AA, see Alcoholics Anonymous (AA)
AASWG, see Association for the Advancement of Social Work with Groups (AASWG)
Abandonment, 238–41, 256, 454; consequences of, 7, 118
Abell, M. L., 608–9
Absenceism, 160
Abstinence, see Alcoholics Anonymous (AA); Drug abstinence groups
Abuse, see Childhood abuse; Sexual abuse; Spousal abuse; Substance abuse
Abuse of elderly, see Elder abuse
Acceptance: nonjudgmental, 54
Accountability, 607; for abusive behavior, 257; of nursing homes, 520–21; social worker’s, 518–19; and support, 370
Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS), xi, 25, 97, 430, 552–53; AIDS advocacy, 255; case illustrations, 258–59, 260–61, 264; group formation for, 258–59, 588; information sessions, 5, 214–15; and life cycle dislocation, 9; and medical procedures, 259; methods of transmission, 250; mortality rates, 250; mutual aid function as lifeline, 250; pandemic, 249; stigma of, 76; substance abuse and, 43, 266, 423; support groups, 3, 43, 249; survival response, 249, 254; testing, 215; themes for discussion, 256–57, 260; treatment modalities, 255; withdrawal of treatment, 253; see also People with AIDS (PWAs)
“Acting out” behaviors, 160, 325
Activities, 148, 383; in abuse survivors’ groups, 304, 310; historical emphasis on nature activities, 12; in homeless shelter, 388–91; in post-trauma group, 148–50, 152, 155–56; preteen group, 175, 178–79; as source of healing, 145; see also Arts therapy and activities
Adaptive responses, 14, 168
Addams, Jane, 536, 579, 580
Addiction: biopsychosocial effects of, 423; perspectives on, 424, 426; physiological masking, 427; protective factors against, 429–30; see also Substance abuse
ADHD, see Attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)
Adolescence/adolescents, xii, 79; developmental tasks of, 220, 587; as foster children, 55, 69–70; HIV infected, 598–99; identity and separation crises, 379; institutionalized, 7, 220–23; mutual aid groups for, 11, 12, 85, 225–26, 588–89; as parents, 9; search for identity, 7, 230; in single-parent families, 449
Adolescent girls: developmental tasks of, 204; group arrangement for, 11–12; group worker’s adjustment to, 93–94; pregnancy, 77, 205, 214, 425; profiles and behaviors, 85, 225–26; in residential treatment center, 225–26; in urban schools, 203–19
Adoption agencies, 86
Adoption issues, 51
Adult development: theories of, 169; central endeavors, 427; resilience and vulnerability, 249; theories of, 353–55
Advocacy: group focus on, 418
Advocacy Committee of the Connecticut Coalition to End Homelessness, 394–95
Affect, 54, 65, 321; expression of, 341, 342
African American(s), 174, 203, 536; AIDS patients, 260–61, 267; group workers, 266; mental illness and, 536, 537; single mothers, 374, 375; slavery experience of, 14
After-school care, 374
Aged/elderly: and change, 508, 520–30; and commonality, 528–29; dependency, 500; depression and, 499; disabled, 495; disease prevention and, 494; existential nature of their lives, 174, 495–96, 496, 509; meals and mealtimes, 510, 520–21; and mental illness, 536, 537; older cohort (over 75), 597; programs for, 589; resident floor group discussions (see Resident floor group); residents in public housing, 78; vulnerability, 499–500; see also Aged/elderly mentally ill; Visually impaired elderly
Aged/elderly groups: sharing, 306–7, 487–91
Aged/elderly mentally ill: cooking group, 524; death of services for, 564; living arrangements, 545–46
Ageism, 494, 542; among elderly, 482, 483; and institutional life, 499
Agency context, 172–74; bereaved children, 119–26; community mental health system, 543–45; exclusion criteria, 365, 544; inner-city adolescents, 207–10; inner-city preadolescents, 165–68; institutionalized adolescents, 224–25; long-term care facility for institutionalized aged, 502–9; for mentally ill older persons, 543–45; open door and closed door policies, 410; partner abuse groups, 359; people with AIDS, 254–55, 269–70; post-trauma children, 143–45; services to blind or visually impaired, 476–77; shelter systems, 380–81; single-parent groups, 452–53; structured group format, 326–27
Agency for Children’s Services, 423
Agency (ies): admissions and discharges, 76–77; family friendly, 410–11; waiting lists, 96
Agenda, selection of, 50
Agendas, hidden, 92–94
Aggression: in spousal abuse, 363; verbal, 145
Aging: cultural and environmental aspect of, 495; decline in physical and mental functions, 8; definitions of, 493, 495; and life cycle, 473; physical, 494; in place, 546; studies of, 493–97; tasks of, 379, 496–97; and unchangeable stressors, 542; women’s group, 433
Agoraphobia, 140
AIDS, see Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)
AIDS Action Committee, 259
AIDS walk, 590
Akabas, S., 590
Alanon, 429
Alcohol abuse, 9–10, 429
Alcoholics Anonymous (AA), 266, 269, 429, 583, 585; group dynamics in, 608; HIV/AIDS emphasis in, 255
Algeria: racial and economic issues, 13
Alienation, 170, 426; psychopathology of, 15–16
“All-in-the-same-boat” phenomenon, 124, 127, 125, 449, 454, 574
Altruism, 20, 591
Alzheimer’s disease, 509
Ambivalence (theme), 59, 60–61, 554–56; traumatized children, 141; visually impaired elderly, 472, 477
Ambulatory aids, 499
American Psychiatric Association, 295
Amputation, 77
Anger: and bereavement, 118; at bereavement, 133–34; of child abuse survivors, 312–13; childhood roots of, 436, 451; displaced, 142, 313–14, 344; expression of, in therapy, 51–52; fear of destructive potential, 313; and group termination, 192–95; management of, 62, 79, 324, 442–43; men and acknowledgment of, 325; parents of disabled children, 401, 416; safe ways to express, 331, 386; and sexual identity, 313–14; single parents and, 55–56, 454, 463–64; toward group leader, 64, 69, 192, 312–13, 321, 341, 443, 558–60; toward separated friends, 458; transference of, 321, 344–45; types of, 52; and unresolved issues, 345; women and acknowledgment of, 325; see also Rage
INDEX

Anonymity, 221
Antagonism: in abuse group, 338
Anthony, E. J., 17, 223
Anthrax scare, 141
Antle, B. J., 258–59, 588, 598–99
Anxiety, generalized, 140, 145, 295, 536, 598
Apartheid, 14
Apathy, 152
Appel, Yetta H., work with adolescents, xii
Appraisal support, 475
Approach-avoidance pattern, 525, 554–55
Arizona, University of, 606
Arrested development, 267
Arts therapy and activities, 124–26, 296; artistry, individual, 38; drawing pictures of childhood homes, 562; group session example, 125; journals and creative writing, 431, 445; letter writing, 441; mask activity, 125, 134–35; poetry, 435; T-shirt themes, 152–54
Assault, within family: recognized as crime, 352
Assertiveness: and longevity, 523; in social situations, 466
Assessment and interventions: bereaved children, 129–36; death of a child, 10; death of a parent, 115; death of a sibling, 114–15; developmentally disabled children, 405, 407; with preteen group, 169; visually impaired elders, 479; see also Interventions
Assessment instrument, 420
Asset building, community, 597, 604–5
Assigned services, 95
Assisted living facilities, 546
Association for the Advancement of Social Work with Groups (AASWG), 607, 609–10
Attachment theory, 437, 586
Attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), 410
Attributions: role in recovery from traumatic experiences, 18
Auslander, G., 475
Authoritarianism, 221
Authority, parental, 440–41
Authority relations, 39, 73–74, 294, 310, 425; ambivalence toward, 180, 235–36; member-to-leader, 64–65; in preteen group, 171; in work of the group, 63–65, 234–35
Authority (theme), 44–45, 272–73, 455, 556–60
Autism, 410
Autonomy, 6; effect of childhood abuse on sense of, 290; in preteen group, 178–80; vs. privacy, 13
Avoidance behaviors: in people with AIDS (PWAs), 258, 268, 274, 278; post-trauma, 145–46, 151; in survivor groups, 321; in women's substance abuse group, 433–34
Baltes, M. M., 495
“Baptism of Fire” (music), 315
Barnett, Samuel, 579, 580
Basic Behavioral Task Force 1996, 18
Battered women, 14–15, 27, 76; see also Spousal abuse
Becker, F., 589
Behavior: intervention groups, 365–66
Behavior: acknowledgment of, 365; bravado, 170; deviant, 11, 75; disruptive, 134, 211; high-risk, 205; limits set for, 176; patterns, 68; problems, 419; regressive, 451; self-destructive, 55, 325; violent, 363–66
Behavioral change focus, 79
Behavioral expectations, 407
Bender, E. I., 584–86
Bennis, W. G., 63, 64, 524, 553
Benton Hill Project, 589
Bereavement: and guilt, 118; as stressor for elderly, 542; and suicide, 121–23
Bereavement groups (children), 79, 113–36; developmental tasks and issues in, 113, 120; group rules, 126; group structure, 41, 84, 120–24; Healing Hearts, 113; mixed ages in, 114, 121; questions on funerals, burials and rituals, 131–32
Betrayal: and authority figures, 294
Biculturalism, 201
Big Sister, 238
Binney, E. A., 494
Biological determinism, 482
Biomedicalization of aging: as “social construction,” 494
Bion, W., 553; “fight-flight” construct, 22, 274, 278
Biopsychosocial transitions, 165, 423
Bipolar disorder, 365, 546
Biracial families, 142
Birnbach, D., 225
Birnbaum, M. L., 609
Birth control, 434
Bisexuality, 600
Blenkner, M., 473
Blindness: and being homebound, 475; stereotypical ideas about, 474; see also Visual impairment
Bloch, Judith S., 419, 420
Blood transfusions, 250
Boarding schools, 16
Body image, 292
Body language, 174
Bogeyman, belief in, 116
Bonding, violation of, 14–15
Boston, Massachusetts: population statistics, 207
Boston University School of Social Work, 208
Boundaries, spatial, 11, 85
Bowlby, John, 437
Bowman, R. L., 606–7
Bowman, V. E., 606–7
Boyfriends, 236–37
Brain imaging, 296
Brenton, M., 603
British Columbia, Canada, 359, 452
Bronfenbrenner, Uri, 404
Browne, A., 294
Buddy system, 431
Bulham, H. A.: on oppression psychology theory, 14, 15–16
Bulletin board systems, 606–7
Bureaucracy, organizational, 10
Burial, 131
Burnside, I. M., 484, 490
Buros Institute of Mental Measurements, 420
Butler, R. N., 483
Cain, C, 608
Cameron, P., 483
Camp: for bereaved persons, 120–21; for blind adults, 476
Cancer-patient groups, 79
Caplan, G., 583
Caregivers, 546; establishing relationships with, 497; HIV/AIDS patients, 256–57; loyalty to, 498; paid, and family, 601–3; support groups for, 256–57, 263; young elderly as, 600
Caribbean students, 203
Carlson, B. E., 167, 168
Caseloads: group development from, 95
Case-management services, individual: for mentally ill aged, 543
Case-management services, individual: for mentally ill aged, 543
Catchment areas: in child welfare agency, 88
Cath, Stanley, 473
Caucasians, 174
Cause, commitment to: psychological benefits of, 80
Census data: on single mothers, 6; as source of recruitment, 96
Central files: and recording systems, 96; as recruitment source, 96
Chardarelle, J. A., 588
Charity Organization Society, 578
Chat rooms, 607
Child, death of, 10
Child abuse registry, 424
Childbirth, 401, 435
Child care, 87, 374, 451
Child development: advancement of, 404; and bereavement, 120; collaborative efforts on, 400; developmental growth, 165; frozen, 293; hyperactivity, 18; stage theories of, 587
Childhood abuse, background to addictions, 266–67
Childhood abuse, sexual: adult survivors of, 290
Children: affordable day care for, 420; at-risk, 424; coping with death of parent, 17–18, 70–71, 113–16, 117, 142; coping with traumatic disaster, 140; disabled, living at home, 405; egocentrism of, 115–16; group development and, 582; influence of observed family violence, 352; major developmental tasks, 141–42; mood disorders in, 602; mutual aid groups for, 588–89; need for spatial boundaries, 85; out-of-home placement, 423; questions about death, 115–16; relations with teachers and peers, 7; school crises and, 84; special needs, 410; in urban schools, xii, 203–19; see also Bereavement groups (children)

