162; in group therapy, 182; harm reduction and, 161, 162 motivational interviewing (MI), 74–77, 94, 97, 139, 192; in addressing barebacking in MSM, 113; in alcohol use disorders treatment, 163; comparisons of, 162; disabilities and, 148; effectiveness of, with adolescents, 128; in group therapy, 182; harm reduction and, 110–111, 160; high-risk sexual behaviors and, 114; homelessness and, 149; matrix model and, 165; MET and, 161; neglect of, 217; phases of, 76–77; smoking cessation programs and, 168; stages of change model and, 77; therapeutic skills of, 74, 75 motivational readiness to change, 160; as assessment factor, 33, 71; enhancement of, 76; levels of, 161–162
MSM (men who have sex with men), 215; barebacking and, 113; bisexual men as, 8; childhood abuse of, 51, 52; club drug use among, 68; of color, 37, 98, 135, 152; depression in, 41; gay self-identity and, 8; heterosexual men as, 8; HIV/AIDS and, 12–13, 47–48, 56–58, 98, 114, 117, 119, 135; injection drug use and, 56–57; Internet and, 48; meth and, 56, 64, 114, 117, 119, 163; partner violence among, 46–47; substance abuse in, 52, 70; substance abuse treatment specifically for, 190–191; tobacco use by, 13, 14; violence against, 46–47; younger, 14, 125. See also gay men; homosexuals; bisexual men MSW (Masters of Social Work) programs, 6, 217 MTF (male-to-female) transsexuals. See transwomen multidimensional family therapy (MDTF), 133 multisystemic therapy (MST), 133 naltrexone, 80, 100, 121, 122, 164 Narcotics Anonymous (N.A.), 59, 84, 157; lesbian/gay, 85 narcotics/opiates, 33, 60, 61, 65; treatment of dependence on, 116–117 National Alcohol Survey (2000), 12, 34, 59
National Association of Social Workers (NASW): Code of Ethics of (1996), 6, 216; condemnation of reparative therapies by, 31, 207; support of, for LGBT civil rights, 206
National Household Survey on Drug Abuse (1996), 12
National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA): Social Work Education Module on Sexual Orientation and Alcohol Use Disorders, 32, 217
Native Americans: alcohol use by, 37, 142–143; drug use by, 37; MSM, 58; spirituality of, 144; “two-spirit,” 144, 153
Native Hawaiians or Other Pacific Islanders, alcohol and drug use by, 37
New York City, 68, 69, 112, 189 nicotine, 63, 110, 121. See also nicotine replacement therapies; tobacco use nicotine replacement therapies (NRT), 121–122 nonconformity, gender, 20 nonoperative transsexuals. See transgenderists norm, norms: heterosexuality as, 20
North Carolina, 99
old/er LGBT individuals, 135–136, 137; alcoholism among, 2; assessment of, 137–138; closeting of older gay men, 82; substance use disorders among, 135–136, 219; treatment of substance use disorders in, 138–140 ondansetron, in treating alcohol dependence, 121 opiates/narcotics, 33, 60, 61, 65: naltrexone and, 80, 164; physiological withdrawal and, 155; testing for, 165; treatment of dependence on, 116–117 oppression, 2, 17, 20, 54, 93, 109, 146, 217; depoliticization of, by term homophobia, 19; of gender nonconformity, 26; internalized, 24; of lesbians, 19, 197; of LGBT individuals by public policies, 211, 212, 215; religion and, 142; societal, 85, 153, 186, 221; of transgender individuals, 107 oral sex, 34, 44, 45, 48, 57, 69 outpatient treatment of substance abuse, 199; community settings, 166, 165; as dominant model, 155; insurance and, 214; matrix model of, 165; psychodynamic therapy as, 170; relapse-prevention therapy as, 172; specifically for LGBT clients, 189 overdoses, drug, 62, 67, 116, 122 overidentification with LG clients, 28, 29 oxycontin, 47, 65
