

INDEX

Note: Page numbers in italics indicate tables or figures.

- Abell, M. D., 46
- Abortion, practice illustration of family coping with, 307-10
- Abramson, M., 78, 79
- Abuse: initial phase sensitivity to, 188-90; practice illustrations of families coping with, 330-37
- Accountability: ending phase, 444-45; evidence-based practice, 41; social work organization, 475, 477-78, 480, 488
- Actions, undertaking in community or neighborhood, 452-61, 462
- Action stage of change, 177
- Action tasks, 200
- Activity level, temperament and, 64
- Adaptation, 55, 55, 64
- Adaptedness, 54-55, 55
- Adaptive person, 54-55, 55
- Addams, Jane, 9, 10
- Addiction, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 186-88
- Administrators, history of training of, 26-27
- Adolescence: helping with life transitions and traumatic events in, 202-10, 213-15; practice illustration of helping with pregnancy in, 316-20; as social status, 191
- Adoption process, practice illustration in preparation for, 400-402
- Adversarial action. See Conflict
- Adversarial skills, environmental stressors and, 256-57, 257
- Advice, offering, 199
- Advocacy skills: environmental stressors and, 251-52; internal and external, 103-4, 105; practice illustrations, 275-78. See also Policy advocacy
- Advocates for Recovery through Medicine (ARM), 456
- Affirming, joining skills and, 304, 305
- African Americans: consultation in community and neighborhood, 472-74; diversity sensitivity of social workers, 178-80; as early social workers, 14-15; helping with life transitions and traumatic events, 202-10, 213-15; living in poverty, 32; mortality rates of, 33; services for, 34; settlement movement and charitable organizations, 8, 12-14
- Age/aging: client/worker relationships, 388; graying of society and, 38; life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 91; as life stressors, 191-92; poverty and, 32

- Agency authority, client/worker relationship, 379–83, 397
- Agenda, building in social work lobbying, 510
- Agreements, in life-modeled practice, 95–96, 251–52
- AIDS, 224–27
- Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), 35
- Alcohol addiction: initial phase sensitivity to, 186–88; practice illustrations of family coping with, 330–37
- Alms-giving. See Charities tradition
- Altman, I., 54
- Altman, L. K., 43
- Ambivalence, exploring, 196
- American Association for the Study of Group Work (AASGW), 22
- American Association of Group Workers (AAGW), 22
- American Charities: A Study in Philanthropy and Economics* (Warner), 26
- American Indians, 34
- American Social Science Association (ASSA), 6, 7
- American Sociological Association, 15
- Analysis skills, social workers' influence on organization and, 484–87, 488–89, 490
- Anger: handling in ending phase, 425–28; handling in groups, 365–69
- Anticipatory empathy: in ending phase, 417–18; in initial phase, 167; with other staff members, 255; in preparatory phase, 139–42, 144
- Anxiety, generating to break through avoidance, 202
- Appraisal, of stress, 60–61, 63. See also Assessment
- Arguing skills, 256
- Arvey, M. J., 130
- Assertiveness, 256
- Assessment: of community needs, 452–56; of families, 117, 527–29; of groups, 117–18, 529–34; of individuals, 117, 523–26; in life-modeled practice, 96, 114–18; in ongoing phase, 251–52; tasks of, 112–14; visual and graphic representations of, 118–21, 119–21
- Atlanta School of Social Work, 15
- Atmosphere of service: empathy and, 143; physical setting and, 151
- Attributions, temperament and, 64
- Austin, D. M., 26
- Authority, in client/worker relationships: agency authority and sanctions, 379–86, 397; struggle for control, 388–91, 397; worker authority and power, 383–85, 397
- Authority structures, of social welfare organizations, 242
- Autonomy, in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 77–78
- Avoidance: in ending phase, 111, 419–25; facilitating move away from, in ongoing phase, 201–2
- Bandler, Bernard, 71
- Becerra, R. M., 12–13, 16, 34
- Behavioral change: communication skills, 304–5, 306, 307; dysfunctional families, 304, 305; evidence-based practice, 41; group focus, 146–47
- Benway, C. B., 176
- Bereavement: group assessment example, 529–34; helping with life transitions, 210–13; mutual aid in ongoing phase, 215–24
- Biological rhythms, influence of, 249
- Bisexuals. See Sexual orientation, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to
- Bishop Tuttle Memorial Training School of Social Work, 15
- Blended families, life stressors and, 297
- Boehm, Warner, 27
- Boundaries, of social welfare organizations, 241–42
- Boundary violations, ethical practice and, 79–80
- Brager, G., 25, 457, 491
- Breckinridge, Sophonisba, 27
- Broader environment, as protective factor, 65, 66
- Brogan, M. M., 414
- Bronfenbrenner, U., 51, 64
- Built world: environmental stressors, 246–48, 258–59, 259; practice illustrations, 285–91
- Bush, George W., 36
- Canada: consultations with Indians in, 474–75; immigrants in, 34; income transfers in, 35
- Case consultation, 472
- Case managers, community and neighborhood organization and, 471
- Case study method, 98, 124
- Casework method: cause-function issue, 29–30; development of, 18–21; methodology, 28

- Castonguay, L. R., 44
- Cause-function issue, 29–30, 447
- Causes, ecological perspective and, 53–54
- Challenges, stress and, 61. See also Mental challenges; Physical challenges
- Chance, as protective factor, 65, 66
- Change, stages of client's, 176–77
- Changing Psychology in Social Casework, A* (Robinson), 19
- Charities tradition, origins of, 5–9
- Charity organization society movement, 11–12; community organization method, 24; known as family agencies, 18–19; people of color and, 12–18; in Philadelphia, 26; reform and, 9; religion and, 8–9
- Chicago, University of, School of Social Service Administration, 10
- Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy, 10, 14
- Child abuse, initial phase sensitivity and, 188–90
- Chinese Americans, 17
- Choice. See Degree of choice, in initial phase
- Cingoliani, J., 175
- Clarifying skills. See Exploring and clarifying skills
- Client outcomes, practice monitoring and, 122–23
- Client/worker relationship, 378–413; agency authority and sanctions, 379–83, 397; assessment task participation, 114; client defenses, 394–97, 397; differences, 386–88, 397; interpersonal control, 388–91, 397; interpersonal processes, 378–97, 397; in life-modeled practice, 72–75, 74; methods, skills, and practice illustrations, 94–95, 398–413, 402, 413; professional socialization, 385–86, 397; taboo content, 393–94, 397; transference and countertransference, 391–93, 397; worker authority and power, 383–85, 397; workers' preparatory tasks, 402
- Clinical mining of data, 130–31
- Clinton, William J., 35
- Closed-ended questions, 163
- Coalition building, in social work lobbying, 512–13, 516
- Code of Ethics*, of NASW, 74–80, 415
- Coercive power, 59
- Cognitive-behavioral therapy, 40, 44
- Cohorts: anticipatory empathy and, 141–42; family processes and, 300
- Co-leadership, of group, 152
- Collaborating skills, for social welfare organization change, 497–98, 503. See also Mediation skills
- Colored Woman in a White World, A* (Terrell), 14
- Colored Women's League of Washington, D.C., 14
- Columbia University School of Social Work, 11
- Comments, reflective, to help dysfunctional family, 306, 307
- Common stressor-solving focus, for group, 146
- Communication and behavioral change, skills of inducing, 304–5, 306, 307
- Community and neighborhood life, 449–75; consultation skills, 471–75, 475; definitions, 449–50; program development skills, 461–66; stressors in, 450–51; support system building skills, 466–71; undertaking action skills, 452–61, 462
- Community modality, 155
- Community organization method, 24–26
- Community services, coordinating of, 470–71
- Competence, demonstrating professional, 254, 256
- Composition, of group, 344–46
- Concerns, specifying about life transition, 195
- Conference of Charities (CC), 6
- Confidentiality: in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 77–78; legal issues of, 81–83; social networks and, 244
- Conflict: managing in community organizations, 459; managing in groups, 368–74; social welfare organization change and, 501–2, 503
- Congress, E. P., 121
- Connecting skills. See Coordinating skills, in ongoing phase
- Consequences, ecological perspective and, 53–54
- Constructivist research, 129–30
- Consultation services, offering to community and neighborhood, 471–75, 475
- Contacts, developing and using informal system of, 254, 256
- Contemplation stage of change, 176–77

- Contexts, creating therapeutic, with joining skills, 304, 305
- Cooper, L. B., 69
- Coordinating skills, in ongoing phase, 103, 105; environmental stressors, 251–55, 253, 256; practice illustrations, 278–85
- Coping skills, 61–63, 63, 64
- Corcoran, J., 40
- Corrections tradition, origins of, 5–9.
See also Settlement movement
- Cotler, I., 519
- Council on Social Work Education, 27, 47
- Court-mandated services. See Mandated services
- Critical incident, practice monitoring and, 123–24; examples, 540–52
- Cultigrams, 121
- Culture: consultation in community and neighborhood, 473–75; culturally sensitive assessment, 113–14; current societal context and changes in, 37–38; ecological perspective, 52; family coping, 324–30; family structure, 298–99; groups, 348; phases of identity, 86
- Curriculum-driven groups, 346–47; practice illustration, 361–63
- Darwin, Charles, 52
- Data, clinical mining of, 130–31
- Deductive reasoning, assessment and, 114
- Deep ecology, 66–68, 68
- Defenses, client/worker relationships and, 394–97, 397
- Degree of choice, in initial phase, 100–102, 160; mandated services, 100–101, 101, 174–76, 176; services offered, 100, 101, 165–73, 168, 174; services sought, 100, 101, 160–65, 165
- Deinstitutionalization, cultural change and, 38
- Democratic participation, in community action, 458
- Demonstrating, for social welfare organization change, 495–97, 503
- Denial: as client defense, 394–97; in ending phase, 111
- Dependency, practice illustration of family coping with, 320–24
- Depressed clients, in initial phase, 161–65, 186
- Detachment, in anticipatory empathy, 140
- Dewey, John, 10, 21
- Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders*, 4th edition (DSM-IV), 116–17, 255
- Diagnostic school of casework thought, 19
- DiClemente, C. C., 176
- Differences, between client and worker, 386–88, 397
- Direction. See Focus
- Disabilities. See Mental challenges; Physical challenges
- Discrepant messages: identifying of, 196; responding to with directness, 202
- Discrimination, as community stressor, 450–51
- Discussion, for guiding, 199
- Disempowerment, 56–57, 92–93, 468
- Distributive justice, 93
- Diversity: deep ecology and, 67; group composition and, 147–49
- Diversity-sensitive practice, in life-modeled practice, 83–92; to addiction, 186–88; to age, 91; to gender, 88–89; to mental and physical challenges, 91–92, 186; to race, ethnicity, religion, and spirituality, 83–88, 178–82; to sexual orientation, 89–91, 182–86
- Dolgoff, R., Ethical Principles Screen of, 76, 76–78
- Dual-relationship situations, ethical practice and, 80
- Dubos, R., 464
- Duncan, B., 42
- Dynamic Administration* (Follett), 26–27
- Dysfunctional families. See Families, dysfunctional
- Dysfunctional groups. See Groups, dysfunctional
- Ecofeminism, 68–70
- Ecologically sensitive scientific traditions, 128–31, 132–35, 136
- Ecological perspectives: deep ecology, 66–68, 68; ecofeminism, 68–70; habitat and niche, 51, 55–56, 59; life course, 51, 57–59, 59; life stressor, stress, coping, and challenge, 51, 60–63, 63; person/environment fit, 51, 54–55, 55; power, powerlessness,

- and pollution, 51, 56–57, 59;
protective factors and resilience, 51,
63–66, 66; theory, concepts, and thinking, 51–54
- Ecomaps, 118, 119, 121, 200
- Education, of professionals: for administration, 26–27; African Americans and social work, 14–15; charity organizations, 11–12; group work method, 22;
methodology, 28; policy-practice and group work practice, 47–50; settlement movement, 10
- Education, of public: progressive education movement, 21–22; social welfare organization change and,
500–501
- Educational focus, for group, 146
- Electoral process, social workers in, 507, 520–21
- Emergency services, temporal arrangements, 156, 158
- Emotional illness: life transitions and traumatic events and, 210–13;
practice illustration of coping with,
320–24. See also Mental health;
Mental illness
- Empathy: in client/worker relationship,
94–95; demonstrating of, 142–43,
144; in preparatory phase, 99. See also Anticipatory empathy
- Employment: global economy, 32;
immigrants, 35; people of color, 32,
36; women, 37
- Empowerment, in life-modeled practice, 92–94
- Enabling skills, in ongoing phase, 102,
105; environmental stressors and,
252–53, 253; life transitions and,
194–95, 195
- Enactive listeners, 199
- Ending phase, in life-modeled practice,
111, 138, 414–45; decisions about,
414; evaluation and, 444–45;
negation and avoidance in, 419–25,
431; negative feelings in, 425–28,
431; organizational, temporal, and modality factors, 415–17, 419;
preparation for, 415–19, 419, 431;
relational factors, 417–19, 419;
release in, 431–44, 444; sadness in,
428–31, 431
- Engagement, challenging illusion of,
201
- Engagement skills, for social welfare organization change, 494–502, 503
- Entry phase, skills for social worker influence and, 487, 490–94, 495
- Environment, significance in life-modeled practice, 97
- Environmental forces, social worker influence on organization, 484–85, 488
- Environmental issues: casework method and, 19–20; charity organizations and, 11; group work method and, 23; in ongoing phase, 103–4,
105; settlement movement and, 9, 10
- Environmental resources, for coping, 62
- Environmental stressors, 240–93;
assessment in life-modeled practice,
96; built world, practice illustrations, 285–91; group formation, 145; as life stressors, 240–50;
modalities, methods, and skills for helping with, 250–59, 253, 256, 257, 259; natural world, practice illustrations, 291–93; organizational environment, practice illustrations,
259–78; physical environment,
245–50; professional function in
life-modeled practice, 72–74, 74;
social environment, 240–45; social network, practice illustrations,
278–85
- Episodic services, temporal arrangements, 156, 158
- Epstein, I., 128
- Equality and inequality, in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 77–78
- Ethical issues: professional use of technology, 46–47; of technological changes, 39
- Ethical practice, in life-modeled practice, 74–83; boundary issues,
79–80; confidentiality issues, 76–79;
Ethical Practices Screen, 76, 76–78;
legal issues, 81–83
- Ethical Principles Screen, of Loewen-
berg and Dolgoff, 76, 76–78
- Ethnicity, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 83–88, 180–82, 193
- Evaluation of practice. See Practice evaluation, in life-modeled practice
- Evidence-based practice, 41–45
- Exchanges, defined, 55
- Experiences, recreating, 196
- Exploitative power, 59
- Exploring and clarifying skills, in ongoing phase, 102, 105; environmental stressors, 251–53, 253; life
transitions, 195–97, 198

- Extended families, life stressors and, 296–97
- External advocacy skills, in ongoing phase, 103, 105
- External mediation skills, 103, 105. See also Mediation skills, in ongoing phase
- External supports, as protective factor, 64–65, 66
- Facilitating skills: environmental stressors and, 252–53, 253; in ongoing phase, 103, 105, 201–2
- Factionalism, in groups, 339
- Faith-based initiatives, 36–37
- Families: as appropriate modality, 154, 155; assessment of, 117; assessment of, example, 527–29; feminist movement and gendered roles in, 37; protective patterns, 64, 66
- Families, dysfunctional, 294–337; development, paradigm, and transformation, 301–3; development, paradigm, and transformation, practice illustrations, 330–37; functions and forms, 295–97; methods and skills of helping, 303–7; processes, 299–301; processes, practice illustrations, 324–30; structure, 297–99; structure, practice illustrations, 307–24
- Family agencies, 18–19
- Federal government's role, within current societal context, 35
- Federal Register*, 517
- Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, 14
- Feedback: deep ecology and, 67; inviting and providing for exploring and clarifying, 197; stress and, 63
- Feelings of client: expressed in initial phase, 162–65; shared sadness in ending phase, 428–31
- Feminist movement: ecofeminism, 68–70; employment issues, 37; gendered family roles, 37; gender sensitivity in life-modeled practice, 88–89
- Figures of speech, used in initial phase, 164
- Finland, 35
- Fisk University, 15
- Fixed space, 248
- Flexibility: as ecological principle, 67; importance in group formation, 147
- Flexner, Abraham, 18
- Focus: developing, for exploring and clarifying, 195; developing common, in group, 172–74, 174
- Follett, Mary Parker, 26–27
- Fong, M. L., 87
- Force-field analysis, 121, 484
- Formational elements, of group, 342–47
- France, 35
- Frazier, E. Franklin, 15
- Freedom, in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 77–78
- “Friendly visitors,” 11, 13
- “Friendly volunteers,” 26
- Full disclosure, in Ethical Practices Screen, 76, 77
- Function, of social welfare organizations, 241
- Functional school of casework thought, 19
- Galinsky, M. J., 46
- Gambrill, E., 42
- Gardening activities, benefits of, 249–50
- Gays: cultural change and, 38; family life stressors and ongoing process, 296; helping with life transitions and traumatic events, 227–30; life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 89–91
- Gelman, S. R., 46
- Gender, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 88–89
- Genograms, 119–20, 120, 121, 200
- Germany, 35
- Gibbs, L., 42
- Gibbs, J. T., 473
- Gifts, at end of service, 440
- Gilligan, C., 88
- Gitterman, A., 24
- Global economy, in current societal context, 32–33
- Goal attainment scaling methods, 98, 131, 132–35, 136
- Good fortune (God's will), as protective factor, 65, 66
- Grandparents, family life stressors and, 297–98
- Group assessment, 117–18; bereavement example, 529–34
- Group comparison method, of practice evaluation, 98, 124–25
- Groups: as appropriate modality, 154–55, 155; benefits of, 338–39; composition, 147–49; empathy and, 143, 144; environmental pressures