Children’s groups, art activities, 124–26
Children’s residential center, helper principle in, 684

Choices, making, 20, 123, 220, 486

Chronic illnesses, 498, 601–3

Chronic mentally and developmentally challenged individuals, 83

Clan, as self-sufficient unit, 577

Class discrimination, 425, 580; see also Discrimination

Classroom bullying, 217

Client population, 430

Clients: evaluation of, for private counseling, 298; feedback, 92; hospitalized, 10–11; respect for, 76, 299, 358; self-referred, 327; sexual orientation of, 597, 599, 600

Client satisfaction survey, 330

Client strength, 60

Cliques, 159, 173

Closed groups, 507

Code-word game, 156–58

Co-facilitation, 310, 599, 600; see also Co-leadership

Cognitive stage, 165, 167–68

Cognitive support, 445, 487; and dependency, 483

“Cog wheeling” (Erikson), 6

Cohen, M., 524

Cohesion, relatedness and mutual aid, 155–36

Co-leadership, 86, 299, 335–36; see also Co-facilitation

Collaboration, 89; advancement of child development, 404; with co-leader, 266, 271; with established authority, 92–94; as organizational strategy, 92–94, 518

Collective consciousness, 604

Collective strength, as stage of group development, 526–27

Collective support, 74–75

Colonial America: mutual aid in, 577–78

Comfort objects, transitional, 306

“Coming out” issues, 599–600

Commitment, strength of: to mutual aid groups, 97, 257

Committee involvement, 91

Commonality (common ground), 237–38, 528–29, 554–56, 592; aged/elderly mentally ill group members, 554–56; homeless shelter residents, 392; and specific operational tasks, 75

Community action groups, 582

Community agencies, 96, 477, 503

Community organization, history of: three early periods, 582

Community rebuilding, 604–5

Community resources, 142, 430, 597

Companion Program, 589

Competence (theme), 91, 142, 390, 549, 557

“Complex PTSD” (Herman), 196

Compromise: as defensive option, 16

Computer-based group work practice, 606–7, 608–9

Computer groups, legal issues, 607

Computer technology, 88, 96

Concentration camp experiences, meaning in life and, 496

Concrete operations stage (Piaget), 167

Condoms, demonstrations, 215

Conduct disorders, 140

Conduct reorganization, 585

Conferences and symposiums, 91, 374, 579, 606, 609

Confidentiality issues, 44–45, 209, 272–73, 297, 334, 605–6, 607; in short-term single-parent group, 453; for HIV/AIDS groups, 256, 269–70; in RTC sessions, 234–35; in school-based groups, 144, 147; violation of confidentiality, 88

Conflict resolution, 406, 605

Conflicts: in abusive families, 363; intercultural and interpersonal, 209
Confrontation: in mutual support groups, 24; of sexual abusers, 315–17; in violence group, 364; without shaming, 363
Congress, E., 495
Connecticut state programs: Security Deposit Program and Rental Assistance (RAP), 295–96; shelter programs in, 375, 394–97
Consciousness raising, 376
Constructive conflict, 159
Constructive strategies: for improved relationships, 416
Consultations, 91, 404
Containment skills, 50
Contemporary group practice, 597; client populations, 597–604
Content analysis, 524
Contracting agenda (working contracts), 42, 46, 86, 309; bereaved children, 79, 113, 121; early adolescent groups, 212–13; people with AIDS in substance abuse recovery, 270–72; post-trauma children, 147; preteen group, 175; sessional contracting, 49–50, 51; shelter residents, 385, 386; single-parents group, 453–55; social worker’s role, 175–76, 385, 520, 530; trust issues, 432–33
Conversations, methods of handling, 456–57
Coping, 586; with developmental disability, 401–3; development of mechanisms, 291–92, 297; group session on, 412–13; with loss, 473; maladaptive, 3–4, 403; mechanisms in elderly, 500, 501; strategies, 136
Core skills, xii, 38–39
Correctional facility, see Prisoners
Costin, Lela, 590
Cottage parents, 234–35
Counseling: follow-up, 370, 468; individual and group, 298, 299; nondirective skills for, 584; for parents of developmentally disabled children, 404; for short-term group members, 452; for spousal abuse, 353–354, 359
Counselors, 266, 357, 358
Counterculture, 581
Countywide community mental health system: agency context, 543–45; criteria for participation, 544
Cowan, C. M., 497–98
Cowan, P. A., 497–98
Coyle, Grace, 581
Crack cocaine, 424, 430
Cranston, K., 600
Credit ratings: gender discrimination in, 66–67, 449, 464–65; see also Mortgages
Cremation, 131
Criminal justice system: changes in perception of assault crimes, 352
Crisis situations, 168, 251, 478–79
Criteria: restrictive, 544
Crying, 62, 240–41, 242, 355
Crying chair, 65
Culture: cultural determinism, 482; cultural identity and pride, 207, 213–14, 218; group culture, 27; norms and values of, 206
Curfew issues, 30–31
Cursing: preteen group, 180
Cutrona, C.E., 542
Cytomegalovirus, 252
Dane, Elizabeth, 418
Danger-sensing antennae, 297
Darwinism, 249
Data analysis, 607–8
Data sharing, 65–68, 529
Day treatment programs, 537, 543
Defenses, 291, 336
Defensiveness, 40, 68, 460
Dementia, 252, 483, 494
Democratic/collective process, 92, 97, 605
Denial, 44, 48; in children's reaction to separation and divorce, 451; confrontation of, 5; of HIV/AIDS, 250; as social act, 485

Dependency, 3, 39, 63, 473, 483; adaptive, 549; in institutionalized aged, 499, 500; of visually impaired elderly, 474–75

Depression, 380, 384, 387, 518; in children of single parents, 451; depressed patients' group, 81; in the elderly, 8, 499, 518; major, 140; in parents of developmentally disabled children, 401; in single separated and divorced people, 454; and social isolation, 499, 543; of trauma group members, 152

Detachment, and empathic understanding, 97

Determinism, cultural and biological, 482

Detoxification, 267

Developmental cycles, 8–9, 9, 427

Developmental disabilities, 400–20; definition, 419n2; see also Disabilities

Developmental disorganization, 292

Developmental issues: in AIDS treatments, 250–54; of bereaved children, 113–17; and homelessness, 379; for latency-aged children, 141–42; in substance-abusing recovery, 267–68

Developmentally disabled child, adjustment to birth of, 401

Developmental stages, 166–67; distortion of, 291–92

Development, cognitive, 115–16

Deviant behavior, 11; reinforcement in some groups, 75

Dewey, John, 21, 579

Diabetic groups, 79

Diagnoses and misdiagnoses, 295, 544

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders of the American Psychiatric Association 1992 (DSM-III-R), 402, 538

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders of the American Psychiatric Association 1995 (DSM-IV), 295, 296

Dialectics, 528; debating and, 22

DiClemente, C. C., 43–44, 267

Differences, understanding and managing of, 211–14

Differentiation, as stage of group development, 526

Dignity, sense of, 473, 482–83, 561, 565, 592

Direct meaning, 43

Disabilities, 7; developmental, and attainment of equilibrium, 400; identification and classification of, 406; visual impairment, 471; see also Developmental disabilities; visual impairment

Disabled aged population, stigmatization of, 495

Disabled children, 401, 403, 406, 413–16

Disasters, 10, 139–62, 603

Discipline, true meaning of, 442

Disclosures: optional, 336; personal control of, 268, 490; reasons for, 326, 344; of sexual exploitation, 294; trauma group, 152, 159

