

Index

- Abuse: child, 22, 95, 226; elders and, 228–229; pornography, 263; rape by men, 7, 18, 128; rape of men, 6; sexual abuse by men, 131, 134, 128–130 143; social work skills with, 140; victims of, 6; women by men, 4, 16
- Addiction: alcohol abuse, 260–261; cycle of, 258–259, 263, 267; definitions of, 258; gambling, 263–264; sexual addiction, 261–263; treatment approaches, 264–269
- African American Men: diet, 196–197; cancer, 184; case studies of, 146–148, 196–198, 217–219, 269–272; cool pose, 76; criminal justice system, 139; depression, 204–205, 249–250; discrimination of, 5, 43, 249; disparities, 184; health, 67, 184; history of slavery, 43–44; intergenerational programs, 230–231; masculinities, 76; older men, 227; strengths of, 231, 248–250; unemployment statistics of, 150
- Ageism, against old men, 220
- Alzheimer's disease, 226–227
- Antisocial personality disorders, 202, 209–210
- Anxiety disorders, 121, 169, 206–207, 264
- Armed forces, 155–156, 302
- Asian American men, 247–248; cancer, 182; case studies of, 70–72, 252–253; emotions, 8; history in America, 32–33, 247; masculinities, 247; older men, 222, 227; stereotypes, 247
- Batterer intervention programs (BIPs), 131–132
- Bipolar disorder, 205–206
- Body image dysfunction, 8
- Brod, Harry, 43–44
- Cognitive behavior theory (CBT), 102–108; addiction treatment and,

- 267–269, creative use of, 106–107; education and psychoeducation in, 108; health issues and, 181; humanistic approach to, 9–10; mental illness and, 212; older men and, 226, 232; role of work and, 258–259; Self Management and Recovery Training (SMART), 267–268; substance abuse and, 262, 267–269; ten cognitive distortions, 104; violence and, 140–141
- Connell, Raewyn, 36, 44, 49–51
- Courage, 279
- Cross theoretical principles: metaphors, 101–102; redefining basic helping skills, 100–101; responsibility versus blame, 99
- Culturally sensitive practice, 197, 240–243
- Dementia, 228, 233
- Developmental theories, 56–58; existential approach to, 64–65; limitations of state theories, 58–60; multidimensional, 65
- Diet, See physical health
- Direct practice principles, 91–97
- Discrimination, 18–19, 29, 34, 51, 65, 134, 213, 241–243
- Disease, 181–187
- Displaced workers, 31, 152
- Diversity, See culturally sensitive practice
- Employment Assistant Programs (EAP), 259
- Equality, 44–45, 153, 283–285
- Ethics: NASW code of, 84; obligation to serve men, 15–16, 20
- Exercise, 187–188
- Existential perspective, 21; advantages of, 65; addiction treatment and, 269; anxiety, explanation of, 64–65; authenticity, 65, 86, 120; death, 121; depression, explanation of, 211; emotions and, 64–65; freedom and bad faith, 122; history of existentialism, 119–120; meaning, 120–121; mental health treatment and, 213; social work applications of, 119; struggle and pain, 122–123; work and, 156–157
- Family therapy and family work, 95–96
- Feminism, 153; approaches, 130; antifeminist backlash, 42; feminist critiques, 41–42; gender equity, 44; importance of, 35
- Future of social work, 283, 286–287
- Gambling addiction, 263–264; cycle of, 263
- Gangs, 18, 137–138; globalization and connection to, 137; prevention of, 137; rise of, 138
- Gender role strain, 45, 55
- Globalization, 36–39, 155, 283–285; global social development, 5, 96, 108; images of masculinity, 38–39; health and, 39–40; health insurance, 154; masculinities, 39, 52; postindustrialization, 16; technology and, 150, 283
- Goldstein, Howard, 9, 10, 116, 282
- Group work, 92–96
- Hegemonic masculinity, See masculinities
- Help seeking, 96–98

