

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This book is based on the work of the Privatization Task Force of the Initiative for Policy Dialogue (IPD). IPD is a global network of over 200 economists, researchers, and practitioners committed to furthering understanding of the development process. We would like to thank all task force members, whose participation in provocative and productive dialogues and debates on privatization informed the content of this book.

Special thanks goes to Shari Spiegel, who served as Executive Director of IPD during the course of this project.

We would also like to thank IPD staff members Sheila Chanani, Sarah Green, Siddhartha Gupta, Ariel Schwartz, Lauren Anderson, Shana Hoftsetter, and Sylvia Wu for their work organizing task force meetings and coordinating production of this book. Thanks also to IPD interns Vital Bord and James Giganti for their help in preparing the book.

We thank our editor, Myles Thompson, and the staff of Columbia University Press for bringing this book into publication.

Finally, we are most grateful to the Ford Foundation and the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation for funding the work of the Privatization Task Force and supporting IPD activities.

PRIVATIZATION
