

Contents

Foreword	xi
Rosemary Sarri
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction and Conceptual Framework	1
Lynn M. Nybell, Jeffrey J. Shook, and Janet L. Finn
PART I: Exploring Changing Discourses of Childhood and Youth
1 Making Trouble: Representations of Social Work, Youth, and Pathology	37
Janet L. Finn
2 Missing Children: Representing Young People Away from Placement	67
Lynn M. Nybell
3 It Ain't as Simple as It Seems: Risky Youths, Morality, and Service Markets in Schools	92
Linwood H. Cousins

4	“Stop the Super Jail for Kids”: Youth Activism to Reclaim Childhood in the Juvenile Justice System Jennifer Tilton	113
5	Good Mothers / Teen Mothers: Claiming Rights and Responsibilities Deborah Freedman Lustig	125
6	The Well-Being of Children and the Question of Attachment Kerrie Ghenie and Charlie Wellenstein	145

PART II: Contexts and Settings

7	Childhood by Geography: Toward a Framework of Rights, Responsibilities, and Entitlements Jeffrey J. Shook	171
8	From “Youth Home” to “Juvenile Detention”: Constructing Disciplined Children in Detroit Luke Bergmann	195
9	Educating All Our Children Ruth Zweifler	217
10	Constructing Ability and Disability Among Preschoolers in the Crestview Headstart Program Patricia A. Jessup	239
11	Children and Youth in a Medicalized World: Young People’s Agency in Mental Health Treatment Ben Stride-Darnley	261
12	Accounting for Risk: Children and Youth in Community-Based Reform Lynn M. Nybell	284
13	“At Risk” for Becoming Neoliberal Subjects: Rethinking the “Normal” Middle-Class Family Rachel Heiman	301

PART III: Reinventing Social Work with Children and Youth

14	Child’s-Eye View Janet L. Finn	317
15	On Project SpeakOUT Derrick Jackson	337

16	The Marshall-Brennan Constitutional Literacy Project: A Case Study in Law and Social Justice Maryam Ahranjani	353
17	“You May Even be President of the United States One Day”? Challenging Commercialized Feminism in Programming for Girls in Juvenile Justice Sara Goodkind	364
18	Youth Uprising: Gritty Youth Leadership Development and Communal Transformation Jennifer Tilton	385
19	Young People as Leaders in Conflict Resolution Charles D. Garvin	401
20	Y.O.U.T.H. Training Project: Foster Youth as Teachers to Transform Social Work Lori Fryzel and Jamie Lee Evans	418
	Afterword	429
	About the Contributors	437
	Index	443

