References

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu

Davis, James Harlan. 1963. “Ku Klux Klan Interviews.” Western History/Genealogy Department, Denver Public Library.

———. 1981. Papers, WH649, Western History Collection, Denver Public Library.

REFERENCES

REFERENCES

King, Martin Luther, Jr. 1967. Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community? Boston: Beacon Press.

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu

REFERENCES

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
REFERENCES

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu

Newspapers

_Denver Post (DP)_

September 8, 1946. James T. Burke. “Grand Jury Probe Background Reviewed by District Attorney.”

Gangs.”
April 5, 1959. Lawrence G. Weiss. “How Good is Denver’s Police Force?: A Report on the Skill and Quality of the City’s Finest.”
November 29, 1959. Lawrence G. Weiss. “Kids With the Odds Against Them:
Why Spanish-American Children Get in Trouble.”
November 10, 1982. Tom Coakley. “Students Forbidden to Use Alley: North High Principal Trying to Prevent Mexican-Hispanic Violence.”
Reputations.”
Ranks Up: Some Groups Have Spread into Suburbs, other Counties.”
Put Up with It.’”
Up.”
Says.”
December 9, 1988. Jim Kirksey and Bruce Finley. “Gang Link Suspected in Chase, Shooting.”
December 17, 1988. “Ministers Will Ride with Police: Clerics Hope to Defuse
Tensions, Make Contact with Gangs.”
July 18, 2004. Sean Kelly, John Ingold, and David Migoya. “Deadly Pace in Police Gun Use 18 People Died Out of 26 Shot by Officers Since ‘01.”
Denver Weekly News
MLK Holiday,” 32 ( 47).
Deseret News (DN)
April 23, 1989b. Brent Israelsen. “Writings on the Walls: Gangs from Coast
Come to Utah Toting Guns, Drugs and Trouble.”
April 13, 1990. “Job Corps Officials Deny L.A. Gangs are Infiltrating Campus.”
Los Angeles Times
September 21, 1999. S. Glover and M. Lait. “Ex-Officer Calls Corruption a Chronic Cancer.”
Rampart.”
December 19, 1942. “Hoodlums Watched by Police.”
June 8, 1943. “Mexicans Warned Off Streets in L.A. as Zoot Rioting Overwhelms Police.”
June 19, 1943. “No Coast Zoot Suiters Can Alight in Denver.”
August 31, 1943. “‘Wolf Order’ Zootists Sought in Auto Death.”
May 8, 1944. “Outbreaks of Violence; 7 are Held.”
May 9, 1944. “High Officials Probe City’s Zoot Flareup.”
May 9, 1944. “A Terrible Denver Tragedy.”
May 10, 1944. “Curfew Revision Planned to Curb Hoodlums.”
May 11, 1944. “Sentences up to $300 or 90 Days Given 11 Youths in War on Gangs.”
May 13, 1944. “Warrants for Arrest of 19 Accused Zooters are Issued in Denver.”
May 14, 1944. “8 Youths, 6 Girls Are Arrested as Part of Gang of Zooters.”
October 8, 1944. “Problems of Spanish-Americans Will Be Studied at Regis Seminar.”
October 18, 1944. “Urge Community Councils to Aid Spanish-Americans.”
August 12, 1946. Sam Lusky. “Kirschwing Charges Burke Never Asked for Help As Political Dispute Breaks over Police Probe.”
1946. “Grand Jury Returns Indictments on Three Denver Police Officers.”
March 15, 1950. “Youthful Gang, the Heads, Tell Judge Gilliam, ‘We’ll Go Straight.’”
March 31, 1950. Jack Castel. “Encourage These Boys to Succeed.”
May 9, 1950. Kelly, George V. “Adult Reds Guiding Kid Gangs, Belief of Denver Judge.”
February 2, 1954. Robert Perkin. “Underpaid, Ill Fed, Badly Housed: Can We Blame the Poor After Half-Century of This?”
February 6, 1954. Robert Perkin. “What Are the Solutions To This Denver Problem?”
1957. “Police Put Clamps on Teenage Battle.”
October 9, 1957. “Spanish-Americans Show Social Gains.”
December 9, 1959. “Police Move to Smash Youthful Gangs.”

Local, p. 4A.

Standard Examiner (SE)

August 12, 2007. “Spotlight on Gangs.”

September 14, 2010. “Ogden Trece Injunction Opens Door to Legalized Harassment.”

Westword

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu

