

INDEX

Italics indicate pages with tables.

- activism, political, 63–64
- age: and anti-transgender bias, 94–95, 98, 100, 103–104; and coming out to others, xi–xii; of cross-dressers, 145–146; and gender, uncertainty about one’s, 45–46; and gender difference, 40–43, 74; and gender difference experience, 44–45; and gender identity, 29–30, 53–54; and gender identity concealment to avoid intimidation, 100; and gender identity language, 23, 24, 25; and harassment/violence, 94–95; and job discrimination, 103–104; and safety fears, 98; survey participant demographics, 29–30; and transgender people, meeting other, 55–57, 160
- Allums, Kye, xiii
- American Psychiatric Association, 5
- American Psychological Association, 30
- analysis of variance (ANOVA), 10, 185, 188
- Baumbach, Jeremy, 112
- Benjamin, Harry, 2
- bias, anti-transgender, 89–106; and age, 94–95, 98, 100, 103–104; harassment and

- bias, anti-transgender (continued) violence, experience of, 96–97; harassment and violence, reports of, 94–96; hostile environments, 90–94; identity, concealing to avoid intimidation, 99–101; job discrimination, 64, 101–106, 136; language and culture, 89–90; and outness, level of, 95–96, 99, 104–105; and race, 96–97, 99, 101, 105–106; safety fears, 98–99; and sexual orientation, 95, 98, 100, 104
- Bilodeau, Brent, 163–164
- biological gender. See sex
- bisexuals. See LGBT people, campus climate for; LGBT/transgender communities
- Bolin, Anne, 4, 42, 111–112
- Bornstein, Kate, 149, 198n2
- bottom surgery, 111–112, 123–124, 132–133
- Brown, George, 129
- Buhrich, Neil, 3
- Bullough, Bonnie, 43, 145
- Bullough, Vern, 43, 145
- butch lesbian, female-to-male/transgender initially identifying as, 51–52, 118–120. See also LGBT people, campus climate for; LGBT/transgender communities
- campus climate, 81–88; about, 81; and genderqueers, 154–155; impact of negative climate, 87–88; and job discrimination, 87–88; for LGBT people, 84–87; measuring, 81–83; responsibilities of colleges and universities in creating, 163–165; and success, 83–84. See also climate
- Carter, Deborah, 87
- Cass, Vivienne, 113
- CD. See cross-dresser (CD) milestones; cross-dressers (CD); cross-dressing (CD)
- chest reconstruction, 123
- children: coming out to, 71–73, 76; “corrective” surgery for, 18, 19
- chi-square tests of significance, 10
- “cisgender,” as term, 197–198n3
- “cissexual,” as term, 197–198n3
- climate: defined, 170; organizational, 79; psychological, 79–81; statistical analysis, 192, 192–193, 193–194, 194–195. See also bias, anti-transgender; campus climate
- clothing: of genderqueers, 150–151; purging, 139–140; “women’s,” attraction to, 138; “women’s,” buying or obtaining one’s own, 138–139. See also cross-dressers
- cognitive challenges, 35–36
- cohort effect, 146, 200n3. See also age
- colleagues, coming out to, 65, 68
- college climate. See campus climate
- coming out to others: about, 64–67; age of, xi–xii; to children, 71–73, 76; to coworkers, 65,