Discrimination, 585; chronic, xi; financial, 450; gay men and lesbians and, 599; racial, 9; against same-sex families, 7; against single-parent job seekers, 449–50

Disempowerment, see Empowerment

Disengagement, under stress, 11

Disequilibrium, in adjustment to institutional life, 504

Disillusionment, with group, 331–32, 340

Disintegration, of group, 80

Disruptive behaviors, 134, 211

Dissociation, 341, 343

Distancing, adaptive, 19, 402

Distrust, see Trust

Diversity, 143, 152–54, 554

Divorce, see Separation and Divorce

Doctors, role in groups, 86

“Doorknob therapy,” 454

“Double crisis” concept (Miranda), 168

Double jeopardy: preteens in, 165
INDEX

Dreams and nightmares, 161
Drug abstinence groups, 423
Drug abuse: paraphernalia sharing, 250; and social status, 76
Drug addiction, parallel experience of, 97
Drug prevention programs, 429
Drug rehabilitation: family court and Agency for Children’s services guidelines, 423
DSM-III-R (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders of the American Psychiatric Association, 1992), 401, 538
Dual purpose group, 270–71
Dutton, Don, 355
Dwelling, 378
Dynamic circle exercise, 605
Dysfunction: reinforced by commonality, 80–81

“Each one, teach one,” 431
Early adolescent groups, 210–14
Early adulthood, 353–54; tasks of, 354
Early childhood development, see Child development

Earthquake, 10
East End (London), 579
Ecological concepts (perspective), 5, 573, 586–87; units, 590
Economics, 373; economic deprivation and inequality, 9, 13, 170, 373, 430, 450, 499, 542; economic support, 452, 577; fixed incomes, 542; income and financial security, loss of, 473; women, economic rights of, 465
Edell, M., 598
Education: for disabled children, 418; focus, 220, 418; limited, 542; opportunities, 388; programs as protective factor, 380; see also Schools
Educational organizations, 10
Ego boundaries, 426
Egocentric world view, 116

“Eight Ages of Man” (Erikson): “Intimacy versus Isolation” stage, 354
Elaboration skills, 50–53; from general to specific and from specific to general, 24, 53, 67–68, 459, 516
Elder abuse, 498–99
Elderly, see Aged/elderly

Electronic Meeting System (EMS), 606
Elmhurst General Hospital Senior Program, 589
Emery, O. B., 564
Emery, P. E., 564
Emotional isolation, 609
Emotional support, 475
Emotions, involved in mourning, 115–18, 120–23, 485
Empathic skills, 53–57, 97, 218, 589
Empathy, 48–49, 97; anticipatory, 97; as expression of caring, preparatory for confrontation and demand, 54, 276; with self, 302
Empirical research, 591, 608
Employment, 480, 449–50
Employment groups, 60
Empowerment, 309, 313, 375, 392, 575; for at-risk populations, 597, 598; and disempowerment, xi; homeless women and children, 394–97; “I am the mother,” 441, 442; individual and group, 216–19; of institutionalized elderly, 501; parents of disabled children, 403, 404, 407; political, 396–97; of women, 604–5
Empowerment groups: activism of, 394–97; facilitation of, 588
Empowerment practice, 443–46
Empowerment theory, 204, 211, 302

“Empty nest syndrome,” 76
EMS, see Electronic Meeting System (EMS)
Energy, violation of, 14–15
English as a Second Language (ESL), 471
Entitlements, 88
Environmental forces, and feasibility issues, 90
Environmental pressures, 10–12, 89
Environmental stressors, 77–78
Environmental support systems, 206; and resiliency, 543, 564
Environments, maladaptive, 542
Epigenetic stages of development, 6, 167
Epston, D., 363
Erikson, Erik H., 6, 166, 167, 169, 252, 355; model of human development, 426–27; theories of adult development, 354–55

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
Estes, C. L., 494
Ethical issues, and computer groups, 607
Ethnicity: acceptance of differences, 142; and aging, 495; ethnic neighborhoods, 207; ethnic strife, 597, 603; minority group children, environmental and contextual risk factors for, 168
European immigration, 16
“Everyone but me” phenomenon, 339
Ewashen, C. J., 604
Existential nature of life, 174, 495–96, 509, 565
Expectations: list of, 97; and responsibility, 459–60
Experience: questioning the reality of, 115
“Expert power,” 65–66
Exploitation, 13–14, 427
Expressive arts therapies, 296, 304
External supports, 206
Facilitative confrontation, 321, 364–66, 367–68; see also Work, demand for (facilitative confrontation)
Facilitators, 306, 309–10, 331, 335, 601–2
Fadem, P., 495
Fahlberg, V., 222–23, 224
Failure, sense of, 421; as parents, 459, 461
Failure-to-thrive syndrome, 437
Fairness, 361–62
Families, 577; adaptation to disabled child, 400–2; attributes and resources, 206, 223, xi; biracial, 142; classifications, 448; customs in, 214; dealing with developmental disability, 406, 413–16; death of child and, 588; dysfunctional, 12; dysfunctional behavior patterns, reversal of, 404–5, 421–26; grandparents and relatives roles, 424; interfamily mutual aid network, 405–6; intergenerational drug use in, 428; normal ideal, 461; parental substance abuse in, 423–26; perception of themselves as clients, 404; primacy of, 405; relationship and communication patterns in, 18–19, 230; same-sex, 7; stress-levels in, 171; structure and living arrangements, 6, 214, 224; support during grieving process, 119
Family caregivers, 597, 602
Family court, 426; drug rehabilitation and education requirements, 423
Family empowerment perspective, resilience-based approach, 418–19
Family equilibrium and adaptation, transitions in, 411, 449
Family metaphor, 582
Family of origin issues, 293, 357
Family service agencies, 429
Family therapy, 225
Fanon, Franz, 3–4; five aspects of alienation, 15–16; theory of oppression psychology, 13–16, 22
“Farewell party syndrome” (Schwartz), 70
Fathers: drug addiction and, 423–24; withdrawal from disabled child, 401
FBI, statistics on sexual assault, 290
Fedele, N., 280, 302, 308
Federal educational policy: for children with disabilities, 418
Federal regulations: on research methods, 608
Feedback forms, 135, 136
Feedback, reaching for, 43
Feelings: acknowledgment of, 324–25, 365, 387, 486; dealing with, in pursuit of purpose, 55, 485; and emotions, sharing of, 58–59, 132–35, 485, 489–91; entitlement to, 126; indirectly expressed, 460–61, 516; in male life crises, 253; managing, 135; reflecting, 584; taboo expression of, 133; trusting one’s own, 57; what to do with them, 134–35, 483–84
Female heads-of-households, 374
Feminism, 290, 604
Feminist theory, 302; contribution to adult developmental theory, 427–28
Fight-flight construct, 16, 22
Financial issues, see Economics
Finkelhor, D., 294
First meetings, 41
Five P’s (Parent/Professional Preschool Performance Profile), The (assessment tool, VCLC), 407–8
Fixed space, 11–12
Flight, as defensive option, 16
Focused listening, 50
Follow-up counseling, 370, 468
Fookes, I., 502
INDEX