paranoia, 42, 64, 66, 96, 100, 117 parents, parenting, 49, 81; abusive, 40, 42, 50, 51–52, 125; alcohol and, 89, 90, 113, 176, 199, 204; coming out by, 105; disclosure and, 102; divorce of, 89; in etiology of transsexuals, 16; expectations of, 44, 50, 170; feelings of failure of, 53; homophobia of, 26, 36, 145, 178, 200; of intersex individuals, 10; LGBT, 104, 176; involvement of, in children’s substance abuse treatments, 128; quality of relationships with, 50; substance dependence in, in etiology of substance use disorders, 16; substance use disorders in, 176; as therapeutic issue, 104–106. See also families; families of origin; fathers; mothers partner violence, 46–47, 47; among lesbians, 89; BCT and, 177; managing, 88–89; services for, 89; substance abuse and, as interpersonal factor of assessment, 33, 46–47; among transgender adolescents, 126. See also domestic violence party drugs, 35, 153
passing: in identity acceptance development phase, 85; in identity tolerance development phase, 84; lesbians and, 82; as not coming out, 43; transgender individuals and, 88, 108 patterns of conducting intimate relationships, as assessment factor, 33, 44–46 personality disorders, 61, 113, 116; substance abuse and, 97 pharmacotherapy, 120–122, 191, 192; behavioral therapies and, 220; drive reduction and, 80–88; psychiatric disorders and, 100; scientific research and, 161 phases of treatment, 155–156 policy issues, 211–215; discrimination as, 220–221; recommendations for, 214–215 polydrug use, 69–70, 114, 173, 182; among lesbians, 90; among LGB youth, 125, 159 poppers, 48, 70, 219
positive reinforcement, 95, 130, 165, 166, 167, 192 posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 53, 113; alcohol and, 92; evidence-based treatment of, 97; substance use and, 88; grounding and, 96; Native Americans and, 153 poverty, 22, 25, 146, 147, 151; Native Americans and, 153; of transgender adolescents, 46, 58 practitioners, 35; boundary issues and, 207; heterosexism in, 24–25, 216; homophobia in, 24–25; skills of, 73–74 precontemplation, as motivational stage of change, 77, 78, 94–95, 131 prefrontal cortex, effect of alcohol and drug use on, 17 pregnancy, 54, 55; assumptions about sex and, 44 prenatal development problems, substance use disorders and, 3 preparation, as motivational stage of change, 78, 95, 131 prescription drug abuse, 124, 136 prevalence: of LGBT people in overall population, 10–11; of substance use disorders in LGBT individuals, 2, 5, 8, 11–14 Pride Institute, 188, 190
Project MATCH, 115, 162
prostitutes, prostitution: adolescents as, 3, 45, 109, 126, 148; male, 51; conversion therapy and, 30; unsafe sex and, 4 protective factors of substance abuse, 32; employment, 38; gender, 37; among LGBT individuals, 218; old age, 36; religion, 128 psilocybin, 66, 115 psychiatric disorders, 4, 133, 147, 156, 197; of intersex people, 10; substance use disorders and, 3, 91–103, 148, 169 psychiatric assessment/evaluation: of clients with substance-related disorders, 41, 42, 129 psychiatric history, as assessment factor, 33, 53–55 psychoactive drugs, 17
psychodynamic therapy, 170–171, 192 psychological theories: of etiology of sexual orientation, 15; of etiology of substance use disorders, 17; of etiology of transsexuals, 16 psychology: graduate students in, 26; LGBT issues and, 6, 217
psychosocial factors, as assessment factors, 33, 40–44
psychotherapy, 90, 91, 103, 107, 156 psychotropic medications, 116, 118, 164, 197; depression and, 172
public health, 6, 100
Puerto Ricans, 46, 50
punishment, as ineffective practice, 173 quadrant model of CoD, 94 queens. See drag performers questions, open-ended, as therapeutic skill, 74, 75, 130–131
race/ethnicity, 51; as demographic factor of assessment, 33, 37–38 racial/ethnic minorities, 26; clients as, 149–154; heterosexual family and, 103;
LGBT individuals as, 14, 39, 103, 124, 219; racism toward, 26, 139, 143, 150, 151, 153; religion and, 39, 143
rationalization, 44, 84 Rational Recovery, 59, 198, 217 reaction formation, as defense mechanism, 44
recovery: long-term, 179, 198; steps in, 172–173
rehabilitation, as phase of substance abuse treatment, 155, 156
relapse, 86, 87, 91, 97, 118, 149, 156, 172, 188, 192; anxiety and, 170; BCT and,
177; coming out and, 81; internalized homo/transphobia and, 90; management of, 171–173; as motivational stage of change, 78, 95; prevention of, 79, 94, 95; reframing of, 160, 201; triggers of, 81, 90, 96, 180; warnings
of, 202, 202
relapse prevention techniques (RPT), 96, 131, 164, 165; in group therapy, 183; pharmacotherapies as, 120;
psychodynamic therapy, 170
religion, 141–146; conversion therapy and, 30, 31; as factor of assessment, 33, 39;
Evangelicals, 40; funda-mentalists, 119, 145, 158; gay-positive churches and, 90;
lesbians and, 40; homophobia and, 26, 142, 158, 178, 206–207; in minority cultures, 103–104; as protector against substance use initiation, 128; of same sex couples, 175; shame based in, 90, 144; substance use and, 142–143, 144– 145; trauma based in, 144–146; twelve-step programs and, 158–159, 162. See also spirituality
remission of substance dependence, 61 reparative therapy. See conversion therapy
reproductive functioning, stria terminalis
and, 16
research, 218–221; scientific, 191–192 residential programs of substance abuse treatments, 156, 189–190
resilience, 54, 160, 218 Rohypnol, as popular club drug, 67 rural areas, 26, 38, 82, 219 safe sex, 81; education, 112; as sign of infidelity, 45, 45. See also unsafe/unprotected sex
San Francisco, 190; syphilis in, 48;
transgender persons in, 13, 59, 98; Viagra in, 69
schizophrenia, 91, 92, 93, 95 scientific research: on nature of drug problems, 161; in practice, 191–192 screening instruments, 61–62 secondary psychopathology models, of comorbidity, 91–92
secondary psychosocial effects model, of comorbidity, 92
Secular Organizations for Sobriety, 198, 217
sedative/tranquilizer dependence, 62, 67, 124, 138; physiological withdrawal
and, 155
self-disclosure, 28, 38, 39. See also coming out; disclosure self-efficacy, as therapeutic skill, 74 self-esteem: conversion therapy and, 30; of gay men, 3; low, 43, 48, 100, 113, 144, 170, 171, 219; of transgender individuals, 22, 100 self-help programs, 96, 157–160, 198, 199; abstinence in, 217; dual recovery, 94, 96; mutual, 156; as part of traditional treatment programs, 74; in relapse-management therapy, 172; spirituality and, 157. See also twelve-step facilitation (TSF) therapy self-identity, 8, 9, 10, 81; of LGBT individuals, as factor of assessment, 33, 35; psychodynamic therapy and, 170–171 self-mutilation, of transgender individuals, 87 self-responsibility, as therapeutic skill, 73 sex clubs, 48, 58
sexism, 23, 26, 39, 40, 43, 93, 197 sex industry/work: drag performers and, 9; lesbian and bisexual women in, 58; MTFs in, 13, 45–46, 58; transgender people in, 25, 109 sex reassignment surgery (SRS). See surgery, sex reassignment sexual abuse, 96, 128, 160; as family assessment factor, 33, 51–52; in formation of sexual orientation of LGB individuals, 30, 104. See also abuse; child abuse and neglect sexual behavior, 16; change of overt, 30; high-risk, 56, 57, 58, 64, 66, 68, 70, 164. See also safe sex; unsafe/unprotected sex sexual compulsivity, 33, 47–49 sexual dysfunction, conversion therapy and, 30 sexual identity, 7; confidentiality and, 207; development of, 35, 83–88; shifts of, 8, 82 sexually transmitted diseases (STDs), 54, 64, 70; among LGBT youth, 54; prostitution and, 4; syphilis, 48, 56; Viagra and, 69. See also HIV/AIDS sexual minorities, 21, 26, 67, 191, 207; acceptance of, 105; affirmative positions toward, 206; as youth, 21, 123, 127, 128, 150. See also bisexual entries; gay men; homosexuals; lesbians; LGBT individuals; transgender entries sexual orientation, 1, 9, 12, 23, 38, 42, 86, 197; bisexuality, 9, 86; of children of same-sex couples, 106; conflict of, with religious beliefs, 39; continuum of, 14, 15; conversion therapy and, 30–31; denial of, 44; discrimination based on, 6; etiology of, 8, 14–16; genetic predisposition to, 14; in heterosexual societies, 20; innateness of, 26; of intersex individuals, 10; laid down during fetal development, 15; lifelong, 8, 30; mutability of, 30; of