- 68; cross-dressers, 65, 68–69, 71–72; cross-dressers’ milestones, 142–145; to family members, extended, 65, 67; to family members, nuclear, 65, 66; female-to-different-gender, 65, 66, 67, 68; female-to-male/transgender, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69–70; female-to-male/transgender milestones, 124–125; to friends, 65, 65; gender-queers, 65–66, 69–70; male-to-different-gender, 65, 66, 67, 68; male-to-female/transgender, 64–65, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69–70, 71, 72–73; male-to-female/transgender milestones, 134–136; to parents, 73–74, 76; to partners, 67–71, 75–76. See also outness, level of
- Common Application (standard undergraduate admissions form), 165
- Confucius, 16
- constant comparative method of analysis, 8
- Cornwell, John, 87–88
- “corrective” surgery for infants or children, 18, 19
- coworkers, coming out to, 65, 68
- crisis, role in self-acceptance for male-to-female/transgender individuals, 132
- cross-dresser (CD) milestones, 137–145; about, 116, 137; coming out to others, 142–145; cross-dressers, learning about and meeting other, 140; cross-dressing, arriving at a comfortable place with, 145; cross-dressing, in public for the first time and adopting a feminine name, 141–142; cross-dressing, repressing desire for, 139–140; self-acceptance, 140–141; “women’s” clothes, attraction to, 138; “women’s” clothing, buying or obtaining one’s own, 138–139
- cross-dressers (CD): age of survey participants, 145–146; clubs for, first, 4; coming out to others, 65, 68–69, 71–72; learning about and meeting other, 140; male-to-different-gender individuals compared to, ix–x; male-to-female/transgender individuals initially identifying as, 52, 130–131; as term, 145–146; terms for, 2, 3, 6; uncertainty about one’s gender at puberty, 49–50. See also cross-dressing
- cross-dressing (CD): age started, 43; by male-to-female/transgender individuals as children, 127–128, 130–131; mental illness, considered as, 5; in public for first time, 141–142; repressing desire for, 139–140; terms for, 5. See also cross-dressers
- culture: and anti-transgender bias, 89–90; language as expression of, 16–17, 199n3 (chap. 1)

- data analysis. See statistical analyses
- D'Augelli, Anthony, 53–54, 60–61
- definitions, in general, 198–199n2. See also specific terms
- demographics of survey participants, 21–36; age, 29–30; challenges, physical/emotional/cognitive, 35–36; gender expression, 27–28, 28; gender identity, 22–23, 24, 25, 25–27; interview protocol, 181–182; race, 30, 31; sex, 22, 22; sexual orientation, 30–35, 34; statistical analysis, 185–186, 186, 187; survey questions about, 171–173
- denial: overcoming, 122, 131–132; of uncertainty about one's gender, 50–51
- depression, 36
- Devor, Aaron, 47–48, 113–114, 120, 123, 124
- Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders* (American Psychiatric Association), 5
- dichotomy in language, 17
- “different gender”: as identity, feeling and expressing, 148; as term, ix, 27. See also gender-queer (GQ)
- disability: defined, 170; survey participant demographics, 35–36
- disorders of sex development (DSD), 15, 19, 198n1
- diversity, transgender, viii–ix, 4–5
- Docter, Richard, 43, 143–144, 146
- Doe v. Yunits (2000), xiii, 197n1 (foreword)
- Ebaugh, Helen Rose Fuchs, 113
- educational success and campus climate, 83–84
- Ehrhardt, Anke, 3
- Ekins, Richard, 113
- Elshtain, Jean, 17
- emotional challenges/disabilities, 35–36
- emotional reaction to gender difference, 43–45
- employment discrimination. See job discrimination
- environments, hostile, 90–94
- experiences: of gender difference, 43–45, 75; of harassment and violence, 96–97; redefining, 5–7; statistical analysis of responses, 187–188, 188, 189–190, 190, 191; survey questions about, 178–180
- extended family, coming out to, 65, 67
- Eyler, Evan, 93
- family, coming out to, 65, 66, 67. See also parents, coming out to
- fears, physical safety, 98–99
- Feinberg, Leslie, 149
- Felsenthal, Kim, 93
- female gender identity: feeling and expressing, 126–128; repressing or hiding, 128–129