“Force-field analysis” (Lewin), 88
Ford, A. B., 495
Forman, M., 506
Foster care, 55, 238–39, 426; conflicts with, 437–40; history of, 437; recruitment for group services, 96
Foster Grandparent Program, 589
Four-tier program, 380, 394
Friaiber, Selma, 442
Frail elderly, 445, 547, 546, 589; and size of community meetings, 84
France, racial and economic issues, 13
Frankl, V. E., 20, 496
Freire, Paulo, 604–5
Freud, Anna, 437
Freud, Sigmund, 8
Fried, M., 503–4
Friendly Societies (17th c.), 578
Friends/friendship, 231; learning how to make, 166, 392, 466; maintaining, 466–67; and mentally ill persons, 542; supportive, 169
Fristad, M. A., 602
Function: clear sense of needed, 31; statement of, 5
Functional clarity, 29, 31–32, 574
Functional diffusion, 28–28
Funerals, burials, and rituals, group discussions on, 116–17
Galinsky, M. J., 524, 606, 608–9
Gang behavior, 80–81, 207
Ganley, A., 354
Gardner, J., 362
Garland, J., 524, 526, 553
Garvey, A., 223
Garvin, C., 425
Gay and lesbian rights movement, 599
Gay men, 599; and AIDS, 249, 251, 258, 260–63
Gay Men’s Health Crisis, 249
Gelinas, D., 295–96
Gender issues, 32, 66–67, 167, 423, 603
Generic social work, 573, 581
Genuine expression, importance of, 53–54
George, L. K., 527
Geriatrics, 493
Germain, Carel B., 39, 219, 586–87; four steps for development of empathic understanding, 96–97; on “social goals model,” 581–82
Gerontology, 493, 494
Getzel, George S., 3, 4, 254
Gitterman, Alex, 39, 120, 208, 219, 302, 329, 448, 575, 577, 586, 587; four steps for development of empathic understanding, 96–97; on protective factors, 498; on resiliency, 564; on “social goals model,” 581–82; theoretical model of work, xii
“Glass ceiling,” 15, 449
Glass, L., 302
Goals, 431; contracting process and starting, 41, 120; and functions, 10; individual, 303, 304; latent, 10; mutual, 445
Goffman, E., 503
Goldberg-Arnold, J. S., 602
Gordon, R., 589
Graduation ceremony, 444
Grandparents, 424
Graphic language, 322
Grassroots organizing; community development models, 582
Greens, C., 208
Greer, P., 208
Grief and grieving, 127–29; differences in, 119; and guilt, 114–15; hidden, 125; for lost opportunities, 545, 547–48; resolution of, 71; as result of repressed anger, 314–15; in stages of bereavement (children), 117–18, 117–19, 451; unresolved, 18
Grievances, 387
Group: agency and private practice, 297; autonomy within, 12; buffer against institutional life, 506; composition of, 80–82; diversity and homogeneity in, 81–82, 554; duration of, 82–85; institutional ownership of, 89; interactions, 327; interactions outside of, 334–35; ownership of problems, 309–10; preparation and planning skills, 20, 38, 77; relationships and strengths in, 441, 574; rules, 331–35; scheduling, 124; school-based, 144; short-term, for single parents, 448; small vs. large, 85; social action focus, 77; stability of membership, 263; time-limited, 330–31; as unit of analysis, 608; use of agency services, 506; see also Mutual aid; Mutual aid group...
Group after the “group,” 310
Group culture, creation of, 259, 410
Group development: approach-avoidance to, 554; decision making, 149–50; patterns of, identifying, 523; relational model, 302; stages of, 67–71, 303–5, 524–28
Group dynamics, 47–48, 63–65, 565
Group formation, 43–44, 71; case illustrations, 80, 81–82; initial stage, 145–46, 258–59; internal/external organizational concerns, 77; as microcosm, 74; physical setting for, 85; preparation for, 96–98, 97–98, 256; process, 120–23, xii; staffing, 86–95; tasks, methods and skills, 71, 73–98
Group language, 41
Group leader: authority of, 39–40, 73–74; goals, 22; skills, 452; transference and, 64–65, 298–99, 321, 344–45; see also Authority relations; Social worker
Group meetings: for AIDS survivors and for substance abuse, 43–44; sexual abuse survivors, 51–52; single parents dealing with feelings of rejection and with child-care issues, 55–57
Group members: as part of own solutions, 557; recruiting of, 95–96; stages of response, 43
Group norms, 149–50, 178
Group participation: acknowledgment of, 281; as mutual aid inhibitor, 483–85
Group poem, 435
Group processes: full participation in, 481–82; pioneering work on, 52; vs. content, 462
Group purpose: developing a common, 270–72, 528–29; and mutual expectations and obligations, 41–42; necessity for clarity in formation of, 75; residential treatment group, 228; restatement of, 275
Group services: and healing process, 299–300; implementation of, 95; in managed care context, 87; points of entry, 77; for traumatic events, 77; uneven and discouraging outcomes, 75; for visually impaired elderly, 471–77
Group sessions: beginning phase, 336; frequency and duration of, 84; time scheduling of, 84
Group size: appropriate for members’ needs and communication styles, 85; and objectives, 84; relation to group objectives, 565
Group structure, 43, 70; interpersonal obstacles in, 12–13, 487; modifications in, 95
Group work: contemporary practice, 597; contemporary trends in, 597–98; method for sexual abuse, 320; as protective factor, 204, 206; rationales for, 209; skills, 18, 145
Group worker(s): clarification of function, 28; spontaneous reactions, usefulness of, 37–39
Guidance counselor, 143
Guilt, 6, 451; emergence of, in discussions, 68, 461, 462; in mourning situations, 118; and remorse, 364; self-blame and, 439, 461; sexual abuse survivors, 321, 325; in twelve-step modality, 269
Gutheil, I., 495
Guttered, L., 604–5
Halfway housing, 392, 589
Hammond, C. T., 542
Hammons, K., 606
Handicaps, see Developmental disabilities; Disabilities
Harrington, E., 302
Havighurst, R. J., 221
Healing process, 299–300; and anger, 314; and group activities, 145; mutual aid support groups, 4; in remembrance and mourning, 299, 301, 303; role of groups in, 299–330, 334, 435–36; safety in, 299–301; sexual abuse and, 300; stages of, 299–303; transitional comfort objects used in, 306
INDEX

Health: concerns about, 441–42; decline of, 542; psychological health, 473;
Health care issues, 444, 549–50
Health care services, community, 503
Health insurance, employment-based: decline in access to, 374
Health organizations, 10
Hearing loss, 483; and communication, 481
Helpers, 237, 404, 575; children as, 431;
“helper therapy” principle, 583–84, 684;
parents as, 684; teenagers as, 588–89
Herman, Judith, 296, 299, 301–3, 303
Hidden agendas, 31, 41, 65–66
High-risk groups: protective factors for, 18, 587
Hill, Octavia, 580
Hirayama, H., 587
Hirayama, Kasumi K., 587
Hirschl, T. A., 373
Hispanics, 174
HIV/AIDS: client populations with, 597,
599–600; support groups for, 598–99; teleconferencing support, 606; vertical transmission of, 598
HIV (Human Immunodeficiency virus),
441–42, 588; see also Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)
Ho, M. K., 584
Hofmeyr, L, 605
Holidays: as emotional catalysts, 133, 271
Home: dictionary definition of, 378; responsibilities of, 400
Home for the aged, 503; see also Long-term care facility; Nursing home
Homelessness, 9–10, 373, xi; four-tier solution, 380, 394; institutionalized, 373; and mental illness, 378, 381; parallel experience of, 97; profound impact of, 378; protective factors, 380; as public issue, 375; risk factors for, 379–80; statistics on, 374; and women and children,
373
Homeless shelter: networking in, 392; teaching/helping role in mutual aid groups, 391; transient population in,
388; working with transient populations in, 388
Homeless shelters: design for functionally specific, 393; discussion groups, 382–83; lack of services in, 381–82; population and problems of, 380–81; proposals for improvement, 393–94; staffing structure, 393
Homeless shelter system: as cause of homelessness, 396
Homeless women, 575–76; open-ended cooking group for, 524; wide age range, 379
Home/School Collaborative Model (HSCM),
400, 407; gestalt of, 405–6
Homogeneous groupings, 393, 554
Homophobia, 599; in violent men, 354
Homosexuality: social status, 76; stigma of,
76, 322–23, 536
Honesty, 335, 463–64; in sharing of thoughts and feelings, 58
Hope, 79–80, 387, 493, 501; and mutual aid groups for aged, 507
Hopefulness, 500
Hopelessness, 499
Horizontal peer staff involvement, 87
Hospice program: children’s bereavement group, 119, 120
Hospital social workers, 600; delivery of direct services to people with AIDS
(PWAs), 255
Housing, 577; affordable, 373, 375, 380; group, 269; low-income, 373, 375, 429;
low-income purchase programs, 450; options, 386; restricted options for single parents, 450
Housing projects, 589, 590
HSCM, see Home/School Collaborative
Model (HSCM)
Hull House, Chicago, Illinois, 556
Human development: model of, 426–27
Human Immunodeficiency Syndrome
(HIV), 250; see also Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)
Human Rights Commission, 465
Hurley, D. J., 213
Huxley, Thomas, 249
Hyperactivity, 18
Hypersexuality, 551
Identification: and belonging, 84; component of empathic understanding, 97
Identity: confusion, 8, 499; violation of,
14–15, 221–22

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
Identity development: and psychological defense, 16, 230
Imagination and creativity: defined as “acting out,” 168
Immigrants, 16, 76, 142; social networks for, 78
Impoverishment, see Poverty
Inappropriate feelings, discussion of, 23
Incarceration, see Prisoners
Incest, 295–96
Incest survivors: case studies, 311–13; importance of women’s groups for, 302; self-forgiveness, 303
Incompatibility with group, case illustration, 82
Incontinence, 544
Independence, 546, 557; from family, 200, 222, 456; and living accommodation, 267, 542; vs. compromise and cooperation, 175
Indirect expression, 39–41; during group meetings, 50, 460–61, 516; in groups, 39; on taboo subjects, 51, 553
Individual capacity, 206
Individual causation, philosophy of, 579
Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 419
Individual therapy, 303–4, 327–29, 347
Industrialization, 577; and group association, 592
Industrial Revolution, 578
Infancy, 426
Infantilization, 481, 549
Informal organizational structures, 89, 91, 383
Informal support, 475
Informed consent, 608
Initiative, 6
Inner lives: individual maintenance of control over, 27
Insecurity: in “macho” definition, 354
Institute for Women’s Policy Research, 374
Institutional food, 77
Institutionalization, 8, 503; effects of, on the aged, 498–501, 504–5; of group services, 87; infants and young children and failure-to-thrive, 437; of mentally ill aged persons, 542–43; settlement houses, 173; totality of, and nursing home residents, 503
Institutionalized adolescents, 221–23; relationship with families, 237–41; risk factors, needs and support, 244
Institutionalized elderly: characteristics of group experience for, 508–9; intimacy vs. authority in mutual support groups, 73; mutual support groups for, 48, 49, 493; and “successful aging” template, 495; tasks of, 497; see also Aged/elderly; Institutionalization
Institutional living: inherent features of, 221, 530–31; vision of life in, 496
Institutional review board: approval for data research, 608
Institutional supports, 500
Insults and name-calling, 187–89
Intake procedures: complexity of, 10
Interdependence, 574
Interdisciplinary setting, 86
Intergenerational cooperation, 6
Internet, see Computer technology
Interpersonal processes, 73, 84; illustration of, 90; maladaptive, 12–13; skills, 28, 38; stressors, 78
Interventions, 28; appropriate methods, 84–85, 479, 487; basis of, 33–34; to bolster social relations, 379; effectiveness of, 218–19; for group cohesiveness, 177; need for, in group dynamics, 47–48, 485; with preteen girls, 165–68, 173; in schools, 208–9; sharing hurt, 240–41; short-term group, 209; during terminating process, 193–94, 200; in unconventional settings, 590–91; see also Assessment
Intimacy (theme), 214, 303, 427, 564; and authority struggle, twin dynamics of, 310, 560; fear of, 355, 467; issues in survivor groups, 307–12; member-to-member, 64; priority of, 560–61; in relationships, 8; as stage of group development, 525–26; in work of the group, 303; in work of the group (group dynamics), 63–65, 73, 182–83, 273–81, 388, 455
Irizzari, Carol, xii
Isolation, 170, 194, 292, 323–24; homebound elders, 79; of mentally ill aged persons, 536, 542; social and emotional, 76, 77–79, 221, xi
Issues, developmental, see Developmental issues remembered by aged/elderly, 507, 515; responses to, 480–82, 503–4
Loss of family: and risk of institutionalization in elderly, 499
Low-income families, 10–11
Low-income housing, 373, 375, 429
Luken, K., 606
Lustbader, W., 497
Lyman, K. A., 494
Lynn, Maxine, 139, 588, xii
McFarlane, A., 296
Macho ideal, 354
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI), 249
Maier, H., 221
Maladaptive patterns, 75, 268, 278; social networks and, 11
Maladaptive responses: to sexual victimization, 322
Male conditioning, 369
Male-female co-facilitators: for men’s behavior-intervention groups, 368–69
Male identity issues, 41, 323; loss of control, 253
Malekoff, A., 204, 206
Male sexual abuse survivors: abused by mothers, 323; fear of becoming an abuser, 324; and isolation, 324; stigma associated with, 323–24
Malter, S., 514
Mandated client, 425
Man Searching for Meaning (Frankl), 20
Marathon groups, 605
Marginality, 165; of disabled elderly, 495
Marriage, 587; discussion regarding, 40; postponement of, 9; strains on, 413–16; as a transition, 76
Married couples group, 21–22, 63–65, 455; last minute “doorknob” issues, raising of, 48
Martinique: racial and economic issues, 13
Martin, V., 601
Masten, A. K., 223
Mastery, development of sense of, 291
Maternal prescriptiveness, 171
Maturity, 8
Mead, G. H., 21
Meal preparation: and authority themes, in aged/mentally ill group, 558–60
Meaning: of life, 495–96
Mediation: client/bureaucracy and client/family, 393; concept of, 573–74; function of mutual aid in, 3, 387; between group members, 5, 30, 48, 564; between homeless women and system, 393; mediating structures, 587–88; between residents and staff, 45–46; in women’s homeless shelter, 393–394; see also Interventions
Medicaid patients, outpatient hospital group services for, 88
Medication: side effects of, 542
Medications, for mental illness, 542
Medicine, modern: AIDS as challenge to, 252; language of medical profession, 575; medical care for elderly, 499
Meditation, 304
Meeks, S. 542
Meier, A., 603
Memory: and mementos, 129; in preadolescence, 168; repression of, 329
Men: and acknowledgment of anger, 325; developmental tasks and issues, 353–54; inclusion in mutual aid group for abuse survivors, 320–49; masculinity issues, 320–49; senior center groups for, 471–72; violence in intimate relationships, 352
Mental health services: clinics, 430; lack of, in public school, 143; unmet needs, 499
Mental hospitals, 584
Mental illness: in aged/elderly population, 499, 536; among homeless adults, 378; children at risk for, 424; chronic, 544; diversity in onset, symptomatology and functional impairment, 554; and homeless-shelter population, 381; mutual aid groups for, 499, 536; risk factors for, 537, 542; and social status, 76; stigma of, 9–10, 564; traumatic disaster and, 140; and welfare reform, 374
Mentally ill aged persons: board and care facilities for, 544
Mentally impaired adults: group session planning for, 84
Mentally retarded adolescents, 588
Mental patients: adaptive dependency and, 543; creation of rapport with, 74; difficulty establishing friendships, 542; discussions, examples of, 546–47, 548–50, 551–53, 555–56, 559, 560, 563; and size of community meetings, 84