- Heterosexism, 53, 243
- HIV/AIDS, 39
- Hobbies, 85, 158, 280–281
- Homophobia, 134
- Homosexuality, 54; case study, 67–70; discrimination of, 85, 212, 243; gay men, 242–243; same-sex partnerships, 84–85
- Hospice care, 236, 318
- Hyper technologies, 36, 40
- Industrial revolution, 32, 43
- Internet, 30, 35, 40–41, 205, 283; addiction to, 262
- Job training programs, 160–161, 300
- Kimmel, Michael, 29, 42
- Kosberg, Jordan, 4–5, 97, 220, 227
- Latino men: cancer, 284; case examples of, 21–22, 45–46, 146–148; fatalismo, 192; identity, 19; machismo, 76, 245; masculinities, 16, 38, 56, 59, 247–248; migrants, 246–247; narrative approach, 246; prison, 139; strengths perspective, 247; substance abuse treatment, 108; unemployment, 150; work ethic, 246–247; violence, 129
- Macro practice, 31, 75, 96–97; anti-violence programs, 130–131; institutional barriers, 78; program design, 205, 227, 230, 260, 324; Real Men, Real Depression campaign, 204–205, 305; social change, 20, 30, 50, 96, 103
- Mahalik, James, 53, 74, 80, 87, 97–98, 102, 179, 249
- Masculine scripts; give em' hell, 54; homophobic, 54; independent, 54–55; playboy, 54; strong silent, 54; tough guy, 54; winner, 54
- Masculinities, 49–59, 74; effects of fatherhood on, 79–81; effects on relationships, 87; ethnographic moment of, 53; exportation of, 38–39; global development, 29, 36; health and, 39, 179–180, 182; hegemonic, 36–38, 61, 76, 134, 141, 186, 192, 241; help seeking and, 96–99; history of, 30–36; media representations of, 49; mental health and, 207; nontraditional, 9, 44, 81–82; social construction of, 53; technology and, 40; violence and, 133–134; work and, 152–155
- Men in families, 77–79
- Men as fathers, 79–80
- Men as friends, 85–86
- Men as partners, 83–85
- Men as sons, 81–83
- Men's movement, 41–45; mythopoetic movement, 42–43; promise keepers, critique of, 44; pro-feminist movements, 44–45, 132, 296
- Mental health court, 139
- Mental illness: antisocial personality disorder, 209–210; anxiety, 13, 54, 65, 106, 118–119; anxiety disorders, 206–207; bipolar disorder, 205–206; CBT, theory and treatment of, 200; cultural construction of, 212–213; depression, 6, 14, 19, 54, 62, 99, 118, 151, 191, 203–205; Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM), 199–203, 210; existential perspective, 223;

- limitations of diagnosis, 199–200;
 mood disorders, 203; narrative therapy, 223–224; posttraumatic
 stress disorder, 169–170; Real Men, Real Depression campaign, 204–205;
 schizophrenia, 207–207; strengths perspective, treatment of, 211
- Mezzo practice, 91–92
- Migration, 36, 246
- Mood disorders, 203–207
- Multidimensional approach, 65;
 bio/psycho/social assessment
 diagram, 66
- Narrative therapy: addiction treatment and, 269; challenging hegemonic traits, 285–285; gang members and, 138; health issues and, 197–193;
 Latino men and, 246; mental illness and, 213–214; nine principles of Bringing-it-back practices, 114– 115 externalizing, 110–111
 excavate unique outcomes, 111
 invite outsider witness groups, 112–113
 link to the past and extend the future, 112
 literary means, 114
 position collaboratively, 109–110 thicken the new plot, 111–112 re-remembering practices, 113 older men and, 231–232;
 reauthoring, 109; veterans and, 172;
 violence and, 140–142; work and, 158
- Native American men: cancer, 184; case study of, 89–90; CBT and,
 107–108; cultural factors, 192, 250–252; depression and, 107;
 diversity among, 250; gambling, 263;
 globalization and, 36; health, 192;
 masculinities, 52; narrative therapy and, 115; older Native men, 228;
 practice with, 250–252, 107–108;
 traumatic brain injuries, 172; two-spirit, 244
- Older men: abuse of, 228–229; care facilities and, 227; community and, 229–230; conceptions of aging, 221–
 224; depression and, 226; death and,
 235; retirement, 225; social world of, 224–225
- Oppression, 4, 14, 36, 109, 241–242
- Palliative care, 235–236, 318
- Patriarchy, 31, 42, 130, 284
- Physical health: aging male syndrome, 223–224; cancer, 183–184; coronary artery and heart disease, 182; diet, 188–189; erectile dysfunction, 191, 223; healthy eating pyramid, 189; life expectancy, 181, 221; masculinities and, 180–181; prevention, 181, 184, 190–193; stroke, 182–183
- Pleck, Joseph, 55, 77–78
- Pornography, 41, 262–263
- Postindustrialization, 152
- Posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 167, 169–170; history of, 167–168; six key treatment issues, 170
- Prisons: mental health issues and, 139– 140; racial disparities, 139; substance abuse, 136
- Racism, 241–242
- Rape: men as perpetrators, 135; men as victims, 136; prisons, in, 136