- and, 145–46; mutual aid and bereavement in ongoing phase, 215–24; purpose of, 144–46; responsive organizational climate, 152–53; service choices in initial phase, 168–74, 174; staffing, 151–52; tasks in, 153; temporal arrangements, group size, and physical setting, 149–51; types of, 146–47
- Groups, dysfunctional, 338–77; group behavior, 338–42; group structure, 342–50; in life-modeled practice, 72–74, 74, 96; methods and skills of helping, 350–55; in ongoing phase, 104, 105; practice illustrations, 356–77
- Group work method, 21–24; graduate education in, 47–50
- Guiding skills: environmental stressors and, 252–53, 253; life transitions and, 198–201, 201; in ongoing phase, 103, 105
- Gutierrez, L. M., 93
- Habitat, 51, 55–56, 59
- Haggard, L., 54
- Haitians, 34
- Hamilton, G., 19
- Hamrin, V., 176
- Harrington, D., 76
- Hartman, A., 119
- Hawthorne experiments, 43
- Haynes, Birdye Henrietta, 14
- Haynes, George, 14–15
- Haynes, R. B., 42
- Health, promoting in community and neighborhood, 464–66, 466
- Health insurance, lack of, 33
- Hearings: lobbying and, 513–14; regulatory process and, 518–19
- Helping others, as protective factor, 66, 66
- Heterogeneity, group composition and, 147–49
- Hierarchical structures, ecofeminism and, 69–70
- Hispanics: living in poverty, 32; services for, 34
- Historical time, 58, 59
- Historical traditions, of social work practice: cause-function issue, 29–30; methodological divisions, 28–29; professional developments, 39–50; professional methods, 18–27; societal and professional themes, 5–18; societal context, 30–39
- Hodge, D. R., 113, 121
- Hollis, E. V., 27
- Hollis, F., 20
- Homeless shelter group, in initial phase, 168–70
- Homework, assigning to help dysfunctional family, 305, 306; practice illustrations, 315–16, 324–30
- Homogeneity, group composition and, 147–49
- Homophobia. See Sexual orientation, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to
- Hope, offering, 198
- Humor: in life-modeled practice, 94; as protective factor, 65–66, 66; social welfare organization change and, 499; used in initial phase, 164
- Hutchison, E., 174
- Hypothesis, offering of, 196–97
- Iconic listeners, 199
- Identification, in anticipatory empathy, 140
- Iglehart, A. P., 12–13, 16, 34
- Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act (IIRIRA), 36
- Immigrants: assessment and, 113, 114; current societal context and, 33–36
- Implementation skills, social welfare organization change and, 502–5
- Income transfers, 35
- Incorporation, in anticipatory empathy, 140
- Independent living, cultural change and, 38
- Individual assessment, 117; example, 523–26
- Individuality, in group, 353, 354
- Individual modality, 153–54, 155
- Individual time, 58, 59
- Inductive reasoning, assessment and, 113–14
- Industrial Association, 13
- Industrialization, social disorganization and, 6
- Inequality and equality, in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 77–78
- Influencing skills: environmental stressors and, 251–52; in ongoing phase, 104, 105
- Informal contacts, developing and using, 254, 256