- female-presenting cross-dressers.
See cross-dressers (CD)
- female-to-different-gender (FTDG): coming out to others, 65, 66, 67, 68; defined, ix, 27; gender, uncertainty about one's, 45–46; socializing with other transgender people, 61–62
- female-to-male/transgender (FTM/T): coming out to others, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69–70; defined, 27; gender, uncertainty about one's, 45–49, 51; gender difference, experience of, 43–44; identity, initially identifying as some other, 51–52; identity development, compared to male-to-female/transgender, x–xi; identity models, 112; recognizing individuals as, 120–121; transgender people, meeting other, 55–56; transgender people, socializing with other, 61; transsexual men, learning about and meeting other, 121–122
- female-to-male/transgender (FTM/T) milestones, 117–126; about, 116; coming out to others, 124–125; female-to-male/transgender individuals, recognizing, 120–121; lesbian, initially thinking of oneself as, 118–120; male gender identity, feeling and often expressing, 117; male gender identity, repressing or hiding, 117–118; self-acceptance, 122; transitioning, 122–124; transsexual men, learning about and meeting other, 121–122; wholeness, sense of, 125–126
- friends, coming out to, 65, 65
- FTDG. See female-to-different-gender (FTDG)
- FTM/T. See female-to-male/transgender (FTM/T); female-to-male/transgender (FTM/T) milestones
- gays. See LGBT people, campus climate for; LGBT/transgender communities
- gender: defined, 19–20; language of, 16–18; sex compared to, 19–20
- gender, biological. See sex
- gender assignment: defined, 20; nature of, 15–16; uncertainty about one's, age of, 45–46; uncertainty about one's, and perception as tomboy, 46–48; uncertainty about one's, at puberty, 48–50; uncertainty about one's, denial of, 50–51
- gender attribution, defined, 20
- gender bashing, defined, 89
- gender confirmation surgery, 111–112, 123–124, 132–133
- gender consistency, 42
- gender difference: and age, 40–43, 74; experience of, 43–45, 75

- gender expression: defined, 21; genderqueer, 150–151; nonbinary, encountering resistance to, 151–153; and sexual orientation, 34; survey participant demographics, 27–28, 28
- gender identity: and age, 29–30, 53–54; concealing to avoid intimidation, 99–101; defined, 20, 170; development models, 110–114; experiences, statistical analysis of, 187–188, 188, 189–190, 190, 191; female-to-male/transgender models, 112; language of, 23, 24, 25, 25–26, 165–166; male-to-female/transgender models, 111–112; nonbinary, encountering resistance to, 151–153; by race, 30, 31; by sexual orientation, 33–35, 34; survey participant demographics, 22–23, 24, 25, 25–27; survey questions about, 173–177; youth, formation among, 160–163. See also milestone schema
- genderism: defined, 21, 89; overcoming, 122, 131–132
- gender-neutral pronouns, 152–153, 197n2
- GenderPAC, 92, 93
- gender prejudice, 89. See also bias, anti-transgender
- genderqueer (GQ): coming out to others, 65–66, 69–70; expressing oneself as, 150–151; as viable identity, 149
- genderqueer (GQ) milestones, 146–155; about, 116, 146–147; different gender identity, feeling and expressing, 148; expressing oneself as genderqueer, deciding about, 150–151; gender expression or identity, encountering resistance to nonbinary, 151–153; genderqueer as viable identity, 149; transgender/LGBT communities, creating a home within or outside of, 154–155; transgender/LGBT communities, not fitting in with, 153–154
- gender roles, defined, 20
- genital surgery, 111–112, 123–124, 132–133
- Girshick, Lori, 3
- Glick, William, 79
- GQ. See genderqueer (GQ); genderqueer (GQ) milestones
- Grossman, Arnold, 53–54, 60–61
- harassment and violence: about, xii–xiii; experience of, 96–97; reports of, 94–96
- hate crimes, 91–93, 199–200n3
- Hiestand, Katherine, 8
- Hill, Darryl, 58, 89, 90
- “hir,” as gender-neutral pronoun, 197n2
- Hirschfeld, Magnus, 2
- hobbies, flight into by male-to-female/transgender individuals, 129
- Hogan-Finlay, Mary, 113

