

Acknowledgments

■ I would like to thank the following friends and colleagues for reviewing sections of the book and for their support during the writing process: Richard Salsgiver, Alice Johnson, John McNutt, Jane Yamaguchi, Serge Lee, and Jane Middleton. Betty Garcia and Jackie Mondros contributed helpful comments about the contents of the manuscript. I would also like to acknowledge the following friends and mentors: Dr. George Hemmens (University of Illinois–Chicago) and Dean Richard Ford (California State University, Fresno, deceased).

I am very grateful to my editor, John Michel, for his help and support. Thanks to Paul Schmitz for his diligent efforts at proofing the early drafts and checking Web addresses. Wei (William) Dai, MSW, conducted much of the original Internet research for this book. I would also like to thank Sherrill Clark and the California Social Work Education Center (CAL-SWEC) for funding the curriculum project that led to the development of this book.

I would also like to thank the following community groups and organizations that assisted my professional development and provided me with a wealth of material for this book: the Hyde Park Kenwood Community Conference, the Hyde Park Tenants Organization, the Illinois Hunger Coalition, the Independent Voters of Illinois—Independent Precinct Organization (IVI-IPO), Metro Ministries (Fresno, CA), the Fresno County Medi-Cal Outreach Project, the Hmong Suicide Prevention Task Force, the Association for Community Organization and Social Administration (ACOSA), and the political campaigns of Toni Preckwinkle (Chicago City Council alderwoman) and Emily Carasco (Windsor, Ontario, candidate for Parliament).

■ ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Last, but certainly not least, I want to thank my MSW graduate students in formal organization and community practice courses. You have inspired me!