- Rational Emotive Behavior Therapy (REBT): ABCDE method, 105; awfulizing, 106; creative use of, 106–108; demandingness, 106; global evaluation of self, 106; low frustration tolerance, 106
- Relationships and men, differences, compared with women, 74–76; divorce, 74, 84–85; families in, 77–79; fathers as, 79–80; friendships, 85–86; gay marriage, 84; gay men, relationships of, 84; partners, as, 83–85; styles of, 75; son, as, 81–83
- Reproductive health, 8
- Resiliency, 16, 32, 67, 84, 116, 278–279
- Retirement, 66, 163, 225, 280
- Saleebey, Dennis, 12, 116–118
- Schizophrenia, 200, 207–209
- Secondary traumatic stress (aka compassion fatigue), 174–175
- Sexism, 31, 42, 44, 296
- Sexual addiction (aka sexual compulsivity), 261–263, 308; cycle of, 201
- Smoking, 182, 187–188
- Soldiers, 135, 166–171
- Stage theories, 47–48, 58–59; Erickson's theory of development, 59–63; Levinson's theory of development, 63–64
- Stereotypes, 53, 55, 97, 242, 277, 282; Asian American men, 247–248; fathers, 79; Latino men, 38, 245; mental illness, 213; older men, 220–222
- Stoicism, 51, 54, 76, 83, 97, 115, 279–280
- Strengths perspective, 11–13, 116–119; Latino men and, 246; mental illness and, 211–212; Native men and, 251; six core principles, 116–118
- Stress, 108, 142, 182
- Substance Abuse, 259–260; alcohol abuse, 260–261
- Technology, social isolation, 41; internet and addiction, 258–262; internet and communication, 40–41
- Transgendered men, 244–245
- Transmigration, 246, 287
- Twelve-step programs, 265
- Unemployment, 33, 150–151
- Values: congruence with practice, 11, 15, 50, 95, 104, 242, 250; dignity, 7, 9, 117, 127, 156, 192, 223, 235, 265; freedom, 11, 13, 60, 119, 122, 227; hegemonic men, of, 51, 61, 98, 122–123, 156, 205; self-determination, 11, 14, 138, 204, 252, 285; social work, of, 84, 95, 154, 235; worth, 180–181; See also ethics
- Veteran Affairs, United States Department of, 168–169, 172–174
- Veterans: physical health problems, 171–172; posttraumatic stress disorder and, 169–170; traumatic brain injury (TBI), 169
- Violence: Batterers intervention programs, 131–132; CBT and, 130; feminist approaches, 130; gangs, 131–132; men as perpetrators, 128–135; men as victims, 127–128; patriarchy and, 129–130; primary prevention of, 132; research, 130; sexual assault, 128–131; types of violence, 128–138; violent crime, 133–135

War, 165–169; End of “The Great Depression,” 34; Vietnam War, 35; World War II, 43

Work: dangerous work, 154–155; employment assistance programs (EAPs), 159–160; firefighters, 155; job training programs, 159–161; Marxist views of, 151; meaning of, 151–152; policemen, 155; role of, 151–154; working-class men, 230, 237

Yalom’s therapeutic factors:
corrective emotional experience, 94–95; imparting information, 94; instillation of hope, 93; universality, 94