- Information: gathering, for social work lobbying, 508–10, 515, 516; providing relevant, for guiding, 199
- Informed consent: obtaining, 253, 256; standards, 81
- Initial phase, in life-modeled practice: agreement and, 96; diversity sensitivity of social worker, 178–88; life stressor identification, 99–100; service choice and social worker skills, 100–102, 101, 160–76, 165, 168, 174, 176; stage of change of client, 176–77; trauma sensitivity of social worker, 188–90
- Innovation skills: environmental stressors and, 251–52; in ongoing phase, 104, 105; social welfare organization change and, 504–5
- Institutional sanctions and supports: client/worker relationships, 379–83, 397; group formation, 152–53, 174; social welfare organizations, 242–43
- Integrated modalities, in life-modeled practice, 94
- Integrating skills, for groups, 352–53, 353, 354
- Interactionist conception of group work, 23
- Internal advocacy skills, 104, 105
- Internalized oppression, 61
- Internal mediation skills: dysfunctional families and, 304–7, 305, 306; in ongoing phase, 104, 105
- Interpersonal control, client/worker relationships and, 388–91, 397
- Interpersonal forces, social worker influence on organization and, 486, 489
- Interpersonal obstacles, in client/worker relationship, 378–97, 397, 413
- Interpretive rules, of administrative agencies, 517
- Intraorganizational boundaries, 241–42
- Iris, V-Y., 246
- Jaffee v. Redmond*, 82
- Jansson, B. S., 47, 509, 510
- Japanese Americans, 17–18
- Joining skills, for helping dysfunctional families, 304, 305
- Jordon, J. V., 95
- Joseph, V., 78–79
- Justice. See Policy advocacy
- Kelley, M. L., 474
- Kin networks, 182, 245, 280
- Knowledge, in life-modeled practice: contributions to, 98, 124–36; uses of, 121–24
- Kübler-Ross, E., 419
- Kutchins, H., 81
- Labeling, discouraged, 177
- Labor, defining division of, 253, 256
- Larder, J., 31
- Latino culture, sensitivity to, 180–82
- Lazarus, R., 60
- Learning styles, 103
- Lease, S. H., 87
- “Least harm,” in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 77–78
- Lee, Porter, 29–30, 447
- Legal issues, of ethical practice, 81–83
- Legislation, social workers’ influence on: current societal context, 35–36; illustration of, 514–15; legislative process, 507–8; lobbying, 508–14, 516
- Lesbians: cultural change and, 38; family life stressors and ongoing process, 296; life-modeled practice’s sensitivity to sexual orientation, 89–91, 182–86
- Leszcz, M., 149
- Lewin, K., 484
- Life, in Ethical Principles Screen: protection of, 76, 76–77; quality of, 76, 77–78
- Life course, 51, 57–59, 59
- Life-modeled practice: features of, 72–98; origins of, 71; phases of, in general, 98–111; purpose of, 72; social justice and, 522. See also Ending phase, in life-modeled practice; Initial phase, in life-modeled practice; Ongoing phase, in life-modeled practice; Preparatory phase, in life-modeled practice
- Life stories, in life-modeled practice, 96, 163–65
- Life stressors, 60, 63; choice of modality, 154, 155; client/worker relationships, 378–97, 397; communities and neighborhoods, 450–51, 465, 466; dysfunctional families, 294–303; dysfunctional groups, 338–50; environmental processes, 240–50; initial phase, 99–100; life transitional processes as, 191–94; ongoing phase, 105; professional function in life-modeled practice, 72–74, 74

- Life transitions and traumatic events, 191–239; assessment in life-modeled practice, 96; first- and second-order, and family development, 301–3; group formation, 144–45; initial phase sensitivity to, 188–90; life transitions practice illustrations, 202–32; modalities, methods, and skills for helping with, 194–202; in ongoing phase, 102–3, 105; professional function in life-modeled practice, 72–74, 74; social networks, 245; transitions and traumas as life stressors, 191–94; traumatic events practice illustrations, 232–39
- Limited Medically Needy Bill (Missouri), as illustration of policy advocacy, 514–15
- Linear thinking, contrasted to ecological thinking, 53–54
- Listening styles, 199
- Lobbying, by social workers, 508–14, 516
- Locality development, applied to community interventions, 25
- Loewenberg, F., Ethical Principles Screen of, 76, 76–78
- Long-term, open-ended services, 157, 158
- MacDonald v. Clinger*, 81
- Maintenance stage of change, 177
- Malgady, R. G., 114
- Managed mental health care, 40–41
- Mandated services: in initial phase, 100–101, 101, 174–76, 176; in ongoing phase, 379–83
- Manner of speaking, empathy and, 143
- Manuals, treatment and, 44–45
- Marcos, L. R., 114
- Marital conflict, practice illustration of family coping with, 310–15
- Mattaini, M., 118
- Matthews, Victoria Earle, 13
- Mbiti, J., 85
- McCoy, J. M., 246
- McKay, S., 474
- McMahon, T. J., 176
- Meaning of experience, reaching for, 196
- Mechanical skills, of practitioner, 122
- Mediation skills, in ongoing phase: dysfunctional families, 304–7, 305, 306; environmental stressors, 251–52, 253, 255–56, 256; groups, 354–55, 355; internal and external, 103–4, 105; practice illustrations, 259–78
- Medical metaphor, in casework method, 19–20
- Mental challenges, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 91–92
- Mental health: managed care, 40–41; promoting in community and neighborhood, 464–66, 466
- Mental illness, helping with life transitions, 230–32. See also Emotional illness
- Metaphors, used in initial phase, 164
- Methadone maintenance clinic, needs assessment example, 453–56
- Methods and skills: client/worker relationship, 94–95, 398–413, 402, 413; dysfunctional families, 303–7, 305, 306; dysfunctional groups, 350–55, 351, 353–55; environmental stressors, 250–59, 253, 256, 257, 259; life transitions, 194–202, 195, 198, 201; ongoing phase, 102–10, 105
- Mexican Americans, 16–17
- Meyer, C. H., 45
- Milford Conference, 28
- Miller, W., 188
- Miller, W. R., 177
- Minority Development Model, 86
- Misinformation, correcting, 199
- Mobilizing skills, in ongoing phase, 102, 105; environmental stressors, 252–54, 253, 256; life transitions, 197–98
- Modalities: ending phase, 416–17; integrated in life-modeled practice, 94; selecting in preparatory stage, 153–55, 155; temporal arrangements, 155–57, 158–59, 159. See also Methods and skills
- Molidor, C. E., 42
- Moment-to-moment assessment, 116
- Mondros, J., 456
- Monopolism, in group, 339–41
- Morehouse University, 15
- Mourning. See Bereavement
- Muir Gray, J. A., 42
- Mutual aid, developing in group, 170–72; bereavement and, 215–24; in community and neighborhood, 467–68; skills for, 352–53, 353
- Mutual aid conception of group work, 23