practitioners and therapists, 23, 27; respect for, 31; substance use disorders and, 2, 218; of transwomen, 108 sexual partners: alcohol use of, 47, 47; casual, 45, 98; multiple, 46, 48, 56, 57, 58, 125, 126, 151; primary, 46, 98; protection of, 48; regular, 45; substance abuse of, 47. See also partner violence sexual reorientation therapy movement, 30 sexual risk assessments, 44–45, 46 shame, 42, 50, 91, 130; in bisexuals, 160; coming out and, 81; gay male therapists and, 29; in gay men, 119; in lesbians, 40, 43, 145, 202; religious beliefs and, 39, 90, 144; substance abuse and, 20; of transsexuals, 108; of transwomen, 109. See also religion; stigma sin: homosexuality as, 39, 143, 145, 206–207; substance dependence disorder as, 6. See also religion sisters: coming out and, 102; as lesbian and bisexual women, 15; of lesbians, 199 SMART Recovery, 157, 217
smoking. See tobacco use smoking cessation, 81, 121, 168–170 social resources: bars as, 18; for LGBT people in rural areas, 38 social roles and responsibilities, as assessment factor, 33, 38–39 social service agencies, 1, 156 social theories: of etiology of sexual orientation, 15, 16; of etiology of substance use disorders, 17 social work, social workers, 6, 32; discrimination and, 21; internalization of negative attitudes by, 25–26; LGBT issues and, 217; policy advocates and, 211; principles of, 71; students of, 26 specialized treatment programs, for LGBT clients, 188–191 spirituality, 141, 145; as demographic factor of assessment, 33, 39; of native Americans, 144; self-help programs and, 157, 159; substance abuse programs based in, 146. See also religion stabilization phase of substance abuse treatment. See detoxification stage models of identity development, 83–88 stages of change model, 71, 73, 77–79, 168; in addressing barebacking in MSM, 113; family intervention and, 179; group therapy and, 182; harm reduction and, 110–111, 130; high-risk sexual behaviors and, 114 stigma, 108; of gender nonconformity, 20; heterosexism and, 19–22, 41; of LGBT people with HIV, 21; transgender individuals and, 22. See also shame stimulant drugs, 49, 63, 66, 92, treatment of dependence on, 117–120. See also under names of specific stimulants strengths perspective, 160–161, 193, 218; of women, 200 stress: bar attendance as relief of, 34; in bisexuals, 86; of coming out, 35, 38; cross-dressing as relief from, 9; of disclosure, 102; from discrimination, 25, 54; from homophobia, 124; from lack of validation, 2; on lesbians, 197; of sex work, 46; of social roles and responsibilities, 39; of stigmatized social status, 18, 41, 160; in strengths perspective, 160; substance abuse and minority, 218; from victimization, 2, 4, 5–6; in workplace, 38 stria terminalis, sexual behavior and reproductive functioning and, 16 suboxone, 116
substance abuse, 60, 85; in adolescents, 127; as alleviation of stress, 35, 58–59; child abuse and, 52; compilation of history of, 70–71, 129; denial of, 44; depression and, 41, 42; etiology of, 8, 32; in families of origin, 50; HIV and, 56, 98; by homeless people, 148, 149; by men, 36–37; partner violence and, 46–47; predictors of, 32, 36; risk factors of, 32; shame and, 20; substance dependence vs., 5, 8, 60; among transgender individuals, 2, 22; unsafe sex and, 3. See also drugs, drug use; substance abuse counselors; substance abuse/use treatment; substance abuse disorder; substance use disorders substance abuse counselors, 22–23, 24, 25 substance abuse/use treatment, 1, 38, 44, 71, 89, 130; abstinence and, 110; alcohol abuse/dependence treatment, 115–116; in children and adolescents, 128, 129–134; with couples, 176–178; empirically/evidence supported, 38, 161–170; errors in, 97; with families, 52, 178–181; harm reduction, 97, 100, 110–113; history of, as abusive/dependent behavior patterns assessment factor, 33, 59, 70–71; HIV-infected clients of, 101–102; among lesbians and bisexual women, 12, 59; levels of care in, 72; LGBT-affirming of, 130; mandates for, 50; in old/er LGBT clients, 138–140; people with disabilities in, 147; pharmacotherapy in, 120–122; phases of, 74, 76–77, 155–156; predictors of success of, 176; spousal involvement in, 177; stimulant abuse/dependence treatment, 117–120; types of, 155–156. See also