- hormones, taking: by female-to-male/transgender individuals, 122–123; by male-to-female/transgender individuals, 132
- hostile environments, 90–94
- Hubbard, Ruth, 18, 19
- Hurtado, Sylvia, 82, 83, 87
- hypermasculinity, flight into by male-to-female/transgender individuals, 129
- identity, gender. See gender identity
- infants, “corrective” surgery for, 18, 19
- Internet, importance of, 57–59, 75, 121, 140–141
- interviews: about, 9–10, 11; demographic information, 181–182; questions, 183
- intimidation, avoiding by concealing one’s identity, 99–101
- job discrimination: about, xii–xiii, 101–103; and age, 103–104; and campus climate, 87–88; genderqueer issues, 155; and level of outness, 104–105; and male-to-female/transgender individuals, 136; and political activism, 64; and race, 105–106; and sexual orientation, 104
- Jorgensen, Christine, 55, 130
- Kessler, Suzanne, 18
- Kohlberg, Lawrence, 42
- Korell, Shannon Chavez, 35
- language: of anti-transgender bias, 89; cultural values in, 16–17, 199n3 (chap. 1); dichotomy in, 17; of gender, 16–18; of gender identity, 23, 24, 25, 25–26, 165–166; inclusive, 6; of sexual orientation, 33
- learning about other transsexual people, 121–122, 129–130, 140
- lesbian, female-to-male/transgender initially identifying as, 51–52, 118–120. See also LGBT people, campus climate for; LGBT/transgender communities
- Lev, Arlene Istar, 114
- Levitt, Heidi, 8
- Lewins, Frank, 111, 112, 113
- LGBT people, campus climate for, 84–87
- LGBT/transgender communities: creating a home within or outside of, 154–155; not fitting in with, 153–154
- limitations of study, 11–12
- Lorah, Peggy, 35
- “Mahu,” as term, 199n1 (chap. 2)
- male gender identity: feeling and expressing, 117; repressing or hiding, 117–118
- male-to-different-gender (MTDG): coming out to others, 65, 66, 67, 68; cross-dressers compared to, ix–x; defined, ix, 27; socializing with other transgender people, 61–62

- male-to-female/transgender (MTF/T): coming out to others, 64–65, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69–70, 71, 72–73; cross-dressers, initially identifying as, 52, 130–131; defined, 27; identity development, compared to female-to-male/transgender individuals, x–xi; identity models, 111–112; transgender people, meeting other, 55–56; transgender people, socializing with other, 61; transsexual women, learning about and meeting other, 129–130; uncertainty about one's gender, 49, 50–51
- male-to-female/transgender (MTF/T) milestones, 126–137; about, 116, 126; coming out to others, 134–136; female gender identity, feeling and expressing, 126–128; female gender identity, repressing or hiding, 128–129; self-acceptance, 131–132; transitioning, 132–134; transsexual, recognizing oneself as, 130–131; transsexual women, learning about and meeting other, 129–130; wholeness, sense of, 136–137
- mannerisms of genderqueers, 151
- MANOVA (multivariate analysis of variance), 10, 185
- marriage rights, 63–64
- Matthew Shepard and James Byrd, Jr. Hate Crimes Prevention Act (2009), 91
- McCauley, Elizabeth, 3
- McConaghy, Neil, 3
- McKenna, Wendy, 18
- meeting other transgender people, 55–57, 121–122, 129–130, 140, 160
- men, transsexual. See female-to-male/transgender (FTM/T); female-to-male/transgender (FTM/T) milestones
- mental illness, transsexuality considered as, 5
- methods. See study methods
- milestone schema: about, 114–115, 116; cross-dresser milestones, 116, 137–145; female-to-male/transgender milestones, 116, 117–126; genderqueer milestones, 116, 146–155; male-to-female/transgender milestones, 116, 126–137
- military service, by male-to-female/transgender individuals, 129
- minority stress theory, 88
- mixed methods study design, 7–8, 198n4
- Moran, Leslie, 93
- MTDG. See male-to-different-gender (MTDG)
- MTF/T. See male-to-female/transgender (MTF/T); male-to-female/transgender (MTF/T) milestones
- multivariate analysis of variance (MANOVA), 10, 185
- murder of transgender youth, 92