- Myths, family processes and life stressors, 299–301, 305, 306, 307
- Narratives, in constructivist research, 129–30
- National Alliance of Methadone Advocates (NAMA), 455, 456
- National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 13, 14
- National Association of Colored Women (NACW), 13, 14
- National Association of Social Workers (NASW), 22; Code of Ethics of, 74–80, 415; Person-In-Environment Manual, 116–17
- National Conference of Charities and Corrections (NCCC), 6, 18
- National Conference on Social Welfare (NCSW), 7, 10
- National Urban League (NUL), 13, 15
- Native Americans, 15–16
- Natural helpers, in community and neighborhood, 467, 470
- Naturalistic qualitative research methods, 98, 128–36
- Natural life process, in ongoing phase, 104, 106–10
- Natural networks, community action and, 456
- Natural world, life stressors and, 246, 248–50; practice illustrations, 291–93
- Needs assessment, for community, 452–56
- Negation and avoidance: in client/worker relationship, 394–95, 405–6; in ending phase, 419–25, 431
- Negative feelings, in ending phase, 417–18, 425–28, 431
- Negro Family in the United States, The* (Frazier), 15
- Negro in the United States, The* (Frazier), 15
- Neighborhood Guild, 8
- Neighborhoods. See Community and neighborhood life
- Nelsen, J., 126
- Nelson, C. H., 474
- Netherlands, 35
- Networking, in social work lobbying, 511–12, 515, 516
- Network (social) maps, 120–21, 121
- Networks: building interorganizational, 254, 256; deep ecology and, 66–67, 68
- Neugarten, B., 58
- New York School of Social Work, 11
- Niche, 51, 56, 59
- “Noah’s Ark Principle,” 149
- Norm of reciprocity, 254
- Norway, 35
- Nuclear family, life stressors and, 295
- Offered services, in initial phase, 100, 101, 165–73, 168, 174
- Offices, welcoming atmosphere in, 151
- Officials, social workers’ lobbying of, 510–11, 516
- Oncology caregiver group, in initial phase, 172–74
- One-parent households: cultural change, 37; life stressors and ongoing process, 295–96; poverty, 33
- Ongoing phase, in life-modeled practice, 137–38; client/worker relationship, 378–413; dysfunctional families, 294–337; dysfunctional groups, 338–77; environmental stressors, 240–93; life transitions and traumatic events, 191–239; methods and skills of, 102–10, 105; natural life process example, 104, 106–10
- Open-ended groups: practice illustration, 356–59; problems associated with, 150, 346
- Open-ended questions, 162–63
- Oppression, ecofeminism and, 69–70
- Organizational boundaries, social welfare organizations and, 241–42
- Organizational environment, practice illustrations, 259–78
- Organizational factors, of ending phase, 415–17, 419
- Organizational forces, social worker influence on organization and, 485, 485–86, 488
- Organizational policies, knowing and using, 255, 256
- Organizing skills, for groups, 350–51, 351
- Oxley, D., 54
- Oxley, Lawrence A., 15
- Parent-child conflict, practice illustration of coping with, 316–20
- Participation: in community action, 457–58; for guiding, 200
- Passell, P., 32–33
- Patterning of concerns, 196
- Peer networks, 245
- Pennsylvania, University of, School of Social Work, 19

- People of color, early social work and, 12–18. See also African Americans; Diversity-sensitive practice, in life-modeled practice; Immigrants
- Perlman, Helen, 19
- Perseverance, demonstrating, 255, 256
- Personal positioning, social worker influence on organization and, 491, 495
- Personal resources, for coping, 62
- Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA), 35, 36
- Personal space, 246
- Person:environment fit, 51, 54–55, 55; assessment, 115, 115–16, 117; protective factors and resilience, 51, 63–66, 66
- Person-In-Environment (P.I.E.) Manual, 116–17
- Persuasion, for social welfare organization change, 498–501, 503
- Pets, benefits of, 250, 259, 291–93
- Physical challenges: in initial phase, 186; life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 91–92; in ongoing phase, 106–10
- Physical environments: ecological perspective and, 52; groups and, 349; life stressors and ongoing process, 245–48; as protective factors, 65, 66; skills of influencing, 258–59, 259. See also Natural world
- Physical health, promoting in community and neighborhood, 464–66, 466
- Physical setting, group formation and, 151
- Planned short-term services, temporal arrangements, 156, 158
- Planning and turning points, as protective factor, 65, 66
- Policies and procedures, of social welfare organizations, 242
- Policy advocacy, 506–7; through electoral process, 507, 520–21; through legislative influence, 507–15, 516; through regulatory process, 507, 515–20; study of social work influence, 521–22
- Policy-practice, in graduate education, 47–48
- Political Action for Candidate Election (PACE), 520
- Pollack, D., 46
- Pollution, life stressors and, 249
- Poor Law philosophy, 7
- Position statements, for social work lobbying, 509, 511
- Poverty: as community stressor, 450–51; current societal context, 31–32; immigrants and, 35
- Power: community organization method and, 25; pollution, powerlessness, and, 51, 56–57, 59
- Practice-based research, 128
- Practice evaluation, in life-modeled practice, 98, 444–45; ecologically sensitive scientific traditions and, 128–31, 132–35, 136; research and, 124–28
- Practice illustrations: built world, 285–91; client/worker relationships, 398–413; dysfunctional group processes, 356–77; family development, 330–37; family processes, 324–30; family structures, 307–24; life transitions, 202–32; natural world, 291–93; organizational environment, 259–78; social network, 278–85; traumatic life events, 232–39
- Practice modality. See Modalities
- Practice monitoring, in life-modeled practice, 121–24; critical incident example, 540–52; record of service example, 535–52
- Practice outcomes, 41–45
- Pragmatism, 10
- Precontemplation stage of change, 176–77, 180
- Pregnancy, teen, practice illustration of family coping with, 316–20
- Preparation, for ending phase, 415–19, 419, 431
- Preparation skills, for social worker influence on organization, 481–84, 484
- Preparation stage, of change, 176–77
- Preparatory phase, in life-modeled practice, 99; group formation, 143–53, 153; practice modality, 153–55, 155; supportive service environment, 139–43, 144; temporal arrangements, 155–57, 158–59, 159
- Presenting, for guiding, 199–200
- Primary appraisal, 61, 63
- Privacy. See Confidentiality
- Privileged communication, 81–82
- Procedural justice, 93
- Procedural rules, of administrative agencies, 517
- Prochaska, J. M., 414