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
substance abuse counselors; treatment programs substance dependence disorder, 5, 6, 8, 29, 60 substance use disorders, 38, 49, 52; age and, 36; assessment of, 61, 129; behavioral therapy for, 79; coming out and, 35, 81; consequences of, 3–4; continuum of behaviors, 130; diagnoses of, 61; etiology of, 8, 16–17; heterosexism and, 20; history of diagnostic criteria for, 5; as impulse control disorder, 80; Internet, sex, and, 49; of intersex people, 10; among lesbians, 12, 43, 47, 55, 59, 116, 149, 151, 218, 219; among LGBT adolescents, 3; in LGBT clients, 2, 11–14, 20, 32, 40, 221; LGBT issues and, 2–3, 17–18; other disorders and, 53; PTSD and, 92; risk factors of, 32; screening and assessment instruments of, 61–62; in social work education, 6, 32; stress and, 35; among transgender people, 25. See also drugs, drug use; substance abuse subutex, 116

suicidal ideation, 117; in adolescent transmen, 134; in gay men, 152; among LGBT youth, 127; HIV/AIDS and, 56; in lesbians and bisexual women, 40; religious beliefs and, 39; in transgender people, 41, 109 suicide, 85; attempts at, by LGBT individuals, 20, 21, 40, 41, 109, 124, 125, 218; conversion therapy and, 30, 31; among homeless LGBT adolescent prostitutes, 3; HIV/AIDS and, 56; risk of, by sexual minority youth, 21, 22, 124; shame and, 20, 91; symptoms of, 54; threat of, as strategy, 174 summarizing, as therapeutic skill, 74, 75 supersensitive model of comorbidity, 92 surgery, on intersex individuals, 10 surgery, castration, 9, 30 surgery, cosmetic: transgenderists and, 9 surgery, sex reassignment (SRS), 5, 12, 81; approval for, 107; HIV and, 100; insurance noncoverage of, 109; preparation for, 87; prevalence of, 11; psychological function after, 108; as self-mutilation, 27; transgenderists and, 9; transsexuals and, 10 survival sex, 45. See also prostitutes, prostitution termination, as final motivational stage of change, 78

therapeutic alliance, formation of, 73–74 therapeutic issues, 81–110; of alcohol abuse/dependence treatment, 115–116; coming out as, 35; co-occurring disorders and HIV disease as, 91–103; in couples and family therapy, 184–187; family of origin issues as, 103–104; of HIV-positive LGBT clients, 100; managing internalized homo/transphobia as, 90–91; managing violence as, 88–89; of opiate dependence treatment, 116–117; parenting and raising children as, 104–106; specific to transgender clients, 106–110; stage models of identity development as, 83–88; of stimulant abuse/dependence treatment, 117–120

therapeutic skills, 74–75

therapies, behavioral, 79–81 therapists: bisexuals and, 24–25; collusion of, with clients, 24, 27; countertransference reactions and, 27, 28; empathic skills of, 29; gays as, 28, 145; homophobia of, 24; lesbians and, 24, 28; lesbians as, 28, 145; LG individuals as, 27, 28; mirroring role of, 91; prevalence of heterosexist behavior in, 24; sexual minority, 207; straight vs. LG, 28; unexamined heterosexism of, 23 tobacco use and dependence: alcohol and, 3, 168; bupropion and, 81; cancer deaths and, 3; by gay men, 2, 3; ketamine and, 68; by lesbians and bisexual women, 2, 3, 12, 37, 54, 136, 137; by men, 36–37; nicotine replacement therapies and, 112; prevalence of, in LGBT population, 13; prevalence of, in minority populations, 14; secondhand smoke and, 14; by transgender persons, 14. See also smoking cessation tolerance, substance, 60, 70, 129, 138; alcohol and, 199; cocaine and, 63; narcotics and, 65; nicotine and, 63 topiramate, 121

transference issues, 24