Mentors, 429

Methadone programs, 428, 430, 437, 441

Middle-class children, 31–32, 169

Miller, Alice, 171–72

Minimum wage issues, 374, 375

Minkler, M., 495

Minority groups, xii

Miranda, Manuel, 168

Mishne, Judith M., 204–5

Mistakes, learning function of, 40

Mistrust, see Trust

Mixed age groups, 114–15, 121

Mixed-sexes support group: facilitation of, 320

Mobility, violation of, 14–15

Moffat, P., 600

Moment of silence, 483, 485, 489

Mood disorders, 602

Morbidity: increased risk for in institutions, 498

Mortgages: difficulties for single persons, 450; see also Credit ratings

Mothers: of disabled children, 401; drug addiction and, 423–24; relationship with their single children, 458

Motivation: questioning of, 75; and self-interest, 177

Motor coordination, 167

Mourning, 18; in ending phase of group, 69; grief and anger expressed in, 118

Moving on, 71

MRI, see Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)

Multidisciplinary team, 600

Multifamily therapies, 602; parents as helpers, 684

Multimodal therapies, 196

Murder, 216–17, 693

Mutual aid, 80; to achieve dignity and respect, 385; for addicted parents, 423; atmosphere in abuse group, 309; and childhood trauma, 436; and the elderly, 471, 493, 501, 536; empowerment-oriented groups, 382, 604–5; as force for mastering the environment, 74–75; fostered by group artwork, 159–60; group selection for, 78–80; historical roots of, 577–78; home/school networking, 405–6; for job and educational opportunities, 388; obstacles to, 544, 561–65; for people with AIDS, 249; process, meaning of, 302; related conceptualizations, 583–93; schizophrenic women, 536; in senior centers, 471; as symbiotic striving, 254; and technology, 605–7; and vulnerable adolescents, 165, 203, 220; and vulnerable children, 123, 139; see also Group Mutual Aid: A Factor in Evolution (Kropotkin), 249

Mutual aid and technology: advantages and disadvantages, 607; computer-aided groups, 606–7; telephone groups, 605–6

Mutual aid effect, multiplying of, in homeless shelter, 390–91

Mutual aid group: distribution of roles, 562; encouragement of participation in, 482; facilitation of, 588; for mentally ill, 536–37; for mentally ill persons, 544; open and closed, 507; parenting skills, 425–46; for resiliency of older institutionalized persons, 298; role of mediation, 3, 4, 29, 30, 386, 403, 513–14; for single parents, 449; for women living in shelter programs, 377

Mutual aid programs, professional planning in, 588–91
Mutual aid support group model, 4, 23–24, 31–32, 39, 48, 49, 266, 310, 379, 493, 528; and confrontation, 218; death as weakening of, 478–79; and empathic support, 23–24, 30, 31–32, 39
Mutual aid system: process of development, 230–31; in residential treatment situation, 231; school-based, 206
Mutuality, 302
“Myth of non abuse,” 322
Nagasaki, bombing of, 587
Narcissistic personality disorder, 427
Narcotics Anonymous, 266, 269, 429; HIV/AIDS emphasis in, 255, 258
Narrative therapy, 357
National Conference of Charities and Corrections, 579
National Institutes of Health, 499
Native peoples (U. S. and Canada), 14, 16
Natural friendship group, 165, 173; description of, 174; personal strengths, 174
Natural helping, 591; classifications of, 591
Natural life processes, relational and communication patterns in, 78
Natural resources, 12
Natural Supports Program, 589–90
Neeman, L., 549
Negativity, 60–61
Neglect of elderly, 498; see also Elder abuse
Negotiation skills, 198–99
Neighborhood: decline of, 581; social work methods in, 590
Neighborhood schools, 170
Neo-Freudians, 169
Networks: drug-oriented, 11; for support of single-parent families, 451
News groups, 607
Newspaper advertising, 120
New York City: homelessness in, 577; homeless shelters, 381–82, 394; municipal shelter, 377; senior centers, 471–72; substance abuse agencies, 450
New York City Board of Education, 140
Nietzsche, Friedrich, 496
Nightmares, 116, 295
9/11 disaster, September 11, 2001, see World Trade Center disaster (New York City)
(9/11 disaster, September 11, 2001)
Nisivoccia, Danielle, 588, xii
Noah’s Ark Syndrome, 450
Noblesse oblige, 580
Nonverbal cues, 50
Norling, J., 584
Normalization of experience, 113, 114, 330, 334
Normative conceptualizations, 6
Normative settings, community-based, 587
“Not only one” principle, 299, 329
“Novice Phase” of development (Levinson), 354
Nunamaker, J. F., 606
Nurses: role in patient groups, 86, 92–94
Nursing home, 475; Dietary Department, 510, 511, 513; environmental and personal variables, 517; environment as stressor, 506; fears of placement in, 546; as microcosm, 509; resident floor group efforts for change in, 503, 507–9; resident-staff relationships, 513–14; see also Long-term care facility
Nurturing, 378
Obesity, 7
Observation system, categorized, 52
Obstacles: dealing with, 63–65; detecting and challenging of, 29, 487, 529; revealed by discussion, 27
Obstructionism, 483–85
Oklahoma City bombing, 140
Older elderly (over 75), 597, 600–1
“One more chance,” 512
Online support groups, 603
Open door policy: vs. closed door position, 410
Open-ended groups, 83, 507, 524
Opportunistic diseases, 252, 256
Oppression: coping with, xi; impact of, on human development, 293–94; internalization of, 293–94; psychology of, 13–14; risk factor for mental illness, 537; six indicators of degree, 14–15; surviving, 168
Oppression psychology theory, 3, 13–16
Organizational climate: creation of responsiveness in, 87–88; environmental forces affecting, 88, 89; receptivity of, 90–91

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
INDEX

Organizational transitions, 76–77
Orientation groups: purposes of, 85
Orlando, N. J., 584
Orr, Alberta L., 49, 59, 589
Ostracism, 89
Out-of-home placement, 423
Outpatient hospital group services, 88
Outreach programs: response to institutionalization, 173
 Outsider, feeling of being an, see Alienation
Overcompensation, 440
Overprotection, 481, 482–83