- Prochaska, J. O., 176, 414
- Professional developments, in current practice, 39–40; managed mental health care, 40–41; policy-practice in education, 47–50; practice outcomes and evidence-based practice, 41–45; use of technology, 45–47
- Professional function, in life-modeled practice, 72–74, 74
- Professionalism, historical development of, 18–27; casework method, 18–21; community organization method, 24–26; group work method, 21–24; methodological divisions, 28–29; social administration method, 26–27
- Professionals, consulting with, 473
- Professional socialization, client/worker relationships and, 385–86, 397
- Professional status, lending to client, 254, 256
- Program consultation, 472
- Programs and services, skills for developing community and neighborhood, 461–66
- Progressive education movement, 21–22
- Protection of life, in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 76–77
- Protective factors and resilience, 51, 63–66, 66
- Protective norms, for group, 369–71
- Puberty, 191
- Public attention, policy advocacy and, 511, 513–15
- Public Welfare Administration* (Breckinridge), 27
- Puritan ethic, 7
- Puzzlement, sharing of, 196
- Quality-of-life issues: in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 77–78; technological changes and, 39
- Questions, open- and closed-ended, 162–63
- Race, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 83–88
- Racism. See Diversity-sensitive practice, in life-modeled practice; People of color
- Rafaeli, A., 246
- Rank, M. R., 35
- Rank, Otto, 19
- Rape victim, helping in ongoing phase, 232–39
- Reagh, R. E., 128
- Reamer, F., 81, 82
- Reassurance, offering, 198
- Reception areas, life stressors and, 246–47
- Reciprocal conception of group work, 23, 254
- Record of service, practice monitoring and, 123; example, 535–39
- Recreational movement, 21–22
- Recruitment, for community action, 456–57
- Reframing, to help dysfunctional family, 304–5, 306
- Regulatory process, social workers and policy advocacy, 507, 515–20
- Relational factors, of ending phase, 417–19, 419
- Release, in ending phase, 431–44, 444
- Religion: African American churches, 13; charity organizations and settlements, 8–9; current societal context, 36–37; life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 83–88. See also Spirituality
- Rephrasing and paraphrasing, 163
- Reproductive technology, 39
- Research: professional practices guided by, 41–45, 128; social work lobbying and, 508–10, 516
- Research protocols, helping patients recruited for, 374–76
- Resilience. See Protective factors and resilience
- Retributive justice, 93
- Reverberation, in anticipatory empathy, 140
- Reynolds, Bertha, 20–21, 30, 92
- Richardson, W. S., 42
- Richmond, Mary, 9, 18, 26
- Rituals, life stressors and family processes, 299–301, 305, 306, 307
- Rivas, R. F., 152
- Robinson, Virginia, 19
- Role-play: group, 376–77; individual, 200; social welfare organization change and, 499
- Role-related volunteers, in community and neighborhood, 468–69, 470
- Rollnick, S., 188
- Rosenberg, W. M. C., 42
- Rothman, J., 25
- Sackett, D. L., 42
- Sadness, in ending phase, 428–31, 431
- Same-sex families, 296