- names: feminine, for cross-dressers, 142; for gender-queers, 152
- National Coalition of Anti-Violence Programs (NCAVP), 91
- New York City, 60–61
- nuclear family, coming out to, 65, 66
- organizational climate, 79
- outness, level of: and anti-transgender bias, 95–96, 99, 104–105; and harassment/violence, 95–96; and job discrimination, 104–105; and safety fears, 99. See also coming out to others
- parents, coming out to, 73–74, 76.
See also family, coming out to
- partners: coming out to, 67–71, 75–76; potential, 125, 136
- “passing,” 66–67
- people of color, 30, 199n4. See also race
- personal success and campus climate, 83–84
- physical disability, 35
- physical safety, 98–99
- political activism, 63–64
- Ponjuan, Luis, 83
- Ponse, Barbara, 112
- prejudice, gender, 89. See also bias, anti-transgender
- “primary transsexuals,” as term, 7
- Prince, Virginia, 43, 143–144, 145–146
- professional success and campus climate, 84
- pronouns, gender-neutral, 152–153, 197n2
- pseudonyms, use of, 10, 197n1 (intro.)
- psychological climate, 79–81. See also bias, anti-transgender; campus climate
- psychological safety, 80
- puberty, uncertainty about one’s gender at, 48–50
- Pusch, Rob, 87
- questions: demographic information, 171–173; interview, 183; participants’ right to ask, 169–170; transgender experience, 178–180; transgender identity, 173–177
- race: and anti-transgender bias, 96–97, 99, 101, 105–106; categories of, 30, 199n4; defined, 170; by gender identity, 30, 31; and harassment/violence, 96–97; and hate crimes, 93; and identity concealment to avoid intimidation, 101; and job discrimination, 105–106; and safety fears, 99; survey participant demographics, 30, 31
- Rachlin, Katherine, 121, 124
- Ragins, Belle, 87–88
- Rankin, Sue, 82–83, 85, 86
- Reason, Robert D., 82–83
- Richards, Renée, 49
- rights, transgender, 63–64

- Ringo, Peter, 121
 roles, gender, defined, 20
 Rubin, Gayle, 19
 Rubin, Henry, 48, 112
- safety: physical, 98–99; psychological, 80
 Samons, Sandra, 42, 59
 sample, study, 11–12
 sampling, 9
 Sapir-Whorf hypothesis, 199n3 (chap. 1)
 Schott, Richard, 145
 Sears, James, 84, 85–86
 “secondary transsexuals,” as term, 7 self-acceptance: by cross-dressers, 140–141; by female-to-male/transgender individuals, 122; by male-to-female/transgender individuals, 131–132 sex: defined, 18–19; gender compared to, 19–20; survey participant demographics, 22, 22 sexual attractions, 32, 34–35 sexual orientation: and anti-transgender bias, 95, 98, 100, 104; defined, 170–171; as flexible, 31–32; and gender expression, 34; by gender identity, 33–35, 34; and harassment/violence, 95; and identity concealment to avoid intimidation, 100; and job discrimination, 104; language of, 33; and safety fears, 98; and sexual attractions, 32, 34–35; survey participant demographics, 30–35, 34 shame: by cross-dressers, 140–141; overcoming to accept oneself as cross-dresser, 140–141
 Shapiro, Eve, 58–59
 Sharpe, Andrew, 93
 “sie,” as gender-neutral pronoun, 197n2
 significance, chi-square tests of, 10
 Smith, Gwendolyn Ann, 90 socializing with other transgender people, 59–64; about, 59–61; political activism, 63–64; social and support activities, 61–63
 Society for the Second Self (Tri-Ess), 140, 144
 Sommers, Audra, 101
 statistical analyses: about, 10–11; climate for transgender people, 192, 192–193, 193–194, 194–195; demographics of survey participants, 185–186, 186, 187; experiences of transgender identity, 187–188, 188, 189–190, 190, 191
 Stekel, Wilhelm, 5
 Stotzer, Rebecca, 93
 Stryker, Susan, 197–198n3
 study methods, 7–12; about, 7–8; data analysis, 10–11; interviews, 9–10, 11; sample and limitations of project, 11–12; sampling, 9; survey, 9
 Sturgis, Ceara, xiii success, and campus climate, 83–84 support groups, 4, 62–63, 140