Paid caregivers, 602
Pain: of rejection, 237–39; of separation from children, 438; shared, of institutionalized adolescents, 237; sharing of denial of, 48; single parents and, 55–56, 454, 463–64; toleration of, 359
Pandya, V., 608
Panic attacks, 536
Papell, C. P., 581
“Paradox” theory, 308
Parallel experiences, 97
Paranoia, 14
Paraplegic veterans, 514
Parasitism, 80
Parent education groups, 79, 423
Parenting in Recovery (PIR), 426, 430–31, 443–46
Parenting skills, 6, 25; for addictive parents, 423; as protective factors, 380; work with fathers on, 427–28
Parenting skills group, 425, 430–46
Parents: abusive, 205, 442; addicted, 436; children helping, 431; of children in bereavement groups, 123; of developmentally challenged children, 77; and failure to protect children from abuse, 329–30; loss of, 118; marital status of, 448; non-custodial, 450–51; as participants and partners, 405–7; socioeconomically marginalized, 170; substance-abusing, 423–46; and teenagers, 22
Parents, addicted, 423
Parent support groups, 418
Parents Without Partners, 79, 585
Parent-teen discussion group: importance of social worker mediation, 30
Park, D. N., 588
Parsons, R. J., 205
Passivity, 500, 557; bar to longevity in institutional life, 523; in institutionalized aged, 504
Past, continuity with, 545
Patel, G., 693
Patient decisions: implementing of, 68
Patient-to-patient relationships, 584
Peer group: acceptance, 231; aged, 372, 392; explorations and support (same-sex), 142; help with family problems, 237; interactions and associations, 166, 220, 477; mutual aid in, 209; rejection by, 7
Peer networks, in senior centers, 471, 477
Peer pressure, 608
Peer relationships: in adolescence, 166, 222; in nursing homes, 507; supportive, 224
Peer staff involvement, 87
People with AIDS (PWAs): approach-avoidance behaviors, 258, 268, 274, 278; dysfunctional proclivities, 253–54; family caregivers, 602; group work with, 264, 269; HIV negative (serodiscordant) partners of, 599; older adults, 251–52; resilience of, 253, 254, 268–69; see also Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)
Performance baseline, 407
Personal “buttons,” 170
Personal growth groups, 356
Personality development, 582
Personal needs vs. family responsibilities, 450
Persuasion, as organizational strategy, 94–95
Peters, A. J., 599–600
Peterson, M., 496
Phases: of separation process, 433–55
Phases of group experiences: beginning, 129–32, 274; ending, 135–36
Philanthropy, 578
Physical assaults, 77, 209
Physical freedom: loss of, 474
Piaget, Jean, 115, 166, 167
PIR, see Parenting in Recovery (PIR)
Plymouth, Massachusetts, 577
Polarization, 375
Political activism, 376, 394–97
Polksy, H., 221, 237
Polysubstance abuse, 266
Pomeroy, E. C., 601–2
Poor Law (England, 17th c.), 577
Population statistics, 207
Pornography, 61, 344
Position paper, example of, 444
Post-trauma group: avoidance behavior in, 145–46, 151; collective experience, 158–60; composition of, 144–45; group discussion examples, 146–47, 149; posters, 158–60; radio station activity, 155–56; Road to Conquest Map, 158
Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 10, 140; amongst homeless population, 378; in families of developmentally disabled children, 401–2; inner-city children and, 10; sexual abuse survivors and, 295, 296, 322
Poverty, 142, 577, 578; correlation with family structure, 448; and families headed by women, 6–7, 373; as predisposing factor for substance abuse, 428; in single-parent households, 449–50; as stress factor, 17; surviving, 168
Powell, D. R., 410
Power and control (power imbalance), 309, 335, 503, 506, 558, 604; institutionalized aged and caregivers, 507, 525; post-trauma group, 147–48, 156
Powerlessness, 9, 10–11, 204, 295; and associated bitterness, 465; and institutionalized aged, 499
Practice models, 40–41, 297
Practice principles/skills, 40, 41, 554; in work with visually impaired elderly, 478–79, 481–83, 488; see also Social work practice
Preadolescents: confronting racial differences, 185–92; developmental tasks and issues, 165–68; isolation and alienation of, 170; see also Preteen group
Preaffiliation, 303
Pregnancy(ies): adolescent, 77, 205, 214, 425; and substance abuse, 223, 433–35; unplanned, 434
Prejudice, against elderly people, 494
Premature agreement: and collaborative effort, 93
Premeeting chatter, 454–55
Prenatal substance abuse, see Pregnancy(ies)
Preoperational thinking, 115–16
Prescriptive training programs, and artificial responses to clients, 53–54
Pressures: parental and peer, 31–32; from parents to children, 31–32
Preteen group: adaptability of, 169; issues of color and race, 189–92; moving on, 197–201; natural friendship group, 165; resilience of, 169
Primary group, formation of, 391–93
Principle of minimum intervention (Kahn), 479, 546
Prisoners, 9–10, 97, 266, 590
Privacy, 11; respect for, 334–35
Private charities: and social changes, 578
Private practice, 297–98
Private social work practice, money issues, 297–98
Probationers, 9–10
Probation officers, 358
Problems: externalization of, 455
Problems in living: formation of mutual aid groups around, 544, 554
Problem solving, 43, 142, 560, 602; individual and collective, 528; in mutual aid group setting, 24–25, 347–48, 602
Problem swapping, 271
Prochaska, J. O., 43–44, 267
Professionalism, 42–43, 57, 58, 403, 404
Professional jargon, 42
Professional practice, 57, 96, 493, 588–91
Professional service delivery model, 404
Program and policy change, 393–94
Programmatic innovation, 88
Progressive education movement, 578
Projective identification, 291
Prostitution, 266, 294, 344
Protectionism, 88–89
Protective factors, 17–20, 142, 206, 223, 587; for avoidance of addiction, 429–30; compromised, in developmental disability situation, 403; defined, 403; in early adolescents, 205–6; for elderly nursing home residents, 498, 500–1; in high-risk situations, 18, 587; at key turning points,
Relocation, forced, 503–4
Remembrance and mourning: in healing process, 299, 301, 303
Reminiscence group activity, 490, 548–49, 601
Remotivation groups, 601
Rental Assistance Program (RAP) (Connecticut), 395, 396
Repression: of abuse memories, 329
Resident floor group, 507; counsel delegates and food-related concerns, 510–11; discouragement of, 513; group meeting discussions, 508, 509, 512–14, 519–23; range of issues discussed, 507
Residential detox program, 267
Residential living: coping with, 231–32
Residential treatment center: coping with daily life, 230
Residential treatment center (RTC), 220–21; opportunities offered at, 220–21; problem-solving groups and, 225–26; purposes and functions of, 224
Residential treatment group: adolescent girls in, 225, 226; beginning tasks of, 228; control vs. protections in, 229–30; members as advisors, 232–34; obstacles encountered, 229; work of, 230–31
Resilience, xi, xii, 3, 586; and adaptive functioning, 4; in adolescents, 205–6, 240; in "at-risk" children, 586; in children, 114–15, 120–22; definitions of, 17, 223, 254, 497–98; in the elderly, 3; of elderly persons with disabilities, 495; in families of disabled children, 403; family, 405; and homeless women and children, 378, 380; in late-life mentally ill people, 536–37, 564; of people with AIDS (P WAs), 253, 254, 268–69; in preadolescence, 169; and protective factors, 117–19, 168–74; 268–69; see also Vulnerability
Resiliency theory, 587
Resistance, 60–61, 62
Respect, 358, 361
Responsibility: appropriate assignment of, 314; for bad events, belief in, 116; false sense of, 294; for past mistakes, 442–43; in self-help groups, 585; for violent and controlling behaviors, 357–58, 363
Restraint, theory of (Jenkins), 357–58
Reverberation: empathic understanding and, 97
Reynolds, Bertha, 581
Rights, legal: fighting for, 66–67; ignorance of, 11
Risk: as component of vulnerability, 17, 364; definitions of, 497–98; factors, xii; and intimacy, 355–56; mutual aid as buffer against, 573; and protective factors, 218
Risk factors: for adult abuse survivors, 327; for children in residential treatment, 223; in early adolescents, 205–6; for elderly institutionalized, 498–99; for elderly mentally ill, 541–43; fear of loneliness, 465–66; mediating mechanisms for, 403; for preadolescent girls, 168–74; for substance abuse, 428–29; for vulnerable children, 142–43, 294
Rittner, B., 606
Ritual burning, 315
Ritual observances, 483, 485, 489
Rockefeller drug laws (1980s and 1990s), 424
Role delineation, 8, 42, 43, 86, 504
Role models, 425
Role-playing, 57, 68, 394, 395, 430; and confrontation, 457; foster-care agency visit, 438–39; on sexuality, 215; in single parent group, 460, 464
Rothman, B., 581
Rounds, K.A., 606
Rowe, J., 494–95
Rubin, A., 601–2
Rubin, M., 589
Rules: children's group, 126; mandatory, 46; setting, 148
Rutter, M., 587
Sadness, theme of, 390
Safety: classroom, 211; within the group, 309; in healing process, 299–301
Safety net, economic, 373
Same-sex families, see Families
Sanctions, organizational, 87, 95
Sanford, 292
Saporito, J. W., 599
Sarvimaki, A., 496
“Satisfaction in giving satisfaction” (Sullivan), 166