transgender emergence, six stage model of, 86–88 transgender individuals, 9, 12, 25, 52; as activists, 10; alcohol use by, 45; case studies of, 109, 126, 134, 148; children of, 176; as clients, 25, 26, 28, 34, 100, 106–110; of color, 46, 98; coming out of, 83, 87; co-occurring disabilities in, 147; depression in, 22; discrimination against, 25, 34, 38–39; families of, 50, 52, 53; GID and, 4–5; gender bias and, 22; harassment of, 108; HIV infection among, 22, 24, 46, 57, 110, 147; homeless, 149; homophobia and, 90; identity development of, 86–88; injection drug use by, 2, 13; Internet and, 48; intersex individuals as, 10; legal protections of, 210; marginalization of, by LGB individuals, 22, 34, 210; mental health disorders in, 41, 93; meth and, 219; older, 137; oppression of, 107; as parents, 106; pathologizing of, 107; prevalence of, 11; as racial minorities, 124; self-esteem of, 22; substance abuse among, 2, 13, 22, 41, 45, 133, 219; suicide and, 22, 52; therapeutic issues specific to clients who are, 106–110; tobacco use by, 14; unemployment among, 25; in workplace, 38–39, 147, 210. See also transgender youths; transmen transsexual individuals; transwomen transvestites. See cross-dressers transwomen (preoperative male-to-female [MTF] transsexuals): alcohol and, 148; anal sex and, 57–58; Boylan as, 87; of color, 37, 58, 108; definition of, 10; depression and suicide risk of, 41; dress of, 27; drug use of, 46; HIV and, 46, 57, 58, 98; homelessness of, 126, 148; lifetime intravenous drug use among, 13; as sex workers, 13, 45–46, 109; shame of, 109; substance abuse and HIV and, 98; substance abuse treatment for, 190; youth as, 109, 148 treatment as usual (TAU), in CSAT MTP, 165 treatment programs, 1, 80, 94, 120 treatment types, 155–156
twelve-step facilitation (TSF) therapy, 115, 116, 118, 182, 217; alternative, 201; criticism of, 159; groups, 130; homophobia of, 201; LGBT individuals and, 158, 159; matrix model and, 165; MET vs., 162; religion and, 162; sexism of, 201. See also Alcoholics Anonymous; Narcotics Anonymous; self-help programs twins studies, 15, 16

United States Census (2000), same-sex partners listed in, 11 unsafe/unprotected sex, 27, 28, 48, 56, 114; as affirmation of health, 45; alcohol and, 151–152; bathhouse and gay bar attendance and, 34; by bisexuals and lesbians, 58, 128, 186; child abuse victims and, 51; at circuit parties, 35; forced, 46; prostitution and, 4; sexual compulsivity and, 47–48; substance abuse and, 3, 4, 6, 37, 49, 57, 64, 66–67, 68, 70, 117, 119, 152, 153; as symbol of commitment, 45; among transgender youth, 126 urban areas, 13, 34, 38 validation, stress from lack of, 2 varenicline (Chantix), in nicotine replacement therapy, 122 Viagra, 48, 49; gay men and, 118; HIV/STD transmission and, 69; meth and, 64; MSM and, 70 victimization, 43; of bisexual adolescents by family members, 125; of gay males in workplace, 21; hate crimes and, 34, 94; history, of clients, 52; of lesbians of color, 51; of LGBT therapists, 28; stress from, 2, 18 violence, 82, 112; antigay, 88; in families of origin, 46; hate crimes and, 34; LGBT adolescents and, 13; managing, 88–89; partner/relationship, 46–47, 51, 88–89; protection against, 210; against transgender individuals, 22, 88, 108, 126. See also abuse; child abuse and neglect; partner violence

War on Drugs, 214, 215 withdrawal from drugs, 6, 36, 42, 60, 70, 138; management of, 120; MDMA and, 67; methadone and, 65, 81, 122; physiological, 155; substance-induced disorders and, 97; symptoms of, 129, 155, 199 women, 52, 189; African American, 58; alcoholism in, 36, 196; as co-dependents, 186; cross-dressing and, 9; fluid sexual orientation and, 9, 82; Hispanic, 58; as homeless, 148; negative attitudes toward, 26; postop, 10, 11; in rural areas, 38; substance-abusing, 183 Women for Sobriety, 198, 217 workplace, 21, 38–39. See also employment youth, youths. See children; LGBT adolescents and youths; transgender youths zyban, in nicotine replacement therapy, 121–122