- surgery: bottom, 111–112, 123–124, 132–133; “corrective,” for infants or children, 18, 19; gender confirmation, 111–112, 123–124, 132–133; genital, 111–112, 123–124, 132–133; top, 123
- survey instrument, 167–180; about, 9; benefits of survey, 168; confidentiality statement, 168–169; demographic information questions, 171–173; directions, 170; discomforts and risks of survey, 168; procedures of survey, 167–168; purpose of survey, 167; questions, participants’ right to ask, 169–170; survey terms and definitions, 170–171; thank you page, 180; transgender experience questions, 178–180; transgender identity questions, 173–177; voluntary participation, 169
- terminology, in general, 198–199n2. See also specific terms
- testosterone, taking, 122–123
- tomboys, 46–48, 117–118
- top surgery, 123
- trajectory, in identity development, 112
- Transformational Tapestry Model, 82–83
- transgender, defined, 6, 22, 171
- Transgender Day of Remembrance, 63
- transgender diversity, viii–ix, 4–5
- transgender experiences: redefining, 5–7; survey questions about, 178–180
- transgender identity. See gender identity
- transgender/LGBT communities: creating a home within or outside of, 154–155; not fitting in with, 153–154
- transgender people: learning about other, 121–122, 129–130, 140; lives today, 165–166; meeting other, 55–57, 121–122, 129–130, 140, 160; socializing with other, 59–64
- transgender rights, 63–64
- transgender studies, development of, 2–3
- “transgender variables,” determining, 10–11
- Transgender Voices* (Girshick), 3
- transitioning: by female-to-male/transgender individuals, 122–124; by male-to-female/transgender individuals, 132–134
- transphobia, 89. See also bias, anti-transgender
- transsexuality, considered as mental illness, 5
- transsexual men. See female-to-male/transgender (FTM/T); female-to-male/transgender (FTM/T) milestones
- transsexual women. See male-to-female/transgender (MTF/T); male-to-female/transgender (MTF/T) milestones

- “transvestites,” as term, 2, 3, 6.
See also cross-dressers (CD);
 cross-dressing (CD)
- Tri-Ess (Society for the Second Self), 140, 144
- Troiden, Richard, 10
- Turner, Louisa, 112
- university climate. See campus climate
- urban residents, 60–61
- values, language as expression of, 16–17, 199n3 (chap. 1)
- violence. See harassment and violence
- Waldo, Craig, 88
- Washington, DC, 92–93
- wholeness, sense of, 125–126,
 136–137
- Williams, Walter, 84, 85–86
- Witten, Tarynn, 93
- wives: of cross-dressers, 143–
 145; of male-to-female/transgender individuals, 134–136
- women, transsexual. See male-to-female/transgender (MTF/T);
 male-to-female/transgender
 (MTF/T) milestones
- Wood, Julia, 17
- work, flight into by male-to-female/transgender individuals, 129
- workplace discrimination. See
 job discrimination
- youth, transgender: gender difference, experience of, 44–45;
 identity formation among,
 160–163; murder of, 92
- “ze,” as gender-neutral pronoun,
 197n2