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
Scapegoating, 12, 28, 82; dealing with, in the group, 29–30, 563–64; history of, 29, 563
“Scared, brave, and safe” posters, 156–58
Schatzow, Emily, 302, 303
Scheduled time, 544–45; potential consequences of, 84
Schiller, Linda Y., 3, 4, 51, 302, 320, 327, 328, 329, 334, 336, 524, 560
Schizophrenia, 85, 536, 543, 564
Schools, 144, 225; classroom disruptions, 217; completion of, 20; dealing with World Trade Center disaster, 139–40; demographic and academic risk factors in, 17; failures, 427; poor grades in, 141, 143; psychoeducational groups in, 215; school system management plan, 207–8; transitions in, 76; see also Education
Schopler, J., 524
Schulz, M., 497–98
Schwartz, William, 577, 590–91, 591–92; “demand for work” concept, 279; on group definition, 21, 75, 224, 302, 575; on individualism, and loss of human dignity, 592–93; on mediation, 29; mentoring contributions of, 4–5, 31, 38–39, 55, 443, 497, 528; on mutual aid function, 254–55; on peer group, 506; on private and public social work issues, 375; on rediscovery of concepts, 573–75; on social symbiosis, 21, 377
Screening, 123, 227–28
Seasons of a Man’s Life (Levinson), 353
“Second client,” see “Two-client” idea
Secrecy, 427; intertwining of sex and, 294
Secrets, 62, 333; sharing of, 290
Security Deposit Program (Connecticut): lobbying for reinstatement of, 395–96
Self: concept of, 13, 90; feminine and masculine aspects of, 354; fulfillment of, 574; and identity, 6, 7–8; self-definition, 6, 7; transcendence of, 496; and well being, 500
Self-abusive behavior: open discussion of, 333–34
Self control, 585
Self-determination, 144
Self-esteem, 390, 436; and grieving, 118; lack of, 18, 55, 169; schools and, 170; sexual abuse and, 295, 325; threats to, 401
Self-help: in abuse group, 309; in colonial America, 577–78; concept defined, 584–85; effectiveness of, 585–86; and empowerment, 375–76; see also Mutual aid
Self-help group movement, 583, 584–86; history of, 585; mutual aid groups rooted in, 445
Self-image, 3–4, 294; of addictive parents, 426; negative internalization of, 13–14
Self-interest, 89, 177
Self-respect, 370
Self-worth, feelings of, 18; challenged by HIV disease, 251; mental health and, 542
Semi-fixed space, 11
Senile elderly, music reminiscence group, 79
Senior centers, 471–72, 477, 589
Separation and divorce, 8, 429, 448; attitudes of friends after, 450; children’s emotions involved in, 451, 462–64; financial issues, 464–65; status loss in, 76
Separation anxiety, 116, 140, 437, 439
September 11 disaster (9/11), see World Trade Center disaster (New York City)(9/11 disaster, September 11, 2001)
Sessional tuning in, 39–41, 48–49
Settlement movement, 98, 429, 578, 579–80, 587; history and purpose of, 172–73
Seventh-grade girls: mutual aid groups for, 210–11; see also Preteen group
Sex education, 79, 181–82, 551–53
Sexism, authority attitudes of, 425
Sexual abuse, 9, 10, 77; and authority figures, 323; confrontation of abusers, 315–18; differential effects for men and women, 322–25; dynamics of, 313–14; early, 196; family, 293, 326, 576; feeling responsible for, 339; feelings of loss and bereavement as result of, 332; and healing, 300; identification of perpetrator, 304; long-term consequences, 322; male victims of, 322–25; mutual aid group for both women and men, 320–49; not caused by the victim, 324; ongoing, 300; sensitive aspects of, 327–28; see also Childhood abuse
Sexual abuse group(s): challenges faced in, 324–25; composition of, 299, 327–30; statement of purpose, 304

Sexual abuse, survivors of: private practice work with, 297–98; protests, 26; trauma theory and, 293; women’s groups, 3, 4, 290, 320

Sexuality and sexual relationships, 39, 294; acceptance of, 220; in the elderly and mentally ill, 551–54; group discussions of, 62, 216; in institutional setting, 222, 230, 236–37, 551; medication effects on, 531; preteen girls, concerns of, 171, 182–85; as taboo subjects, 23, 40, 41, 171, 182–83; traumatized, 294; unprotected sex, 250; see also Sexual abuse

Sexually transmitted disease, 294

Sexual orientation: alternative, 599–600

Shame, 6, 9, 170, 269, 297

Shapiro, Joan, 590

Shelters, see Homeless shelters

Sheppard, H. A., 524, 553; on group dynamics, 63, 64

Shield, R. R., 527

Short-term groups, 82; for single parents, 452–53; for women, 303, 317–18

Shulman, Lawrence, 302, 327, 355, 502, 527, 574, 577, 586; on obstacles and scapegoating, 561–62, 563; purpose statement for semivoluntary AIDS/Substance abuse group, 43; theoretical model of work, xii

Shyness: size of community meetings and, 84

Siblings: participation in same groups, 148

Silences, exploration of, 52–53

Single leadership, 335–36

Single-parent families: adolescent children in, 449; homelessness and, 373; protective factors, 451–52

Single parents, 6–7, 55–56, 142, 448; and children, 459–65; necessity for childcare assistance, 87, 450, 451; pain and anger of, 55–56, 454, 463–64

Single-parents group, 66–67; purpose of, 453; summary of short-term social-work practice, 467–68

Single room occupancy hotel, 590

Situational groupings, 592

Six indicators of oppression, 14–15

Skilled nursing facilities, 252

Skills in social work practice (professional tasks), 42–43, 63–65, 484, 486, 491, 528–30; assisting with transitions, 67–71; dealing with resistance, 60; dealing with silences, 52–53; elaboration, 50; mediating function of, 48, 514; problem-solving, 142; putting feelings into words, 97

Skovholt, T. J., 583–84

Slavery: as paradigm of oppression, 14

Slavson, Samuel R., 582

Small group dynamics, 573, 581; research on, 607–9

Smith, C., 167, 168

Snack time, 124

Sobriety, 300

Social developmental focus, 79–80, 141–42

Social deviance, 424

Social discrimination, 174

“Social goals model” of group work, 581–82

Social group work: major influences on, 578–79

Social isolation, 473, 598; case study, 408–9; HIV infected individuals, 598; see also Isolation

Social networks and resources, 10, 11, 78

Social reform, 77, 393–94, 574, 578, 604–5; challenging of social and health systems, 4; group organization for, 387–88; lobbying against violence vs. women, 352

Social service agencies: delays and postponements, 10

Social service organizations, 10

Social status: devaluation of, 9–10; stigmatized, 9–10, 76

Social support: definitions, 583; and mental and physical health in aged, 500; protective factors, 143

Social work: coherent theoretical approach as guide to practice, 573; interface with trauma theories, 293; mediating role and “third force” function, 377, 387, 513, 574

Social work diary or log, 173; Miss D.: 227–37, 238–41, 242–43; people with AIDS and substance abuse groups, 260–84
Social worker: bereavement group work, 131–32, 136; collegial support, 321, 340, 348; core skills, 38–39, xii; educational resources for, 609–10; as educators, 48; emotional support for, as member of mutual aid group, 486, 557; group relations, loyalty and trust in, 235, 519; hands-off approach, 334; institutional reality vs. commitment to innovative service, 418; in interdisciplinary settings, 86, 266, 271; isolation from clients, 194; mediating function of, 4, 28–34, 29, 48, 386, 513–14, 564, 574; neutrality, 514; nursing home issues and, 507, 517; personal life problems of, 127–29, 457; recipient of anger and resentment, 321; at residential treatment center, 226–27; role negotiation and clarification, 28–29, 82, 175–76, 179–80, 235–36; self-criticism, 443; sharing of one’s self with clients, 490–91; standing in for mothers, 314; teacher/mentor role, 172, 177, 446; “two client” idea, 48, 341

Social work groups, definitions of, 75

Social work practice: cultural awareness in, 16; dealing with adaptive paranoia, 14; dealing with resistance, 60, 152; details of method, 38–39; eclecticism in, 598; education in computer-based group work, 608–9; function in society, 29; holistic approach, 293; implications for, in work with elderly, 509; interactionist approach, 574, 593; interpretation and confrontation, 190–92; life model of, 586; methodology, 3, 524; open discussion in, 333; principles of, 481–82; as reciprocal model for child and school, 208; rediscovery of concepts in, 573–75; self-determination issues, 144; skills of, 28–29, 38–39, 58, 60, xii; with unattached homeless women, 375, 387; in urban middle school setting, 203–4

Social work programs, group work education in, 608–9

Sodomy, 61–62, 323

Solomon, R., 496

Somatic illnesses, 295

Somer, J., 590

South Bronx, New York City, 588–89

Southeast Asian students, 203, 205

Spark of life, 565

Spiritual practices and personal belief systems, 253, 254, 260

Splitting relationships, 291, 335

Spontaneous group approach, 388

Sports, 142

Spousal abuse: criminalization of, 352; return to, 32

Spousal abuse counseling: compulsory group attendance, 356, 358; expelling hostile client from group, 369–70; following, 370; men’s rationalizations, 356–57; themes explored in, 370

Spouses, former, 462–64

Staffing structure, see Group formation

Stage change model, 267

Stage development theories, 587

Stages of development: concrete operations, 116; epigenetic, 6; in life cycle, 426–28; preoperational, 115–16; transitional, 165

Standardization, 221

Status changes, 76–77; in employment, and dependency, 3; single-family income and, 449; timing of, 77

Status quo, 94, 560–61

Stenbok-Hult, B., 534

Stepparent, 142

Stereotyping, 154, 208

Stevens, L. S., 606

Stigma, 62, 294, 564, 581, 602; of alcoholism, 9–10; attached to substance abuse, 423–24; attached to suicide, 121; coping with, 76; of HIV/AIDS, 251; and male survivors of abuse, 323–24; single-parents and, 449; see also Taboo subjects

Stone Center for Research on Women, Wellesley College, Wellesley, Massachusetts, 302

Story/history telling, 303, 304, 305

“Story without words,” 304

Street, H. P., 602

“Strength-in-numbers” concept, 25–26, 528

Stress, 586; developmental, 76; differing outcomes of, 405; environmental, 10–12; in everyday life, 5–6; hardness, 500; life-transitional, 75–77; marital, 401; physical symptoms, 144; prolonged and cumulative, 17, 500, 542

Downloaded from cupola.columbia.edu
Stress management, 542, 603
Structural location, affecting social worker’s relationships in an organization, 89–90
Structural supports: essential to development and institutionalization, 87; and feasibility issues, 90
Studt, Elliott, 590
Subculture, violent, 388
Substance abuse, 14; and AIDS, 266; among homeless adults, 378; developmental issues, 267–68; and discipline, 442–43; in gay and lesbian population, 599; gender differences, 423–24; in homeless shelters, 381–82; in recovery, 43, 266–67, 300; relapses, 268; risk factors, 428–29; and sexual abuse, 295; subculture, 388; survivors as mentors, 429; see also Addiction
Substance abuse agencies, 430
Substance abuse recovery: ethics of, 442
Substance abusers, parental: failure at central tasks of life cycle, 427; family consequences of, 423; integration of services, 424
Successful aging, 494–95
Suggestion box, 393
Suicide, 253, 258, 295, 452, 458; in gay and lesbian population, 599; group discussions on, 120–22; ideation, 328; stigma of, 121
Sullivan, Harry Stack, 166, 169
Sullivan, R., 599
Superficial closure: and collaborative effort, 93
Support: cognitive, 445, 483, 487, 483; collective, 74–75, 89, 585; emotional, 475; environmental systems, 206, 543, 505; external, 206; from family service agencies, 429; financial, 452; four types of, 475; within groups, 61; identification of sources for, 135; informal, 475; loss of parent, 118; mutual aid model, 23–24, 30, 31–32, 39, 266, 310; see also under Mutual aid; Mutual aid system
Support groups: long-term, for HIV positive mothers, 598; as substitute for absent kin and friends, 252
Support networks, 543
Survival: existential concerns of, 254, 565; of mentally ill older persons, 542; strategies and skills, 254, 297
Survivor groups: for both men and women, 320; confessions, 325; exclusion criteria, 328; mission, 301–2; relationship and intimacy issues, 307–12, 427; structuring of, 328, 330–31; unstructured, 328
Survivors of sexual abuse, see Sexual abuse
Swenson, C. R., 591
Symbiosis, 21
Synanon, 583