- Scapegoating, in group, 341–42;
practice illustration, 356–59
- Schiele, J. H., 84–85
- Schon, D. A., 41
- Schopler, J. H., 46
- Schwartz, William, 23, 30, 201, 338
- Science, ideology and, 7
- Scientific philanthropy, 11
- Sculpture, of family, 200
- Seabury, B., 246
- Secondary appraisal, 61, 63
- Secrets: family processes and, 299, 305, 306, 307; practice illustration, 324–30; uncovering in ending phase, 437–39
- Self-awareness, of practitioner, 122
- Self-correcting feedback loops, deep ecology and, 67
- Self-esteem: social networks and, 244; temperament and, 64
- Self-help groups, in community and neighborhood, 467–68, 470
- Self-reflection, inviting, 197
- Semi-fixed space, 246–48
- Separation. See Ending phase, in life-modeled practice
- Service choices: in initial phase, 100–102, 160; mandated services, 100–101, 101, 174–76, 176; offered services, 100, 101, 165–73, 168, 174; sought services, 100, 101, 160–65, 165
- Service environment, creating supportive: with anticipatory empathy, 139–42, 144; by demonstrating empathy, 142–43, 144; with physical setting, 151
- Service provision problems, social worker influence and, 479–80
- Settlement movement, 9–11; community organization method and, 24; group work method and, 21–22; life model and, 71; people of color and, 12–18; reform and, 9; religion and, 8–9
- Sexual abuse, initial phase sensitivity and, 188–90
- Sexual misconduct, ethical practice and, 79–80
- Sexual orientation, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 89–91, 182–86
- Short-term services, temporal arrangements, 156, 158
- Shulman, L., 24, 136, 161, 164, 472
- Sibling relationships, life stressors and, 297
- Silence, waiting out client's, 161–62, 163, 165, 195
- Single-case method, 98, 125–28
- Single-parent households: cultural change and, 37; life stressors and ongoing process, 295–96; poverty and, 33
- Size, of group, 346
- Skills. See Methods and skills
- Social action, applied to community interventions, 25–26
- Social administration method, 26–27
- Social conditions, improving in community and neighborhood, 462–64
- Social Darwinism, 7–8
- Social development focus, for group, 147
- Social Diagnosis* (Richmond), 18
- Social environments: ecological perspective and, 52; life stressors and ongoing process, 240–50; as protective factors, 65, 66
- Social goals model, of group work, 22
- Social gospel, 8
- Social justice. See Policy advocacy
- Social justice practice, in life-modeled practice, 92–94
- Social network maps, 120–21, 121
- Social networks: building in community and neighborhood, 466–71, 470; environmental stressors, practice illustrations, 278–85; life stressors and ongoing process, 243–45; social network map, 120–21, 121
- Social planning, applied to community interventions, 25
- Social Security Act of 1935, 27
- Social support. See Groups
- Social time, 58–59, 59
- Social welfare organizations, strengths and weaknesses of, 240–43
- Social welfare organizations, workers' influence on, 476–505; engagement skills, 494–502, 503; entry phase skills, 487, 490–94; external organizational stressors, 476–77; implementation and institutionalization skills, 502–5; initial organizational analysis, 484–87, 488–89; internal organizational stressors, 477–79; preparation skills, 481–84, 484; service provision problems, 479–80
- Social Welfare Policy and Policy Practice Group (SWPPPG), 48

- Societal context, of current practice, 30–31; cultural changes, 37–38; federal government's role, 35; global economy, 32–33; immigration, 33–35; legislation, 35–36; poverty, 31–32; religion, 36–37; technological changes, 38–39
- Solomon, B. B., 92
- Solution-focused therapy, 40
- Sought services, in initial phase, 100, 101, 160–65, 165
- Specht, H., 25, 457
- Spirituality, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 83–88, 113, 180–82. See also Religion
- Stability, group composition and, 147–49
- St. Augustine College, 15
- Strengths: identifying, 198; life-model practice model's focus on, 97
- Stress: appraisal of, 60–61, 63; dimensions of meaning of, 60; managing for social welfare organization change, 492–93; poor persons and, 54–55. See also Life stressors
- Strom-Gottfried, K., 40
- Structural and normative factors, of group, 347–50
- Structural positioning, social worker influence on organization and, 491–92, 495
- Substantive rules, of administrative agencies, 517
- Sue, D. W., 84
- Support systems. See Social networks
- Sweden, 35
- Symbolic listeners, 199
- Szenti-Gyorgyi, Albert, 129
- Taboo content, client/worker relationships and, 393–94, 397
- Tarasoff v. the Regents of the University of California*, 79, 82
- Tasks: as focus for group, 147; specifying and planning of, 200–201
- Taylor, A. L., 27
- Taylor, Graham, 10
- Technology: changes in and current societal context, 38–39; professional uses of, 45–47; social networks and, 244
- Teen pregnancy, practice illustration of family coping with, 316–20
- Temperament, as protective factor, 64, 66
- Temporal arrangements: empathy and uninterrupted time for sessions, 143; ending phase, 416, 419; group formation, 149–50; personal needs, 157, 159, 159; practice modality, 155–57, 158–59, 159
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), 35
- Termination of service. See Ending phase, in life-modeled practice
- Terrell, Mary Church, 13–14
- Testimony, in social work lobbying, 513–14
- Time, life course concepts of, 58–59, 59
- Time-limited services, 155, 157, 158
- Tolman, R. M., 42
- Torczyner, J., 457, 519
- Toseland, R. W., 152
- Touching, empathy and, 143
- Tracking, joining skills and, 304, 305
- Transfer, to new social worker, 439–40
- Transference and countertransference, client/worker relationships and, 391–93, 397
- Transgender individuals. See Sexual orientation, life-modeled practice's sensitivity to
- Traumatic life events. See Life transitions and traumatic events
- Tropp, E., 24
- Truthfulness and full disclosure, in Ethical Principles Screen, 76, 77–78
- Tufts, James, 10
- Turning points, as protective factor, 65, 66
- Unger, M., 67–68
- United Kingdom, 35
- United States, 35
- University Settlement (New York City), 10
- Urbanization, social disorganization and, 6, 8
- USA PATRIOT Act, 36
- Van Den Bergh, N., 69
- Vinter, Robert, 23
- Visual and graphic representations, in life-modeled practice assessment, 118–21, 119–21
- Visualization, for guiding, 200
- Volunteers: in community and neighborhood, 468–69, 470; role of, 37
- Wards, life stressors and, 247–48
- Warner, Amos, 26
- Washington, Booker T., 14

- Washington, Margaret Murray, 14
Webb, S. A., 45
Weiner, A., 46
Wells-Barnett, Ida B., 13, 14
Werner, C., 54
Western Reserve University, 22
White Rose Mission, 13
Wiesel, Eli, 65
Wilson, S., 456
Women. See Feminist movement;
Lesbians
Women's Trade Union League, 9
- Workers. See Client/worker relationship; Social welfare organizations, workers' influence on Worldviews: joining skills and dysfunctional family's, 304, 305; life-modeled practice's sensitivity to, 83–88
Wyers, N. L., 48
- Yaacov, C. S., 246
Yalom, I., 149
Zayas, L. H., 114