Taboo subjects, 22–23, 26–27, 39, 74, 123, 133, 518; in bereavement groups, 116–17; dealing with, in individual sessions, 327–28; in early-adolescent groups, 214–16; and expression of feelings, 133, 390, 528; family secrets, 237; in post-trauma group, 150–51; in preteen group, 182–85; topic of death as, 483, 486–88; see also Stigma
Taft, J., 39
TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families), 373, 374
Task-centered groups, 601–2
Tasks: definition of, 497; mastering of, 6, 7; for survivors groups, 325
Tasks, developmental, see Developmental tasks
T-cell counts, 267
Teachers: white middle-class, 208
Telephone groups, 605–6
Tellegen, A., 223
Tenants’ associations, 77
Terminal illness, 10; family issues in coping with, 3, 120
Termination, group, 303, 418; anger and feelings of loss, 192–95; group worker interventions, 193–94, 200; last session, 307; separate celebration, 310
Terrorism: persons affected by, 597, 603; and post-traumatic stress, 161
Testing behavior: limits and negotiations, 229–30; post-trauma group, 148, 154; preteen group, 176–78; toleration of, 7
Test scores, 208
Themes: common to aged/elderly and mentally ill groups, 508–10, 533–54; see also Work themes
Themes of Defense," counselor training program, 357

“Theory of restraint,” 357

Therapeutic community, 589

Therapy, individual, 303–4, 327–29, 347

“Third force function,” of social work, 377

Thomas, ?, 587

Thomas, M. C., 601

Time-outs, 370

Time/temporal factors: impact on process, 38–39, 82–83, 524; for institutionalized aged, 520–21; scheduled, 84, 544–45; time limits for groups, 83, 330–31; violation of, 14–15

Tobin, S. S., 504, 523

Toffler, Alvin, 592

Tolstoi, T., 583

Torres, S., 495

“Tour guide mentor program,” see Attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)

Toynbee Hall, 579, 580

Training seminars, 411

Transactional analysis, 586–687

Transference, 298–99; of anger and resentment, 321, 344–45; from group to leader, 64–65

Transgender, 267, 271

Transitional living facility, 375–77

Transitions, 13; environmental and interpersonal challenges, 79; in family equilibrium, 411, 449; immigration, 76; in love and work, 8; to new social worker replacement, 195–200; organizational, 76–77; see also Endings

Transportation, 544

Traumas, 77; associated with change, 500; behavioral reactions in children, 145; family issues in, 271; homicide, 77; immigrant histories of, 207; incest, 302; life events, 9, 10, 76; long-lasting effects of, 10; memory imprinting of, 296; need for children’s support groups, 140; post-disaster, 140; risk factor for substance abuse, 428–29

Trauma theory, 293

Travers, A., 599, 600

Treatment modalities: emerging, 296; mandated, 424

Tree planting: symbol for group ending, 160–61

Trimble, Dale, 27, 46

“Troublemakers,” 173

Trust, 6, 54, 166, 176, 370, 426; early development of and violation of, 291; establishing in groups, 180–81, 273, 305–7, 432–34, 519; and intimacy, 561; sharing and, 239; survivor group issues, 308

T-shirt activity, 152–54

Tuning in exercises, 39–41, 48–49

Turner, S. A., 602

Twelve-step programs, 266, 269, 274, 278, 445

“Two-client” idea, 48, 341

Uhlenberg, P., 503

Ultimate question, posing the, 481–82

Unconditional regard, 589

Unemployment rates: and incomplete education, 20

Unions, see Labor unions

Unitas program (South Bronx, New York), 588–89

Universal perspective, development of, 528

Unresolved issues, 18, 345, 348

Upward mobility, 380

Urban ghetto, 590

Urban schools, 203–19

U. S. Bureau of Census: statistics on single mothers, 6

U. S. Conference of Mayors: twenty-seven city survey on homelessness, 374

U.S. Indian children: boarding schools, 16

Validation, 302

Value system, dominant, 171–72; adherence to, 91

Van der Kolk, B., 296

Variety Child Learning Center (VCLC), 400, 419n1, 420n3; orientation program, 406–7

Variety Preschooler’s Workshop (VPSW), see Variety Child Learning Center (VCLC)

Vasquez, H. J., 206

VCLC, see Variety Child Learning Center (VCLC)

Verbal aggression: in post-trauma group, 145

Vertical administration, 87

Veterans Administration hospital, 514

Victim complex, 14
Victimization, 320; affective reactions to, 324–25; confrontation of, 320; graphic descriptions and, 321; realistic perspective on, 324, 329; and sense of injustice and unfairness, 345; and survival, 51–52
Vietnam veterans, 10
Violence: community and family, xi; consequences of, 363–64, 370; reasons for, 216–17; verbal and physical, 370; against women partners, 352–53
Violent behaviors: inventory of, 365–66
Viral load, 267
Vision-impaired elderly: group themes, 478–91
Visual impairment, 471, 472; adjustment to, 476; followed by loss of spouse, 474; rehabilitation services, 474–75; social isolation and, 475; see also Blindness
Visually impaired elderly: community-based services for, 471, 477, 478–91; mutual aid group for, 472, 474; need for group involvement, 476–77; rehabilitation services for, 474–75; using a cane, 475–76
Vocational rehabilitation, 606
Voluntary social services, 582
VPSW, see Variety Child Learning Center (VCLC)
Vulnerability, 223–24, 443, 586; in adults, 249, 467; and aging experience, 537; in children, 114–15, 120–22, 294, 451; definitions of, 17, 223, 497–98, 542; in the elderly, 472–536, 499–500; latency-age life-stresses and, 142–43; in men, 355–59; and mental illness, 537; in reaction to death of a loved one, 117–19; and resilience, 3; risk factors and, 117–19, 542, xii
Vulnerable populations, 499–501; adolescents, early, 205–6; aged mentally ill, 541–43, 564; homeless shelter residents, 380; People with AIDS (PWAs) in substance abuse recovery, 268–69; preadolescent girls of ethnic minority, 168–74; sexual-abuse survivors, 294–97, 326
Wald, Lillian D., 579
Walker, R. J., 601–2
Walsh, Froma, 405
Walter, C. L., 590
War: persons affected by, 597, 603–4
War veterans, 603–4
Wasting syndrome, 252
Wayne, J., 609
“We”: feeling of, 391, 485, 486–87
Web resources, 607
Webster’s Dictionary, 17
Weenolsen, Patricia, 166
Weiner, H. J., 590
Weiner, L. S., 606
Weisaeth, L., 296
Weisman, A. D., 485
Welcome to Holland (Kingsley), 416–17
Welfare: kind and cash, 373; single-parent families on, 450
Welfare mothers group, 21, 25–26
Welfare reform legislation (1996), 374, 376, 450; and mentally ill women, 374
Welfare rights groups, 77, 585
Wheelchair accessibility, 15
White, M., 363
Widows/widowers, 448, 471; social networks for, 78
Women: and acknowledgment of anger, 325; economic rights of, 465; effectiveness as group leaders, 335–36; HIV infected, 598; inclusion in mixed survivors group, 320–49; institutionally reared, 587; rights to safety, respect, and dignity, 352; risks for elderly, 498–99; social devaluation of, 499; see also Credit ratings
Women’s groups: assertiveness training, 292–93; concern with intimacy, 73; for sexual abuse survivors, 290–318
Women’s Mental Health Collective, Somerville, Massachusetts, 303
Women with AIDS, 261, 430; feelings of guilt, 251; see also Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)
Woodroofe, K., 579, 580
Work, demand for (facilitative confrontation), 8, 54–55, 59–63, 127, 175, 274, 275, 279, 434; group members’ anger at, 321; institutionalized aged/elderly group, 508–9, 521–22; in pregnant women’s group, 434; single-parent group, 460, 466; for women survivors of sexual abuse, 303–5; see also Work themes
Worker, see Social worker
Worker-defined goals, 603
Work, illusion of, 61, 454
Working equilibrium, 490
Working parents, 87, 449–50
Workplace: mutual aid concepts in, 590
Work satisfaction, 8
Work themes: adolescent girls group, 225–26; for aged mentally ill group, 545–52, 553–54; art therapy and activities, 152–54; for community-based vision-impaired elderly group, 478–91; confusing reactions and resentments, 338; counselor training program, 357; early adolescent groups, 210–11; enhancement of, 303; facilitative confrontation and, 127, 175, 445–46; historical, 573, 597; institutionalized aged/elderly group, 509–10; meals and mealtimes, 510–11, 520, 558; for parents of developmentally disabled children, 406; peer group values, 360–61; regression to earlier, 346; relationship with friends and family, 456–59; spousal abuse groups, 370; substance abuse groups, 430–31; in young women’s shelter group, 384–85
World Trade Center disaster (New York City) (9/11 disaster, September 11, 2001): group sharing of experiences, 150–51, 155, 156–59; initial effect on children, 139–40; refusal to talk about, 149
World War II, 140, 437

Yassen, J., 302
YMCA, 578
Young elderly (under 75), 600

Zalba, S., 590–91
Zarit, S. H., 589
Zero tolerance, 424
Zimmer, Bonnie, 3, 4, 51
Zook, B., 606